Cantorial Soloist's Message

Shalom Chaveirim - hello my friends,

I hope you are all doing well. This past week, on January 27th, we marked International Holocaust Remembrance Day. This day is the anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau, and has been designated by the United Nations General Assembly as a time to remember the six million Jewish innocents slaughtered during the Holocaust and the millions of other victims of Nazi persecution. Every year, this day takes on great significance (though it is different than our Yom HaShoah), as countries around the world take pause to remember and educate. This year, particularly, International Holocaust Memorial Day is remarkable because of the massive uptick in worldwide antisemitism. By now, we are all well aware of the continuing rise in antisemitic occurrences ignited by the horrible acts perpetrated against Israel by the terrorist organization Hamas, and the subsequent war Israel continues to fight to defend itself. To this point, the worldwide Jewish community has been vocal in bringing attention to the growing antisemitic activity. We continue to aggressively battle the war of misinformation and propaganda relating to the war in Israel. Though it is heavy going, this last week it seems that we may have won an important victory here in our wonderful home state of Georgia with the passing of House Bill 30.

HB 30 places into Georgia law a definition of antisemitism that closely mirrors the definition adopted by the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance. Sponsors of this bill say a definition would help prosecutors and other officials identify hate crimes and illegal discrimination targeting Jewish people, and then require such identification to be considered when applying other laws in Georgia. While the passing of HB 30 was not unanimous, as there were some concerns about this law possibly tamping down on free speech as it relates to the criticism of the Israeli government, most legislatures saw the bill as a way to combat the rise in antisemitism. In addition to Georgia, there are at least eight other states working on similar legislation. Unfortunately, it is clear that the impetus for the success of these bills is the horrendous war in Israel. Similar bills have failed to even make it to the floor in the past. Would that such tragedy not be required in order for antisemitism to be protected against by laws. Still, that our voices are being heard is no small thing.

As we begin the month of February, it will be 117 days since October 7th. 117 days of war in Israel. 117 days of captivity. 117 days of increasing antisemitism. While the passing of HB 30 is important, we must continue to press on, making our voices heard...making sure no one forgets.

With prayers for Israel, the Jewish community around the world, and for all the innocent lives lost- Shalom,

Mike Zuspan
Cantorial Soloist

President's Message

Hello to my CDT Family!

I hope that you have had a good start to 2024! From crazy cold temperatures to rainy days, January seemed to move at the speed of light. And we have been busy as ever at CDT!

I just wanted to thank the Social Action Committee, Sisterhood, Men's Club, Jessica Grabowski and all of our amazing volunteers for organizing and running such a wonderful CDT Cares Day. From blanket making, to capes for kids, and lasagnas for families, our students learned about the mitzvah of helping those in need. We collected food for Homes Against Hunger, and the blood drive was a huge success. I even donated blood for the first time and hope to continue to donate on a regular basis.

If you didn't get to join us for our SINGO social event this month, I hope you will consider joining us next time. Ashley and Tyler Chenault led us in a fun filled musical bingo game. We had amazing food, good music, prizes, some awesome dancing, and an overall good time!

On Wednesday, 1/24, we celebrated Tu BiShvat with a beautiful Tu BiShvat Seder led by our very own Mike Zuspan. It was a beautiful evening celebrating the seasons, the trees and the fruit that they bear. Thank you to Mike, the ritual committee, and Barri Gertz for making this event happen. We have not had a Tu BiShvat Seder at CDT for many years and successfully had over 60 members attend!

I hope that if you had a chance to join us for musical Shabbat Shira that you enjoyed the service as much as I did. Musical Shabbat is one of my favorite services at CDT and I hope that you will join us for a musical Shabbat in the future. Please make sure to take a look at the flyer below or on our website www.cdt.org for dates of our upcoming events. And finally, as you saw in my email, we are excited to welcome Rabbi Jordan back from his Sabbatical. He will be very busy over the next few weeks getting caught up, so please be patient.

As always, do not hesitate to call or email me if you have any questions or concerns or if you would just like to chat.

Thank you,

Rachel

Our Bar Mitzvah Student

Dylan Herman is a 7th grader at River Trail Middle School in Johns Creek. He is an A student in advanced and honors classes. When not in class he participates in the school's spring musical, Chinese yo-yo performance team, Jr. Beta Honors Society, technology help, and plays baritone saxophone in the Symphonic Band. Outside of school, Dylan is involved in the martial arts, riding his skateboard, playing soccer, reading every book he can get his hands on, and hanging out with friends on and offline.

For his mitzvah project, Dylan collected numerous boxes of books for children ages 0-5. Dylan's explicit love of reading translated into helping make a difference in the lives of other children who may not have the vast exposure to literature he is grateful for in his life. Dylan hopes to continue to help support the area's youth by collecting and distributing books to free little libraries around the metro area. Dylan will celebrate becoming a bar mitzvah on February 10, 2024.

Interim Director of Jewish Life & Learning

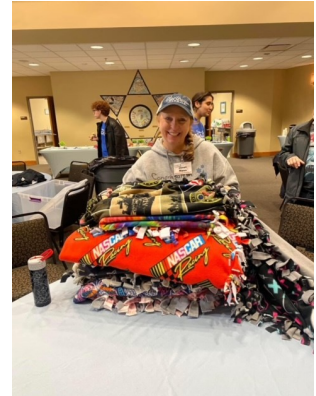

Jessica Grabowski

Religious School 2024 is back in session! January has been a month choc' full of learning, connecting, and most importantly having fun! Our students learned about the concept of humility, Moses, slavery in Egypt, and the importance of standing up for others. As a school, we learned about the importance of "Tikkun Olam" and what we as a school are focusing our Tzedakah efforts on, The Lone Solider Center. Our 7th grade Mitzvah class had the honor of meeting a real Lone Soldier via Zoom! Our 8th grade Comparative Religion class has switched gears from learning all about different types of Judaism to focusing on Christianity, Buddhism and many other types of religions.

The highlight of our month was our CDT Cares Day dedicated to honoring MLK Day, the civil rights movement, and the connection between Judaism and the importance of equality for all! Religious School, Sisterhood, Social Action, Men's Club, and Prime Timers all participated in various DIY community action projects benefiting populations such as: homeless children and families, seniors, food insecure families, sick children, immigrants at the border, the Lone Solider Center, and so many more! We came together with volunteers and staff producing hundreds of items made with purpose and love! January winds down with learning about Tu Bishvat. Our 1st and 6th graders had their own seders. Pre-K/K and 5th grades planted their own seeds of parsley, that will hopefully be ready to harvest for Passover. Our 7th graders went off site, volunteering as part of a collaboration between Trees Atlanta and the Jewish Environmental Group, Adamah, by planting, pruning and nurturing the land in a much needed area of the metro.

So many exciting and creative ways we are connecting with our Judaism!

Many Thanks — תודה רבה

Social Action and Tikkun Olam

Paula Bloom

January was an amazing month for CDT and Social Action Tikkun Olam Initiatives!

CDT Cares Day during the MLK weekend was extraordinary. Committees including Social Action, Sisterhood, Men's Club, Prime Timers, and of course the Religious School teachers and students, came together to work on projects for people in our community. A blood drive, food donations, student activities including birthday cards for AVIV (older Jewish adults through JF&CS), decorating water bottles for refugee and Homeless kids, making blankets, capes, dog toys, Joy Jars for kids in the hospital and more....It was great seeing the adults and kids come together, have fun, and do so much good.

Our session on SPACE (Supportive Parenting for Anxious Childhood Emotions) was very well attended. Parents with minor concerns about children dealing with fears and anxiety to those that had more severe anxiety were all intrigued by the unique approach presented by Marti Mumford, of Anxiety Specialists of Atlanta. Marti outlined the SPACE methodology and gave a number of ways (free and fee) that parents can learn more about this innovative and evidence-based way for parents to help their children, hopefully mitigating the need for children to require therapy and medications.

We also had another Homes against Hunger food drive with donations going to THE PLACE for Forsyth food Bank. Thank you to Jackie Berger and Lesley Radov for organizing pick-ups. Thanks also to everyone who donated food.

Coming up...

The Atlanta Hunger Walk/Run is scheduled for March 10th. We won't form a team but we would still like for our CDT Cares Team to make a generous donation of $2024. Every $1 can provide 3 meals via the Atlanta Community Food Bank and their partners. We already have a great start with the bracelets that we sold in November and December. Nonetheless, we have a long way to go. Please help the 1 in 8 food insecure children who don't know where their next meals are coming from.

Of course, you can join the fun on March 10th and walk or run. It's a great family activity.
