

Rachel Eckman

West Hartford, CT

Religious School and Hebrew Teacher

“Education means teaching a child to be curious, to wonder, to reflect, to enquire.” Jonathan Sacks Haggadah

— Personal Background —

Born and raised in New York, attended synagogue, went to Hebrew School, and bat mitzvah at Little Neck Jewish Center. Continued studies at the youth program at Temp Emanuel after bat mitzvah. Attended summer camp at Young Judea Sprout Lake and Tel Yehudah. Teach and study both in the classroom and virtually, grades pre-k through adult learners. Regularly attend classes, webinars, and workshops in both Jewish and secular studies.

Professional Experience

Temple Mount Sinai – El Paso, Texas (Reform)

2016 - 2021

Grade Levels and Subjects:

- Pre-K
- Kindergarten
- 4th Grade
- Hebrew Level I
- Hebrew Level II
- Jewish-themed Sip and Paint classes (monthly)
- Jewish Trivia Night (monthly)
- Learning Annex classes

Bayshore Jewish Center – Bayshore, NY (Conservative)

2004 - 2007

Grade Levels and Subjects:

- Pre-K
- Kindergarten
- 1st Grade

Sinai Reform Temple of Bayshore - Bayshore, NY (Reform)

Grade Levels and Subjects:

- Kindergarten
- 1st Grade

Little Neck Jewish Center - Little Neck, NY (Conservative)

Grade Levels and Subjects:

- Student teacher - 3rd Grade
-

Educational Background

Bachelor of Science in Social Psychology

Summa Cum Laude

Park University, El Paso, Texas

Associates of Occupational Studies in Automotive Technology

Western Technical College, El Paso, Texas