Chanukah at School
Happy New Year and Shalom 2022!

We hope everyone is well and staying safe, whether you are braving the cold in Massachusetts, or adjusting your sunglasses in Florida.

During the month of December, we celebrated with our Chanukah party. It was well-attended by guests of all ages. We had a “bouncy house” for our younger guests, a bountiful buffet, desserts, and latkes, latkes, latkes. Thank you to our sponsors, the Cohn Family, Arthur Arkanase, and Rabbi J, and special thanks to Madeleine Lewis and Lesley Bornstein for coordinating this wonderful program. The following week, our Religious School held their FIRST in-shul Friday Night dinner and service in almost 2 years. Sitting in our sanctuary seats, it was just wonderful, to see and hear our students recite prayers, readings, and songs. Then, on December 19, Ahavath Torah provided once again "The Miracle of December", in association with Stoughton Public Schools to families in need. This year our dinner could not be provided but presents for children were distributed in our front entry with the help of Santa and the Stoughton Fire Department. Once again, thank you Diane and Bob Cohn, Helayne Magier, and their legion of ATC Elves!

As we are into our new year, let us hope the pandemic situation becomes more manageable.

2022 brings more exciting programing and events as Bingo

From the Rabbi’s Desk

The final Shabbat in February reminds us that it is time to start planning for Pesach (Passover), which begins April 16 (First seder April 15).

Our Jewish calendar also reminds us that Passover is on its way, for February 26 is the first of the arba parshiyot (the four Torah portions), that are read in the weeks leading up to Passover. Each of the four Torah portions has a special name, and all four precede the special Shabbat that falls right before Pesach - Shabbat HaGadol (The Great Sabbath).

February 26 is called Shabbat Shekalim. So what exactly does this mean? Shekalim is the plural of the Hebrew word shekel, the currency used by the ancient Israelites as well as the currency of modern day Israel. In biblical times, every male Israelite, age 20 years and older, had to contribute a half-shekel annually to the maintenance of the Temple in Jerusalem. This is parallel to our modern day concept of maintaining our house of worship with dues. This practice comes from Exodus 30:14-16: "Everyone who is entered in the records, from the age of twenty years up, shall give G-d's offering. The rich shall not pay more and the poor shall not pay less than half a shekel when giving the L-rd's offering as expiation [or atonement] for your persons. You shall take the expiation money from the Israelites and assign it to the service of the Tent of Meeting; it shall serve the Israelites as a reminder before Adonai, as expiation for your persons."

The half-shekel had to be paid before the first of the Hebrew month of Nisan. However, in order to remind the people of this duty, proclamations were made for payment on the first of Adar - the month that comes before Nisan on the Hebrew calendar. (To put this into context, Purim falls in Adar and Passover in Nisan).

The Mishna, codified around 200 C.E. also speaks about this practice. It says: "On the first day of Adar they give warning of the Shekel dues. On the 15th thereof, they read the Megillah in walled cities (meaning the scroll of Esther); and repair the paths and roads and pools of water." (Shekalim 1:1)

The paths and roads needed to be repaired after the winter rains in readiness for the Passover pilgrimage to Jerusalem, and the pools of water, or mikv'ot, needed to be equipped in a fashion that would make them kosher, or valid. So again, even though the dues technically needed to be paid by the first of Nisan, the announcement began in Adar. As a result of this ruling by the rabbis, it became customary on the Shabbat before the first of Adar (Adar II in a Jewish leap year), to read from two Torah scrolls - the weekly Torah portion from one and the verses about paying the half-shekel, from the other.

As we usher in Rosh Chodesh Adar II at the end of February, let each of us renew our financial commitment to our own house of worship. And may we have a joyous month of Adar and a zeisen Pesach.

Religious School News

Shalom,

I wish everyone a very Happy and Healthy New Year.

It was wonderful to see each other for our Chanukah Party. The children each created a clay menorah which they glued to a canvas. We had latkes and applesauce and sour cream and doughnuts and chocolate gelt. But the best part was being together!

The students participated in an amazing Kabbalat Shabbat service on December 10th. Everyone was so proud of them as they stood before the congregation and lead the prayers and joined in the Service. They worked so hard and it certainly paid off. As we explained to them, this is so important. When they become adults, they will be able to attend any shul and feel comfortable as they can join in the Service.

Our next in-shul event will be a Tu B'Shevat Seder on Sunday, January 23rd. There will be an in-shul special event on Sunday, February 13th.

Here are some other upcoming events:

- Sunday, March 13th
  School Purim Party at ATC 10:00 AM

- Sunday, April 10th
  School Family Seder

- Saturday, May 7th
  School Shabbat Service

- Sunday, May 15th
  School event at ATC

- Saturday, June 4th
  School Commencement Service

The children continue to practice their reading skills at every class session and are making great progress. The fourth graders are studying Bible history as they learn about Noah and Abraham and our forefathers. The seventh grade is learning about Hellenism and then the Romans and the battles we fought to keep our religion safe. We talk about assimilation and the dangers it presents. Both classes are practicing writing Hebrew in script. All this is in addition to learning prayers and what they mean. Of course, learning about the holidays and celebrating them is our favorite part of Religious School.

Thank you to all the parents for their help and support. Thanks to Rabbi J, Lesley, Arthur, Bubbe Rhoda, and Bob, for being an integral part of our school.

Please let me know if you know anyone looking for a Religious School for their child.

Be well.

Shalom,

Madeleine Lewis

is planning to return on February 14. Watch for the return of Brotherhood's Scotch Dinner and an Evening with the Bruins. Sisterhood will bring back in-shul Rosh Chodesh events and Passover Seder. And save the date for March 4, as Temple Beth Emunah and ATC jointly host Shabbat Across America 2022, joined by Tufts University's Shir Appeal a capella ensemble!

2022 will bring upgrades to our building, as we progress with the Homeland Security Grant and the replacement of our entry doors, adding security film over our windows, and adding cameras within the building. More good news!! The granite benches are in storage awaiting installation. I've been speaking with masons to provide the correct preparation in order to set the benches, weather permitting.

I always say that we look forward to seeing everyone attending services, programs, and events. But let's hope our global situation improves to a point that we can accommodate all that we are planning. Please keep an eye on our website and thanks to Faith Weiner, our bi-weekly e-mail newsletter is back to keep everyone informed.
