URJ RESOURCES FOR FAMILIES WITH YOUNG CHILDREN

We know that your congregation seeks to be relevant and to add meaning to the Jewish journeys of those in your community. The following resources, designed to be shared with families raising young Jewish children, can help you achieve that goal. Share these online opportunities on your website and in your social media feeds, or add them to your newsletters or weekly emails or any of your communication vehicles. In addition, your congregational leadership team may find these resources useful for family programming ideas, holiday celebrations, and more.
