THE VOICE OF B'NAI AVIV

קול בני אביב

*From the desk of Rich Cohen,
B'nai Aviv President*

It finally happened. The nachas that I always heard my Mom(z'l) talk about—my grandchildren boldly and clearly sang the Four Questions. It was not only the fact that they carried on our traditions, but the joy in knowing that my children made sure that their children knew that Judaism was an important part of their lives and the fabric of who they are.

Where did the years go? I remember being the youngest at Seders and now I was the leader of this ritual. When did I become knowledgeable enough to assume this important role, and was I doing it right?

I am sure I am not alone in having these feelings. We all have experiences from our pasts that make us who we are today. Are we doing the right things in the right way? Are we afraid to admit that we don't understand why we do certain things in traditional ways, even though we know we must do them?

Nike has a slogan "Just Do It". While it is a catchy phrase, it really sums up what we must do as Jews. There are plenty of reasons and /or excuses for us not to carry on our traditions, but as I like to say, "ya gotta do what ya gotta do". Our Clergy and Professionals are great resources to answer your questions of what we do, how we do and why we do. It is as simple as asking them to bring a greater clarity on our traditions so that we may pass them along to future generations.

Our Synagogue has a proud past and an even more promising future. To ensure generational continuity, I have asked Seth Lubin and Aron Leibowich, both Past Presidents, to lead a Strategic Planning Committee. You will be hearing a lot about their activities in the coming months and I urge you to participate in this important initiative. L'Dor V'dor isn't just a slogan for us – it is a moral imperative.

I look forward to joining you in making our Kehillah stronger and more relevant. It is up to us all and we must never falter in our obligations to one another so that future generations have the joy in experiencing our traditions as we do today.

Remember, YOU belong here!

B'Shalom,

Dr. Miriam Klein Kassenoff

Dr. Klein Kassenoff very nearly became a casualty of the Nazis. She was only four years old when her family escaped from Czechoslovakia and was sheltered by a network of rescuers as, for eight terrifying months, they made their way across Nazi-occupied Europe to Lisbon, where they boarded a ship bound for America in May 1941. Join us to hear her fascinating story!

From the desk of... Mindy Bernstein, ECEC Director

It's hard to believe our 2017-2018 school year has only 2 months left. I look back over the year with so many fond memories – Our first Shabbat of the school year, opening of our new playroom, our High Holiday activities and our Thanksgiving feast, just to name a few of our many fun-filled experiences.

We are celebrating our next holiday of Passover. Passover is an exceptional annual holiday that is especially participatory for young children. The customs and rituals practiced in celebrating the holiday necessitate use of all of our senses. We hear the story of the Exodus from Egypt; we hear the repetitions of phrases and traditional songs and prayers; we see the symbols in our tasty food commemorating our ancestors' experience. The youngest child at the Seder table asks the four questions, the answers to which explain “why this night is different from all other nights?”

I often ask myself the same question about our school “why is our ECEC preschool different from any other preschool?” The answer is quite simple! Our sense of family and community, our dedicated parents' commitment to the school, staff and the children, our nurturing staff, great communication, our popular enrichment programs, #1 voluntary pre-kindergarten scores, small class ratios and classrooms fully equipped with rich, learning materials and an equal balance of teachable moments and play. Playing is learning!

We are very excited to be enrolling for the 2018/2019 school year. Registration is underway and our early bird tuition is going on now. You belong here!

From the desk of Eliot Tillinger... Religious School Director

When you think of parent involvement, do you picture moms and dads volunteering in classrooms? That's one way to help, but research has shown that supporting your child's education at home is even more important. Here are conversation starters that will help you stay involved.

"Tell me what you did in class today."

Ask about what they are learning and how they are doing. You could remark on the current holiday or Israel project, for instance. ("I'm pleased to see how much you know about our people's history!")

"Tell me what your teacher did in class today."

It's your child's place to do their classwork, but you play a role too. Make sure they know what they're supposed to do by having them explain the assignments to you.

"Describe a book event or musical activity you enjoyed today."

This gives you an idea of what our children prefer to read. Encourage reading and listening skills by reading aloud, followed by them reading Hebrew aloud to you; this strengthens their retention of taught lessons.

"Tell me about what you learned that you'd like to know more about."

Use interests as jumping-off points for discussions. If children love talking about our Jewish holidays, you can reinforce learned lessons by having them "teach" you about the meaning and observances of the holiday. If they are fascinated by Tefillah (prayer), take them along to Shabbat service on Friday night or Saturday morning and further enlighten and enhance their comfort participating in services together; it's a wonderful and meaningful family bonding experience for all.

The past weeks were wonderful with religious school students decorating Purim masks, making their own Megillah scrolls, bejeweled crowns, groggers and of course handmade hamantaschen (hopefully at least one made it home intact for parents to taste!).

All students celebrated Passover by participating in Pesach Seders with genuinely set Seder tables and complete Haggadahs in a very realistic setting. These wonderful events create lifelong memories which will be fondly recalled each year as the holidays approach.

Please be sure to join us as we celebrate Israel's 70th birthday party on Wednesday, April 18th from 6:00 to 8:30 P.M. featuring a shuk, walking map of Israel, arts and crafts and Israeli dancing with music by Jammin' Express DJ group. (Sponsorships are still available-contact Autumn in the front office at (954) 384-8265). See you on campus!

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL MODEL SEDERS

From the desk of Todd Morchelies .... Youth Director

Hi Everyone!

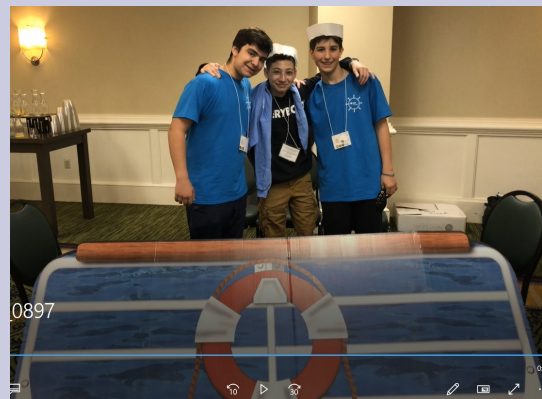

What an amazing year we've had so far. There's still a couple of months left in the school year and we're still rockin'. In March, the 8th graders departed for Tampa for the annual 8th grader convention called Geshet. This was an absolutely amazing weekend. Many new friendships were made and everyone had a blast.

In April, we will be celebrating Yom Ha'atzmaut with a party that includes Israeli Dancing, Crafts, Food, and more. USY will be attending "In Jacob's Shoes" for a cool social action project cleaning gently used shoes in order to donate for those less fortunate. USY will also be attending their annual Regional Convention, this year in Orlando. Kadima will be having a Tastes of the World night and attending Laser Quest. Chalutzim will be going to Boomers and Laser Quest as well.

Election applications for the 2018-2019 year are now available. Officer positions are open to B'nai Aviv members and we encourage your child to run for office if they wish. The deadline to submit an application is Wednesday, April 25th.

For more information regarding any of our award winning youth programs, contact Todd Morchelies, Youth Director at Todd@bnaiviv.org or visit our youth website at www.bausybees.com.

March/April B'nai Mitzvahs

Noah Horwitz, son of Tracey and Brad Horwitz and Zach Horwitz, son of Jody & Brent Horwitz, were called to the Torah as a B'nai Mitzvah on March 17, 2018.

Noah and Zach are first cousins and it was very special and meaningful that they shared this milestone together with their families. They celebrated with their siblings, Jacob and Chelsea, Grandparents Linda and Steve Horwitz and Lorraine and Arnie Rosen, and many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends from near and far. Noah and Zach are both 7th graders at Falcon Cove Middle School. Noah plays ice hockey and enjoys traveling with his team. Zach plays travel baseball and enjoys going to all sporting events, especially University of Miami football. For their Mitzvah project, called "Sunny Days Ahead", Noah and Zach raised money and collected monetary donations to create over 40 "feel good" bag for breast cancer patients recovering from surgeries. The tote bag included a blanket, socks with an inspirational message on them, lip balm, candies, a water bottle and lotions. Noah and Zach delivered the bags to 2 local hospitals for them to be distributed to recovering patients. They hope to work with the American Cancer Society to continue providing these bags to patients in the future. A special thank you to Rabbi Watstein, Cantor Bill and Sol Hettena for their dedication and guidance and for making Noah and Zach's B'nai Mitzvah incredibly special.

Rachel Melody Becker was called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on March 24,

2018. Rachel celebrated this milestone with her parents, Michele and Jason, grandparents Eileen and Maish Wise, Stanley Becker, and Elaine and Jack Chernikoff, uncles, aunts, cousins and friends from near and far. Rachel is a 7th grader at Pine Crest School where she enjoys playing basketball and softball and participating in the student television station. Rachel loves Kadima and being with her B'nai Aviv friends, many of whom she has known since ECEC. For her mitzvah project, Rachel has been volunteering since last spring at Feeding South Florida, the leading hunger relief organization in South Florida, where she inspects, sorts and packs food for those in need. A special thanks to Rabbi Watstein, Cantor Bill, Laurie Kandel, Todd Morchelies and the many amazing teachers who helped Rachel prepare for this day. Mazel Tov Rachel!!

Alexa Paige Margulies will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on April 15, 2018. Lexi is sharing this special day with her parents, Jill and Mark Margulies, her brothers Jared and Noah, and grandparents, Nancy and Aaron Goldsmith and Judy and Jeffrey Margulies. She will also be joined by her great grandma, Edythe Greenfield, and her aunts, uncles and cousins. Lexi is a 7th grade student at NSU's University School. Lexi enjoys spending her free time cheerleading for her school, playing Lacrosse, and hanging out with friends and family. To Lexi, becoming a Bat Mitzvah means being a responsible member of the Jewish community and carrying on family traditions. We are very proud of Lexi's accomplishments and are looking forward to her future achievements. We are especially thankful for the encouragement and support provided by Rabbi Watstein, Cantor Lieberman, and Sol Hettena. It could not get done without all of you! Mazal Tov Lexi! We love you very much!

Becca Beer will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on April 21, 2018. Becca is excited to celebrate this milestone with her family and friends and feels especially blessed to have her great-grandmother in attendance. Becca is a 7th grader at Falcon Cove where she works hard and spends her days making memories with her friends. Becca also cherishes the life-long friendships she has developed at B'nai Aviv and Camp Blue Star. Whether it's hanging out at home with her family and her dog, Chip, or out and about with her friends, Becca is always ready for fun with a laugh and a smile! For her mitzvah project, Becca is doing her part to help out furry friends in need. While her project begins now, it is a commitment that will last forever. A special thanks to Rabbi Watstein, Cantor Bill, Sol Hettena, Todd Morchelies and the many special teachers, family and friends who have supported Becca's Jewish journey. Mazel Tov, Becca Beer!

FROM THE DESK OF...

CORINNA BLACK-KUSHNER, SISTERHOOD PRESIDENT

One of the definitions of Sisterhood is "the solidarity of women based on shared conditions, experiences, or concerns." I am proud to say that the Sisterhood of B'nai Aviv is just that. We are a strong, vibrant, active group of women, who come together for the greater good of not only ourselves, but for our entire congregation. Our past year of activities has been incredible, and have included events such as our comedy kickoff, speaker series, museum tour, painting party, progressive dinner, "Schmooze and Booze", Monday game days, a Passover recipe swap and of course our upcoming Bingo, plus many others. We have had an extremely varied amount of programs and events to appeal to the diverse population of our synagogue.

I would like to thank Frieda Caldes, Corinne Rosner and their committee for doing a fantastic job on our Passover Recipe Swap. We had 50 women participate and each brought a delicious dish to share. Hopefully you all received a copy of the recipe book that Carol Brown and Dana Isbitts put together. This was a fun night and no one left hungry!

Thank you to Rob Isbitts, Michele Schuh and Avi Nir for sponsoring the last of our 3 part speaker series- "Making Sense of Dollars and Cents". The event was most informative and we all walked away much more knowledgeable.

Monday, April 16th at 7:00 pm is our final event of the year - BINGO being held at the synagogue! Please RSVP to sisterhood@bnaiaviv.org and let us know you are coming.

If you haven't been able to make our events this year, I hope you consider getting involved next year. If you would like to see some other kinds of programs, please join us Thursday, June 7th for our annual planning meeting. The more involvement we have from our congregation, the better our programs. Dinner will be served so RSVPs are needed by May 30th!!!

From the desk of...
Mark Kleinman, Men's Club President

As our community continues to heal from the tragedy at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School, we extend our heartfelt condolences to all of those affected. We have seen the resiliency of students, parents, brothers, sisters, friends and family members. Each and every one of them should know that our B'nai Aviv family is here for whatever they need.

At times like this, it seems trivial to talk in detail about all the things we have planned, so I will simply say to look out for more information about our Passover at Marlins Park on April 3rd, our upcoming 3v3 basketball tournament, a Men's Health Program and Blood Drive.

Wishing everyone a wonderful Passover. Chag Sameach!
