Rabbinic Reflections

Dear friends,

As I am now entering my third year as the rabbi of Congregation Dor Tamid, I have been reflecting upon my time in this community thus far and appreciating the many blessings we share together. As the rabbi, I am even more blessed and privileged to be able to share with each of you some of the most important and personal moments in your lives. From the simchas of births, b'nai mitzvah, and weddings to the strain of illness and the sadness of death, I love the opportunity that you have given me to serve you at these precious moments. It is one of the things I love most about being your rabbi.

Then there are the unexpected moments, when I am proudest of our community and truly impressed by what we can do together. One of these occasions just happened, and I wanted to share it with you. As many of you know, we had a social event scheduled near the end of June and, due to circumstances beyond our control, we had to make a last minute change of both the venue and type of event. Yet, due to the amazing work and effort given by many of our fellow CDT members, we had a fantastic cook-out and movie night. (We collectively decided it was a bit warm to add the camp fire to the mix.) This event, which came together very quickly, showed not only the incredible talents and creativity of some of our members, but also the dedication so many of you have to our community. Our cook-out was an amazing night of intergenerational relationship building among our congregant families, where kids ate and played alongside Primetimers, where young parents and empty nesters shared stories and wine with one another. It was truly a remarkable evening that showcased the vibrancy of our community.

I hope you will join us for our next cook-out dinner to continue our summer opportunities to be together as a community on July 19. This evening will begin with a family-friendly service and drum circle at 6:30pm, followed by a cook-out dinner.

Have a great summer and I hope to see you soon.

B'vracha (with blessings),

Rabbi Jordan

President's Message

I hope each of you is enjoying a great summer. While the weather has been a bit rainy, I'm thankful it has not been 100 degrees with 90% humidity. By now you should have received your statements for the 2019-2020 fiscal year. If you haven't, please contact Stacey Jahanfar, CDT Executive Director, at 770-623-8860. I would like to thank Stacey for all her hard work to prepare the billing statements and help ensure this process goes smoothly. I am amazed at how much time this takes. Thanks also to Mitch Skyer who played an important role in helping to convert CDT statements into digital format.

I am pleased to tell you that CDT has set up an account with Vanguard to begin to invest our endowment funds. We have been quite thorough in determining both how to invest and how to manage the process. I would like to give a shout out to Mitch Skyer and Scott Brown for their time in organizing this critically important financial program for CDT, so we can build on our investments to create a sustainable nest egg for the future.

Please mark your calendars for an amazing Shabbat experience at CDT on July 19th. Mike Zuspan will lead a drum circle prior to the service. The service will be held outside, followed by a BBQ and a special Oneg. I sure hope we will have great weather for this event. If not, we'll just move everything inside, minus the fire pit of course!

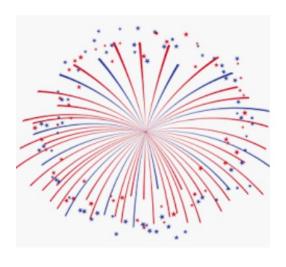

Ashley Chenault and Rachel Allen have been hard at work planning social and membership events for the year. I had a peek at their plans, and things are really shaping up to be an incredible year at CDT. Oh, and be on the lookout soon for many new opportunities from CDT's Engagement Committee to get involved, volunteer, and engage with other synagogue members. We hope each of you will participate and enjoy all these great events and programs and help to make them a success!

Have a great rest of the summer!

B'Shalom,

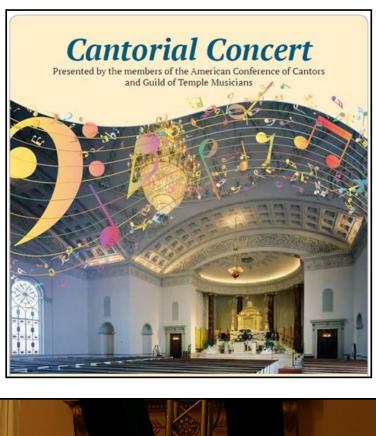

Dan

Daniel Rosen, President

Sisterhood

Our Mission: The Women of Congregation Dor Tamid's primary function is to support the synagogue through Judaism, Community Service, Friendship, & Fundraising.

Sisterhood has had a very busy 2018-2019 year! We sponsored and organized Operation Isaiah for the Atlanta Community Food Bank, held a Blood Drive for Life South Blood Center, and volunteered at The Cohen Home and The Zaban Shelter.

We had so much fun socializing and getting to know one another at the Breakfast for Dinner gathering, enjoyed a day at Gibbs Gardens, danced, ate, and jammed all night with the 80's Band Hot Flash, played White Elephant at our Chanukah Party, lunched at Firebirds Wood Fired Grill, went to The Fox Theater, baked hamentaschen with Chef Rabbi Jordan and our 7th Graders, and then delivered our goodies to The Cohen Home and Sunrise Senior Living. We had our annual Sisterhood Mah Jongg fundraiser evening at CDT, and let's not forget our beautiful Sisterhood Shabbat Service.

We organized the CDT Chanukah Party Bazaar and the Sisterhood Spring Bazaar fundraisers and donated money to CDTTY's fundraiser benefitting Camp Jenny.

Phew... What a year!!! None of the above could have been accomplished without the following amazing group of women:

Michele Lederman, Ruthie Cohen, Dory Fox, Melody Schiffer, Marci Risner, Susan Thompson, Brooke Belodoff, Suzie Gioia, Sherry Nemiroff, Lisa Skyer, Sheri Lew, and Ali Casado!

The 2019-2020 Sisterhood Board will miss Brooke Belodoff, Ali Casado, and Sherry Nemiroff, as they have stepped down from the board for this coming year. Thank you very much for all your time and friendship. We look forward to seeing you at our events. A special welcome to Wendy Rosen who is joining the board as a Trustee.

We are in the process of planning another great year. If you have any ideas for events, please email them to sisterhood@dortamid.com.

There are still 2 board positions open — VP Social Action and VP Ritual. We'd love to have you join us. If interested please contact Lisa at sisterhood@dortamid.com
