A central element to our class will be the customs and rituals of our families. Some Jews write the name "Haman" on the bottom of their shoe, and obliterate the name with every step. Some Sephardic Jews eat rice at Pesach. Some Greek Jews bake a honey-and-yogurt bread for Shavuot.

Please take a few moments to share your families stories with us; you can do this by phone (954-610-5954) or email (louisejfl@gmail.com). The more stories we have the more fascinating our discussions will be.

From the desk of...

Being thankful...just for Thanksgiving?

Again, it is the time of the year when we are practicing being thankful. We discussed with the children "what are you thankful for", trying to instill this concept around family, friends, toys, etc. However we see that young children often don't grasp the concept of gratitude. Is this concept falling a little behind during the last few generations? We need to make an impact by showing and teaching the importance of being thankful, and not just at Thanksgiving!

Fostering gratitude...such a challenge! Gratitude is born of a loving connection and grows from a loving connection. We, the significant adults in a child's life, provide the blueprint for what they do and how they act. Helping others and being kind play a key role in making grateful kids. At school we strive to create a community where everyone lends a hand, giving their own time to make things happen. The success of our events relies on our great teaching staff and the group of volunteers that cooperate together.

So, we if we want our children to be grateful and appreciative, the easy start is with US! At school we recite your blessings thanking God before eating food, we are committed to social action programs, and we treat all our families and children with respect and kindness. We believe that if we consistently model these traits in our kids, gratitude won't come around only once a year, during Thanksgiving, but it will a part of the heart and life of our children.

B'Shalom, Sabrina

From the desk of Eliot Tillinger...

Religious School Director

It's been said before,
"Just as a fish needs water, so too Jews need the Torah."

The lesson of this saying is simple yet powerful. Just as a fish cannot survive without water, we Jews need the Torah in order to thrive spiritually. We all need a vacation from time to time and there is nothing wrong with taking a break from our work and school.

Nevertheless, it is important that our children learn Tefillah, give Tzedakah and maintain a connection in our Jewish community. When students participate in our Junior Congregation Shabbat service, they strengthen bonds with other children, learn about the Shabbat service prayers and become more proficient in participating in our main sanctuary services. Parents are always welcome to accompany their children during any Junior Congregation service; just join them each month.

The month of December is filled with celebrations and lessons of victories our ancestors realized. All religious school families as well as all congregation families, are invited to celebrate Hanukkah at our annual celebration; please look for flyer on the front page of this bulletin for more information.

December B'nai Mitzvahs

Zachary Matthew Rubin was called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on December 3, 2016. He shared this special day with his parents, Stephen and Robin, his sister Julia, his grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. Zachary is a seventh grade student at Falcon Cove Middle where he enjoys working as an anchor in his TV production class. He plays tennis and drums, enjoys riding his bike to school, and loves to play video games with friends. One of Zachary's favorite things to do is make people laugh, and he often comes up with witty puns and clever jokes. Zachary is a kind and thoughtful brother, son, cousin, and friend who always puts others before himself. He is inquisitive and creative and we learn from him every day. He has worked hard in preparation for today, and we could not be more proud of him. We would like to thank Laurie Kandel, Sol Hettena, Cantor Lieberman, and Rabbi Adam for working with Zachary and helping to make this a joyous and meaningful experience. Zachary, we love you and we hope you always stay true to your wonderful self and feel happiness and love every day. Mazel Tov!

Donna Roberta Nesselroth will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on December 10, 2016. We cannot begin to tell you, Donna Roberta, how proud we are of you with your upcoming Bat Mitzvah! The responsibility you have shown in preparing your Torah portion, the prayers, your speech, as well as with everything associated with your celebration has been truly impressive. Although you will of course always be our child, what you have shown in the last few months demonstrates in a very real way how much you have, without our even noticing, been making the transition from girl to woman. We wish you a truly enjoyable and memorable Bat Mitzvah as well as a satisfying life with much joy as a Jewish woman!

Dylan Blake Lessem will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on December 17, 2016. He will be sharing this special day with his parents, Fara and Andy, his brother Justin, his sister Taylor, grandmothers Joyce Bistrong and Sheila Kerzner, along with his aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends from near and far. Dylan has been a part of B'nai Aviv since pre-school and is currently an 8th grade student in the gifted program at Falcon Cove Middle School. Dylan enjoys playing all sports particularly baseball and is a member of the Weston Hawks Travel Baseball Team. For his mitzvah project, Dylan chose to use his passion for baseball to help collect items for Pitch In For Baseball. This organization provides new and gently used baseball and softball equipment to boys and girls in the United States and around the world who want to play but lack the equipment to do so. We would like to thank Rabbi Watstein, Cantor Lieberman, Sol Hettena and all of Dylan's religious school and preschool teachers for their help and guidance. We are very proud of Dylan's accomplishments and hard work in preparing for his Bar Mitzvah! Mazel Tov Dylan. We love you!

FROM THE DESK OF TODD MORCHELIES... YOUTH DIRECTOR

Happy December!

I am so excited about all the youth activities we've had in the first half of the 2016-2017 year and am even more excited for what's in store for the second half. USY attended the annual International Convention in Dallas, Texas. This was an amazing week as all our USYers had the time of their lives.

I am happy and thrilled to announce that registration for our annual and ever popular Chapter Retreat & Disney Day is now open. Chapter Retreat is a weekend long Shabbaton held at Camp Shalom in Ocala where our USYers and Kadimaniks are involved in a wide variety of activities ranging from Fun, Leadership Training, Education, Shabbat, and did I say FUN? The weekend is followed by a Sunday at an Orlando Theme Park and this year it's The Magic Kingdom in Disney World. This entire retreat is held over President's weekend, February 17th-19th. This is a VERY popular trip so register right away.

To register for Chapter Retreat or any of our youth programs, please visit our youth website at www.bausybees.com. Get ready for some awesome activities to close the 2016 year and we'll be ready for more action in 2017.

FROM THE DESK OF...

Riva Wohl, HAZAK President

Our Hazak chapter will now be called the Jack and Ruth Lubin Hazak Chapter of B'nai Aviv.

Jack and Ruth were very instrumental in the development and establishment of the national United Synagogue Hazak Program for senior Temple Members. They also established the first local Hazak chapter in the United States at Temple Beth Ahm Israel. In appreciation of their unique vision and outstanding effort and in their memory and honor, we are very proud to call our chapter the Jack and Ruth Lubin Hazak Chapter of B'nai Aviv.

Our chapter meets on the first Wednesday of the month at 1:30 pm for wonderful social, cultural, and educational programs. For further information, please call Riva Wohl, President, Joan Cohen, Secretary, or Carol Brown, Treasurer.

We look forward to greeting potential new members at our December luncheon (reservation required) or our January meeting featuring our own Cantor Bill.

B'nai Aviv Mission Statement:

B'nai Aviv is dedicated to serving and nurturing the spiritual, educational, cultural and social needs of its members in an egalitarian environment framed by Conservative Judaism.

Our synagogue is committed to providing these services in an atmosphere of warmth and mutual caring with-in a congregational family who share a deep-felt desire to promote and ensure the continuity of Jewish life, to perform tzedakah, and to support the State of Israel and the United States of America.
