Dear friends,

Now that the High Holy Days are over, we have moved into the Hebrew month of Cheshvan, or as the rabbis call it mar Cheshvan (the bitter month of Cheshvan) due to its lack of holidays. However, here at CDT, we have continued, and will continue, our full calendar of virtual and in-person services, classes, programs, and events in order to keep us all connected so that this month may be, in fact, matok Cheshvan (a sweet month of Cheshvan). Among all of the great opportunities we have, I want to make sure to mention four specific ones that are sure to bring sweetness to our community.

First, on November 6, we will celebrate the confirmation of the class of 5780. This class has had their confirmation service postponed due to the pandemic, but I am excited to say we will have the opportunity to celebrate their accomplishments and honor them during our 7:30 Kabbalat Shabbat service held outdoors on the patio at CDT.

The following Shabbat, during services on November 13, we will be joined by Dr. Michael Meyer, who is the Adolph Ochs Professor Emeritus of Jewish History at the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion in Cincinnati. Dr. Meyer, who is my teacher, will be our guest speaker during what is sure to be a phenomenally moving service as we honor our Czech Memorial Torah scroll and dedicate its place in our ark. During the service, members of CDT who were instrumental in bringing the scroll to us will participate, and the Torah will be read by survivors and family of survivors in our community.

Then, that Sunday, November 15, we will have another opportunity to gather together outside at CDT for a concert with Mike, Amy, and the band. If you were not at the first concert in this Fall Concert Series, trust me, this is an evening you do not want to miss. Please watch your email and our website for more information soon and to RSVP.

Lastly, I am honored to be joined by my friends and colleagues, Reverend Brian Daoust of Johns Creek Presbyterian Church and Mr. Tareef Saeb of Masjid Hamza, as the three of us hold a panel discussion about the ideas of Thanksgiving in our three faith traditions. This conversation will be held on Zoom on Thursday, November 19, at 7:30pm.

As we are now in this month of Cheshvan, and looking back at the High Holy Days, I would like to take a moment to thank those who were involved in the planning and implementation of our services and communal gatherings. This year was a very different experience, but due to the hard work and dedication of many individuals we were able to bring our community together in such a meaningful (if mostly virtual) way. Thank you to Rob Lederman and Ella Szczupak for their dedication and commitment to making

President's Message

Now that the High Holy Days are behind us, we get to focus on the start to 5781. We have a lot of great stuff going on! We have had a number of great educational opportunities—and they are not close to stopping, several outside services and more to come, and Part 1 of Mike's Outdoor Concert Series with Part 2 right around the corner! Religious school has a service coming up for the Confirmation of last year's class, and its first Virtual Shabbat Dinner and grade-level in-person events are on the calendar! Unfortunately, BINGO Night had to be postponed due to weather, so we can look forward to that and an upcoming Trivia Night. Sisterhood Book Club is up and running, and both Sisterhood and Men's Club have in-person outside gatherings on the calendar for the beginning of November. CDTTY had their first in-person event of the year, and the knit/crochet group and Primetimers Coffee with the Rabbi meet weekly. We had a successful Coat Drive and there are other drives planned for the fall/winter holiday season. This is all great stuff, and there isn't enough space on this page to discuss everything that CDT has going on over the next couple of months. Yes, all this programming is fantastic, but the icing on the cake, the cherry on top, is the success of our High Holy Days Appeal. As we have announced, we met and BEAT THE MATCH, which means that we have raised over $36,000!!! Thank you again to all our donors!

As you know by now, I like to include photos with my monthly article. This month, I am including just one video. I took this at Mike's concert, and I think it captures the mood of the evening. I hope you will take a few minutes to watch it. There were 150 people in attendance, pods were arranged socially distant, and many people have commented on how much they not only felt comfortable in the atmosphere that was created, but also how much they appreciated feeling "normal" for a few hours. Thank you to everyone involved in putting this concert together, the Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta for a grant to make this happen, and to everyone who came to watch. It was just what many of us needed.

I am hoping to see each and every one of you over the next couple months, either virtually or in person, as we continue into 5781 and also as we ride out 2020 and look toward a new (secular) year.

Stay safe, stay healthy, stay connected!

sure the filming of our services and all of the technological aspects of the High Holy Days went as smoothly as possible. Thank you to our lay leaders who were so instrumental in the planning of the holy day season: Leslie Fox and the members of the Board of Directors, Sherry Nemiroff and the members of the Ritual Committee, Jackie Berger, and Lesley Radov. I would also like to thank our staff for all of the hard work and dedication, during this holy day season, since the pandemic began, and, in fact, year round: Mike Zuspan, Stacey Jahanfar, Molly Peled, Ruthanne Warnick, and Mo Alqaraghuli.

Truly, thank you to each member of our community for your commitment and dedication to our holy community. With the devotion of each of you to our community, we truly will be able to continually go from strength to strength.

B'ahavah (with love),

Cantorial Soloist's Message

Shalom chaverim - hello my dear friends,

I hope that you and your loved ones are doing well. This is my favorite time of the year — Thanksgiving and Chanukah are around the corner with the close of our secular year just a bit further down the road, the leaves are turning and have begun to fall, the colder air has made an appearance once or twice, and the days are getting shorter and shorter as the night sky grows. I look forward to the winds of fall and winter and the life-giving rains that will surely bring spring blooms. I enjoy the throw blankets and sweaters, the fireplaces, and cups of warm soup. Most of all, I love Thanksgiving and Chanukah, and, while Chanukah is still a bit farther away, Thanksgiving is but a few weeks away. Yet, this year Thanksgiving will surely be different and, to say the least, challenging. For one, who will we celebrate with? In past years, many of us would have traveled or have had family and friends travel to be with us. We may have had large gatherings — indoors! And now? Now, we must weigh the safety of ourselves and that of our friends and family against the keeping of our own traditions. Last year, at this time, who would have thought we would be facing such a dilemma. In addition, there will have just been a very highly contested election that has passions running hot. With all that seems to be in place to keep us apart, how much more essential will it be for us to find ways to be together, whether in person or in spirit, this year?

Our congregation has put forth great effort to find ways to keep our community together. We have been holding outdoor, socially-distanced, in-person services for some months now. We have been celebrating b'nai mitzvah at CDT with a hybrid of in-person (for the family) and virtual services. Our youth group, CDTTY, recently had its first outdoor movie night — socially distanced. We found a way to keep some of our in-person traditions for the High Holy Days. Recently, we put on a concert at CDT, where we found a way to have a purely social get-together while following our medical advisors' recommendations to keep people safe. We continue to have in-person (socially distanced!) Play Tamid once a month at CDT on the patio. There continues to be adult education, b'nai mitzvah lessons, and virtual social gatherings. Derech Tamid and CDTeens continues online with the promise of grade get-togethers in a safe and socially distanced manner. This month, on Sunday, November 15th, we will put on another outdoor concert!

As we continue on, the coming months will most assuredly offer new challenges to overcome, new paths to forge, and perhaps even new opportunities for connection. I know that as the coming celebrations will bring with them a different set of obstacles, we will also find a new set of solutions — and we will be stronger for it. I am reminded of the Jewish tradition of saying חזק חזק ונתחזק chazak chazak v'nitchazek when we complete a book of the Torah. These words are translated as "Let us be strong, let us be strong, and let us strengthen others as well."

As we continue to navigate these unpredictable roads ahead, may all of our efforts to build and maintain our connections with our families, friends, and community make us strong and enable us to strengthen others as well.

B'shalom - with peace,

Mike Zuspan

Education Director's Message

Chodesh tov (Good month) everyone.

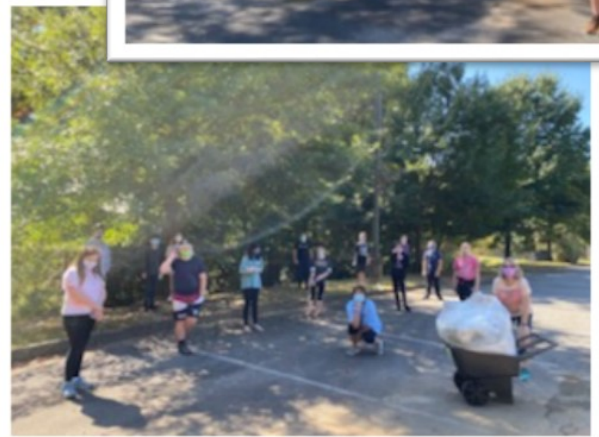

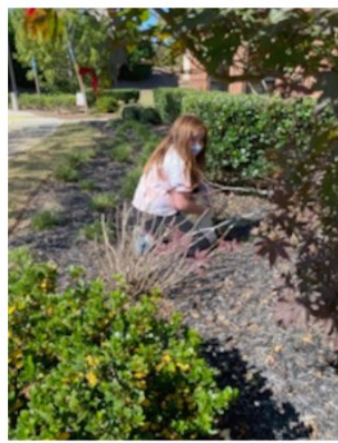

Despite these difficult times, I wanted to share with you the silver lining I am able to see during this past month.

As much as I am afraid of technology, it is because of technology that our religious school is still able to get together, learn together, and be happy together. This month we had students build a sukkah out of pretzel sticks, graham crackers, and frosting, make a smoothie by shaking the cup as if it was a lulav, study Hebrew, and sing and dance with Mike in Shira!

This past month I had the opportunity to meet the new shinshinim of Atlanta. They arrived right before Sukkot and were quarantined for two weeks. For those who don't know who the shinshinim are, they are young educators from Israel who are on a gap year before they get drafted to the army. They bring their love of Israel into our Jewish communities. They do it through art, song, dance, and holiday observance. By sharing their personal stories with us, they make Israel real! It was so nice to meet them and spoil them with gifts from CDT! Don't the hats look great on them?

A huge shout out goes to our 7th graders, who did an amazing mitzvah while social distancing. They tended the earth on October 18th. With their devoted teachers, Ms. Marci Risner and Ms. Stacey Jahanfar, they helped our very own Lesley Radov pull weeds all around Dor Tamid's grounds that included Gan Tamid, the path to the meditation garden, and all around the building. They did an amazing job and had lots of fun doing it.

Until next time my friends, be safe and healthy,
Molly

Eva and David Sadow — October 24

Eva is a strong, caring, confident, and independent 7th grader in advanced STEM classes. Her school robotics team advanced to the state level. She plays violin, is a Girl Scout and an avid reader, and has earned a Black Belt in Tae Kwon Do. Eva has a kind, gentle heart, loves animals, and likes to help people, especially those in need.

David is an independent, confident, strong, and caring 7th grader in advanced STEM classes. His school robotics team advanced to the state level. He plays cello, is a Boy Scout, loves technology, information and fact books, and has earned a Black Belt in Tae Kwon Do. He dreams of being a third generation Georgia Tech graduate and working for NASA.

Eva and David's tikkun olam/social action project choices were limited due to the COVID situation. They chose to collect toys for sick and injured children and food items for doctors and nurses at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta. Donations were received through CDT, relatives, and neighbors.

Helen Miller — November 7

Helen is an 8th grader at Taylor Road Middle School. She loves to run with the Jr. Cougars Cross Country team and competed at the state meet in October, finishing in 11th place. Helen also plays the bass clarinet for the Taylor Road Symphonic Band. Earlier this year, she joined a trip to play for the Georgia Music Educators Association. She is working toward the First Class Rank in Scout Troop 1857, where she enjoys making friends, hiking, and camping.

Helen's tikkun olam/social action project involved several trips to a local pet shelter called FurKids. FurKids is the largest "no-kill" animal shelter in Georgia. When she goes to FurKids, Helen devotes her time to cleaning one of the rooms at the cat shelter. She thanks Leah Stanley, the on-site volunteer coordinator, for her patient training and encouragement.

Heartfelt Gratitude

November is a month we, as Americans, reflect on the things in our life for which we are most thankful. Every year my family has an amazing Thanksgiving dinner at our dear friend's home (which I am very thankful for, as she's a much better cook).

While sitting around the dinner table, each of us talks about what we are grateful for. I'm not quite sure if our traditional dinner will take place this year, due to COVID, but what I do know is that, even without a wonderful turkey dinner in front of me, I have so much to be grateful for. One thing I am especially grateful for is the group of amazing, wonderful, and talented women who have served with me on the Sisterhood Board over the past 3 years. I'd like to think I have not been remiss in showing my appreciation to each and every one of you, as all of you have given so much to CDT, your Sisterhood, and to me. I have immense gratitude for all of you and I can't thank you enough!

Thank you to Alicia Oberhand, Sisterhood's Social Action VP, who arranged dinner for the 25 residents at the Zaban Paradies Center last month.

Social Action

Tikkun Olam — תיקון עולם
Repair the World

We are still enduring “the pandemic,” and your Social Action Committee continues to provide tikkun olam.

COAT DRIVE: Thank you to all who contributed gently used coats, gloves, scarves, etc. We will be delivering these items soon to North Fulton Community Charities.

ZABAN PARADIES CENTER HOMELESS SHELTER: Only one date left. Please consider volunteering to provide meals to this wonderful program. We are still looking for congregants to volunteer to fill this last open slot on MAY 18th.

A big shout out to: Lisa Winton and her husband, Sisterhood, CDT Board, Jackie Berger, Lesley Radov, Ruthie Cohen, Richard Fiedel, Edie Davis, Lynda Galler, Linda Barton, Richard Fiedel and Edie Davis, and Sharon Rocco.

Volunteers are currently being asked to provide a meal for the residents. This can be a home-prepared meal or something purchased. Due to COVID-19, serving the residents is currently on hold until further notice, and we are being asked to just deliver the food.

This is a very rewarding project. Take your child, grandchild, friends, or spouse with you. If your bar/bat mitzvah child is looking for a project, this is something they might consider doing.

ZABAN PARADIES CENTER assists couples transitioning from homelessness to resettlement and independence by providing shelter, basic necessities, and counseling services.

GAN (GARDEN) TAMID: We donated 287 pounds of produce to North Gwinnett Food Co-op. Thanks go out to Lesley Radov, Sam Lew, and Deb Eskenazi who assisted in pulling weeds and planting 290 garlic plants and the peach tree. There is constant weeding and cleanup to do, so anyone who enjoys gardening is welcome to join Lesley (lradov85@gmail.com).

HOMES AGAINST HUNGER: See the flyer on the next page for ways to help during the pandemic.

BEANIES FOR PREMATURE BABIES: We are continuing our crocheting and knitting of beanies and octopuses. Again thanks go out to our knit/crochet group: Leslie Penuel, Beverly Mahone, Jane Radman, Sherry Fages, Janet Levy, Helene Kraselsky, Anita Walters, and Sharon Rocco.

UPCOMING PROJECTS:

Through a combined toy drive with The Place of Forsyth, headed by Mia Fuller, we will be providing toys and items to fill the wish lists of over 2000 children.

For a program with Action Ministries, we will gather together via Zoom to package/assemble food in sealable bags for children who are in need of food for weekends and weekdays. This is similar to Backpack Buddies. Once completed and dropped off at CDT, Deb Eskenazi will pick up and deliver.

Watch for more information about these efforts via eBlast, CDT's Facebook page, and the CDT website.

We still need donations!!

Although CDT's food collection is on hold due to COVID-19, there is still a need for food to feed families and children.

If you would like to make a monetary donation in lieu of donation in kind, then please consider a donation to JF&CS Kosher Food Pantry, Atlanta Community Food Bank or North Fulton Community Charities.*

JAC is a multicultural Childcare Facility located at Congregation Dor Tamid in Johns Creek.

At JAC students learn about different cultures, languages and traditions. Students learn to be more independent, more creative and social. Though the school year has already started, it's not too late to enroll your child. Call now to find out about any promotions we are running.

At JAC your child will learn in Hebrew and English!
