Rabbinic Reflections

Dear friends,

Once again, the High Holy Days have come and gone. We have repented for misdeeds of the past year, seen friends and fellow congregants whom we may not have seen in a while, shaken the lulav and etrog, and danced with the Torahs. So what comes next?

The next Hebrew month on our calendar is the month of Cheshvan, which the rabbis in the Talmud refer to as "Mar Cheshvah," the bitter month of Cheshvan, due to its lack of holidays, especially compared to the previous month. But let me suggest that this coming month could be a "Matok Cheshvan," a sweet month of Cheshvan, and also a time to engage in the synagogue in many new ways.

Just in the next few weeks you will have the opportunity to:

- Come to Shabbat evening or morning services.
- Join our Social Action efforts by "Lighting up the Night" on October 6 in Piedmont Park to raise money and awareness for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.
- Go back downtown on October 14 for the annual Pride Parade.
- Play Mah Jongg with the Sisterhood on October 9.
- Play in our inaugural golf tournament on October 28.
- Come to Torah Study on Saturday mornings at 9:00am or Wednesdays at 11:00am.
- Join us for some fascinating Lifelong Learning discussions on Sunday mornings.

As you can see, there is a lot going on at CDT in the next few weeks, and I hope to see all of you at the synagogue.

Our community is a wonderful and holy thing, and it thrives with the continued commitment and engagement of all of its members. So, I urge each of you to get involved in some way, come to a service or event, and help us make this month with no holidays a truly sweet "Matok Cheshvan."

B'shalom,

Rabbi Jordan

President's Message

I may be just a bit biased, but I believe this year's High Holy Day services were some of the best at CDT. I hope each of you broke your fast with friends or family feeling inspired and even more connected to your Jewish life at CDT. Just one of my personal highlights was seeing many young families so engaged during both of our family services led by Rabbi Jordan and Mike Zuspan. Special thanks to both Dr. Terry Segal and Ruthie Cohen for each leading an enrichment program on Yom Kippur day. I would also like to thank so many who worked tirelessly to organize our services and ensure they ran smoothly: Jackie Berger, Marty Duke, Larry Benator, Penny Blitzler, Art Criden, Rob Lederman, Lesley Radov, Doug Katz, Lisa Danzig, Nancy Mittler, Lisa Oxman, our CDT staff, and our CDT High Holy Day Choir, whose beautiful voices filled our sanctuary.

Not to be overshadowed by the High Holy Days, our CDT Religious School is now in full swing, including the start to our exciting new hands-on curriculum for the middle and high schoolers. I was fortunate enough to attend my daughter's 8th grade class field trip to Ebenezer Baptist Church in downtown Atlanta. While sitting among their congregation for a Sunday worship service (my first at a Southern Baptist church), I had time to observe. As I watched our young teens soak it all in, I thought about how this will surely become a special memory for them. While, in time, they are likely to forget parts of the service, the overall experience and the related topics they will discuss as a class will certainly stick with them for years to come. This is just the first of many trips this class will take to churches, mosques and other synagogues this year in our new 8th Grade Comparative Religion unit. Meanwhile our 7th graders helped out in CDT's Gan Tamid garden as part of their Mitzvot unit, and the 9th grade traveled to the Anne Frank Museum to kick off their unit on Holocaust, Anti-Semitism, and Israel.

If I had a quarter for every compliment I've received about Jodi Rosa's heartfelt and inspirational High Holy Day Appeal on Yom Kippur day, I'd truly be a rich man. Jodi eloquently shared some of her personal challenges as a young person in NY searching for a connection with her synagogue and Jewish life, ultimately finding it here at CDT. Jodi described that without financial donations throughout the year, CDT's budget gets very tight, very quickly. The funds raised through our High Holy Day Appeal directly enable CDT to operate with a balanced budget. We have made donating to the annual appeal extremely easy – just Mail, Click or Come By. You can place a check in the mail, visit CDT's home page (www.dortamid.org) and click on the e-flyer, or stop by CDT and drop off a check or pay with a credit card.

There are numerous programs to mark on your calendar this month. To name a few: CDT Sisterhood is holding a Mah Jongg Fundraiser, the Primetimers are hosting a lunch and tour of Atlanta's Fox Theater, Lifelong Learning will be joining forces with Social Action at the Pride Parade, and CDT will be offering an inaugural golf tournament.

I hope to see you at the upcoming events, services, and/or just around CDT.

B'Shalom,

Dan

Daniel Rosen, President

Cantorial Soloist's Message

Shalom chaveirim - Hello friends!

I hope that you and your families are doing well and are enjoying our autumn weather.

We have just celebrated Simchat Torah. Simchat Torah means "Rejoicing with Torah". This evening, for this joyous holy day, we will take out our Torah scrolls and danced around our sanctuary. We will sing songs, chant the last and first verses of the Torah, and then return the Sifrei Torah (Torah scrolls) to the ark as we sang Eitz Chayim Hi - It is a Tree of Life. One of my favorite parts of our celebration is when we unroll our Torah completely and circle the sanctuary with it. What a sight to behold! The entire Torah, the Five Books of Moses, will be on display — a truly awesome vision.

As many of you are now familiar, this past year we began chanting Torah on Erev Shabbat, Friday night, when there is not a Bar/Bat Mitzvah chanting Torah on the following Shabbat morning. Over the past year, mostly either I or Rabbi Jordan have chanted a paragraph or two from the week's Torah portion, making sure that Torah is always chanted for our community to hear on Shabbat. Lately, I have begun to have discussions with some of you about opening up the chanting of Torah to members of our congregation. In the process, I have discovered that some of you would like to chant Torah but are not sure that they remember enough from their Bar/Bat Mitzvah preparations to chant now, as adults. Others of you have never chanted Torah but would very much like to learn how.

Out of this desire, I will begin teaching adult Torah chanting/reading lessons beginning in the coming weeks. I know that many of you are at very different levels of Hebrew knowledge. Whether you don't know the difference between an Aleph and a Bet, can read Hebrew fluently but know nothing about chanting, or remember most but just need a refresher — I can teach you!

If you are in any way interested in learning how to chant/read Torah, please contact me by email or phone - mzuspan@dortamid.com - 770-623-8860, ext. 6. I look forward to learning with you!

Shalom,

Mike Zuspan

Education Director's Message

There never seems to be a dull moment at our Religious School! From holiday to holiday, from mitzvah to mitzvah, from social event to social event. It's hard to keep up!

Our CDTeens are starting to get to know each other outside of the classrooms and making true friendships. We had a wonderful visit from Angels Among Us, who introduced the adoption and fostering program to our 7th graders. The week after, our 7th graders worked in our Gan Tamid tending the earth.

Our 8th graders are also becoming a united group. They opened the year with a jump at "Get Air" and the week after they began studying comparative religions. All dressed up, they attended a service at Ebenezer Baptist Church. It was so interesting to talk to them when they came back. They expressed how much they enjoyed the welcome they received and how everyone was so nice to each other and to them.

Our 9th graders started their studies about the Holocaust. It's not an easy subject to learn about, and it's even harder to enjoy the social aspect of the class while learning this difficult subject. Thanks to their teacher Mitch Skyer and the new program, the students are able to get closer as friends and strengthen their Jewish identity all at once. They went last week to The Anne Frank Museum. They all said that it was a meaningful experience, and they were glad they went together.

Our Confirmation Class is having too much fun. I am not sure if that is allowed. . . They are discussing very important and serious subjects like exploring the Jewish Value of T'shuvah and organ donations. I guess you have to hand it to Rabbi Jordan and Ms. Landy that they are giving them the best of both worlds – fun and educational!

Don't worry, I haven't forgotten about our amazing elementary school.

They are learning so much while having FUN! From learning the letter alef, eating apples and honey, and making whales out of balloons to acting in a play about Jonah and the Whale.

Last week we had a trivia competition between the grades. Everyone participated and learned a lot about the holiday of Sukkot. How great is it to learn about the holiday while sitting in a SUKKAH!

Every year, this day is my chance to really spend some time with all our students. Thank you to all the volunteers who built the sukkah for us. You did it in record time, and because of you we had a blast!

Until next month . . .

Love, Molly

Molly Peled, Education Director

At any moment you may find yourself, your family, or your friends in need of a helping hand, and the CDT Caring Committee is here for you! Acts of loving kindness are our specialty, and we are here for congregants who may need help getting through difficult situations.

The Caring Committee's ability to help starts with you! If you or someone you know could use some support, please reach out to us and let us know what's going on. We will work closely with Rabbi Jordan and the staff to help us be successful in providing for the needs of our congregants. Our committee's goal is to reach out to every congregant who may need us!

If you or someone you know is mourning, undergoing surgery, recovering from an accident or illness, or has something going on in your/their life and could use our assistance, please contact the CDT office or Rabbi Jordan directly (770-623-8860), or me, as the Caring Committee Chair (678-296-4646), and let us know. 'Moments' will no longer be used for attendance at CDT programs or services. Instead, 'Moments' will focus solely on opportunities to give back to our CDT and greater community in ways that connect to your interests and skills.

We are also pleased to announce that we are broadening the scope of the Engagement Initiative to include a new CDT Connections program. Through this program, we will identify volunteer Connections Ambassadors to focus on member outreach activities helping to ensure that everyone feels a shared sense of community, belonging and connection within our home.

Koby's tikkun olam/social action project was working with the North Fulton Foster Care. He has donated time to helping them sort and organize goods to be distributed to children in the foster care system. They were in dire need of basics: underwear and socks. Koby is grateful for the help of family and friends. With their help, he was able to contribute a tremendous amount to help the Foster Care foundation restock.

Lance Frazer

You can also find Lance cheering for his favorite team, the Florida State Seminoles!

For tikkun olam/social action project, Lance collected new and gently used baseball gear, baseball equipment, and monetary donations for the youth, ages 4-18, being served by the JoJo Batten Baseball Foundation. JoJo Batten, Vice President and Co-Founder of Team 360 Hawks, is the founder of this organization. Since 2013, the JoJo Batten Baseball Foundation has devoted its energy to passionately advocating for at-risk youth. ## In the Community

The 2019 JCC Maccabi Games® will call Atlanta home for just the second time in the history of the competition, with more than 1,600 participants, ranging from 12-16 years old, to fill out a field of 13 sports.

Hosted by the Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta, the 2019 JCC Maccabi Games® will include a full range of events, including Olympic-style opening and closing ceremonies and a community service day. These events each aim to bring the Atlanta Jewish Community together for a week of spirit, friendship, and celebration.

Opportunities are now available for athletes, coaches, volunteers and host families.

If you're interested in getting involved, please fill out our GENERAL INTEREST FORM and we'll be in touch!
