Yizkor — Remember

Rabbi Bruce Dollin

---

The Talmud says in the name of Rabbi Yehudah:

“Ten strong things have been created in the world. The rock is strong, but the iron cleaves it. The iron is strong, but the fire softens it. The fire is strong, but the water quenches it. The water is strong, but the clouds bear it. The clouds are strong, but the wind scatters them. The wind is strong, but the body bears it. The body is strong, but fright crushes it. Fright is strong, but wine banishes it. Wine is strong, but sleep works it off. Death is stronger than all, and an act of loving-kindness saves from death.”

When you remember a relative or a friend during Yizkor, you remember the moments with them that touched your heart; when they showed you kindness and love. For all that goes into living a life, at Yizkor, we remember mostly those moments of loving interaction. If that is what we remember as best about our loved one, isn't that how we should comport ourselves while we are alive? Kindness should be what is central in our lives; how we treat parents, a spouse, a child or a friend. Each moment with any of them is an opportunity for caring and compassion, for love and kindness. Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel once said, “When I was young, I valued intelligence but now that I am old, I value kindness.” Kindness is stronger than death. Its memory is what remains alive even as our loved one is gone.

May we always engage in that which is strongest in this world and in the next: acts of loving kindness to others.

Shana tova from our family to your's,

Rabbi Bruce, Tammy, Yoni, Shai, Kivi and Aviva.

Talking to the Spirits

Over the summer, I was invited to take part in a gathering with a spiritual medium – a person who communicates with those who have passed on from this world. My wife, Melanie, had been to one of these gatherings before and asked me to go into it with an open mind, knowing that I’m skeptical about these sorts of things.

As the event opened, the medium led us in a guided meditation, urging us to invite the spirits of our deceased loved ones into the room. I decided in that moment that I would take Melanie’s advice and willfully suspend my disbelief. I decided to give myself over to the experience on its own terms and see what happened. I closed my eyes and directed my thoughts to our son Koby. I spoke to him in my heart, inviting him to be with us, to communicate with us through this medium.

When our turn came, the medium shared some messages from Koby and, I have to admit, some of what she said was uncanny. I wept the whole time she talked to us, taking in what I believed in that moment to be a communication with my dead son’s spirit.

“So, what did you think?” Melanie asked me in the car on the way home. I responded, “I thought the point was not to think.” At first she thought I was being snarky (I’m prone to that). But I was sincere. I was invited to have an experience of feeling that Koby was close by and that’s what transpired. To intellectualize it would be to destroy the experience. It’s like meditation – when you meditate, if you step outside yourself and think about the fact that you’re meditating, then you cease to meditate.

I don’t know what “really” happened that evening with the medium. I don’t know if Koby’s spirit was “actually” speaking to her. It really doesn’t matter to me. All I know is that I intensely desired for Koby to be close to me, and, as a result, that’s what I experienced. Can some people speak with the spirits? I don’t know. But I spoke to my son and it unlocked emotions in me that I had been bottling up. I poured my heart out that night and I walked away feeling lighter because of it.

I won’t claim that reciting Yizkor will allow you to hear the voices of your loved ones. But if you recite Yizkor with kavannah – with sincere intention – you have an opportunity to feel them close to you. I would urge you to invite them into the room, ask them to be present in your heart. Suspend your critical faculties for a few minutes and allow yourself to feel. Give yourself over to the experience of Yizkor and see what happens.

Your Sun Shall No More Go Down

Your sun shall no more go down,
Neither shall your moon withdraw itself;
For Adonai shall be your everlasting light.
And the days of your mourning shall be ended.

Isaiah

The Two Ships

Two ships were once seen near land. One of them was leaving the harbor, and the other was coming into it. Everyone was cheering the outgoing ship, giving it a hearty send-off.

But the incoming ship was scarcely noticed. A wise man standing nearby explained the people's reaction. "Rejoice not," he said, "over the ship that is setting out to sea, for you know not what destiny awaits it, what storms it may encounter, what dangers lurk before it. Rejoice rather over the ship that has reached port safely and brought back all its passengers in peace."

It is the way of the world that when a human being is born, all rejoice; but when he dies, all sorrow. It should be the other way around. No one can tell what troubles await the developing child on its journey through life. But when a man has lived well and dies in peace, all should rejoice, for he has completed his journey successfully and he is departing from this world with the imperishable crown of a good name.

Midrash

Life's Lesson

I learn, as the years roll onward
And I leave the past behind,
That much I had counted sorrow
But proved that God is kind;
That many a flower I'd longed for Had hidden a thorn of pain
And many a rugged bypath
Led to the fields of ripened grain.
The clouds that cover the sunshine,
They cannot banish the sun,
And the earth shines out the brighter
When the weary rain is done.
We must stand in the deepest shadow
To see the clearest light;
And often through wrong's own darkness
Comes the welcome strength of Right.

Anonymous

A Truth

I hold it true, whate'er befall;
I feel it when I sorrow most;
'Tis better to have loved and lost
Than never to have loved at all.

Alfred Tennyson

What God Hath Promised

God hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.
But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
Undying love.

Annie Johnson Flint

Acceptance of the Unanswerable

“Why did it have to happen?” everyone asks. The answer to this is the test of the individual’s religious conviction. If his faith is deep and sincere, he replies simply: “This is God’s will. This is divine wisdom. There is a higher judgment.” Such a man possesses the faith which comforts and heals.

In others, an important recognition must be made—that there are things to which we have no answers at all, and that it is possible to accept what has happened without knowing why. For them, in that acceptance of the unanswerable, is the beginning of wisdom.

Zelda Popkin

Faced with Trouble

Oh, face to face with trouble,
Friend I have often stood,
To learn that pain hath sweetness,
To know that God is good.
Arise and meet the daylight,
Be strong and do your best,
With an honest heart and a childlike trust
That God will do the rest.

Margaret E. Sangster

Meeting Sorrow Upright

According to ancient Jewish custom, the ceremony of cutting our garments when our nearest and dearest on earth is lying dead before us, is to be performed standing up. This teaches: meet all sorrow standing upright. The future may be dark, veiled from the eye of mortals—but not the manner in which we are to meet the future. To rail at life, to rebel against a destiny that has cast our lines in unpleasant places, is of little avail. We cannot lay down terms to life. Life must be accepted on its own terms. But hard as life’s terms are, life (it has been finely said) never dictates unrighteousness, unholiness, dishonor.

Joseph H. Hertz

Life is...

Life is too brief
Between the budding and the falling leaf.
Between the seed time and the golden sheaf,
For hate and spite.
We have no time for malice and for greed;
Therefore, with love make beautiful the deed;
Fast speeds the night.
Life is too swift
Between the blossom and the white snow’s drift,
Between the silence and the lark’s uplift,
For bitter words.
In kindness and in gentleness our speech
Must carry messages of hope, and reach
The sweetest chords.
Life is too great
Between the infant’s and the man’s estate,
Between the clashing of earth’s strife and fate,
For petty things.
Lo! We shall yet who creep with cumbered feet
Walk glorious over heaven’s golden street,
Or soar on wings!

W.M. Vories

The Grave

The grave itself is but a covered bridge leading from light to light, through a brief darkness.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.

He knew the roads were getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids and whispered
"Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

By Kate, dedicated to my Nan

We Remember Them

At the rising of the sun and at its going down, we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

At the beginning of the year and at its end, we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live; For they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share, we remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make, we remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs, we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live; For they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

Sylvan Kamens and Rabbi Jack Riemer

Some people whose parents are living have a custom of leaving the service at this time, but even those who do not yet need to say the personal prayers of remembrance might remain and recite prayers for others as well as join in the communal prayers

ADONAI, what are human beings that You take account of them, mortals that You care for them?
Humans are as a breath, their days like a passing shadow.
In the morning they flourish anew, in the evening they shrivel and die.
Teach us to count each day,
that we may acquire a heart of wisdom.

יהוה, מֶה־אָדָם וַתִּדְעֵהוּ,
בֶּן־אָנוּשׁ וַתַּחֲשֹׁבֵהוּ.
אָדָם לַהֲבֵל דָּמָה,
יָמָיו כְּצֵל עוֹבֵר.
בַּבֹּקֶר יִצְיֹץ וְחָלָה,
לְעֶרֶב יִמּוֹלֵל וַיָּבֵשׁ.
לְמִנּוֹת יָמֵינוּ כֵּן הוֹדַע
וְנִבְיָא לְבָב חֲכָמָה.

On this solemn day we each make judgments about the quality of our life.
We re-examine our deeds and relationships with our community and with others.
We express our yearnings for a new year, a new beginning, a year during which we commit ourselves to work toward bringing health and peace to all.
We long for a year when individually and communally we shall strive to live in a way that is more reflective of the ideals that we cherish.
Now, in the midst of looking at our life and assessing its quality, we pause to reflect and to remember, and to dedicate ourselves anew.

God is always before me, at my right hand, lest I fall.
Therefore I am glad, made happy, though I know that my flesh will lie in the ground forever.

שׁוֹיֵתִי יְהוָה לְנִגְדֵי תְמִיד,
כִּי מִיָּמִינִי בַל־אֲמוּט.
לֵכֵן שְׂמַח לִבִּי וַיִּגַּל כְּבוֹדִי, אֶף בְּשָׂרִי יִשְׁכֵּן לְבֶטֶח.

The deaths of those we now remember left holes in our lives.
But we are grateful for the gift of their lives and we are strengthened by the blessings that they left us and the precious memories that comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

יִזְכּוֹר

INTRODUCTION. Yizkor is a time set aside to formally include in our thoughts and prayers family and friends who have passed away. Though Yizkor is recited on each of the festivals, on the High Holy Days we may feel a special connection to those who have played a significant role in our life's journey. The themes and somber ambience of the Yom Kippur service make this day especially appropriate for contemplating life and death. Thus, in reciting Yizkor, the veil between the worlds of the living and the dead becomes more transparent, less opaque. May the memory of those we recall be a blessing in our lives.

WHAT ARE HUMAN BEINGS מֶה־אָדָם. The verses in this passage come from Psalms 144:3-4, 90:6, and 90:12.

GOD IS ALWAYS שׁוֹיֵתִי יְהוָה. Psalm 16:8-9.

YIZKOR

When I stray from You,
Adonai, my life is as death;
but when I cleave to You,
even in death I have life.
You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.
The earth inherits that which perishes.
The dust returns to dust; but the soul, which is God's, is eternal.
Adonai is compassionate to all creation, granting us a share in unending life.
God redeems our life from the grave, joining us forever in the unending chain of life.
May we preserve the memory of those we love and are now gone, through charity in deed and thought.
May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace,
so that we will be remembered as a blessing, as we lovingly remember, this day, those who live on in our hearts.

—JULES HARLOW

Backwards and Forwards

Yizkor:
Looking backward, we recall our ancestry.
Looking forward, we confront our destiny.
Looking backward, we reflect on our origins.
Looking forward, we choose our path.
Remembering that we are a tree of life, not letting go, holding on, and holding to,
we walk into an unknown,
beckoning future,
with our past beside us.

(adapted)

WE RECALL

Some of us recall parents who watched over us, nursed us, guided us, and sacrificed for us.
Some of us lovingly call to mind a wife, husband, or partner with whom we were truly united—in our hopes and our pains, in our failures and our achievements, in our joys and our sorrows.
Some of us remember brothers and sisters, who grew up together with us, sharing in the play of childhood, in the youthful adventure of discovering life's possibilities, bound to us by a heritage of family tradition and by years of togetherness and love.
Some of us call to mind children, entrusted to us too briefly, to whom we gave our loving care and from whom we received a trust that enriched our lives.
So many of us recall beloved relatives and friends whose affection and devotion enhanced our lives, and whose visible presence will never return to cheer, encourage, or support us.
Though they are gone, we are grateful for the blessings they brought to our lives. We are sustained and comforted by the thought that their presence in our lives remains an enduring blessing that we can bequeath to others.
We can show our devotion to them by our devotion to those ideas that they cherished.
O God of love, make us worthy of the love we have received by teaching us to love You with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our might, and to spread the light of Your divine love on all whose lives touch ours.
Give us strength to live faithfully, for we are cheered by our confidence that You will not permit our lives to be wasted, but will bring all our worthy strivings to live on, even as we may not see their fulfillment.

—MORDECAI M. KAPLAN, EUGENE KOHN, AND IRA EISENSTEIN

צְדָקָה TZ'DAKAH/CHARITY.

The Yizkor service was called sefer matnat yad, the service of expressing generosity on behalf of those who have died. That name comes from the closing line of the Torah reading for the final day of the pilgrimage festivals (when Yizkor is recited): "Every person giving a gift according to the blessing they have received from Adonai" (Deuteronomy 16:17). Offering charitable gifts and performing acts of justice, love, and care in memory of those who have died provide us with ways of honoring their memory and continuing their influence for good.

Though I stared earnestly at my fingernail

Yesterday when I was on the #7 bus
I happened to look at the cuticle
of my right forefinger
and for a moment
I thought not that it was mine
but that it was my father's—the same small confusion I have

from time to time
when I catch sight
of my daughter in her denim skirt, size 3,
and I feel lean, willowy,
in her clothes.

So there I was on the #7 bus
overtaken by a longing
very close to love
staring at the cuticle
of my right forefinger.

I remembered how clean and short he kept his nails
and suddenly there was the whole man
reconstituted
from a fingernail
standing before me,
smiling broadly,
his face flushed
with pleasure.

But then just as suddenly
he was gone
and though I stared earnestly
at my fingernail
I failed to bring him back.

בְּגֵן עֵדֶן IN PARADISE
Literally, "in the Garden of Eden." We imagine that the soul, which connects all living beings with their divine source, returns, after the death of the body, to God's care.

*A Yizkor Meditation
in Memory of a Parent
Who Was Hurtful*

Dear God,

You know my heart.
Indeed, You know me better than I know myself,
so I turn to You before I rise for Kaddish.

My emotions swirl as I say this prayer. The parent I remember was not kind to me. His/her death left me with a legacy of unhealed wounds,
of anger and of dismay that a parent could hurt a child as I was hurt.

I do not want to pretend to love, or to grieve that I do not feel, but I do want to do what is right as a Jew and as a child.

Help me, O God,
to subdue my bitter
emotions that do me no good, and to find that place in myself where happier memories may lie hidden, and where grief for all that could have been, all that should have been, may be calmed by forgiveness, or at least soothed by the passage of time.

I pray that You,
who raise up slaves to freedom, will liberate me from the oppression of my hurt and anger, and that You will lead me from this desert to Your holy place.

—ROBERT SAKS

IN MEMORY OF MARTYRS:

May God remember the souls of the martyrs of our people, who gave their lives for the sanctification of God's name. In their memory do I pledge tz'dakah. May their bravery, their dedication, and their purity be reflected in our lives. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest in peace forever in God's presence. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF CONGREGANTS:

May God remember the souls of our friends, members of this holy congregation, who have gone to their eternal home. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May these moments of meditation strengthen the ties that link us to their memory.
May they rest in peace forever in God's presence. Amen.

*Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this congregation. Help us to perpetuate everything that was worthy in the lives of those no longer with us, whom we remember this day. May their memory endure as a blessing.
And let us say: Amen.*

IN MEMORY OF THE SIX MILLION:

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and the pure, whose radiance is like the heavens, to the souls of all the men, women, and children of the House of Israel who were slaughtered, strangled, and burned in the Shoah. May they rest in paradise.
Master of mercy, may they find eternal shelter beneath Your sheltering wings, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of life. ADONAI is their portion. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

My Peace

My peace is tied by a thread to yours.

And the beloved holidays and glorious seasons of the year—
with the wealth of fragrances, flowers,
fruit, leaves, and winds,
the fog and the rain,
the sudden snow
and the dew—
are suspended on a thread
of longing.

I and you and the Sabbath.
I and you and our lives
in the last incarnation.
I and you
and the lie.
And the fear.
And the breaches.
I and you
and the Creator
of the heavens that have no shore.
I and you
and the riddle.
I and you
and death.

IN MEMORY OF ALL THE DEAD:

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and the pure, whose radiance is like the heavens, to the souls of all those we have recalled today. May their memory be a blessing, and may they rest in paradise. Master of mercy, may they find eternal shelter beneath Your sheltering wings, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of life. ADONAI is their portion. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

PSALM 23

A PSALM OF DAVID.

ADONAI is my shepherd, I shall not want.
God gives me repose in green meadows,
and guides me over calm waters.
God will revive my spirit and direct me on the right path—
for that is God's way.
Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no harm, for You are at my side.
Your staff and Your rod comfort me.
You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes:
You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the house of ADONAI in the fullness of time.

Mourner's Kaddish

May God's great name be exalted and hallowed throughout the created world, as is God's wish. May God's sovereignty soon be established, in your lifetime and in your days, and in the days of all the House of Israel. And respond with: Amen.

May God's great name be acknowledged forever and ever!

May the name of the Holy One be acknowledged and celebrated, lauded and worshipped, exalted and honored, extolled and acclaimed—though God, who is blessed, b'rikh hu, is truly far beyond all acknowledgment and praise, or any expressions of gratitude or consolation ever spoken in the world. And respond with: Amen.

May abundant peace from heaven, and life, come to us and to all Israel. And respond with: Amen.

May the One who brings harmony on high, bring harmony to us and to all Israel [and to all who dwell on earth].
And respond with: Amen.

A black and white photograph of the United States flag waving against a cloudy sky. The flag is the central focus, with its stars and stripes clearly visible. A semi-transparent text box is overlaid on the right side of the flag.

In Memory of the men and women of the United States Armed Services who lost their lives during the past year.

In Memoriam

They are not dead, our sons who fell in glory
Who gave their lives for Freedom and for Truth.
We shall grow old, but never their great story.
Never their gallant youth.
In a perpetual springtime set apart,
Their memory forever green shall grow,
In some bright secret meadow of the heart
Where never falls the snow.

Joseph Auslander

In Memory of the Israeli citizens and the soldiers of the IDF who lost their lives defending their people and the State of Israel.

Thank You

We wish to acknowledge and thank the following people for their continued dedication and commitment to the HEA through their generosity for being Plus Level Members. Their sustaining contribution ensures the HEA is able to continue offering engaging programming, activities and the policy of “never turning a child away from the religious school or a person away from membership because of financial need.”

Front Cover

The photograph on the front cover, taken by Neil Rosenfeld, is of the Ark in the Sanctuary. The Ark was dedicated by Jordon and Essie Perlmutter and Family and was designed by Ira Sherman. Pictured above the Ark is the Ner Tamid, Eternal Light, created by artists Jay Wolf Schlossberg-Cohen and Lucinda Shaw. The design of the light is symbolic of Keter or Crown and mystically represents the earthly domain of God.

Back Cover

The photographs on the back cover, taken by Janet Purvis, are of the Witkin Family Windows, by artists Jay Wolf Schlossberg-Cohen and Lucinda Shaw. The windows include images of Jewish holidays, prayers, mysticism, as well as the history of the Hebrew Educational Alliance. The windows, dedicated April 29, 2000, were a gift to the congregation by the Witkin family given in memory of Lou Witkin and in honor of Ann Witkin.
