

Congregation Beth Emeth

Religious School Teachers – Part-Time for the 2022-2023 School Year

Congregation Beth Emeth, a dynamic Conservative synagogue in Herndon, VA is seeking creative, knowledgeable staff for our dynamic religious school program. Our school serves children in grades K-7 as well as our Chai School for grades 8-10. We are looking for teachers who are passionate about Judaism and enjoy being in the classroom. We have multiple positions available on Sunday mornings from 9am-12noon, and our older students also meet on Wednesday afternoons from 4:30-6:30pm.

We are also seeking a Hebrew language teacher to work one on one with children who need additional support.

We offer competitive salaries, as well as a warm and collaborative work environment.

An ideal candidate will be:

- Enthusiastic, patient and dependable
- Familiar with Hebrew, sufficient to teach beginning Hebrew readers to decode
- Passionate for Jewish knowledge, tradition and history
- Ability to use different teaching strategies to teach and engage different types of learners.

Responsibilities:

Our teachers are expected to:

- Develop lesson plans that are interesting, engaging, and age appropriate, ensuring that curriculum objectives are met
- Build positive relationships with students and parents
- Communicate with parents periodically via email about student/class progress
