

SPACE FOR RENT

Events, Meetings, Concerts, Office Space

At Congregation Beth Israel of Media

Seeking an inspirational place for a private or public meeting or event, board gathering, short notice interview, video conference, rehearsal, concert or presentation? Consider Congregation Beth Israel of Media, in a pastoral setting, conveniently located on Route 352.

Our rental spaces are flexible, available on short notice, and a broker is not required. Most spaces have windows and natural light. We have rental spaces for all budgets, short-term, long-term, or on your terms.

Our rental spaces are perfect for group meetings of different sizes and suitable for your event, party, organization seminar, business meeting, rehearsal or concert. Co-working space is coming soon to our on-site facility, which will provide meeting and event space to suit.

Congregation Beth Israel is a religious community located on Route 352 in Middletown, just minutes from the Promenade at Granite Run, the Elwyn train station, with convenient access to Routes 352, 1, 452, I-476, I-95, and the Philadelphia airport. Our 100+ parking spaces are free, on-site, private, and off-street. Also, for indoor/outdoor events, we offer charming on-site grounds surrounded with lush fields and walking trails.
