OUR HONOREES OUR HONOREES OUR HONOREES OUR HONOREES

We are honoring Kol Ami members Joshua Finkel, and his husband, Stephen Schmones, M.D. with the Allan Rich Award for Exemplary Achievement in the Arts & Humanities, named in honor of our own congregant Allan Rich. Josh is an award-winning producer, writer, director, actor, and coach – well-known in the theatre arts from the world of Broadway to national regional theatres. Josh has participated in Purim spiels and galas at Kol Ami for years. Steve is an award-winning board-certified OB-GYN practicing in Burbank. Both men use their talent to give back to the community and country wherever it is needed.

We are honoring Assistant Chief Beatrice M. Girmala with the Shomer Tzedek “Guardian of Justice” Award. A 35-year veteran of the LAPD, Assistant Chief Girmala is the Director, Office of Support Services. She oversees two Bureaus along with Critical Incident Review Division, Fiscal Operations Division and Behavioral Science Services. The two Bureaus are Personnel and Training Bureau and Administrative Services Bureau. In addition, she is the Department Coordinator for LGBTQ matters. Assistant Chief Girmala is a friend and ally of Kol Ami and the LGBTQ+ community and has been a guest speaker during Shabbat services at Kol Ami.

We are honoring Kol Ami member Jess Winfield with the Spirit of Kol Ami Award for his leadership and dedication to our Tzedek Council and social justice outreach. Jess has represented Kol Ami at the California Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism (RAC-CA), spending his own money and time lobbying for issues close to our community. He led the charge to ensure 100% of Kol Ami members were registered to vote during the 2018 mid-term elections and has continued to be our voice for prison, health care, and immigration reform. Jess celebrated his adult Bar Mitzvah this past September after several years of study. He is married to Sa, a ceramicist, and together they devote their time and energy to making the world a better place.

CONGREGATION KOL AMI

Congregation Kol Ami is West Hollywood's premier and only Reform synagogue. Founded as one of the nation's first religious institutions that welcomed the LGBTQ community, Congregation Kol Ami became America's Jewish heart and home for gay and lesbian Jews in the early 1990s. Today, Congregation Kol Ami is the prevailing Jewish voice advocating for inclusion, diversity, social justice and contemporary relevance of Torah.
