Dear KHN community,

Preparing for the high holidays is never easy, and takes a tremendous amount of planning. It takes a village, and we have an incredible one! What a pleasure to witness members of our community work together over the course of many months to help create an uplifting, soulful and meaningful High Holiday season. My gratitude for our KHN community is profound. I especially want to highlight the work of the Ritual Committee and the Security Committee, whose enormous efforts made for a rich, organized and efficient holiday season. Thank you to all those who participated in the service, gifted items, greeted, and helped lead and organize services and programs.

Onward to Sukkot. Sukkah building is this Sunday at 10:00 am. This Wednesday evening at 6:00 pm, there will be a communal Sukkot gathering with blessings, learning and singing in the Sukkah. Afterwards, students will participate in activities with the Shul School and adults can join a discussion with rabbinic intern Allyson Zacharoff. Please remember to bring food for the High Holiday Food Drive which ends on Wednesday, October 16th. We have a good stack of bags already and would love to see more.

Monday, October 21st from 8:00 am to 9:00 am there will be a Yizkor/Shemini Atzeret service. On Sunday, the 27th, we will have a Simchat Torah party during Shul School, details TBA.

Happy National Coming Out Day on this October 11th!

Allyson will be leading services this evening. We welcome her as she leads her first Shabbat service here at KHN!

Wishing everyone a Shabbat shalom, Gut Shabbos,

Rabbi Diana
