Soon, in a few weeks, we will see the flow of the children going back to school. We will see their parents accompanying them on the first day, and slowly returning to the fall routine that everyone (mostly parents) were waiting during the summer!

For us, it's a time to welcome the new and returning families to our school where everyone is a fundamental part of our community. Family engagement is our utmost goal and is a critical component of high quality Early Childhood programs. Strong partnerships provide a safe place where families can explore their hopes and share their challenges because our school as a community can be by itself a great resource for a family's need.

We focus on parents' strengths and view parents as partners, because we share the educational commitment to their children and understand how important is to the development and success not just in school but throughout life. From Tot Shabbat services with dinner, to Holidays and family celebrations, we provide a full variety of events where parents volunteer, participate, enjoy and learn together.

We can't wait for our upcoming events; but we are still enjoying the sweet flavor from the last year. We look forward to seeing you soon.

A central element to our class will be the customs and rituals of our families. Some Jews write the name "Haman" on the bottom of their shoe, and obliterate the name with every step. Some Sephardic Jews eat rice at Pesach. Some Greek Jews bake a honey-and-yogurt bread for Shavuos.

Please take a few moments to share your families stories with us; you can do this by phone (954-610-5954) or email (louisejfl@gmail.com). The more stories we have the more fascinating our discussions will be.

What will you leave behind? Leave a Legacy to B'nai Aviv

Wills & Bequests

If you have a personal interest in enhancing the B'nai Aviv experience for future generations, a planned bequest in your Will is something you should think about. When you want to reduce or even eliminate your final income taxes a well planned charitable bequest is ideal. You can make a gift in your Will, maintain financial security during life and disinherit the taxman.

Gifts by Will are becoming more popular, and we hope that an increasing number of people will include B'nai Aviv as a beneficiary. It is one way to support B'nai Aviv when it might not be financially possible during your working or retirement years, A bequest is a revocable gift that can be amended at any time. Charitable gifts made in a Will are deemed made in the year of death. The charitable tax credit is therefore received by the estate and can offset any tax owing from the estate.

If you are about to draft a Will or make changes to your current Will, your lawyer can include a bequest to B'nai Aviv. You can leave a specific amount, a particular asset, a percentage of the value of your estate or the residue of your estate after all other bequests have been made.

The easiest and least expensive way to make a small change in your existing will is to add a codicil. The codicil will retain all the provisions of your will, except those which are modified by this addition. If you already have a will and are considering a bequest to B'nai Aviv, the addition of a codicil should be discussed with your lawyer.

Gifts of Life Insurance

A gift of life insurance presents you with an opportunity to make a significant future gift to benefit B'nai Aviv, while enjoying current and/or future tax savings. It is an economical way to give a larger and more lasting gift at a fraction of the ultimate value from disposable income. A gift of life insurance is also an ideal way for you to support a particular area of interest and/or program at B'nai Aviv, at a level that may not be possible by any other means.

Giving a gift of life insurance is a wonderful way to show you care. This type of gift often allows a person of modest means to make a donation much larger than they might have been able to make during their lifetime. Instead of contributing annually to B'nai Aviv, a donor directs funds to insurance premiums. As such you would receive a charitable receipt for each premium payment made. A gift of this type generates immediate and future tax relief for a donor and does not diminish your estate.

You can also transfer ownership of an existing policy to B'nai Aviv. Donors considering the transfer of a life insurance policy should obtain professional advice concerning the income tax consequences of such a transfer.

You can take out a new policy, making B'nai Aviv the owner and/or beneficiary. If B'nai Aviv is named both the owner and beneficiary, you will receive a charitable receipt for paid premiums; if B'nai Aviv is named beneficiary only, your estate will receive a charitable receipt for the full value of the gift.

For further information on a legacy gift, please contact Lynne Balaban, Executive Director at (954) 384-8265 or by e-mail at lynne@bnaiaviv.org. All inquiries and information will remain confidential.

JFS Indigent Burial Program

The Torah says to show respect for the dead, "kavod ha-met" and to comfort the living, "nihum avelim." Unfortunately, there are those in the Broward Jewish community whose assets are too small to pay for a burial. Many of them have no family. The Jewish Family Service Indigent Burial Program ensures that these Jewish souls have a Jewish funeral.

We rely heavily on the generosity of our Jewish community for burial plots to help families meet the demands of Halacha and our Jewish heritage. We need your help.

We conduct a thorough assessment of every deceased and their immediate family to determine the need, so that we may ensure only those who would not be otherwise able to receive a proper burial are considered. Yet we are falling short.

Please help us to fulfill the law for the least of us, for the last mitzvah they we can provide them. Call Susan Panzer, Director of Volunteer Services at Jewish Family Service, 954-370-2140.
