

Kehilat HaNahar Celebrates Shabbat with Tots and Young Kids through Art, Music, and Movement

December 18, 2022

Kehilat HaNahar, The Little Shul by the River in New Hope, will be introducing tots and kids aged 1-7 and their families to Shabbat on Saturday mornings once a month starting in January. Programming will include a joyful service that incorporates puppets, movement, and a story followed by a crafts project related to the Jewish calendar. Snacks are provided.

Tot/Kid Shabbat will be led by teacher and Jewish educator Staci Scheinblum, Rabbi Diana Miller, and rabbinic intern/Shul School coordinator Josh Nelson. We will meet on Saturday mornings from 10:00 am until 11:30 am. For Spring, 2023, Tot/Kid Shabbat will be held on January 21, February 25, March 25, April 29, May 13 and June 17.

If this will be your first time attending, please contact Rabbi Diana at rabbidianamiller@gmail.com or 215-804-6626 for additional information. We look forward to welcoming your family to our Little Shul!

Kehilat HaNahar (KHN) is a vibrant Reconstructionist synagogue founded on principles of inclusion and diversity. Its programs are designed to educate the KHN community and beyond in key areas of Jewish history, philosophy, values, art, music, and culture.
