Rabbinic Reflections

Dear friends,

I hope you have had a great summer. Our family really enjoyed our last two months, with the boys in camp, taking trips, and spending time seeing more of the greater Atlanta area. However, one of the highlights of my summer was the time I spent on faculty at Camp Coleman, coupled with my visit to Camp Barney. Noah and I took the drive up GA 400 to Cleveland for the week and spent time with our CDT campers and staff, as well as the many hundreds of Jewish young people who call camp their home each summer.

Even though I did not grow up as a camper at either Camp Barney or Camp Coleman (I am a proud OSRUI alumnus), my time at camp brought back many memories for me. Additionally, I was reminded of the power that camp has in the Jewish development of our young people. For many, it is at camp where we, and I definitely include myself in this group, have the profound experience of being fully immersed in the Jewish experience for the first time. It is at camp where our children can truly find Judaism in every aspect of their day, from the pool to the basketball courts, and from the art room to the dining hall. From saying motzi and birkat hamazon (grace after the meal) at every meal to Kabbalat Shabbat each Friday, the Judaism enters into our campers' lives in a way that is difficult to replicate. And yet, we are not beholden only to the camp experience to find a way to interweave Judaism into our daily lives. Rather, we, as members of CDT, have the opportunity each day, at home and in the synagogue, to make Judaism a part of our lives. While I know that camp does provide an immersive experience, we can all take the opportunity, as we begin to end the summer and approach the new Jewish year, to expand our own Jewish lives. You can start small. Try to find a way to mark Shabbat that you were not always doing. Try saying a blessing before and (or) after you eat. Try to come to services a tad more than you are used to. Or try saying the Shema, the affirmation of God's oneness, each day.

By finding ways to immerse our lives in Judaism, we reaffirm our commitment to the Jewish people, our connection to the Jewish faith, and our place in the chain or tradition that goes back centuries.

If you want just one more camp experience this summer (or if you are looking for your first one), then come to CDT for services on Friday, August 17. We will join together outside on the patio (weather permitting) for a camp-style service around the fire pit. Make sure to wear white, as we do at camp, or your camp shirts, and bring your energy and ruach (spirit) to this exciting service. Then stick around for a s'mores and ice cream oneg Shabbat.

B'shalom,

Rabbi Jordan

President's Message

If you are like me, right about now you're asking yourself, "Where did the summer go?" How is it possible that July is over and our thoughts are now turning to a new school year and the start of our High Holy Days season. I sincerely hope each of you enjoyed extended time with friends or family over the summer months and made some lasting memories together.

We've certainly been busy at Congregation Dor Tamid over the past couple of months, as well gearing up for the new year. The new Board of Directors is settling into our respective roles, forming terrific committees and working with the rabbi and staff on many exciting new programs. CDT's staff is preparing for the High Holy Days, closing the fiscal budget, preparing classrooms and curriculum for a fantastic new year of Religious School, and the list goes on.

As many who know me will attest to, one thing I am passionate about is ensuring that every member of CDT feels a shared sense of community and connection to each other and our synagogue life. I encourage each of you to reflect on how you might get involved, participate in upcoming events and programs, learn something new, and get the most out of your CDT experience. As I look ahead to August, here are some ideas to consider:

- Torah Study with Rabbi Jordan on Wednesdays at 11:00AM
- Register for CDT's Religious School (Sneak-a-peak is August 19)
- Join CDT's High Holy Days Choir led by our Cantorial Soloist, Mike Zuspan (rehearsals on Thursdays)
- Shabbat Services with a twist including a Camp-style Shabbat, Birthday Shabbat, Tot Shabbat, and Anniversary Shabbat – Tell a friend or bring a friend!
- Play Tamid, a great way for families with young kids to connect (August 26)
- Gan Tamid – Come play in the dirt in our community vegetable garden. (Contact the CDT office if you'd like to learn more.)

... and there is much more. New Primetimers events, Lifelong Learning, Sisterhood and Men's Club events, and social events are all planned in August.

Though you've no doubt heard it before, I will proudly continue to say...this is your CDT.

B'shalom,

Dan

Cantorial Soloist's Message

Shalom Chaverim!

I hope you are doing well and having a wonderful summer!

This past June, my family and I travelled to Israel to visit my mother and to experience our Jewish homeland. This was my first trip to Israel, if you can believe it. We had been anticipating this trip for a couple of years; preparing for the journey of a lifetime. The flight was long, but quite uneventful. We arrived in a mostly asleep Jerusalem late on a Sunday evening and did not pull into our apartment rental in Netanya (a city of over 200,000 people located on the coast about 20 miles north of Tel Aviv) until sometime around 1:00 Monday morning. When we finally woke around noon, it was to the sounds of a busy modern city. The Mediterranean Sea, with its beautiful blues, was clearly visible from our window. The sun reflected strongly off of the white city building walls. It was a magnificent morning, for certain!

Ark inside the Ari Ashkenazi Synagogue in Sefad, Israel

We stayed for two weeks and filled our time up to the brim exploring and experiencing the country of Israel - its mountains and deserts, sounds and tastes, past and present, and its beautiful and resilient heart and soul. There was an archeological dig in Beit Guvrin, a dip in the Dead Sea, Erev Shabbat at Kehilat Natan-Ya, a day trip to Jaffa, a visit to Jerusalem and the old city shuk (market), Haifa and the Baha'i Gardens, an exploration of the unearthed treasures of Caesarea, a walk down Rothschild Boulevard in Tel Aviv, and so much more.

One of the most amazing experiences I had was in the city of Sefad, which is located in the Northern District of Israel at an elevation of 2,953 feet. It is the highest city in the Galilee and in Israel. As we walked through the city, we came across an old synagogue – the Ari Ashkenazi Synagogue. This synagogue dates back to the late sixteenth century and was built in memory of Rabbi Isaac Luria, who was known by the Hebrew acronym “the ARI”. There is an inscription on the outside of the synagogue’s walls explaining that this is the birth place of the singing of L’cha Dodi, the song we sing during Kabbalat Shabbat as we turn towards the sanctuary doors and greet the Sabbath Bride. I can only imagine what it must have been like to welcome Shabbat at this beautiful synagogue – how beautiful and sacred.

As I sing L’cha Dodi on Erev Shabbat, wherever I may go, I know that Sefad and this synagogue will now always be a part of my song. I hope that you are all able to go to Israel one day soon (if you have not yet been), so that you, too, can add the land of our people to your song.

Shalom,

Mike Zuspan

Education Director's Message

Shalom,

I want to start out by saying how much I miss you all! The summer just isn't the same around here without you coming by every Sunday. On the good side, it's only a matter of weeks before we are together again!

There are so many wonderful things happening this year that I'm not sure where to begin. I guess I will start with the time change . . .

Grades Pre-K-4 will meet from 9:00am - 12:00pm.

Grades 5-12 will meet from 11:30am – 1:45pm.

Now the 5th Grade schedule will align with middle school, providing more opportunities to feel connected and prepared for middle school and youth group involvement. Also, the 5th Grade will be included in lunch!

Speaking of lunch, we just formed a new business relationship with an amazing restaurant/catering business who will be our in-house caterer for the year. The menu has already been built to fit our students' tastes buds! Hopefully, everyone will get a chance to taste some of her magnificent food during Sneak-a-Peak August 19th!

I can't wait for our first Shira session. Shira is a high energy song and story session (replaces t'filah) with the entire religious school all together in the social hall at 11:30 every session. We will be jamming away!

We have been working hard putting together a whole new program for our 7th-12th graders called CDTeens — a fresh approach to the middle and high school curriculum that will replace the previous middle school and Derech Tamid. It is an inspiring, interactive curriculum structured by a guided educational theme for each grade, including classroom education, field trips in the community, and social activities.

I am proud to announce that we have a wonderful new addition to our amazing staff. As most of you know, our amazing teacher Ms. Stacey Jahanfar is not only continuing to teach in our Religious School but she has become a full-time employee at CDT as the new Religious School Assistant and Communications Coordinator.

I can't describe in words how wonderful it is to have her around and to work with her.

To add to our growing list, please welcome Ms. Talia Capozzoli, who will be teaching 1st grade and 6th grade, and Ms. Ariel Robins, teaching our 5th-grade Judaics. Also, please welcome back Mr. Mitch Skyer. We have missed you Mitch! We are looking forward to working with all of you. Welcome to your new family at CDT!

Speaking of our wonderful staff, I am looking forward to all of you meeting them at our “Sneak-a-Peek” on August 19th. This is a great opportunity for you to say hello to your children’s past teachers and meet their new ones. Please see below for more details about this exciting day. During “Sneak-a-Peek”, both in the morning and in the afternoon, you will get to hear about the new curriculum and understand better all the events of the coming year.

Sneak-a-Peek for parents/guardians of grades Pre-K – 4

- 9:00 - 10:15 Accompany your student in his/her classroom during their first lesson.
- 10:15 - 10:35 Join Molly for a light breakfast in the social hall.
- 10:35 - 11:30 Join Molly and Rabbi Jordan for an orientation in the sanctuary.
- 11:30 - 12:00 Stay in the sanctuary for a special new Shira (song and story session) with Rabbi Jordan, Mike Zuspan, and our students.

Sneak-a-Peek for parents/guardians of grades 5 – 12

- 11:30 - 12:00 Join the whole school in the sanctuary for a special new Shira (song and story session) with your students.
- 12:00 - 12:30 Join Molly for a light lunch in the social hall with your students.
- 12:30 - 1:30 Join Molly and Rabbi Jordan for an orientation in the sanctuary.

Communications! Communications! Communications!

My hope for this year is to be connected with all of you as much as possible. The more you know about what we are doing the more you will feel connected. We will continue with emails, and for short reminders and quick updates we’ll be using the communication app “What’s App”. Please take a moment to download it on your phones, so we can test run it on August 19th during Sneak-a-Peek.

If you have any questions about Religious School, please don’t hesitate to write to me at Mpeled@dortamid.com

Shalom,

Molly

Sisterhood

Our Mission

To support the synagogue through
Judaism, Community Service,
Friendship & Fundraising

Shalom! My name is Lisa Danzig and I am your new Sisterhood President. I am so honored and excited to be with such an amazing group of women at Congregation Dor Tamid. Over the years, we women have shown our love and passion for CDT through our volunteerism and participation in events, fundraising, mitzvot, and tikkun olam. I know this year we will do the same! The Sisterhood is always open to any thoughts, ideas, or suggestions you may have, so feel free to contact me at any time.

I would like to say a special thank you to Michele Lederman, outgoing Sisterhood President, who for the past two years, has dedicated herself to the success of Congregation Dor Tamid's Sisterhood. And thank you to Lisa Romm, Liz Kersh, and Sharon Rocco who have stepped down from the Board. Being a Board volunteer isn't easy, with all the other things you have to do in your life. We appreciate all your time, energy, and passion you have selflessly given.

AND NOW.....

Please welcome the incoming Sisterhood Board for 2018-2019.

Suzie Gioia, Melody Schiffer, Sherry Nemiroff, Dory Fox, and Ali Casado are all brand new Board members. We are so excited to have you join us!

In July, we had two planning meetings, and we're looking forward to bringing all of our Sisterhood members fun, meaningful, and insightful events in the coming year. If you have never been involved, or have come to our events a handful of times, we invite you to engage with your sisters at Congregation Dor Tamid, as we are bringing back some events we can't get enough of, adding a new twist on others, and introducing new events for you to enjoy, contribute, and participate in!

Rachel Turner

Rachel is an eighth grade honors student at Taylor Road Middle School. She enjoys playing soccer, riding horses, and spending time with her family’s two golden doodles. Recently, Rachel started working with mustang horses from the Bureau of Land Management to train them to become riding horses.

An avid animal lover, Rachel organized a dog wash and bake sale fundraiser for her tikkun olam/social action project. Together with the help of a group of friends she organized, Rachel raised about $1000 for the Fur Kids Animal Rescue & Shelter organization in Alpharetta.

Caring Committee

At any moment in time, members of our Congregation may be in need—not of charity, but in need of Acts of Loving Kindness! The CDT Caring Committee is here to assist you.

In order for the rabbi, our staff, and the Caring Committee to do our best job and be meaningful to our congregants, we need to know who needs a visit, a meal, messages of healing and concern, or other means of support.

If you or someone you know is in mourning, undergoing surgery, or battling an illness, please contact the CDT office or Rabbi Jordan at 770-623-8860 or the chair of the Caring Committee, Leslie Fox, at 678-296-4646. If you, or someone you know, are in need, please let us know, so that as a congregational community we can care for one another.

Lifelong Learning

We are coming home...

We are coming home to family...

We are coming home to strengthen family...

Programming is coming back to the CDT building with twice the number of sessions as last year, featuring our favorites as well as speakers new to CDT. Our schedule aligns with the Religious School schedule — adults can stop by Sunday mornings and model that learning is a lifelong activity. Visit us at Sneak-a-Peek on August 19th and check out the amazing line-up we have in store.

JAC is a multicultural Childcare Facility located at Congregation Dor Tamid in Johns Creek.

At JAC students learn about different cultures, languages and traditions. Students learn to be more independent, more creative and social. Though the school year has already started, it's not too late to enroll your child. Call now to find out about any promotions we are running.

At JAC your child will learn in Hebrew and English!
