Looking Toward a Better Future

Over the last few years we have seen an increasing number of senseless tragedies, from lone individuals massacring innocent civilians, terrorism, wars around the globe and our continued contentious and very divided political climate. What is as disturbing is the rise of anti-semitism throughout our own country and the world.

None of this occurs in a vacuum and over the last few years we have seen this exponential rise in not only anti-Semitism, often justified as anti-Israel sentiment, but also attacks against minority groups, both in America and around the world.

Like many of you, I struggle with difficult questions such as, what can I do? How do I protect our children and community? How does one show solidarity against bigotry and hate without pointing fingers and blaming those with different political and religious beliefs than our own?

The truth is there is no one simple solution to fixing this shattered world with which we find ourselves. However, there are glimpses of light that shines through the darkness. We find people from diverse backgrounds coming together in solidarity against the forces of evil who seek to divide and destroy our way of life.

It is during such times that we can turn to the Torah for guidance. In this week's biblical portions, we find the Israelites standing on a similar precipice:

"See, today I will give you both a blessing and a curse. There will be a blessing if you listen to the commandments which Adonai your God has commanded you this day. And a curse if you do not listen to the commandments..." (Deuteronomy 11:26-28)

Here the Israelites are commanded to see the repercussions of living a life dedicated to the ideals and values of freedom and justice that are set forth in the Torah. The idea that every human being regardless of race, gender, religion and sexual orientation is created in the divine image.

As we approach the Jewish High Holy days and begin our period of reflection, soul searching and repentance, we must not only ask God to forgive ourselves, but also learn how to forgive each other. Most importantly, we must learn to not demonize those perceived as the "other". We are all holy brothers and sisters sharing this increasingly small world. We need to remember that those who seek to divide us are insignificant. The more we come together with common purpose, the more these hate-filled voices will be drowned out until one day, God willing, we will live in a society where war, hate, fear and bigotry are permanently left on the bookshelves of history.

Rabbi's Message

This is symbolized when the twelve tribes of Israel split into two, with half standing on Mount Grizim to recite the blessings, and the other half standing on Mount Eival to recite the curses, which can be seen as symbolic of the divisions that not only plagued the Israelites in the desert, but also throughout our history. Once completed, both groups engraved the blessings and curses for all future generations to see.

It is this symbolism of being split into two that gives us inspiration for how we can heal our divided society through tikkun olam. We need to strive to achieve mutual respect and dialogue. All compassionate people must come together and engage in respectful discussion to learn to see through other's eyes, see the divine in everyone, and truly listen to our fellow human beings.

Shabbat Shalom,

Rabbi Andrew Bentley

Our congregation traditionally publishes a Memorial Book (2018/5779) in which members honor the memory of their departed loved ones. Our book, which also includes Yizkor prayers, provides two kinds of memorials: a quarter page to a full page of "Pages of Remembrance" OR simple listings of names in remembrance. As such, it is a lovely keepsake that provides comfort and inspiration for the entire year.

WOMEN OF SINAI

Dues are our primary fundraiser plus we have many programs and projects in the works for the year as we raise funds to help support the Rabbi Avi Levine Religious School.

The Board of Directors for the fiscal year are as follows:

Don't hesitate to contact any of us if you have any questions or have suggestions for programs and/or projects for Women of Sinai.

Our first program is on Sunday, October 16th at 11:00 a.m. for brunch, and will feature our own Rabbi Bentley speaking about our Jewish identity.

Tree of Life

Have you noticed our "Tree of Life" on the wall in the Temple lobby with the engraved leaves and stones? It is to the right of the Sanctuary entrance. This was part of Temple Sinai in our previous location and was brought here when we moved. What a great way for us to help Temple Sinai raise funds and get something special in return that will last for many, many years.

For $300 per leaf you can honor a teacher, a special mentor, acknowledge the birth of a new baby, and celebrate a birthday, wedding, anniversary, bar/bat mitzvah, Hanukah gift, or any type of celebration. Of course, this is also a perfect way to memorialize the loved ones we have lost. In addition, small stones and large stones are available for engraving and sit at the base of the tree.

The small stones are $1,000 and larger stones are $1500. To make this fundraiser even more affordable consider "chipping in" with other congregants to purchase a leaf or rock. Next time you are in the Temple stop and look at some of the leaves and stones to see what your family is celebrating.

Looking forward to receiving your registration forms back soon so we can plan our classes. If you haven't received your electronic registration form ,please let me know and I will send one out. If you know of any other families with kids in TK-10th grades who are not in our program yet, please get some contact info to me so I can talk to the families about our school.

Water Day is the best way to keep cool and still enjoy the outdoors. Besides the regular sprinkles and wading pools to keep cool, we are enjoying our new "car wash" center. We get soaked while collaborating and using our imaginations. Having hands on experiences with Newton's First and Third Law of Motion was exciting. We end each water day enjoying cool refreshing water melon.

We love the summer!

ATTENTION:

Teens! Kids! Moms! Grandparents!

The Food Bank needs you.

WE NEED DRIVERS AND PACKERS!!

Are you looking for an important summer activity for your family? Summer is almost here and many of our Food Bank volunteers are snowbirds. If you have a few hours on Tuesday mornings, please call Gail Jacobs (341-2558). We guarantee that you will enjoy the opportunity to help the 125 families of our community who receive food from us each week. Our needy neighbors stay right here and have extra cooling expenses so they need our help even more during the summer months.

Some of our volunteers are snowbirds and are already in the cooler climates. However, many of our hard-working packers and drivers are here for the summer. A special thanks to them because they see that the groceries get packed and out to clients every Tuesday.

Here is a quote from a note that we recently received from one of our clients:

"Dear Gail, Just a quick note of appreciation for continuing to provide me with FREE food here where I live in Palm Springs.... I imagine that the gratitude I feel is felt by my neighbors as well who share in the enjoyment. Thaahnks again."

We don't deliver for the thanks, but they sure are appreciated!

Gordon Poster Brotherhood President

Here is how I started last year, It was so good I decided to use it again;

I realize that by the time most of you have a chance to read this you will be on your vacations, back at your other homes or simply relaxing around the pool.

So while you are doing any number of things, which don't include thinking about what the Temple, Brotherhood is planning for the up and coming season, let me tell you it's going to be great.

Having a discussion of coming year's activities, the Brotherhood Board agreed to only hold one major event for the coming year- a major show to be held at the Palm Springs Community Concert Auditorium, we hope. President Gordon will be working with his contacts to put together a major entertainer or entertainers for a spectacular fund raiser to benefit the temple.

In addition, Brotherhood will handle all Zimra Dinners and the usual monthly movies and will assist with the temple's big Gala next spring. Plus Brotherhood will host a bar concession at the temple's Jewchella Concert scheduled for January 27th. With all the Brotherhood sponsored events Brotherhood is hoping to donate $30,000 to the temple's "general fund."

Our board is putting together some great films for next season and don't forget our annual December 25th, Chinese Buffet and Movie. This a family fun event, so if you are going to be in town please try to make the movie. If nothing else you get a pretty good Chinese Buffet.

Well that's about it for now. I hope you have a restful summer because we have a lot of stuff to do, I really don't want anyone getting bored.
