From our Co-President

It is an honor to once again be serving ATC in the capacity of president- this time as Co-President along with Rob Yunich. I will serve with Rob for one year. On July 1, 2023, my term as co-president will end; Rob will continue as president.

We thank Bob Bornstein for his tireless work and unwavering dedication to the shul during the THREE years he served the synagogue as president. Not only was he made to serve 12 extra months, but he had to do so under extraordinary and unprecedented conditions. We also recognize Lesley Bornstein whose life was equally interrupted and her time similarly taxed. Few congregants are aware of the Herculean effort that was required of them both. There will be a special Oneg at the shul on Friday 9/9/22, at 7 PM. Bob and Lesley will be honored at the event. Please reserve to attend this event.

Our Executive Board has an ambitious agenda, part of which is developing a strategy to attract young families. Deb and Dan Ron, who are a "young family" themselves, and who recently joined the shul, have accepted positions on the E-board as vice presidents and will concentrate on this goal.

Although most synagogues today, including our own, face many challenges, I see a very bright future for ATC. For this to be realized, all that needs to take place is simply for our congregants to truly CARE about ATC's future.

CARE ENOUGH to support fundraising events we hold, either by attending them or volunteering to help run them. Some of these events include Bingo at ATC which takes place every Monday night.

CARE ENOUGH to attend some Saturday morning services

And when we reopen more fully:

CARE ENOUGH to sign up to attend minyan one or two weeknights per month. This is also a great way to meet fellow congregants.

CARE ENOUGH to attend a Friday night service.

Arthur Mallock

Co-President

Please! No calls or e-mails regarding ATC on Shabbat or holidays.

From the Rabbi's Desk

The Jewish New Year Celebrates All

Rosh HaShanah is the only holiday without a limit. It literally celebrates everything.

Other holidays celebrate events in history, or the relationship between God and Israel. But Rosh HaShanah celebrates the creation of the world; in other words, it is a song of gratitude for all that exists. We blow the shofar on Rosh HaShanah because if we sleepwalk through life we are violating the essence of the holiday - to see and feel joy in the created world and the G-d who made it. Indifference is the enemy, ennui... the sin, embrace... the answer.

The holiday that follows, Yom Kippur, is a symbolic enactment of death. We do not eat or bathe, and we dress in shrouds. Those who have not been grateful on Rosh HaShanah are asked to imagine what it would be like to be without the world. What if there were no love, no words or music or mountains or sky? Perhaps only after Yom Kippur can we fully appreciate the message of Rosh HaShanah. One day all this will be gone for you. Rejoice now; celebrate now; hold the world and those you love close.

Join Our Thriving Virtual Continuing Education Classes

All classes begin at 8:00 PM, following Minyan.

On Sunday evening, our class is named Be Careful What You Pray For; You Never Know What Might Come True with Rabbi J. Common prayers that are included in Jewish liturgy are analyzed with attention focused on increasing Hebrew reading fluency.

Our current module is dedicated to High Holiday prayers. A greater understanding of the meaning of the prayers will make the words we say much more meaningful to us this year.

The next module will be focused on Shabbat Prayers.

On Tuesday nights, we are very fortunate to study Rabbinic Texts and Basic Jewish Concepts with Rabbi Gedalya Jeremias and Rabbi J. Selected topics and supporting texts give participants a deeper understanding of Jewish theology along with basic concepts such as Israel's election

(by G-d, not at the ballot box), end of life issues, resurrection, life after death, Messiah and Messianic times, etc. The discussion is lively and quite interesting and informative.

The New Adult B'nai Mitzvah Class will begin in September with Rabbi J and Arthur Arkanase for those who would like the experience, but never had the opportunity or would like to do so again.

There is also a Basic Hebrew Course for those who have little or no Hebrew reading and comprehension background with Madeleine Lewis.

For more formation or to join please contact Rabbi J or Madeleine.

Calendar

*Please note that, as of this printing, Minyan, Kabbalat Shabbat and Havdalah will be virtual (via Zoom).
Saturday morning Shabbat services will take place in person, and also be live-streamed.*

If you have any questions, please contact the office (781-344-8733 or office@atorah.org).

Religious School News

Shalom,

A Happy and Healthy New Year to everyone. We are excited to share our plans for our Religious School.

Faith Weiner will be our new School Team Chair. Faith will also teach on Sundays. We are very fortunate to have her. Faith is an experienced religious school teacher and will share her knowledge and experience with us. Our goal is to work to make school fun and encourage Hebrew learning.

Classes will be held virtually on weekday afternoons and in person (finally!) on Sunday mornings. We will again plan at least one special event a month where all classes and their families can participate, as well as computer time and the students' favorite, art and cooking activities.

Our excellent Hebrew program will continue using Shalom Hebrew and for the older students, Shalom U'Bracha, which introduces Hebrew vocabulary. We will use Hebrew in Harmony and textbooks at the appropriate level for prayer study and practice. We begin each class with prayers and will include Jewish History, Bible study, and Jewish values.

Of course, fall months will find the students studying about the High Holidays. In future months, I will add other new and interesting topics.

We welcome Benjamin Steinberg and his family to our Religious School. We are excited to have you.

And we have a lot of help to teach our students: Arthur Arkanase, Rhoda Weiner (Faith's mom) and Lesley Bornstein will be with us again.

Of course, without the help, knowledge and support of Rabbi J, none of this would be possible.

Please contact me with any questions or suggestions.

Please let us know of anyone who is looking for a Religious School for their child. We know we can make the experience valuable.

High Holy Day Guidelines

Please take a moment to review.

1. For security reasons, no one will be admitted into the shul unless they have received a ticket in advance. There will be security, ushers and executive board members to greet you and check tickets at the door.

Everyone will be required to show a personalized ticket upon entry.

2. Entrance to the Sanctuary is not permitted during those parts of the service when worshippers are standing (e.g., the Amidah, Kedushah, Shofar Blowing, Ark Openings), as well as during Torah readings, recitation of Haftarah, Rabbi's sermon and President's address. Anyone wishing to enter will be asked to stand just inside the door until a proper time can be found to take a seat.

No one will be prohibited from leaving. If the doorway becomes crowded, people will be asked to discretely find seats in the rear of the Sanctuary.

3. All men must wear kippot in the synagogue. Jewish men will be asked to wear a tallit. Women have the option to wear a tallit and/or kippah. Please note that synagogue tallitot will be in short supply. If you own a tallit, you are encouraged to bring it.

Please do not wear a tallit when using the bathrooms.

4. Ushers at the sanctuary doors will have a list of those people who are receiving honors. If you have an honor, please contact an usher so that s/he can direct you to the bimah at the proper time.
5. Please be considerate of those at prayer and keep any talking to a minimum
6. No food, drink, cameras, writing or recording implements, or cell phones are permitted in the sanctuary at any time. Pagers must be set to vibration mode and cell phones must be turned off.
7. ALL MEDICAL PERSONNEL, please inform an usher that you are present and where you will be sitting.
8. As always, seating is on a first come, first served basis. We ask everyone to please keep his or her voice down in the foyer adjacent to the sanctuary. When leaving the sanctuary, please do so immediately and quietly, as to not disrupt those members who care to enjoy the remainder of the service.

High Holy Day Guidelines

Parking

Parking is available in the synagogue lot on a very limited basis, and, as always, is first-come first-served.

Our parking lot attendants try to accommodate those individuals with special needs, however, once again, given the size of our lot, we ask those individuals to call our office should special arrangements need to be made.

Stoughton schools and the Stoughton District Court are both open and in session; therefore, you may not park there. Additional parking will be available on McEvoy Circle (off Pearl Street). For Kol Nidre and evening Yom Kippur services ONLY, you may park at the courthouse and the Richard Wilkins (West) School after they have closed.

Parking is prohibited at CVS or Walgreens. If you park there, you do so at your own risk.

Please enjoy the High Holy Days at Ahavath Torah Congregation.
Your comments and constructive suggestions are always appreciated.

Mazel Tov to all our ATC B'not Mitzvah women

At Shabbat services on June 25, we celebrated the 12th anniversary of the B'not Mitzvah of several women of ATC. Beverly Barbell, Paula Gaffin, Madeleine Lewis, and Marge Slotnick conducted various portions of the service and shared the chanting of that week's Haftarah. Barbara Tennnbaum, another member of the group, attended via livestream. Anne Leppo was also a member but has since moved to Arizona with her husband, Mark. Mazel Tov to all our ATC B'not Mitzvah women.

Thank you to Emma, Annalise, and Caroline Hait for the beautiful job leading us in Musaf.

A delicious kiddush luncheon followed the service.
