Dear friends,

At the writing of this letter, we are just a few weeks away from our celebration of the Days of Awe. As I have written before, most things about the holidays will be different this year. Different yes, but our goals of spiritual elevation, of chesbon hanefesh/self-reflection and growth, as well as engagement with our Congregation Dor Tamid community, remain the same. We will get there in a different way this time, but we will still get there together.

These holidays will be highlighted largely by streamed services that will be found on our website as well as on CDT's Facebook page. There will also be opportunities for live engagement with the community, both by Zoom, such as a Community Candle Blessing and Kiddush on the evening of Rosh Hashanah, as well as in-person Tashlich gatherings at our CDT meditation path.

Additionally, we will have the opportunity this year to come together physically in a new space . . . specifically, the parking lot of Johns Creek Presbyterian Church. I am so filled with gratitude that JCPC has invited us to use their campus for a "drive-in" 2nd-day Rosh Hashanah service on Sunday, September 20, where we will have the opportunity to worship together, sing together, and hear the shofar together (even if we are all in our individual cars).

I have so much gratitude for the Congregation Dor Tamid staff, the Ritual and High Holy Days Committees, the Board of Directors, and all of you who have offered constructive ideas and support that have carried us through this time and this challenging planning process. CDT is such a strong community, and it is because of all of you.

I look forward to celebrating the coming holidays with each of you in our CDT community, as we welcome the New Year of 5781 with hopes and prayers for health and peace.

B'ahavah (with love),

Rabbi Jordan

President's Message

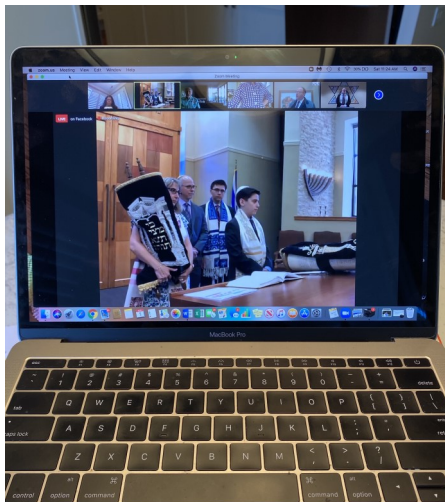

The September newsletter . . . this is a bit hard to believe! The days since COVID-19 started may seem long individually, but at the same time we are entering the last quarter of the year. Time is just zooming by . . . literally! The fact that we are connected by technology during this time when we are physically distant is one of the silver linings I referred to in my message last month. Zoom has become a household word that is used all too often, as that is our platform to “be together.” Zoom has become a verb in good company with Venmo and the like. It is probably the “Kleenex” of video conferencing programs. I believe that CDT has made the most of Zooming over the past 6 months. We have celebrated lifecycle events, studied Torah, visited, prayed, played games, held meetings, etc., and now religious school is about to begin virtually as well. As much as we have tried to keep a sense of normalcy through technology, I am so thrilled that we are starting to have more in-person, socially-distant events at CDT, as this is what I miss most.

While sitting at the Havdalah in August I looked around, and, although we were masked and distanced, I was so happy to be with my CDT community. To sing and dance and say goodbye to Shabbat together was different this time. It seemed a bit more special. We all have come to appreciate many things we used to take for granted. Being together is so simple yet so difficult right now. Just being able to share physical space for that one hour allowed us to leave feeling rejuvenated and refreshed. CDT is moving toward a more regular schedule for outdoor Friday evening Shabbat services, as well as creating other gatherings to allow us to be outside safely and in person. This does not come without strings, as we are dependent on the weather while outside. So, while we deal with Mother Nature and our world moves toward eradicating COVID-19, I will keep Zooming every day and cherish the in-person moments of connection as time continues to zoom forward.

Heading into the High Holidays, I want to wish every one of you and your families Shana Tovah. May this year bring us back together again!!!

Stay safe, stay healthy, stay connected!

Cantorial Soloist's Message

Shalom chaverim - hello my friends,

As these words find you, we are in the midst of the Jewish month of Elul. This month is the last month of our Jewish calendar year and, as it leads to Rosh Hashanah and then Yom Kippur, it provides us an opportunity to prepare for the High Holy Days — the Yamim Noraim. During this month, we reflect on the year that was and on who we were during that year. Did we achieve our goals? Were we kind? Did we act out of love? Did we pursue justice? Did we stand up for what we thought to be good and right? If we missed the mark, did we acknowledge and then refocus and double our efforts? Did we learn anything in our many failures? Are we better people? What should we take with us into the new year? What should we leave behind?

So many hard questions and so many difficult answers.

Usually, my words to us on the last month of our Jewish year have been about either this accounting of the soul that we begin to work on in the month of Elul or a prayer for the new year. As this year has been anything but usual, I instead feel it more needed to put to paper (or rather to screen) — to acknowledge — maybe a little of where we have been and what we are still going through.

Some of us have recovered from injuries and sickness. Some of us are still battling injury and sickness. Some of us have lost jobs and found new jobs. Some of us are searching for employment right now. Some of us have moved to new neighborhoods, new schools, new professions. Some of us are in a holding pattern — waiting to make important life changes, waiting to move forward with their lives. Some of us have gone through major changes in relationships. Some of us have begun new relationships. Some of us have watched, bittersweetly, our children move away. Some of us have joyously brought new lives into our homes. Some of us have lost loved ones and friends and are walking down an unfamiliar path trying to make sense of the world. And all of us continue to navigate an unfamiliar and unpredictable world of pandemic, economic challenge, and social upheaval.

Together, as we navigate through this month of Elul . . . as we look back at the year that was, I offer on behalf of us all, this prayer for 5781:

May your words be kind. May you act with compassion. May your deeds be a blessing to others. May your relationships be strengthened. May you and all those you love have good health. May you be free of pain. May the memories of those you have lost be a comfort. May your children and grandchildren grow strong, wise and fulfilled. May you deepen your commitment to your community. May you find meaning in your journey. May Adonai hear your prayers.

Shanah Tovah,

Education Director's Message

And we are off to a great start!!

On August 30th, just a few days ago, 78 cars showed up at CDT's parking lot to pick up their children's material for the first semester of virtual religious school. Out of 127 boxes, 122 were picked up. All the teachers and madrichim were waiting with excitement to wave to each student and give them a hug from afar.

It was a unanimous feeling of happiness seeing everyone together again after being apart for so long.

Even though virtual learning for religious school would not have been our first choice, as of now it is the safest. I have always said that each and every student in our religious school is a child of mine, and I will protect them the best I can as if I was their mother. I truly believe we are doing the right thing for our community, and it is my job to make lemonade out of lemons! With the help of our amazing teachers and madrichim, I know we can do it!

Here is to a great 2020-2021 school year!
Shannah Tovah everyone!

Love,

Molly

A Four-Week
Online Adult Education Program
from Liturgist Alden Solovy

Thursdays: August 27 - September 17 12:00-1:00 PM

Mysteries of the Machzor – Week 1 – The Power of the Day

We'll open our Mysteries of the Machzor series by exploring the Unetaneh Tokef, a four-part masterpiece echoing the themes of the High Holidays. Enter the prayer that is a study in contrasts, and the inspiration for Leonard Cohen's song 'Who by Fire.'

Mysteries of the Machzor – Week 2 – Confessions Past and Present

This week in our Mysteries of the Machzor class, we'll examine the unique language of the two traditional confessionals, together known as Vidui – the alphabetic acrostic (Ashamnu) and the longer "For the Sin" (Al Chet) – contrasting them with modern alternatives.

Mysteries of the Machzor – Week 3 – Mystic Doorway

In our next Mysteries of the Machzor class, we'll look at the Kol Nidre, the dramatic mystical doorway into a full day of deep reflection and prayer, a day with the promise of forgiveness.

Mysteries of the Machzor – Week 4 – A Spiritual Compass

Our final Mysteries of the Machzor class will explore the Aveinu Malkeinu (Almighty and Merciful), a haunting set of supplications which are also a reminder of our relationship to G-d as the source of our blessings.

Social Action

Tikkun Olam — תיקון עולם Repair the World

As the months go by and we all endure “the pandemic,” there are still things we can do to fulfill and do a mitzvah as a congregation to repair the world. Your Social Action Committee recently met and brainstormed some new projects as well as confirmed existing projects.

Welcome to new committee members Barri Gertz and Glenn Moscoso. Anyone who wants to join our group and offer new ideas will be welcome. Please consider joining us at our next meeting. This serves as a social gathering as well as being productive in providing tikkun olam.

ZABAN PARADIES CENTER HOMELESS SHELTER: This is a very rewarding project, and we need your help in fulfilling our commitment. Take your child, grandchild, friends, or spouse. If your bar/bat mitzvah child is looking for a project, this is something they might consider doing.

Volunteers are currently being asked to provide a meal — home-prepared or purchased — for the residents. Due to COVID-19, serving the residents is currently on hold until further notice.

The Zaban Paradies Center assists couples transitioning from homelessness to resettlement and independence by providing shelter, basic necessities, and counseling services.

ZABAN PARADIES CENTER
FOR HOMELESS COUPLES

Congregation Dor Tamid

THE ZABAN PARADIES CENTER ASSISTS HOMELESS COUPLES BY PROVIDING SHELTER, BASIC NECESSITIES AND COUNSELING.

ONCE A MONTH, CDT VOLUNTEERS PROVIDE DINNER FOR THE RESIDENTS
(SERVING OF THE DINNER IS TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED DUE TO THE PANDEMIC.)

WE NEED VOLUNTEERS TO PROVIDE DINNERS FOR THE FOLLOWING DATES:
WEDNESDAY, NOV 18 THURSDAY, DEC 17 MONDAY, JAN 18
THURSDAY, FEB 18 TUESDAY, MAY 18

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT LESLEY RADOV - LRADOV85@GMAIL.COM

HOMES AGAINST HUNGER: Due to COVID-19, this is on hold until we can determine how to proceed. Stay tuned for updates.

There is still a need for food to feed families and children. In lieu of collecting food, if you so desire, we ask you to make a monetary donation to the following. It will be very much appreciated.

North Fulton Charities - <https://nfcchelp.org/donate/>
Atlanta Community Food Bank – www.acfb.org

COAT DRIVE: North Fulton Community Charities indicated they will be sponsoring this drive and will let me know the details in September. Keep an eye out for more information on dates for collection, etc.

GAN TAMID: So far this year, our vegetable garden has produced more than 212 pounds of food. The harvested produce is provided to North Gwinnett Food Co-Op in Buford.

Planting is completed, although weeding is an ongoing and laborious job. Thanks to Debbi Eskenazi and Lesley Radov for being dedicated to this. Anyone interested in helping weed our garden is welcome to do so. Contact Lesley Radov at lradov85@gmail.com for details.

BEANIES FOR PRE-MATURE BABIES: We will be mailing the completed beanies and octopuses to the Northside Hospital NICU. Our Knitting/Crochet Group continues to meet weekly and continues to create these adorable beanies and octopuses.

If you know of another hospital or charity that can use our handmade beanies and octopuses, let me know and I will contact them.

MITZVAH DAY — MLK WEEKEND: Rabbi Jordan continues to meet with the Johns Creek Interfaith Alliance on a monthly basis. He is working with them to do a group project, and additional information will be provided soon.

NEW PROJECTS — STAY TUNED FOR DETAILS:

Action Ministries: Virtual food drive similar to backpack buddies, but we wouldn't be responsible for a specific school and number of meals. We are thinking we might shoot for November in keeping with Thanksgiving or possibly in conjunction with a Jewish holiday, maybe early December just before Chanukah.

Individual families will purchase needed items and put them into gallon size bags called SuperPacks. This can be done as a Zoom project, so individuals will have a social outlet. It can be done with children/grandchildren or as a possible bar/bat mitzvah tikkun olam/social action project

CDT Outdoors Cleanup Day: Our goal will be to clean the CDT outdoor premises to include the pathway and meditation garden, as well as Gan Tamid (vegetable garden). This is still in the discussion phase. More details to follow.

Canine Assistance: This organization trains and places service dogs with people who have mobility difficulties, Type 1 diabetes, epilepsy/seizure disorders, and other special needs. They also place Community Service Dogs who provide therapy services to children and adults primarily in children's hospitals. They provide a Disabilities Awareness Education Program and K-9 Kids Reading Program for school-age children, as well as Animal Assisted Therapy services. There are many ways to participate in this program.

We are looking for ideas on other types of project we can do, so please do not hesitate to let me know your thoughts. Contact me at srocco1951@gmail.com.

Sisterhood

For the last year (actually, the past several years), my Mom and I often talked about the big blowout party for my dad's birthday in 2020. This August, Dad celebrated his 100th Birthday. Yes I really did say 100! Wow, how often does a 100-year birthday happen? Dad is really 100 years young. He actually had a job, until this past February.

Then 'COVID' hit; he got furloughed ;). As his birthday drew near, the realization that my husband, my children, and I would not be able to attend this momentous occasion became clearer and clearer. You see, Dad, Mom, and most of my family live in New York. COVID-19 and 14 days of quarantine . . . need I say more? The last thing I would want to do is inadvertently infect any of my family with this extremely infectious disease.

Dad and I have always been very close. I struggled with the decision as to whether or not to even go to New York, thinking of all the different ways and places to quarantine. Maybe I could fly up for the day, and many other possible or impossible ideas came to mind. All these thoughts and ideas had become too complicated and emotional. It was time to take a deep breath, step back, and take most of the emotion away from this decision. I needed to look at it in a more logical and Jewish way — in some ways, similar to the difficult decision on the best way to bring this year's High Holy Days services to our congregation. Ultimately, a decision that is believed to be the healthiest for all involved . . . conduct it virtually.

I appreciate and applaud those involved with the conception and setting up of this year's High Holy Days. It starts with wonderful and heartfelt videos of Elul: A Journey to the Days of Awe. The programming and collaboration with Temple Beth Tikvah, other rabbis, and speakers throughout Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services is truly AWESome. Thank you to everyone involved for all the time, effort, and energy that is being put into all the upcoming services. Although we will all miss being together physically, we really will be there, together, through the next best thing to being there — Zoom.

Which is exactly what I did with Dad and his 100th birthday.

JAC is a multicultural Childcare Facility located at Congregation Dor Tamid in Johns Creek.

At JAC students learn about different cultures, languages and traditions. Students learn to be more independent, more creative and social. Though the school year has already started, it's not too late to enroll your child. Call now to find out about any promotions we are running.

At JAC your child will learn in Hebrew and English!
