Rabbinic Reflections

Dear friends,

As we have now ended the Days of Awe, and its holy days of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, we are about to enter into our next set of holidays: Sukkot and Simchat Torah. These days, marked by the sukkah and the celebration of our Torah, are known by our rabbis as zman simchateinu, the time of our joy. Usually we would spend time in the sukkah, eating, praying, singing, learning, and shaking the lulav and etrog. However, this year, Sukkot, just like everything else, will be a bit different. Yes, we will still have a sukkah at CDT, which you are welcome to come to in order to fulfill the mitzvah of lesheiv ba-sukkah (sitting in the sukkah). However, we will not be able to have our large community gathering, known as Pizza in the Hut. So, I would like to invite you to do two things. First, join us tonight on the patio for erev Sukkot/Kabbalat Shabbat service. (RSVP is required. Call Stacey at 770-623-8860.) Second, take some time, as the holiday urges us, to be outside. Go on a hike, go into the woods or see a waterfall, or simply go out into your backyard at night and look up at the stars.

Following Sukkot, we will enter the holiday of Simchat Torah. This year, we have a special treat. On Friday, October 9, following our 7:00pm Shabbat service, we will join together with other congregations around the country for a fantastic online concert by the Jewish Bluegrass group, Nefesh Mountain. This should be a fantastic experience and a truly joyful way to celebrate the Torah. Saturday night, October 10, during Havdalah, we will celebrate consecration.

Finally, I want to thank everyone who helped make our holy days so special. First, I want to thank our staff: Mike Zuspan, Stacey Jahanafar, Molly Peled, Ruthanne Warnick, and Mo Alquarahuli. Thank you as well to Leslie Fox, Sherry Nemiroff, Jackie Berger, Lesley Radov, and all the other volunteers. Finally, thank you to Rob Lederman and Ella Szczupak for all of their help in the technological aspects of our services.

Wishing you all well and sending love as we begin these next holidays.

Chag sameach,

Rabbi Jordan

A Conversation with the Consul General

Presented by Rabbi Jordan and Consul General Anat Sultan-Dadon

Wednesday, October 7th — 7:30PM

Watch for more details.

President's Message

The Days of Awe at CDT were AWESome! I am still amazed at how our congregation has stepped up to the plate in this challenging time by continuing to provide a meaningful hybrid of online and in-person experiences to the community, and the High Holy Day (HHD) experience was no exception. The holidays were kicked off by a delivery of apples and honey to each congregant's home and continued with beautiful and meaningful online worship, learning opportunities, in-person experiences for Tashlich and Yizkor, and a beautiful drive-in service for the second day of Rosh Hashanah (RH), where we felt comfortable in our cars as Rabbi Jordan and Mike provided us with a meaningful in-person opportunity with lots of music and shofar blowing and perfect weather (thank you Mother Nature). I must say that I wasn't sure how I felt about watching High Holy Day services from my home, but as Gregg and I sat there with a cup of coffee on the couch as we started RH morning in front of our television, we really enjoyed our worship. Of course, there is nothing better than being together as a community, but we were overcome with the quality of the streaming experience and the energy on RH of those watching on Facebook and celebrating together through their comments. The energy was fantastic! Kol Nidre/Yom Kippur, although a more somber holiday, were also very satisfying, and there was a lot to do throughout the day to keep me from thinking about walking to my fridge. Thank you again to Rabbi Jordan, Mike, Molly, Stacey, Ruthanne, and Mo for all their hard work to make everything happen and to all the lay leadership and volunteers who were involved in orchestrating and executing all of this. The outpouring of calls, texts, posts, emails, etc., that we have received regarding the HHD experience for our community has been as AWESome as the experience itself!

The response to our HHD appeal has been very generous. Thank you to those who have already donated, and I hope that everyone else is evaluating their ability to give. The gift given by our families who donated the $18,000 match is just the starting point, and the sky is the limit. The key is participation, and every dollar counts. Our goal is to BEAT THE MATCH! Donations can be made online, by sending a check to CDT, or by calling Stacey in the office. As I stated in my HHD words, I am so proud to be serving as President of this great community.

Shanah Tovah and G'mar Chatima Tovah . . . may you be sealed in the book of life.

Stay healthy, stay safe, stay connected!

Leslie Fox, President

Cantorial Soloist's Message

Shalom chaverim - hello my friends,

I hope that you are doing well as together we continue to navigate through these strange and precarious times. As I sit down to write, it is the day after Yom Kippur, and I am truly struggling to put this day—the day after Yom Kippur—in its proper place. For me, there has always been a sense of finality, a feeling of closure, as I have found myself in the sanctuary, on the bimah listening to the final blast of the shofar signifying that Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, has come to a close. I then take off my tallit, sing through the blessings of havdalah, conclude with the motzi, and then break the fast with bread, and, most importantly—doing so with you, my friends. We shake hands, give hugs, wish each other well, and look each other in the eye, thankful that we have each made it through this difficult day—ready to put the past behind us and turn towards the upcoming year. And so, having traversed the bridge that is the time from Rosh Hashanah to Yom Kippur, the day after Yom Kippur has always felt like a beginning—that I have reached the other side.

This year, however, the day after Yom Kippur does not feel quite right. In my mind, I know that it is 5781, the new year—but, in my heart, my soul, I am not fully convinced. I wonder how many of us feel the same. Is it because there is so much going on, so much that is out of our control, so much that does not seem to appear to have an end in sight? Or is it that we were not able to celebrate and observe the Holy Days as we always have—together and in our synagogue, that makes the days after feel conspicuously out of place?

Perhaps it is that this new year, 5781, is not like the others that have come before. When 5780 was ushered in, I can't imagine that any of us expected to find ourselves unable to be in our building by Purim and that we would be having a Zoom Passover Seder. And now, in 5781, we find ourselves planning for a Zoom Chanukah and hoping that we won't have to repeat our Passover Seder—socially distanced and separated from friends and family again, as we did in 5780.

As I struggle to put today in its place, I think that what I am missing the most is the feeling of hope that in years past has so naturally and effortlessly followed the blast of the shofar. This year, I think, I am going to have to work a little harder for that sense of hope, tikvah—תקווה. This year, I will not be able to take for granted that the year will flow as it has in the past—with all of its at least somewhat expected highs and lows.

Still, I do know that as in all the years past there continues to be a substantial and compelling source of strength and promise:

Our CDT family . . . us.

I know that despite the hurdles that we face—the uncertain road we continue to travel, if we rely on each other for strength, if we are there to care for and support each other, we can continue moving into this next year propelled by the hope that our togetherness sustains.

Rabbi Nachman of Breslov is said to have exclaimed, “The whole entire world is a very narrow bridge and the main thing is to have no fear at all.” Perhaps this year, the main thing is to walk that narrow bridge together—yad b'yad—יד ביד—hand in hand.

Im shalom—עם שלום—with peace,

Mike Zuspan

Education Director's Message

Sept. 13th was the first virtual school day of this school year and look how many smiles! 124 students from Pre-K to 10th grade came together virtually to learn about Rosh Hashanah, practice their Hebrew, and get to know one another while having fun with each other!

Not too bad for the first day of school!

The teachers were nervous, the parents were skeptical, and the kids weren't sure how to have fun in front of a screen. But at the end of the day we had more smiles and happy kids than ever before. We came together, and we made it work! Can you believe that this year we have students in Texas and even a student in London! Our school has become international! Thank you teachers, parents, and students for making CDT Religious School such a special and wonderful place to belong to! We have proven that nothing can stop us!

*Until next month . . . Shalom.
Molly*

From the Ritual Chair

Dear Friends,

High Holy Days 5781 Reimagined! As Ritual and High Holy Day Committee Chair, this year has been full of challenges, firsts and thinking outside the box. Working with Rabbi Jordan, Mike and the entire professional staff and lay leadership, we began in June to plan for multiple scenarios for the High Holy Days! Living in a world of COVID-19, we relied on each other and our team of medical advisors to come up with meaningful and safe ways to worship as a Congregational Family during these uncharted waters. The saying “It Takes a Village” is true. We were partners in our efforts, and the results were phenomenal. We’ve received so many heartfelt compliments and thanks from our CDT families, and I’ve been overwhelmed by their gratitude.

I want to thank Rabbi Jordan for his insight and leadership during this process. It was inspiring to navigate the waters with him. Mike once again brought his musical genius to our services, setting the spiritual tone for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Behind the scenes there are always a myriad of people to acknowledge, knowing that without them things would not happen. Stacey Jahanfar for keeping the office afloat and attending to every detail. Ruthanne Warnick for her editing and organizing skills. Leslie Fox for her leadership, tireless dedication, and thoughtfulness as our Temple President. Rob Lederman for the countless hours of editing and technical assistance. Jackie Berger for her tireless work on our Yizkor book and routing sheets so we could personally deliver our gift bags for a sweet new year to all our congregants. The Ritual Committee members for always questioning and helping with the difficult decisions, and so many others who jumped in to help when needed.

I am truly humbled to have been part of this amazing team and to be part of our CDT family. It is my hope that, as we have entered 5781, we will all be together to greet each other personally, give a hug, and worship in our sanctuary.

With sincerest gratitude,

Sherry Nemiroff

Ritual and High Holy Days Committee Chair

ZABAN PARADIES CENTER HOMELESS SHELTER: We are still looking for congregants to volunteer to fill the March 18 slot. Our commitment is to provide meals.

A big shout out to: Lisa Winton and her husband, Sisterhood, CDT Board, Jackie Berger, Lesley Radov, Ruthie Cohen, Richard Fiedel, Edie Davis, Lynda Galler Linda Barton, and Sharon Rocco

Volunteers are currently being asked to provide a meal for the residents. This can be a home prepared meal or something purchased. Due to COVID-19, serving the residents is currently on hold until further notice, and we are being asked to just deliver the food.

NOTE: This is a very rewarding project. Take your child, grandchild, friends, or spouse with you. If your Bar/Bat Mitzvah child is looking for a project, this is something they might consider doing.

ZABAN PARADIES CENTER assists couples transitioning from homelessness to resettlement and independence by providing shelter, basic necessities, and counseling services.

GAN (GARDEN) TAMID: If you are able to assist Lesley Radov with pulling weeds, please contact her at lradov85@gmail.com. Our vegetable garden has produced more than 212 pounds of food, and the harvested produce was provided to North Gwinnett Food Co-Op in Buford.

HOMES AGAINST HUNGER: Due to COVID-19, this is on hold until we can determine how to proceed. Stay tuned for updates.

There is still a need for food to feed families and children. In lieu of collecting food, if you so desire, we ask you to make a monetary donation to the following. It will be very much appreciated.
