with a special Shabbat service on Friday, May 31st. Please save the date for all 3 events – we would love to see all members in attendance for our celebrations and the meeting. While I have been traveling a lot lately, both for work and family, I will definitely be at the Weekend of Celebration events. I look forward to celebrating these simchas together with many of you!

I can hardly believe it's 2019 and somehow, we're already in February!

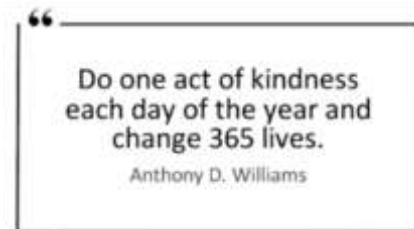

We've already had a great start to the year at Temple Or Rishon! In January, we had a wonderful weekend of events with a special guest, Rabbi Richie Address. These events included Kabbalat Shabbat, Torah study, Shabbat morning service, Havdalah, and a look at the "art of caregiving". I was unfortunately out-of-town and missed the entire weekend... but from what I heard, I missed an incredible series of events and many wonderful discussions. I am so glad that many of you participated in the different events.

If you haven't already heard, our TOR youth have been working on a fun project the last few weeks – it's a Mitzvah-thon! I love this idea. Our students are being encouraged to do more Mitzvahs & raising funds for our school programming in the process. It will conclude on February 10th with a school-wide Mitzvah Day and celebration.

Many exciting things are planned for March at TOR, as well! We have 2 great events planned for Purim – our annual Purim Carnival on March 17th, followed by a wonderful Purim Speil and Festival Dinner on Wednesday, March 20th!

We also have an amazing "Weekend of Celebrations" planned for the end of March, as well. We will be celebrating our Double-Chai year for Temple Or Rishon – with an anniversary Gala on Saturday, March 30th. 36 Years!! We end the weekend with our annual congregational meeting on Sunday, March 31st. Finally, we will celebrate Rabbi Rabishaw's 10th Year as our spiritual leader

L'Shalom,

Two special programs focusing on our youth.

Wednesday, March 6th: Confidential Teen Space to Talk about Stresses that Fill Their Lives.

An evening "For Teens Only" with Jenifer Jacobs, Ph.D., a specialist in Child, Adolescent and Family Therapy

Sunday, March 10 - A Conversation with Parents, Grandparents, and Anyone Else that Loves our Teens and Wants to Understand them Better!

Jenifer Jacobs, Ph.D., Rabbi Alan Rabishaw, and Mary Frank, will share insights from our teens about their perspective on the real issues and stresses they face. Walk away with insights as to how we can support each other (teens and adults) through the teen years.

Contact the temple office for more information.

This program is part of TOR's Machalot HaNefesh initiative.

Life and Legacy

Many of us start the new year with a resolution for improving our lives. How about starting the new year with a resolution to improve the lives of our children, grandchildren, Jewish community, and others in our lives.

Life and Legacy is an easy, and painless way to know, that at least one resolution can be kept.

Your commitment to Life and Legacy is a way of ensure the future of Temple Or Rishon, and the support for the education and religious support of the community.

For more information, send an email to: legacy@orrishon.org

How will you be remembered?

What's New in TOR Technology?

1. New Website
2. New Database System
3. New Event Tracking System
4. New Logins for Members
5. New Payment Controls

Last Summer, Temple Or Rishon underwent major changes in the way we track, arrange, and communicate information. We migrated from our previous database system (called Rakefet) and our previous website (hosted by URJ) to a new platform that integrates our website with our database system.

The new system is called Jvillage.

With this new system, members will have the ability to log into their account to make payments, change personal information, register for adult education and religious school services, RSVP for temple events and communicate with the TOR office staff.

With this change, we have also changed payment processors. We are unable to migrate previous credit card data to our new system. In order for your membership payments to be on time, you must log in to the system and set up a payment schedule.

Please help us complete this transition smoothly by logging in and completing the necessary financial arrangements.

If you encounter difficulty in this process, please do not hesitate to contact Rikki in the temple office for assistance. (916)988-4100 or Rikki.kass@orrishon.org

Your TOR Account—Just the Facts:

- We have a new system for capturing payments.
- If you pay by credit card or automatic bank transfer (EFT/ACH) you MUST set up your payment method by logging into the new system.
- Payments did not automatically continue beyond August 2018.
- Please check your records to ensure you are current in your membership payments.

A note from our Youth Director, Jacob Fefer

Hello TOR!

Coming off the heels of our TASTY Prom in January, we have a few big events coming up! President's Day weekend a group of TASTY teens and I will be heading to Dallas for the NFTY National Convention! After a long weekend of fun and travel, it will be nice to have NFTY Spring Conclave on March 1-3 in our own backyard at Congregation B'nai Israel.

Along with NFTY events, we have a couple TASTY events coming up shortly. On March 15th after Friday Night services TASTY will be having our annual International Dinner. Destination this year: Italy! Please join us for a night of good food and good stories as the teens will tell us about the history and current state of Jews in Italy along with some traditions unique to Italian Jews. Dinner tickets will be $15. We hope to see you all there!

Best,

Jacob Fefer

TASTY Youth Advisor

TICVA, (The Israel Civil Voice Alliance), meets at the Federation office, once per month. Their mission is to foster a respectful civil forum in the Jewish community for discussion, education and discourse on issues central to Israel in a safe and welcoming environment. Concept for TICVA is to identify contentious issues early, confer with community partners, plan for a quick programs to address the issue, and offer a safe place to do it.

Plans are going forward to sponsor a workshop on religious pluralism in Israel, encompassing issues of acceptance of worship and status for Jews of all denominations.

JCRC is ready for a new year with several new board members and rotation of leadership among some of the officers. A retreat was held for all committee members on January 20, 2019 to discuss our mission and the coming year's projects.

We are gearing up for a training session on the intersection of race and Jewish identity, yet to be scheduled.

The Jewish Film Festival will feature 9 films and 3 shorts this year. The dates are March 7, 9 and 10.

The board voted to become members of SacAct (Sacramento Area Congregation Together).

The board voted to co-host an event featuring Dr. Bruce Haynes from U.C. Davis, author of The Soul of Judaism. The event is part of the Sac Faces Race weekend the end of October, 2019.

I shared information on our weekend with Rabbi Mark Borovitz: From Addiction to Healing and Redemption. I also shared information on our upcoming Temple programs addressing aging and teen issues.

Or Rishon Women: Looking Back, Looking Forward

By Deanna Stilwell

When I think back on what 2018 provided us, I find much to be grateful for.

Welcoming 2018, Carol Catinari and Lynn Meyer-Mountjoy hosted nature hikes for any interested temple members. These hikes were user-friendly, spending time in nature without physically overdoing it on the trails.

Last February, I attended the Women's Shabbaton at Congregation B'nai Israel. The special guest from Women of Reform Judaism (WRJ) was Julia Weinstein. She presented vast information discussing the many roles WRJ plays whether it be supporting sisterhoods, fundraising for the YES (Youth, Education, and Special Projects) Fund, or writing legal briefs where WRJ takes stands on current social issues.

I also cannot forget the February event we had closer to home at TOR with Mah Jongg lessons for interested TOR members. Pearl Cox and Eileen Levine spent a Sunday afternoon complete with flipboard and handouts ready to teach some eager learners. For those interested, another Mah Jongg tournament is scheduled for February 17th with all proceeds benefiting the TOR Scholarship Fund.

In July, I attended the WRJ Pacific District Area Day for Northern California at Temple Isaiah in Lafayette. Ten of 13 temple sisterhoods attended. One impressive speaker we had was Laurel Sgro who presented about human trafficking educating attendees about the scope and depth of this current social problem which has been compounded with the internet. I also was able to connect with members of sisterhoods from other congregations and talk about what is being done to further connect women within our congregations and to the WRJ.

Or Rishon Women went above and beyond the usual apples and honey following Erev Rosh Hoshana services this year. Members came together beautifully and provided a sizeable oneg for a High Holy Day crowd. It was gratifying to see so many temple goers remain at the temple following the service visiting and noshing.

We followed Rosh Hoshana with an Or Rishon Women's evening in the Sukkah. We had a potluck dinner, spiritual activities, and fun. I particularly enjoyed hitting the pause button on the outside world that evening and finding connections both to Sukkot and to the other women who attended. Additionally, we had a few members participate in our 2nd applesauce tasting competition during the annual Hanukkah Carnival. The entries were sweet and being there with the children as they celebrated was even sweeter.

I was privileged to attend the WRJ Pacific District Convention in San Diego in mid-October. It was a jam-packed weekend that went by so quickly. Workshops I attended included building up membership, using technology, use of humor in presentations, and creative ideas for programming, marketing, food, and decor. I especially loved going to services at Temple Emanu-El in San Diego where we also enjoyed a Shabbat dinner. Saturday morning, I attended Torah study with Rabbi Tamara Cohn Eskenazi, Ph.D., editor of "The Torah: A Women's Commentary". She talked about the momentous journey which Abraham and Sarah undertook.

I think about that Torah study in San Diego with Rabbi Cohn Eskenazi. She pointed out how Abraham and Sarah, as ordinary people, were called by G-d to go forth and become extraordinary as human beings and in their acts. We as women of faith and of Temple Or Rishon can be extraordinary in our own ways. If you have not joined Or Rishon Women yet, please go to the temple website and sign up. We hope all women of Temple Or Rishon can join us on this journey.

Deanna Stilwell has been a member of Temple Or Rishon since 2005. She is a member of the Or Rishon Women steering committee. She can be reached at drstilwell@yahoo.com.

Bring yourselves and your ideas to our Or Rishon Women planning meeting on Sunday, February 24th at 9:30am at Temple Or Rishon. RSVP for meeting to Deanna Stilwell at drstilwell@yahoo.com or 415-485-1841.
