

December 21st, 2018/13th Tevet, 5779

Dear chevreh,

It's hard to believe that the end of 2018 is upon us. KHN will be quiet next week, with no Torah study on the 27th or services on the 28th. But please read the e-bulletin because there are all sorts of opportunities for learning and serving starting in January.

I want to highlight two them, both on Wednesdays, one during the day on the 16th, and one in the evening on the 23rd.

On January 16th we will be hosting the luncheon at Centenary Methodist. Please participate in this wonderful mitzvah by cooking and/or attending. Please consult the e-bulletin for details.

On January 23rd from 6 to 7:30 pm at KHN there will be an opportunity to learn about interfaith refugee resettlement efforts in our area and an exploration of what it means to work in an interfaith group. There will be representatives from Bucks County Interfaith Coalition for Refugee Resettlement and other organizations explaining what has been happening in our area and exploring new avenues for further engagement both as a shul and especially in an interfaith context.

We are remembering our founding spiritual leader Rabbi Sandy Roth today, as it is her birthday. May her memory be a blessing.

I will be at a silent Jewish meditation retreat from Sunday the 23rd until Sunday the 30th. In case of emergency, please contact Rabbi Aaron Gaber at: 609-214-8403.

I look forward to seeing some of you this evening at 7:30 pm for services, and all of you in 2019.

Wishing everybody a gut Shabbes and a gut yor,

Rabbi Diana
