It is a tradition to honor our beloved deceased by reciting Yizkor (memorial) prayers on Yom Kippur afternoon. Rabbi Weiss will read the names of all those who have passed away between last Rosh Hashanah to this Yom Kippur.

In order to ensure that your loved ones are included in this recitation, please complete this form and return it to the JRC Office by Friday, August 30, 2019.

Yizkor List

Please list any relatives or friends who have died since last Rosh Hashanah (September 10, 2018). If possible, please include the English date and year of their death. Use additional pages if necessary.

TO ENSURE ACCURACY, PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Your Name</th>
<th>Name of Departed</th>
<th>Relationship to You</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Please Note

- Only the names of those who have died in the past year are read during the Yizkor Service on Yom Kippur.
- Due to time constraints and our printer’s schedule, we cannot guarantee inclusion of names received after August 30.

Please return this form to JRC with your contribution by Friday, August 30, 2019.

JRC
303 Dodge Avenue
Evanston, Illinois 60202

At this time of year, we also include the names of loved ones departed in years past so that they may live on in our memories. Please use the other side of this form to share memories of your loved one(s).
JRC’s Memorial Book provides a way for members to make the holidays more personally meaningful by memorializing those we love and strengthening the connections between us as JRC members. It’s an opportunity to share your reflections and favorite memories of your loved ones.

In the Jewish tradition, when a righteous person dies, we say "zikrnon livrakh" – may their memory be a blessing. It is we, the living, who turn the memories of our loved ones into blessings – by echoing in our own lives the best of who they were, and by sharing what we remember with our communities. Preserving these memories is a central Jewish value.

We hope you’ll share a short piece about those you loved, perhaps focusing on who they were, what they taught you, or how we all can learn from their lives. You may write about one person in particular, or multiple pieces about different people, whether the loss occurred in the past year or previously. We ask that you limit your piece to 100 words, given space limitations. (Note: This collection will not be distributed outside the congregation.)

The following samples from past years’ Memorial Books illustrate some of the possibilities:

The Friedland Family remembers their mother and grandmother, Ruth Friedland
Ruth was a terrific mother and wife; a caring person who loved everyone and who was loved by everyone.

David Block, Susan Kaplan and Benji and Welcome Kaplan-Block remember their mother and grandmother, Judith Block. Judith was a passionate music and art lover, and a leader of her Jewish community in Schenectday, NY. She will be dearly missed by her family and friends. May her memory be for a blessing.

Please use the space provided below to write your piece. Use additional pages if necessary.

TO ENSURE ACCURACY, PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY

Your Name __________________________ Name of Departed __________________________

Please share a short piece about your loved one:

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

Your Name __________________________ Name of Departed __________________________

Please share a short piece about your loved one:

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

We hope you will consider making a contribution to JRC in memory of your loved one; in addition to embodying the value of tzedakah (charitable giving), memorial donations are a time-honored Jewish custom on the occasion of a yahrzeit or High Holidays. Indicate your contribution on the other side of this form. Thank you.

PLEASE READ AND COMPLETE BOTH SIDES OF THIS FORM