Rabbinic Reflections

Dear friends,

Three years ago, as we gathered to welcome in the New Year on Erev Rosh Hashanah, I spoke the following words:

"We may not know what the future brings, but we have the opportunity, through repentance, prayer, and charity to better ourselves. We have the opportunity, during these Holy Days, to examine our own personal relationship, and to try and improve how we relate to ourselves in the year to come."

What was an innocent phrase to begin wrapping up my sermon that evening, turned out to be something much more profound. We truly did not know what the future would be bringing us, just a few months later, as the COVID-19 pandemic reached our community. But not only did we not know what the future would bring, we were forced, by those days and weeks of solitude and quarantine, to examine our relationship with ourselves and one another.

That was three years ago, and our perspectives on the world have been changed in many ways. We have, as a community, grown in so many ways because of the strain that COVID put on each one of us and, as evidenced by the sheer number of people participating in recent events, services, and programs, has led us to a renewed commitment across our congregational family during this celebration of our 18th year as a congregation.

In just a few short weeks, we will gather again to celebrate our New Year. This year will feel very familiar, and also incredibly different—all for the same reason: We are coming home! For the first time in three years, we will be celebrating the High Holy Days in our own sanctuary here on Parsons Road, where we will sing, dance, pray, and welcome each other as we also engage in the holy work of chesbon hanefesh, the accounting of our souls that is so central to these days.

In the days leading up to the New Year, it is traditional to say the words of Psalm 27:4 that say, "Achat she'alti, One thing I ask of Adonai, only that do I seek, to reside in the house of Adonai all the days of my life and to gaze upon the beauty of Adonai and frequent God's temple." This year, as we welcome in 5783 together, we will have this wish fulfilled—to finally be able to be in God's house, our own holy sanctuary, for the High Holy Days, together and as one community.

I look forward to seeing you all here at CDT!

Shanah tovah,

Rabbi Jordan

New Member Corner

This section of the newsletter is dedicated to our new members joining us recently. We are so proud and excited to have this family a part of our community. Enjoy getting to know the Kaidar-Heafetz family and extend a welcome hand.

We are Kaidar-Heafetz family – Ofir, Zehavit, Eshkar (17.5), Shomri (14), and Lavi-Koren (11)

Originally from Israel, Ofir, Zehavit and Eshkar came to the states 14 years ago. Shomri and Lavi-Koren were born in St. Louis, Mo. After 3 1/2 years in St. Louis, we moved to Atlanta.

Ofir enjoys daily workouts and long hikes. Zehavit pursued her passion for baking by running a business for 8 years, but earlier this year opted for a change and started a new job in the finance field. In addition to baking, Zehavit also enjoys pottery. Eshkar is focused on his senior year, and as the debate captain of Chattahoochee HS he hopes to achieve a debate scholarship for college. Shomri has begun his final year at Taylor Road Middle School. He loves reading, swimming, and bike riding. Recently Shomri completed his Bar Mitzvah project and donated $1000 and several bicycles to 'Free Bikes 4 Kids ATL'. Lavi-Koren started his first year at Taylor Road Middle School. He loves Jiu Jitsu, boxing and video Games. He also loves to bake with Zehavit.

After many years in ATL we are looking for a warm and welcoming community to call our home away from home. We are hoping that Dor Tamid will be that place for us, as our home and hearts will always be open to our Dor Tamid family.

President's Message

Leslie Fox

September is upon us, and CDT has a lot going on! September brings us to the High Holy Days (HHD), and it has also seen three sessions of Religious School. Information on the HHD has gone out and we look forward to seeing you at CDT. This year, we will be together as one community in our spiritual home celebrating the Days of Awe. Please get your rsvp's back as soon as possible so that we can plan as well as possible.

School is off to an amazing start and the kids are enjoying themselves while learning Hebrew and about being Jewish. Rabbi Jordan, the staff, the Education Committee and Rachel Allen, our VP of Education, have worked hard with our teachers and madrichim to get this year off to a fabulous start.

As you learned recently, Rachel Allen, who serves currently on our Board as a VP of Education and President-Elect, is serving as Interim Religious School Coordinator for the remainder of this school year. This will allow us to take the time to analyze our needs and do a full nation-wide search for the next amazing member of our CDT office team.

This month we had two Chai for Chai events. The first was an Adult Ed where a panel of Past Presidents and Founding Members discussed the creation of our CDT 18 years ago, and then the 60's Musical Shabbat with about 150 people in attendance groovin' to the music! The energy when we are all together is contagious!

Before our Musical Shabbat, we had a New Member Shabbat Dinner with over 80 people in attendance. We invited all new members that have joined our CDT community since 2020. The pandemic curtailed our ability to meet and welcome our new members in person, and our goal this year was to bring them all together to meet each other, our Board of Directors, and Membership Committee. The dinner was a huge success and our newest members got to enjoy Musical Shabbat on a full tummy! We ended the evening with a delicious Oneg sponsored by our PrimeTimers.

There is one Chai for Chai event before the High Holy Days are upon us...DUELING PIANOS!!! Join us on September 10th for a fun night! Look for more information in this newsletter and CDT Eblasts.

Remember, our goal this year is to get as much 'life' as possible into our building in celebration of our Chai year. Check out our 18 events for 18 years, Chai for Chai, as well as all the great things we have going on. Hope to see you soon!

Cantorial Soloist's Message

Shalom Chaveirim - hello my friends,

"In a Few Short Weeks...we will be moving into our new home on Parsons Road. It has been a long haul, but when you walk into our building for the first time I think that you will agree that the wait was worthwhile."

Mike Zuspan

These were the words written on the front page of our newsletter in August of 2008 by Mark Kopkin, the then Building Committee Chair. As the High Holy Days (the Chagim) approach this year, I can't help but think back to that time - that first. I have been trying to place this upcoming Jewish New Year. After all, we haven't been in our building to celebrate the New Year together since 2019 - since the end of the last decade. I think the time this most resembles is when we first entered our building. And this time for me is a second Shehechyanu, if you will. A "new first".

In 2008 during the beginning few days at our building, we celebrated so many firsts. We celebrated our first Shabbat, our first Sukkot, our first Simchat Torah, our first Adult B'nai Mitzvah cohort. This year, we have many things that are new as well. We will have newness to our Rosh Hashanah services with the participation of our youth choir - Kol Sasson. We will have newness this Yom Kippur, with additional music and instrumentation. Our Religious School has evolved. We will have a new Musical Tot Shabbat, new adult education, new events at which to socialize, new social action opportunities, and so much more.

This year we will even celebrate, as a new cohort of Adult B'nai Mitzvah chant Torah and lead us in a Shabbat Morning Service. As we reenter our building this year to observe the Chagim, let us be renewed. Let us be strengthened and inspired by these new beginnings.

L'Shalom,

Mike Zuspan
Cantorial Soloist

Collin is in the 7th grade, and is an honor roll student at Autrey Mill Middle School. He loves playing soccer. He spends a lot of time training at home and with his GSA SCCL Club team. He will only watch the best soccer in the world, which he claims is the European Premier League. He also loves hanging out with his friends at Newtown Park or going to the local JC High School Football games.

Collin wanted to help some of the struggling animal shelters in our area for his Tikkun Olam/social action project. He knows that our family has adopted two dogs (Penny and Nino) from the Humane Society. As people returned to work from the pandemic, many pets that were adopted started to be returned to the shelters. Collin wanted to help the shelters who were in need of supplies. He collected bowls, collars and leashes and blankets that animals can use at Fulton Animal Services. He also collected money to donate to help animals who are in need of surgical procedures.

Mazal Tov מזל טוב

Mazel Tov to our B'nai Mitzvah Students

Reese is an 8th grader at Lakeside Middle School in Forsyth County whom you will usually find studying, playing sports, or belting out show tunes. She is recognized as a high achiever and hard worker in everything she does, except for her art skills which in her own words, "... haven't improved since 1st grade!" Reese has a brain full of smarts and wit, a heart full of love and compassion, and a smile of laughter and joy. As most of you know, Reese plays competitive soccer at Atlanta Fire United and also enjoys performing musical theater, throwing a football, playing card games, spending time with family and friends, and taking naps in the car (for which she is famously impossible to wake).

For Reese's tikkun olam / mitzvah project, she elected to volunteer and raise money for TopSoccer which combined her desire to work with children with special needs and her love of soccer. Reese's greatest joy is to make others smile, and she thoroughly enjoyed her mitzvah project.

Alyssa is an 8th grader at Pinckneyville Middle School and has been an honor roll student the past 2 years. She loves art, is an avid reader, and is an integral member of her club soccer team. Alyssa enjoys family time, bike riding, tennis, and swimming, and has been a Girl Scout for 8 years. She loves our trips to England, where she feels a strong affinity with the country.

Alyssa is a very caring individual, often thinking of others before herself. Her inspiration for her Bat Mitzvah tikkun olam social action project came from receiving a crocheted blanket as a baby in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit at Northside Hospital. She has spent many diligent hours working hard to crochet blankets to donate to the hospital so others may have what she received those 13 years ago.

Julia is in her final year at Pinckneyville Middle School and has been an honor roll student the past 2 years. She enjoys working on creative art projects, has a love of Greek mythology, and has been a Girl Scout for 8 years. Julia enjoys tennis, swimming, and bike rides with the family, as well as working hard with her soccer team. She loves to travel within the country and overseas, and hopes to fulfill a burning ambition to gain a deeper understanding of mythology by visiting Greece.

Julia has a strong desire to share her love of art with others. For her Bat Mitzvah tikkun olam social action project, she has collected art supplies to donate to Children's Healthcare of Atlanta. She hopes the baskets full of supplies will help children of all ages temporarily forget about their medical troubles and lose themselves in an art project, as she loves to do.

Education

Rachel Allen

Welcome Back!! As many of you know, we had our grand reopening of the CDT Religious School just a few short weeks ago and what a wonderful and exciting event it was. The excitement and energy was contagious from the moment the students and parents drove into CDT. From our wonderful teachers to our dedicated madrichim, and all of the many volunteers and parents/guardians that attended, it truly was an educational and fantastic day. Our community here at CDT is so strong and the support that we get from each of you is truly outstanding. We had representatives here from many of our committees including sisterhood, men's club, social action and social events/fundraising to provide information and volunteer opportunities to our parents and guardians. We all began the day with a beautiful shirah led by the Rabbi and Mike, and then the students headed to class to begin their engaging day of learning. Our parents remained in the sanctuary where Rabbi Jordan provided us with important information about the schedule, procedure and curriculum for the new school year. We ended the meeting with some coffee, bagels and socializing.

We are so excited about some of our new programs involved with the religious school this year. We have a new curriculum developed by Rabbi Jordan. Mike has created a new children's choir and they are already getting prepared for some upcoming events at CDT, and our madrichim and madrichim in training program is stronger than ever. We cannot be more excited for this school year.

Homes Against Hunger

Paula Bloom

We are so happy to have been able to start-up Homes Against Hunger again after a long break due to the pandemic. Donations were sorted on August 28th, and it was inspiring to see how many people made generous donations. The food went to the North Fulton Community Charities Food Bank, which helps so many needy families in our community.

Thank you to all of you who dropped off food at CDT or arranged to have donations picked up at your homes. We will let you know the next time we will be doing Homes Against Hunger.

If you have any questions about this fantastic initiative, please email: homesagainsthunger@dortamid.com

The annual Atlanta Pride Parade is set for October 9th. We will have a group from CDT assembling and marching together.

If you are interested in more details, please contact Paula Bloom at: (pbloom99@yahoo.com)

Gan Tamid

The garden is continuing to yield fruits, vegetables, and spices despite our strange weather. The North Gwinnett Food Bank is delighted, as always, to receive all these goodies.

If you want to get your hands dirty, please contact Lesley Radov (lradov85@gmail.com).

Do you have a Social Action Passion?

Besides our normal Social Action initiatives such as Homes Against Hunger, the Gan Tamid Garden, monthly dinners for the residents of Zaban Paradies (for couples and families learning how to become self-sufficient), Blood Drives, and the Hunger Walk, we are making plans for other exciting projects benefiting those in our community that need assistance.

We started the summer with five carloads of donations of clothing, household goods, personal items, toys and books benefiting Ukrainian Refugees settling in our area. Some temple members also donated furniture which was greatly appreciated as these families try to set up their homes. We have some other great initiatives that are in the planning stages.

If you would like to provide some input about future projects, please take the following SurveyMonkey Survey: CDT Social Action Project Survey

If you would like to be part of Social Action, please contact Paula Bloom (pbloom99@yahoo.com). Do as much or as little as you want, or just get on our distribution list to see what is going on.
