THE VOICE OF B'NAI AVIV

קול בני אביב

From the desk of Rich Cohen, President

This is my first column as President of our synagogue. I am truly humbled to be chosen to serve you as your President and am excited to start to work with our new Board to provide you with the best options available for synagogue participation in our community. A very special thanks to Aron Leibowich and the outgoing Board for their leadership and dedication. We look forward to their continued involvement in the day-to-day activities in our synagogue.

We are a strong community with a changing demographic profile. Our synagogue faces the same challenges that others are confronting all over the country. Our membership is aging and there are many potential members of all ages who don't prioritize synagogue involvement in their lives. The advent of a "rent a Rabbi" option has falsely given people the comfort that they can "pay by the drink" for spiritual fulfillment and Judaic education, without realizing that they are cheating themselves and future generations. We plan to target our efforts to engage all our members and potential members with enhanced experiences and programming.

We have created a new "under 40" membership category in an effort to engage the next generation of our leaders. Our belief is that this new membership category will generate participation on many levels, including involvement in our religious school, pre-school, committees and our auxiliaries. In addition, a new marketing initiative will begin to roll out in the next several weeks to attract all potential age categories as new members. We believe these initiatives will strengthen our Kehillah and ensure long-term success.

Our team of professionals is busy preparing for the High Holidays. As always, we will provide an incredible and engaging spiritual experience for all of you. Together, we will bring in the New Year with sweetness and enthusiasm. Please attend, participate and continue to provide your financial support that we need to sustain our beautiful community.

On behalf of our newly elected Board, I wish you the best of the remaining Summer days and look forward to seeing you on Shabbat, the Holidays or at our fantastic programs.

B' shalom, Rich

A new year- a new beginning and we are Full STEAM Ahead!

As camp ends and the new school year approaches on August 21st, we are looking forward to an engaging year together as partners in your children's development and education here at the B'nai Aviv's Early Childhood Education program.

Many changes have taken place. We have painted our school's hallways in bright, vibrant colors. We have added a science area room. It is an interesting learning environment that is all about observing, questioning and problem solving through preschool science activities in a very real and hands-on way! Our new indoor playground is a great place for our children to use their gross motor skills on rainy and hot days with new equipment for them to utilize.

In addition to the educational programming offered here we now have speech/language and occupational screenings and therapists on staff to offer support services for those children in need.

We are excited about our new Zumbini Mommy and Me offered every Wednesday at 9:30 am. Zumbini is designed for infants and toddlers who are not yet ready for a regular school routine. This music and movement program for you and your child is unique and one of a kind!

Throughout the year, we will have many family based activities, and we encourage parent involvement through parent classroom volunteering, Family Shabbats, Mom's, Dad's and Grandparent Days, and Jewish cultural and holiday events.

B'nai Aviv ECEC is a great place to start to help you finish! I look forward to watching your children learn, grow and flourish throughout this year!

B' Shalom! Mindy

From the desk of Eliot Tillinger... Religious School Director

Our religious school faculty is happily preparing for the upcoming school year. Teachers are planning enriched lessons and experiences that extend beyond the textbooks, in order to inspire our children to greater academic heights. Part of the benefit of attending and participating in religious school activities as well as family events at B'nai Aviv, is the strong bonds forged both within and outside of our classrooms. There are many beautiful holidays on our Jewish calendar, and our classroom doors are always open to parents and grandparents to share the richness of the learning in our classrooms.

This year we are proud to "roll out" a newly revised Junior Congregation experience for students. The program will now include the amazing and inspiring USYers from our awesome youth department. In addition, our wonderful youth director, Todd Morchelies, will be contributing to the ruach fun by collaborating directly with our student leaders to create an energizing program.

The summer break is a good time to "brush up" on practicing Hebrew by reading for at least 20 minutes each week. Reading with your children also strengthens parent and child relationships; an added bonus. If any family would like to borrow any academic material during these summer days, simply call the front office or send an email requesting it; we will be pleased to provide educational material for home use.

Our school wing is undergoing finishing touches of remodeling to update and enhance the learning atmosphere for all student classrooms. Families will notice the improvements to our campus as soon as you walk through the school entrance doors.

It's an exciting time to be part of our B'nai Aviv family, and many adventures await us all. Come join us for our regularly scheduled Shabbat services wearing the summer attire of Israeli style casual; another great way to remain connected during summer break.

I am excitedly looking forward to seeing all of our families next month as we launch the new school year together at B'nai Aviv religious school.

B' Shalom, Eliot

WELCOME BACK B'NAI AVIV!

We are super excited for an amazing year in the youth department ahead. We will be providing programming for children and teens entering 3rd-12th grades all year long. You may register in person by attending our youth open house registration on Wednesday evening, August 23rd from 6:30 pm-7:30 pm. Join us for refreshments and to sign up your children. You may also register your child or teen on our youth website at www.bausybees.com.

We have exciting news regarding our youth application. We are going paperless!!! Navigate to our youth website's online registration form and fill out the application. What's even better is that the website and registration form are mobile friendly so you can fill out the form on your mobile device. You may also pay the tuition for the year on our youth website as well.

Youth activities are a priority at B'nai Aviv. Our youth groups participate in community, social, educational and religious activities. Through these programs, our children develop lasting friendships with their Jewish peers. We provide three different youth groups for children from 3rd through 12th grades; United Synagogue Youth (USY) for high school, Kadima for middle school and Chalutzim for 3rd to 5th grade. USY and Kadima are the official youth organizations of the Conservative Movement and are sponsored by the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism. USY meets every Wednesday night, Kadima meets every Tuesday night and Chalutzim meets 1-2 times per month on Sundays.

Chalutzim will begin the year going bowling in September. Kadima and USY will be starting things off with their weeknight programming as well as their sub-regional kick-off, The Ninja Lounge. Typical events for USY and Kadima include weekly meetings, dances, sports events, conventions, Shabbat programs, and weekend events. Our USY chapter is one of the largest in the region and continues to grow. Kadima and USY have the opportunity to participate in sub-regional, regional, national and international conventions. Summer programs in Israel, Europe and North America are also available.

At B'nai Aviv, we realize that the youth of our synagogue is our future and our hope for further building and strengthening our Jewish community in Weston and the surrounding areas. Through our youth activities we provide a setting for informal Jewish Education, as well as an opportunity for our children to interact socially with other Jewish youth. It is our hope that these programs will help solidify a strong Jewish identity and commitment, which will carry them through their college and adult years.

For more information regarding any of our youth groups, please visit our website at www.bausybees.com or email Todd Morchelies at todd@bnaiaviv.org, or call 954-349-1879.

FROM THE DESK OF...

CORINNA BLACK-KUSHNER, SISTERHOOD PRESIDENT

Happy End of Summer!

This is my first official bulletin as Sisterhood President. I am very excited to say that we already have a fantastic year planned!

In June, we had our annual calendar planning meeting. There was an amazing turnout and many great ideas were tossed around. Our goal for this year is to bring new and exciting programs that will be diverse enough to interest everyone.

Thursday, September 7th, will be a "comedy" kickoff event. This night is guaranteed to be a lot of fun! We will be having a comedian perform and he is sure to keep the laughs rolling in (he also happens to be voted "best comedian in Miami").

Our other events throughout the year will include: a three part speaker series- "What women need to know", featuring information on medical, legal and financial issues; a field trip and private tour of Nova's Holocaust library; CPR training, a "Draw Down Party" (A Limited Raffle Event), a Color War game night, and of course our Progressive Dinner. These are just some of the events to look forward to!

There are always opportunities to get involved with Sisterhood. We will have monthly board meetings that everyone is welcome to come to and planning meetings as needed. Our sisterhood is very active and we encourage all temple ladies to be a part of it!

As always, Sisterhood will continue to provide the "goods" for the Shabbat Onegs. If you are interested in joining our baking group, please contact Louise Allen (louisejfl@gmail.com). If you are not a baker and prefer to buy your baked goods, we will be happy to add you to our weekly rotation of plattering store-bought kosher desserts. Both are done every week and everyone looks forward to it.

New this year will be a weekly game day; Mondays from 2:00 -5:00 pm beginning on August 21st. Anyone interested in playing Canasta, Mah Jong, Bridge or anything else, we encourage you to bring your group to the synagogue. For more information contact Carol Brown (caroljgb@yahoo.com).

Please feel free to share any ideas you may have with me and I encourage you all to get involved. Our next sisterhood board meeting is August 28th at 7:00 pm. Please join us- it's always a lot of fun!

*B'Shalom,
Corinna Black- Kushner*
