Spread over us the shelter of your peace, Amen.

“Shelter us beneath your wings, O Adonai, guard us from all harmful things, O Adonai. Keep us safe throughout the night, 'til we wake with morning's light. Teach us daily, wrong from right, Amen.”

Looking Back, Looking Forward

1. What is something you learned during religious school or at CBI this past year?
2. What is something you hope to continue learning about or would like to begin to learn about next year?

KAVOD (RESPECT/HONOR)

Everyone: At CBI religious school we take kavod seriously. We know that every person is holy.

Parents: We can honor our children by caring for them, teaching them, doing our best to be patient with them, and setting limits for them. We can also honor our children by making care and compassion for ourselves a priority.

Children: We can show respect by listening to our parents, being kind to them and to our siblings, and following directions.

Everyone: In Pirkei Avot we learn, “Who is honored? One who honors others.”

BE THE LIGHT FOR JUSTICE, JULIE SILVER

I'll be the light for justice
I'll be the light for love
I'll be the light shining in the dark
Even when we've seen enough
I'm gonna wake up everyday
And be a light where I stand
Reach out my hand
I'll be the light for justice
