Celebrate fall by joining us for our all-ages event near our Sukkah to celebrate Sukkot. Sukkot is the fall Jewish harvest holiday. We will be observing Covid health protocols (outdoors, masks, sanitizing, no shared materials, etc.) Rabbi Adam Chalom will lead a brief service, including lulav branches, etrog fruit "show and tell."

We will provide a craft activity for children to create and place in the Sukkah or take home.

Bring chairs or blankets to sit around our sukkah.

Volunteers Needed

Please join other adults and older children as together we assemble our congregational Sukkah on Sunday, September 19, 9:30-11:00am. It fits together like a big puzzle, no construction experience needed! Please bring a cordless power drill, if possible. We also need help taking down the Sukkah after our Service.
