Temple Sinai

June 2, 2018 / 19 Sivan, 5778

10:00am Shabbat morning

Please join us on this very special Shabbat as our Kitah Zayin students lead the service and teach Torah. They will present an original "Storahitelling" that transmits the text in a creative and fun way.

Come and show your support for life-long Jewish learning by witnessing our amazing youth demonstrate their literacy in Jewish worship and study.

You don't want to miss seeing Torah through their eyes!

"Ben Bag Bag says: Turn it over and turn it over, for everything is in it. Look deeply into it, and grow old with it, and spend time over it, and do not stir from it, because there is no greater portion." (Avot 5:22)

Beha'lotecha – We're All In This Together

Moses is often referred to as the greatest of all Jewish prophets. Yet, despite delivering the Israelites from slavery to Mount Sinai, there were instances where the people of Israel showed ingratitude. In some cases, this went as far as open rebellion. This week's Torah portion describes one instance that deeply affected Moses, who perceived it as one of the lowest points in his life.

"The rabble that was among them cultivated a craving and the Children of Israel wept once more, and said: Who will feed us meat? We remember the fish that we ate in Egypt free of charge, the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions and garlic. But now our soul is dried out, there is nothing, we have nothing except anticipating the manna." Numbers 11:1-6

Even though this was not the first of such instances that Moses experienced, it clearly was the last straw. Moses approaches God and uncharacteristically asks: "Did I conceive this entire people...that you say to me, carry them in your bosom as a nurse carries a suckling...I alone cannot carry this entire nation for it is too heavy for me! And if this is how you deal with me, then kill me now." Numbers 11:13-15. Moses' reaction to this incident illustrates the intense frustration and despair he must have felt.

God's solution to the incessant complaining was even more curious. Seventy elders were appointed to stand with Moses by the tabernacle, so he wouldn't have to bear the burden of leadership alone.

This incident and God's response raises two questions. What was different about the people complaining now compared with them complaining immediately following the Exodus? And, why did God respond by commanding Moses to appoint elders to share the burden of leadership?

Looking at these events in context, we find that the complaining starts after leaving Egypt. There, Moses was more understanding. He sympathized as he watched slaves transition to free thinking spiritual people.

By the time we get to Numbers, however, the Israelites have accepted the laws of a free, holy nation on Mount Sinai, and have participated in the deeply spiritual act of building and consecrating the tabernacle.

By this point, Moses felt they should be acting as a "holy nation and kingdom of priests," having grown and matured. Instead, they clung to old habits and acted like impetuous children. Moses viewed this as a personal failure in his own leadership.

By God appointing elders to stand with Moses serves to lift Moses' morale and allows him to be a better leader. Having the support of the best and brightest of the Israelite nation to share the spirit of prophecy rejuvenates what defined Moses from the start.

We have all felt the despair of Moses. We wonder whether our best efforts to improve the world have been successful. As we journey through life, we will encounter setbacks. Yet, like Moses, we must look at those closest to us, those with whom we have positively influenced, and remember that our legacies will carry on long after we are gone.

Shabbat Shalom,

Rabbi Andrew Bentley

MESSAGE FROM INCOMING TEMPLE PRESIDENT BOB GLAST

Thank you for the opportunity to serve as President of Temple Sinai. Having served on the board of trustees for the last three years, I am aware of the challenges that we face. Working with the board and our members, we will address these challenges and seek timely solutions.

The key to success is not a president or a board of trustees, but the combined efforts of all of our members. Help us to understand what the temple can do to make your membership more important in your life. This has to be a group effort. Let's define goals, discuss solutions, and work together to make our temple everything it can be.

MISSION STATEMENT

Temple Sinai is a Jewish congregation which seeks to share the principles of Reform Judaism with our congregants and their families. We provide a home for assembly, worship and study.

We encourage social responsibility, a sense of community, a relationship with our fellow Jews and the State of Israel. We encourage each to find their connection to our Jewish heritage and traditions.

Arava Talve, Melamedet

Each week I have the privilege of learning Torah with six incredible women as they study to become B'not Mitzvah. During one of our recent discussions, we talked about the center of the Torah; the Holiness code. The Torah gives us a place to begin and the rest is up to us to figure out how to achieve holiness in our time. Observing the Shabbat, revering your mother and father and treating others as you wish to be treated are highlighted. We paused to reflect on the meaning of everyday holiness in our lives today. Here are some of the women's thoughts on holiness:

Holiness is a feeling of awe. Holiness is a feeling that comes from within. An act of holiness means to take care of others as you would yourself; to study G-d's word & practice her laws.

I found so many things to write about but the first thing that stuck out to me was, You shall each revere your Mother and your Father and keep Shabbat. Also Lev.19:17-18, you shall not hate your kinfolk in your heart. Reprove your heart kin but incur no guilt in their account. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against members of your people. LOVE YOUR FELLOWS AS YOURSELF ! I love this so much because there is so much hate and gossip among one another. Adonai commands us to love each other. It reminds me to put silly feelings aside and try to see the other person's side before I judge them. Forgiveness and acceptance is what I find in the holiness code.

I love the part in Leviticus (19:1-37) that gives us instruction on how to be holy. Adonai gave us rules to live by which are still relevant today. Revere you Mother and Father and keep the Shabbat. You shall not steal or deal deceitfully with others or swear falsely. Love your neighbor as yourself is important. If we only did this there would definitely be more peace in the world.

I think the verse that is most dear to my heart is, "when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap all the way to the edge of your field, or gather the gleaning of your harvest. You shall leave them for the poor and the stranger. What this means is that we should always be concerned for those that have less or not enough. This demonstrates God's kindness, compassion and wisdom. I am grateful that Adonai cared so much about humanity that we were gifted with the special laws.

A holiness code? If there is a code for me it is kindness. When it kills you to make that smile and you make it, you take yourself out of yourself and give of yourself. That smile is like a ripple effect in the water. Just as a negative action creates its own ripple effect. People today call it a carbon footprint, I prefer love pebbles. I don't like to think of being here on the planet as a "footprint". As I grow older I feel much more gentle than that of a "footprint".

To me, holiness is reflected in the way we treat others and G-D from honoring our parents to our fellow human beings. We should "love our neighbor as ourselves". Do not cheat, slander, hate others, treat each other fairly in business, and show kindness to the deaf and blind among us. We honor G-D and his laws by honoring each other.

Through our actions towards others and by following G-d's laws, we can then achieve "holiness" in our own lives.

To me, all is holy. Simply put. I cannot say "I don't know why I feel this way" I just do. I do know why I feel this way and for me it is the study of Torah. The discussion of Torah and the living of Torah. I have tried to live life my own way. This did not go so well. I am most comfortable wrapped in our Torah.

Arava

Leslie Pepper – Director of Education

As we wrap up our school year, our students have been learning about the Holiday of Shavuot and the giving of the Torah and the springtime harvest. We had a lovely cheese blintz and yogurt program that showcased dairy foods eaten over this holiday, as the students in grades 4-6 began working on their end of the year play to be presented on the last day of school, Sunday June 02.

Our Confirmation teens worked very hard on their Confirmation Service held on May 18th, where they presented their Legacy gift to our congregation, a handmade Torah holder, at the service. We are so proud of all the hard work that Alex Bentley, Olivia Marx and Brian Paoletta have given this year, as they wrapped up their formal Jewish education at Temple Sinai! And a very special thank you goes out to Graham Paull who assisted our teens in this beautiful endeavor.

Our Kitah Zayin students have been working all year on becoming B'nai Mitzvot, and they will be leading the Shabbat morning services on Saturday, June 2 at 10:00 am. It is with pride that Alexa Berman, Sienna Greenberg, Jaren Novack and Chloe Sontz take on this special role of Shabbat leaders before the entire Congregation.

Our teen/adult Shabbaton into LA on May 6th was a very special trip for our intergenerational participants. We started off after a very early sendoff to visit the Heritage Mosaic at Mount Sinai Hollywood Hills. This mosaic comprised of over 2 ½ million pieces of Venetian hand-cut glass was a highlight of the trip. It is one of the largest outdoor historical monuments in America, and it portrays in a breathtaking panorama, the Jewish American experience over the past 350 years. We left our past 350 years of American/Jewish history behind us, as we next stopped at the Zakheim Memorial to the 6 million who perished in the Holocaust. It was terribly moving as we gazed at the six three-dimensional figures, all rendered in burnt and tortured wood, represent six heroic Jewish figures. Rising from the stones of the memorial is a flame that symbolizes the eternal spirit of the six million and the rebirth of Israel from the ashes of the Holocaust. Here we placed soft limestone pebbles from the Holy City of Jerusalem on the camp tombstones, as is a Jewish tradition, as a token that we were there to remember and bear witness to the atrocities that took place. We also stood as a group and recited the Mourner's Kaddish together before embarking on our Yom Ha'Atzmaut activities in LA. We made it into LA for a one-mile walk through the city streets of LA, joined by thousands of Angelenos to mark Israel's 70 years of Independence.

We then entered the Israel 70 festival, where we were joined by thousands of supporters of the State of Israel and all the sights and smells of being in Israel. The food was great, the weather sunburned our shoulders, the music and Israeli dancing filled the area, and it was such a fun-filled day! It was a day filled with Love and Pride for Israel.

We have had an awesome year at Religious school and a very special Todah Rabah goes out to our fantastic teachers: Amy Lond, Judy Monetatchi, Ruthi Rukenstein, Marjorie Lander, Dina Cohen, Arava Talve, and our art specialists Dr. Nesa Bland and Joyce Fishman. A special thank you and shout out to our esteemed leader, Rabbi Andrew Bentley, who infused our teachings and davening with his musical and intellectual spirit! I wish you all a peaceful summer and look forward to new and exciting programs beginning in the fall after the High Holidays! Stay cool!

Jackie Leany - Tikvah Preschool Director

Ms. Dina used our Jewish Curriculum classes and our outside Jewish Center to teach the children about two special holidays. First, we celebrated Yom HaAtzma'ut (Israeli Independence Day). The children made flags, had a parade and sang songs. Next, we celebrated the harvest of the first fruits and Moses receiving the Ten Commandments. On Shavuot, we eat dairy foods, so the children made "dairy pizza" for snack. Making spring baskets and gathering fruit from the trees was so exciting for the children. Our Graduation Day was May 31st at 4:00 p.m. We have enjoyed having each of these children with us at Tikvah and wish them many blessings as they move on to Kindergarten. They and their families make Tikvah a special place to be.

Summer days are coming quickly. We are planning our water days and the many adventures we can have with mud, water, sand, science and exploration.

HELP NEEDED: Our washer has washed 1000 of loads of laundry, and our refrigerator has cooled 1000 pounds of food for snacks. They are needing to be replaced. We are hoping there is someone who could donate a gently used washer or refrigerator. Please call me at 760 568 6779 if you know of anyone who could help us out.

Be sure to view and like us on our Tikvah Facebook page. You don't want to miss seeing the amazing things we are doing. WOMEN OF SINAI - President Reesa Manning

As the year ends, I cannot help but be excited about the progress made by Women of Sinai in our very first year as an organization. We had several well-attended meetings and events with some interesting speakers and a theatrical partnership with Brandeis. We gave over $7,500 to the Rabbi Avi Levine Religious School, to help keep tuitions low and encourage education of our youth. We did hit a stumbling block with our planned volunteer program but we will try again and hopefully have more success.

We are now gearing up for the new year. Annual dues are our biggest fundraiser as we raise money to support the Rabbi Avi Levine Religious School. In July, you will receive a dues letter, asking for your donation for the 2018-2019 year. We sincerely hope you will respond favorably and send in your dues checks as soon as you can after receiving the letter.

As part of our program planning for the new year, we are planning a special luncheon that will be complimentary for all dues-paying members and for those members who are over 90 years young. More information on programming will be coming soon.

During the summer, the Gift Shop will remain open, mainly by appointment. Just call the Temple office to arrange a time to come in and see (and buy!) the fabulous merchandise we have.....for birthdays, anniversaries, b'nai mitzvahs, holidays, Jewish ritual, Mah Jongg, and so much more.

The Mah Jongg lessons and play on Wednesday afternoons will be suspended from June 1 until October. The Mah Jongg playing on Thursday afternoons will be held at the home of Picce Glast during the summer. So that she can have the right number of tables filled, it is imperative that you contact her by phone or email (phone 432-413-1011 or pglast1@gmail.com) by noon on Wednesday when you want to play on Thursday. She also is planning a series of six beginner lessons during the summer, so call her for information.

Thank you for your membership and participation. I and the Board are looking forward to an action packed new year.

Gordon Poster, BROTHERHOOD PRESIDENT

Dear Members of Temple Sinai,

I have been the president of the Brotherhood for 11 years, mind you, not all in a row, but that's a long time.

My first run was from 2001 through 2003, then 2005 and 2006, and now, this last run of 2010 until the season end of 2018. It has been great. But at this time, I am moving forward as a member of the executive board and will continue on with the board of trustees.

Your new President will be Gary Kreger. I have known Gary for almost 30 years, and I can tell you, without any hesitation, you're getting a good man.

Gary, Shelley, Gordon, Saul and Ed will continue to bring you some great things in the months to come. Now don't think for a minute that I am not going to help... Who else is going to cook the Zimra Dinners, arrange for the Deli dinner on Movie Night, and help plan other events?

Brotherhood, with your support, will continue to help raise funds for the Temple—something we all agree is a priority- and we are already working on two or three really great events.

So, as you can see, I am not going anywhere soon. I plan on hanging around for at least another 20 years; heck, if you're lucky, and myself, maybe longer.

So, let me finish by living up to my own words: "For our future, for your Temple, for your community and for yourself, consider getting involved".

B'Shalom

Gordon

ATTENTION: Teens! Kids! Moms! Grandparents! The Food Bank needs you. WE NEED DRIVERS AND PACKERS!!

Are you looking for an important summer activity for your family? Summer is almost here and many of our Food Bank volunteers are snowbirds. If you have a few hours on Tuesday mornings, please call Gail Jacobs (760-341-2558). We guarantee that you will enjoy the opportunity to help the 125 families of our community who receive food from us each week. Our needy neighbors stay right here and have extra cooling expenses so they need our help even more during the summer months. Some of our volunteers are snowbirds and are already in the cooler climates. However, many of our hard-working packers and drivers are here for the summer. A special thanks to them because they see that the groceries get packed and out to clients every Tuesday.

Here is a quote from a note that we recently received from one of our clients: "Dear Gail, Just a quick note of appreciation for continuing to provide me with FREE food here where I live in Palm Springs..... I imagine that the gratitude I feel is felt by my neighbors, as well, who share in the enjoyment. Thanks again."

We don't deliver for the thanks, but they sure are appreciated!

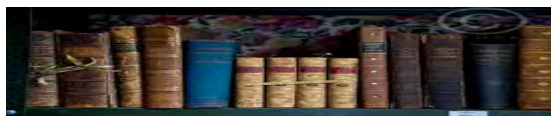

May the Joy of Mitzvah spread its goodness everywhere!

Our congregation traditionally publishes a Memorial Book (2018/5779) in which members honor the memory of their departed loved ones. Our book, which also includes Yizkor prayers, provides two kinds of memorials: a quarter page to a full page of "Pages of Remembrance" OR simple listings of names in remembrance. "It Won't Happen to Me"

A Seminar on Safety

Have you ever thought about what you would do if you were approached or grabbed by a bad guy? Of course you have. Do you know exactly what to do? Probably not. Do you know what the first thing to do is if your house was filled with smoke? What if there was an intruder? What if your child or grandchild went missing or were assaulted? What if you were?

Mika Moulton began her pursuit of safety education and prevention programs after the 1995 abduction and brutal murder of her 10-year-old son, Christopher.

Upon moving to the Coachella Valley in 2007, Mika realized that there are no prevention programs in the community so she incorporated in California and is the Founding Director of Christopher's Clubhouse – a non-profit organization with a mission to provide educational programs to empower children, families, teens, women and the elderly, to avoid abuse and exploitation in order to create a healthier and safer community.
