Rabbinic Reflections

Dear friends,

I am writing this to you in the hours following our service of memory, healing and hope to honor those fellow Jews slain in the shooting at the Tree of Life Congregation in Pittsburgh. Going into the service, and throughout, I was struck by the magnitude of support that was offered to our congregation and community from the interfaith community of Johns Creek. During that service, Mike and I were joined on the bimah, not only by our president, Dan Rosen, but by clergy and leadership from Johns Creek Baptist Church, Johns Creek

Methodist Church, Masjid Jafar, St. Benedict Catholic Church, and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Additionally, there were many members of these houses of worship, and others, in the congregation during that service, as well as Captain Christopher Byers from the Johns Creek Police Department and members of the Johns Creek Chamber of Commerce.

The support of all of these members of the community was truly uplifting. But it should not only take tragedy to bring us together. The Talmud teaches that no synagogue should be built without windows, because we are commanded to be present in our communities. This is why it is so important for all of us to be ambassadors of CDT and of the Jewish people in our neighborhoods, in our schools, and among the people we meet. It is also why the clergy who were with us will be continuing to meet, starting at the beginning of November at CDT, in order to build relationships and strengthen the communal bonds we have with one another.

We concluded our service of memory singing the words, "If we build this world from love . . . then God will build this world from love." It is up to each of us, even in these dark moments, to bring forth more love into creation. And this love will truly lead to more peace.

B'ahavah (with love),

Rabbi Jordan

President's Message

Like each of you, the horrific act of hatred and violence at Tree of Life Congregation in Pittsburgh last Saturday has left me heart-broken and stranded with so many unanswerable questions. Though this is not the first time a religious hate crime at a place of worship has made headlines, this time just feels a little different. Maybe it's the magnitude. Maybe it's my new vantage point as President of a Jewish congregation. I don't know. What I do know is that it makes me angry to think that a place of worship, of any religion, could feel anything but safe and secure. It is truly unfathomable to me. It defies logic and reason.

Congregation Dor Tamid stands in unity with the families of Tree of Life Congregation and the entire Jewish community of Pittsburgh as they begin to heal. This is a time when we must come together as one CDT to pray and help and support each other through this most challenging of times. We must also not let the acts of one hateful person dictate how we go about our lives. I can't tell you how good I felt when our Homes Against Hunger volunteers were at my home by 8:30 on Sunday morning to continue their honorable work. While the events of this past week should cause us to pause, reflect, and speak out against antisemitism and all hate crimes, we can't retreat into our homes. We will heal faster as a community, as a family.

Security at CDT has always been and will continue to be the highest of priorities for the Board of Directors and the CDT staff. We take the safety of you and your family very seriously. This week, Rabbi Jordan and I met with members of our local law enforcement agencies and various Jewish organizations in Atlanta to review our security policies and procedures to ensure they meet the highest of standards. Should you have any questions on this topic, please do not hesitate to reach out to me directly.

B'Shalom

Dan

Daniel Rosen, President

Cantorial Soloist's Message

Shalom chaverim — Hello my friends,

This past weekend has left us with both so much and so little to say. Little to say, because there are no words to adequately express our grief and disbelief. Much to say, because we still must try to make sense out of tragedy and find some way to heal ourselves and each other. This past Monday evening, in response to the terrible events in Pittsburgh, our congregation, along with clergy and members from all different faiths, as well as civic leaders and members of our city police, gathered together to pray. We prayed together as a community — asking for strength, understanding, love, and peace. The service was powerful and deeply moving. Towards the end of the service, all of the clergy on the bimah stood together, arm in arm, and prayed together. For one single moment in time, we were all united, standing as one, facing down the darkness and hoping together for peace now.

At the beginning of the service, one of the Christian clergy pulled me aside on the bimah and quietly said to me, “I have no words,” and then he said, “I love you.”

I said to him, “Those are the only words we need.”

Shalom Uv'racha — peace and blessings,

Mike Zuspan

Education Director's Message

I first want to start off by saying thank you from the bottom of my heart. The attention I got from all of you on my birthday made me feel like a birthday princess. The hugs, smiles, and flowers were more than anyone could wish for. I am a very lucky lady, and it was important to me to pay it forward. Because of your generosity, we made cancer patients and the seniors very happy. Ms. Stacey and I went to Northside Hospital, Emory Hospital, and The Cohen Home to make their day a brighter one filled with flowers!

This month was filled with excitement. Our 5th graders learned about Shmirat Ha Guf, caring for your body. In class, they made healthy smoothies out of fruits and vegetables and wrote down what they can do to take better care of their bodies.

Our 6th graders started to learn about Jewish milestones. Their teacher Ms. Talia thought of a wonderful idea to introduce to them the subject. She remade the board game Life and added Jewish milestones on it. The kids have a blast playing it!

The 4th graders put to great use the laptops that were donated to us last year. They logged into nearpod.com to explore a lesson covering the different aspects of the state of Israel.

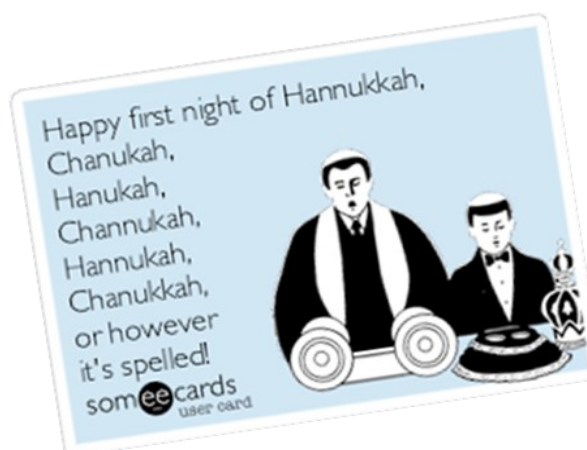

Make sure you keep your eyes out for more information on our Chanukah Party! This year the party falls on the first night of Chanukah, and we are going to light the candles together! So on December 2nd, no Religious School in the morning and one huge party in the evening.

Love,

Molly

Plant a Tree in Israel

A lifelong gift from you, A lifelong tree for Israel

"When you shall come to the land, you shall plant trees" - Leviticus 19:23

Religious and spiritual significances are placed on trees and its connection to Israel throughout the Torah. In many respects the life cycle of a tree mirrors closely to that of the human life cycle and by planting a tree helps to connect and, in some ways, represents and sustains life itself.

So plant a tree(s) today! in Celebration and/or in Memoriam of your loved one, the continual growth and welfare of Israel, and support of CDT. A certificate will be mailed to you or your honoree as designated.

Caring Committee

At any moment you may find yourself, your family, or your friends in need of a helping hand, and the CDT Caring Committee is here for you! Acts of loving kindness are our specialty, and we are here for congregants who may need help getting through difficult situations.

The Caring Committee's ability to help starts with you! If you or someone you know could use some support, please reach out to us and let us know what's going on. We will work closely with Rabbi Jordan and the staff to help us be successful in providing for the needs of our congregants. Our committee's goal is to reach out to every congregant who may need us!

If you or someone you know is mourning, undergoing surgery, recovering from an accident or illness, or has something going on in your/their life and could use our assistance, please contact the CDT office (770-623-8860), Rabbi Jordan directly (770-623-8860), or Leslie Fox, Caring Committee Chair (678-296-4646), and let us know. It's so important that we, as a congregational community, care for one another.

If you have any questions, or would like to be a part of the Caring Committee please let us know.

Leslie Fox
Caring Committee Chair

Social Action

It's with a bag of mixed emotions that I write this Social Action article for our CDT Newsletter. First and foremost, I am devastated by the loss of human lives, due to hatred, in both Tree of Life Congregation in Pittsburgh and the Kroger in Kentucky. Yet, I am so grateful for the communities across our nation that have been supportive and uplifting after these tragedies. I am also grateful to many religious groups, especially the Archdiocese of Atlanta most recently, who have partnered with Jewish organizations, and others who are working to "Repair the World" by unifying our people as one. One of the goals of our Social Action Committee is to do "Tikkun Olam." What better start than to look at our neighbors of different faiths and realize we are all equal and in need of healing and deserving of respect.

Our Social Action committee has performed acts of *tikkun olam this past month by supporting the Pride Parade (thank you to Deb Eskenazi), feeding the hungry (thank you to my committee members — Deb Eskenazi, Lesley Radov, Larry Berger, Sharon Rocco, and Linda Barton – and Melody Schiffer and Steven Mittler - who picked up Homes Against Hunger donations and to all those who donated generously), and distributing food, coats and other winter items to the North Gwinnett Food Coop and the Zaban Couples Center (thank you Lesley Radov). We also had a group of congregants and community members who went to the Zaban Couples Center and fed their residents on October 18th. Thank you to them as well!

In November, we will be having a Blanket, Winter Coat, and New Sock Drive for the benefit of the victims of Hurricane Michael. As always, our committee is looking for more members and participants. Please email me at socialaction@dortamid.com for more information.

WE ARE EXCITED ABOUT OUR NEW ENGAGEMENTS!

Our 2018-19 year is off to a great start!

THANK YOU to all our congregants who completed the survey and to the 92 congregants who donated Moments! These Moments donations came from 79 households and provide us with 455 Moments to be used to foster a sense of connection at CDT throughout the year.

With the changes that we made to the program this year, these Moments will focus on opportunities to give back to our CDT community by helping in many ways based on your responses to the survey. Remember, Moments will no longer focus on attendance at events or services. If you have donated Moments, be on the lookout for communication from our committee regarding ways you can help!

It is never too late to participate in this program. If you would like to complete the survey and donate Moments, simply click here to "Pop The Question-\(naire\)".

WITH APPRECIATION... EAGLE SCOUT SERVICE PROJECTS

This past year, Congregation Dor Tamid was the beneficiary of four separate service projects by four local boy scouts. These projects represent a near-final requirement for a scout to attain Eagle Scout rank.

The four Eagle Scout candidates were Noah Berman of Troop 2000, and Josh Gordon, Lakshman Ravoori, and Justin Zandstra, of Troop 429.

Noah's project was the four picnic tables with attached benches. They are outside, on the East side of our building. Noah and his family are members of our congregation. His parents are Darryl and Enid Berman.

Josh's project was beautifying the area at the end of the trail, by the Meditation Garden. He installed bushes, ferns, flowers, and other attractive plants, as well as cleaned up the previous weeds.

Lakshman's service project was the renovation of the trail that runs from the Gan Tamid charity vegetable garden, down over the bridge, ending at the Meditation Garden. The trail is now wider, completely covered in mulch, and bordered on both sides with secured landscape timbers.

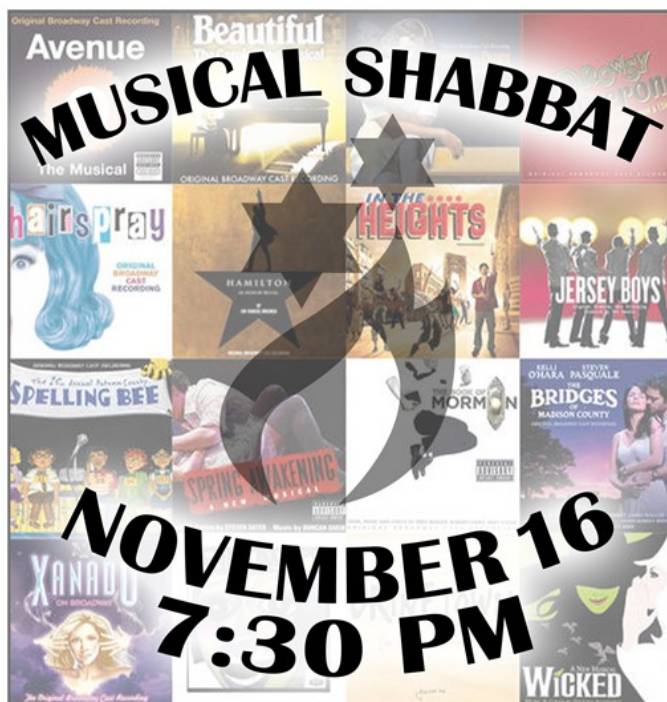

Justin's contribution was the six cedar slat benches on the outside of our building, which are easily portable. Two are by our front entrance and four are on the East side of the building, outside on the concrete. Justin and his family are members of our congregation. His parents are Mike and Estelle Zandstra.

As stated, these service projects represent one of the final steps for these scouts to become Eagle Scouts. Whether they and their families are members of our congregation or not, their parents, they themselves, and we congregants of Dor Tamid have every reason to be proud of their hard work and dedication to their goal. We should be extremely appreciative of the beautiful donations they made for us.

The scout is not responsible for any maintenance of a project once it is complete. That upkeep and maintenance will be our contribution to our own facility, going forward.

In the Community

The 2019 JCC Maccabi Games® will call Atlanta home for just the second time in the history of the competition, with more than 1,600 participants, ranging from 12-16 years old, to fill out a field of 13 sports.

Hosted by the Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta, the 2019 JCC Maccabi Games® will include a full range of events, including Olympic-style opening and closing ceremonies and a community service day. These events each aim to bring the Atlanta Jewish Community together for a week of spirit, friendship, and celebration.

Opportunities are now available for athletes, coaches, volunteers and host families.

If you're interested in getting involved, please fill out our GENERAL INTEREST FORM and we'll be in touch!

Maccabi tryouts for athletes will be held in December.
