

Make Your Own Havdalah Set

A multi-wick candle (a braided Havdalah candle or any two candles with wicks held together)

Do you have 3 birthday candles you can hold together?
Do you have any yummy smelling candle with three wicks?
Do you have 3 Shabbat Candles?

If you happen to have any wick laying around =) you can also melt crayons and add three wicks to them

Pleasant-smelling spices (in a jar, from the garden, in a spicebox – however your family prefers)

I love using an orange, apple, plum. Add some cloves or cinnamon to it. Do you have honey at home? Microwave in a small ball – honey, cinnamon, apple? Experiment with different spices. The Spice Box is meant to be a little sweet, a little spicy.

A cup of grape juice or wine (a kiddush cup is customary, but any cup will do)

Does your family have a kiddush cup? Ask your parents what the story is? Is it from their wedding? Bar/Bat Mitzvah? Do you have a plastic or paper cup and permanent markers? Decorate your own kiddush cup with each family members goal for the coming week. Fill your cup with any fruit juice (apple, grape, orange, etc)
