Rabbinic Reflections

Dear friends,

Over the past year and half, as we have navigated our way through the pandemic, there have been numerous challenges. We have had to change our lives, and at CDT we have had to change the way we interact and operate as a congregation. It has been difficult, for sure, but there have been some surprising benefits to come out of the new world we are living in. One of these benefits has been our increased connection and cooperation with Temple Beth Tikvah.

Rabbi Shuval-Weiner and I have had the opportunity to engage in spiritual preparation together with you, our congregants and theirs, ahead of the High Holy Days. We have celebrated selichot together with their community, and we have made mezuzot together as well.

And in just a few weeks, on December 17-18, we will welcome in a scholar-in-residence together. I hope you will join us at CDT for services on Friday, December 17, and, for Havdalah at TBT on December 18 for two great experiences to learn from my friend and colleague, Rabbi Ralph Mecklenburger.

Rabbi Mecklenburger is rabbi emeritus at Beth-El Congregation in Fort Worth, Texas and adjunct faculty at Brite Divinity School. In recent years, he has developed expertise in the theological implication of cognitive studies and neuroscience. His first book, Our Religious Brains, was published in 2012 and his most recent book, Why Call it God?, was published in 2020.

The title of his talk on Friday evening will be:

What Ever Happened to Prophecy?

Much of the Bible is based on prophecy, and yet we seem not to have it any more! What was it, and how, in this scientific era, might we explain it?

And on Saturday night, his talk is entitled:

Creator, King, Rock, Eagle and More: the Reality Behind Divine Metaphors

Did a loving Parent give us COVID, or, for that matter, cancer and earthquakes? Many Jews over the ages have understood God in ways which moderns may find more credible. In this scientific era we need to dig deeper to strengthen or restore our faith.

I look forward to a wonderful weekend of study with each of you as we welcome this wonderful teacher and rabbi to our community.

B'shalom,

Rabbi Jordan

The Eidex Family

Jay and Victoria Eidex married on New Year's Eve of 2021. Jay has two sons - Charlie a senior at UGA, and Zach a graduate student at Georgia Tech. Jay is a Georgia native and a partner with a law firm in Suwanee. Victoria is from North Carolina and a school administrator in Gwinnett County. They live in Dacula with all of their animals (five chickens, four goats, four dogs, and one cat) and are excited about joining CDT.

The Grabowski Family

In 2014 we were transferred from New Jersey, where we were born and bred, to Suwanee GA. Our real estate agent insisted we stop by CDT on the way to the airport. She raved about how friendly and warm and "heimish" the CDT community were and that we must make CDT our spiritual home. Well.....she couldn't have been more right! We fell in love with CDT and the people we met that one day on our way out of town. For the next 4 years our son attended Jewish preschool at CDT where he solidified his identity as a Jewish boy and we made friends and felt like we were surrounded by family with every event and gathering. Our daughter was named at CDT and we celebrated holidays and Shabbats with the CDT community. Life threw us a curveball in 2018 and we had to move to Dallas, TX for the last 3 years, all the while staying in touch and attending virtual religious school during the height of the pandemic. We always knew we would be back to GA, because it's our home but more importantly because CDT provided our family it's Jewish roots as well as feeling as though we were with family, since our family lives in the northeast. We have returned to GA and right back into the CDT family, as if no time has passed. For the second time, I left CDT after joining the congregation, feeling accepted, supported and home for good!

President's Message

Leslie Fox

December, the last month of 2021, is upon us. People around the world will celebrate their respective holidays this month and then we will all welcome in 2022. Gregg and I will be ringing in the New Year with both of our kids, which makes me one happy mama! Now that our kids are adults and have moved away, we realize how precious our time together is and try to cherish every minute. I hope you will be ringing in the year with those who are special to you.

The beginning of 2022 is the midpoint of CDT's fiscal year, and things look good.

Leslie Fox	Membership is up from the beginning of the year and our first-half-of-the-year fundraising was amazing! Although our year began strong, we must keep up the momentum as we move into the second half to stay on track and meet our goals. Please join us for services, programs, events and fundraisers to help CDT continue to thrive!

I thought I would leave this year behind and ring in the new with a little poem...

*It's time for a new year...2022,
May this year be kind and loving to you.
Realize the beauty of each new day,
Take the time to laugh and play.*

*Time is precious and moves so fast,
Work hard, love hard, have a blast.
I look forward to spending time with you,
In this new year 2022!*

Happy Chanukah and Happy New Year!

Cantorial Soloist's Message

Mike Zuspan

Shalom Chaveirim! Hello my friends!

I hope that you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving with your loved ones both near and far. This is such a wonderful time of the year. It has gotten a little brisk outside (fireplace and hot chocolate time – yippee), the leaves have fallen, winter break is coming, and – most importantly – Chanukah is going on right now!

Ah.....latkes (with applesauce and sour cream – of course!), sufganiyot, dreidels, gelt, and family – PRESENTS! I don't know about you, but I have acquired quite a Chanukah (Chanukah Menorah) collection over the years. I love the songs, the lighting of the Chanukah candles, arguing over HOW to light the candles, playing dreidel (yes, it is sanctioned gambling – I know), latke cooking competitions.....you name it, if it's Chanukah stuff – I love it!

This has become such an important holiday for us – specifically as Jews in the South. At a time of the year when being Jewish seems to stand in stark contrast to the rest of the population, it is so special to have a holiday of our own. I am grateful to be able celebrate this holiday with our wonderful CDT family.

May the Chanukah lights lift your soul and warm your hearts – may the lights serve to remind you of all that our people have experienced during this time of year, when the night is longest, may the candles of the Chanukah shine bright!

Happy Chanukah to you and your loved ones!

Please join us Friday, December 3rd for a special Musical Chanukah Shabbat where we will also light our own Chanukah Menorahs (bring seven candles). Then again, on Sunday, December 5th – Please join us as we celebrate the last night of Chanukah together at CDT with our amazing (food, crafts, food, singing, and food) Chanukah party!!!

Happy Chanukah and an early Happy New Year.

L'Shalom,

Mike Zuspan

Education Director's Message

Molly Peled

Happy Chanukah!!! The holiday of miracles!

The reality is, that every Sunday we have an incredible Religious school program where we learn, play, and have fun together. To me this coming together each Sunday is our own little miracle.

Our Pre-K/K students decorated beautiful Chanukiot and Dreidels while our 1st graders made stainless glass windows and a menorah in the window.

Our 4th grade had an amazing lesson about “what is a kibbutz”. Every 4th grade class experiences life at Kibbutz CDT! What fun! Some students worked in the garden, some in the office, and others worked in the laundromat! The workers in the kitchen made Israeli salad for all their fellow Kibbutz members. This year they all received a bonus activity; they made challah to be baked at home! This was an experience they will never forget! I hope one day I can take this group to a real Kibbutz in Israel!

Education Director's Message

Our Confirmation class also had a blast with Rabbi Jordan! They made Chanukah cookies (among many other things) and had a great time!

I had the privilege to accompany my favorite Hebrew students on a field trip. We went to an Israeli market called "Tip Top". We learned about the different items on the shelves, ordered lunch in Hebrew, and shopped until we dropped!! I am so grateful for our CDT miracles! Happy Chanukah, everyone! I hope to see you all Dec. 5th, 4:30-6:30 at our Chanukah party!

Love, Molly

Social Action

We are very excited about our next Social Action project! The Atlanta area is welcoming one hundred Afghani refugee families. We are hoping to help these families transition to life in the U.S. and Atlanta.

Amy Zuspan, our very own Cantorial Soloist Mike's better-half, has been involved in tutoring refugee children and hopes to soon be mentoring children as well. She has been passionate about her work with the refugee community and we are happy to collaborate with her on this important effort.

Starting December 1st, we will be collecting the following:

- Gently used cold weather items for adults – coats, gloves, scarves, hats and sweaters. Please put in tubs located by the double doors near the patio.
- Donations for Welcome Home Baskets. We have created an Amazon Wish list of items to help these families feel at home and assist with their transition to their lives in Atlanta. Can you do a little extra Amazon shopping and buy a few items to help us put together 20 baskets? * Please choose Stacey Jahanfar – CDT as the delivery address for all items to be delivered directly to the temple.

Welcome Home Basket for Afghan Refugees

- ◆ Tea set (kettle and cups)
- ◆ Fleece blanket
- ◆ Map of Atlanta
- ◆ Pens
- ◆ Welcome Mat
- ◆ Flashlight w/ Extra Batteries
- ◆ Dried Apricots
- ◆ Pistachios
- ◆ Spices for Afghani Cuisine (Cinnamon, Saffron, Nutmeg, Green Cardamom)

Thank you in advance for your generosity. Amazon items need to be ordered by December 17th, and, the last day to bring cold weather items will be December 18th.

* In order to get the best pricing, we will source some Welcome Home Basket items from other stores. (tea, raisins, umbrellas, calendars & planners, and a supermarket gift card).

Many thanks — תודה רבה
