Message from the Rabbi

One of the of the most delightful Jewish holidays is Tu b'Shevat (literally the 15th day of the month of Shevat). You may be asking – what? Which holiday is that? That's because Tu b'Shevat, the holiday of the trees, has never had a primary ritual that all Jews have observed. Chanukah has us lighting the candles of the menorah. Purim has us listen to the Book of Esther. On Rosh Hashanah we hear the blast of the ram's horn. But how do we celebrate the New Year of the Trees? It's murky.

In ancient days Jews brought grains to offer at the Temple in Jerusalem. Centuries later, in Ashkenazic communities it was customary to eat 15 types of fruits with preference given to the fruits of Israel. Then, in the 16th century, in the Sephardic community, under the influence of the Kabbalists of Safed, the holiday observance was given specific form. Nathan of Gaza created a Tu b'Shevat seder modeled after the Passover seder. There were four cups of wine and special prayers to express joy for the bounty of the earth.

Today the Tu b'Shevat seder is celebrated by many Reform Jews. The evening is filled with eating, drinking and making merry. There is a progression of wine servings (grape juice for the children,) that mixes colors from the first cup to the fourth, starting with all white wine and ending with all red, representing the change of the seasons. And there are blessings over many types of fruits – fruits with shells (e.g. etrogs, pomegranates, oranges, grapefruits,) fruits with pits (e.g. dates, apricots, peaches, plums,) and entirely edible fruits (e.g. figs, raisins, strawberries, apples, pear and carob,) each type representing some principle in our mystical tradition. The seder is short, without a long script, a mini-banquet of tastes, not a recitation of historical events. For us the evening will include a great vegetarian feast that will delight both children and adults.

It all happens on Friday night February 10, preceding a Musical Shabbat. The weekly Torah portion that week will describe the Children of Israel crossing the Red Sea. At our Tu b'Shevat seder, our own children will plant parsley seeds and take their little pots home, in order to watch them grow, later to be used for their own Passover seders a few months later. It's going to be a delightful, fun-filled, tasty event for adults and children.

Seating is limited, sign up today.

L'shalom,

Rabbi Katz

Message from the President

I want to thank all of you who came out to our special Congregation Meeting this past Sunday. We had over 125 members of our Dor Tamid Community hear about some new things, listen to the Search Committee's presentation and recommendation and then ask some great questions, and learn about where we are budget-wise and what we all can and need to do to help out.

For those of you that could not make it, here is a quick summary:

- Religious School is selling Mishloach Manot baskets for Purim;
- CDT is holding a "Build Your Roots" campaign selling trees to be planted around CDT;

-Our Gala "A Night on Broadway" will be March 18th. Tickets are on sale now!

-Rabbi Search Update:

-The Search Committee received 17 resumes and after a thorough process that began in May, unanimously recommended Rabbi Jordan Ottenstein to the Board of Directors, which unanimously passed on the recommendation to a Congregational vote. The result of the vote was a 98% approval to ratify the recommendation.

-Financial Update. CDT is really good at some things, but not good at fundraising. We all need to share in the responsibility of fundraising, as our dues only cover 47% of our budgeted revenue. We are announcing a new program, Project 100, which will help our budget by reducing expenses and raising funds for a total of $100,000! Look out for more information on this soon.

Once we have more information regarding our hopeful signing of Rabbi Ottenstein, we will send out some information to the community.

Please do not forget to buy your Super Bowl squares at <https://www.superbowlsquares.org/dt73xq> with a login of dortamid and password of cdt.

Also, buy your tickets for our 2017 Gala!! It will be a great evening.

Remember, CDT is our community!

As always, let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

This is your CDT!

B'shalom,

Rob

January was a busy month for Sisterhood! First, we had a great turnout with over 50 people attending our Mah Jong event. Thanks to Leslie Fox and Lisa Danzig for all of your hard work. This went so well, that we are considering adding another event in the spring.

On Friday, many of our members participated in our annual Sisterhood Shabbat. Thank you to Ruthie Cohen for putting together such a beautiful service that ran so smoothly, Marci Risner and Robyn Jacober for all your help, Molly Peled for your lovely D'var Torah, Rabbi Katz for overseeing everything, Cantor Mike for singing and coordinating all the music, and to all of our Sisterhood members who helped make this a very special evening.

HOMES
AGAINST HUNGER
בתים נגד רעב

Our Homes Against Hunger project launched in May, 2016 with 70 families making a commitment to simply fill up a Teal Homes Against Hunger bag, and have our volunteers pick up the bag at their doorstep or deliver it to CDT. Since then, we've gained more participants and we are approaching 100 families! During our November and January food drives alone, approximately 3500 lbs. of food was collected.

For those of you who haven't signed up yet, the program is simple:

You email HomesAgainstHunger@dortamid.com and let us know you want to sign up.

We give you a Teal bag.

You fill it up with non-breakable, non-perishable food.

We tell you when we are picking it up.

You put it on your doorstep and we exchange a full bag for a new bag.

Our next scheduled pick up is SUNDAY, MARCH 26th! During this next drive, which is Pre-Passover, we will be collecting food for both the Atlanta Community Food Bank and the Jewish Family and Career Services Kosher Food Pantry. So, if you are so inclined to do a bit of Spring/Passover pantry cleaning, consider donating a little extra to feed the hungry!

Thanks to all those participating! If you have any questions, please email HomesAgainstHunger@dortamid.com.

Thank you.

Ask a Professional

As Manager of Intake and Reception at JF&CS, Amy Maslia is the first point of contact for all general information and referral calls that come through the main switchboard. That includes all calls for our Counseling Services group. No matter what someone is looking for, Amy has a wealth of knowledge and resources within the agency and throughout the community at large.

Q: How does the new Walter and Frances Bunzl Family Foundation Clinical Services Wing enhance the service JF&CS provides to its counseling clients?

A: The biggest improvement is to security and confidentiality. It might seem simple, but it is so important. Clients can come in one door and exit through another. That makes it less likely they will run into someone they know walking in or in a waiting room. At the same time, new features in the offices cut down on noise, both in the hallway and office to office, thus increasing privacy.

The space reflects the kind of services our clients always received but now is more true to who we are as a counseling division. We want people to know they are cared for and respected in the space.
