

KOL B'NAI AVIV

THE VOICE OF B'NAI AVIV

קול בני אביב

From the desk of...
Rich Cohen, B'nai Aviv President

When I was a young child in New York, there was no day more exciting for me than the Opening Day of the baseball season. As an impressionable young Mets fan, there was a renewed hope that this year would be better than last, that all things were possible and that the team mantra of “Ya Gotta Believe” was all that was necessary to propel them to greatness. Year after year I was disappointed by this hapless team, until the 1969 Miracle Mets when, against all odds, they won the World Series. A group of focused and talented ball players came together to dream big, work in harmony and achieved the impossible. So what does this have to do with B'nai Aviv?

Year after year we come together as a community with a renewed hope and optimism that the blessings of the past will be multiplied in the future. We work together as a collective of talented and dedicated people to strive for greatness and for the achievement of our goals. Success is seen through the strengthening of our Jewish community where we all can worship together, support each other and dream that the today's best will be tomorrow's worst. But it does require a renewed focus each year and we can't rely upon our past success as a guaranty of future greatness. We need everyone to “pitch” in and swing for the fences to keep our winning streak intact.

I do believe that our best days lie ahead at B'nai Aviv and my optimism in never wavering. I believe in the power of our team of committed Jews to embrace our opportunity to be something bigger than we ever imagined. And I believe in the power of recognizing that our strength will grow exponentially when we work together on those things we have in common and respect the differing views of our larger Jewish family.

As Yogi Berra said, if you don't know where you are going, you will wind up someplace else. Be a part of our Field of Dreams-it is not only located at 1410 Indian Trace, but in each of your homes and in your hearts. Let's all pull together to hit the homerun of a successful synagogue and community for your family and friends.

You Belong Here!

B'Shalom, Rich

B'NAI AVIV PRESENTS....

FREEDOM SONG

WEDNESDAY
APRIL 10TH ~ 7:00 PM

$5 ADMISSION
MATERIAL APPROPRIATE
FOR GRADES 8 +

Freedom Song is a transformative musical that will shatter the myth of Jews being immune to addiction. By interweaving a Passover Seder with personal stories of addiction, Freedom Song poses one stark question - "what are you a slave to?" Using song and dance, tears and laughter, and an intense post show discussion with our cast, Freedom Song will open your eyes to the real life struggle against the 'bondage of self' that we fight everyday.

We rely on our synagogue members, their friends and families to let us know when someone is hospitalized, suffering any illness, etc. The clergy would also like to hear the good news, such as celebrating a birth, graduation, special anniversary or birthday, promotion, honor or any other simcha. In order to better keep everyone informed, please share this information with us by calling the office at 954-384 - 8265 or email: melissa@bnaiaviv.org

Thank you for your help!

From the desk of... Mindy Bernstein, ECEC Director

As we enter into the last semester of the school year, excitement still abounds! We just finished celebrating Purim and had a great time at all our Purim festivities. We are enrolling for the School Year 2019/20 and Summer Camp is just two months away.

All classrooms are already working hard to prepare for Passover. From the characters to the matzah and Passover Seder, there is lots to learn. Passover or Pesach, as it is called in Hebrew, is the festival that reminds us of when the Jewish people were slaves in Egypt about 3,500 years ago and how God freed them from the evil Egyptian king Pharaoh. While waiting on line for the sink, walking outside to play and waiting to be picked up, I hear the children practicing the “Mah Nishtana.”

Our Passover stories don't end. They are passed from generation to generation.

Here are some of the lessons from the Passover story that the children will be learning:

- 1. Learn how to ask. Most great achievements in life begin with a question. Be curious. Speak up. Ask! Ask about the salt water and the parsley. Ask about the matzah and the pillows on our chairs. Ask about the Seder plate with the bitter herbs that bring tears to our eyes.
- 2. Responsibility for each other. We invite all who are hungry to come and eat because we are responsible for one another. Some people are hungry for food, while others are hungry for wisdom. Whatever we have we should share as much as we can.
- 3. Embrace challenges. Embrace challenges. Learn from them. Remember them. They brought us to this place today.
- 4. Take action. Thinking and preparing for change are important steps but what matters in the end is following through with our actions. Matzah teaches us the importance of acting quickly when we know something is the right thing to do. We didn't wait for the bread to rise. Instead we grabbed the matzah and ran. Take action whenever you can and as soon as you can. The world is full of great ideas that have never been realized. Matzah teaches us to move, to do, to run towards our goal.
- 5. Practice Jewish gratitude. We sing Dayenu. In G_d's great kindness we receive food, sight and hearing and legs and hands. This is the kind of gratitude that teaches us during the hardest of days that we have so much to be thankful for.
- 6. The meaning of freedom. Some people think freedom means being able to do what we want whenever we want. Freedom is the ability to create a meaningful life with authentic values and to create a close connection with our Creator. Freedom is living a life of constant growth and striving to live up to our potential.

Children play the most important role! Every year when we retell the story of our Freedom from Egypt, we begin with the children's questions and the story is told as an answer!

Here at B'nai Aviv Early Childhood Education Center, we truly believe that everything does revolve around the children.

From the desk of... Liz Singer, Director of Life Long Learning

The value this past month that students studied was savlanut (patience). When you are looking forward to something, like Spring Break, it seems like it takes forever!!! But students know that they must have patience as it approaches.

The Lower Grades, Kindergarten- 3rd Grade, had an amazing Class Shabbat where they led the congregation in prayer. The 3rd Graders taught those in attendance about how special the Torah portion was only being read every 19 years because of the Jewish leap year. They spoke about how hard it is to give away something that belongs to you, but if it is for something like the Tabernacle that benefits you and the community then you feel more a part of the community. There were over 90 people in attendance

There were two Shabbos Squads very close together. There has also been a growing attendance at the new iteration, Shabbos Squad Junior for Kindergarten-2nd Grade. The first theme was a Friend-raiser if participants brought their friend they got extra entries into the end of year raffle. The second Shabbos Squad, which was held at the beginning of March was Purim themed. It was really nice to see new faces at both programs

Families had an amazing time at the Megillah reading on Wednesday, March 20th which was followed by an dance party, costume contest, ice cream buffet and snacks. There were so many wonderful costumes that it was hard to decide. The categories were separated into ages. For the youngest age group, 0-5, it was so hard to decide with so many great costumes that the categories of princesses and heroes had to be added. The older age categories turned into a dance-off, and some serious dance moves were displayed.

We are looking forward to next month and all the fun that Passover has to offer.

B'Shalom, Liz

From the desk of ... Todd Morchelies, Youth Director

Wow, what a great Winter it has been and we are excited for Spring. In March, we held our annual Purim Carnival. This was truly one of the biggest and best carnivals we've ever had. Everyone had an amazing time! Spring means Pesach and Regional Convention. We are proud to announce that our very own Sara Beer has won the Sub-Regional Vice President position covering all of South Florida. At Regional Convention, we will have our very own Emma Grungold running for Regional

President and Morgan Isbitts running for Regional Israeli Affairs Vice President. We wish them both the best of luck in their elections.

In April, Devorim will have their final event of the year going on their first off-site field trip, Bowling. This is sure to be a lot of fun. Chalutzim will be going Ice Skating and to Boomers. Kadima will also be going Bowling and having Dessert Wars.

USY will be

Painting with a Twist and Making Challah .

USY and Kadima Elections for the 2019-2020 year are coming up so anyone interested in running should fill out an online application.

B'nai Aviv Mission Statement:

B'nai Aviv is dedicated to serving and nurturing the spiritual, educational, cultural and social needs of its members in an egalitarian environment framed by Conservative Judaism.

Our synagogue is committed to providing these services in an atmosphere of warmth and mutual caring within a congregational family who share a deep-felt desire to promote and ensure the continuity of Jewish life, to perform tzedakah, and to support the State of Israel and the United States of America.
