President's Message

Temple Sinai 1.0 began with the dedication of the Temple Sinai building on March 2, 2001. Many meaningful Shabbat and High Holy Day services, Bar and Bat Mitzvahs, Confirmations and sadly memorials would take place in Temple Sinai's new house of Worship.

Bob Glast, President

Temple Sinai 2.0 began on Sunday, October 25, 2015 when Beatrice Eslamboly, President, and Reesa Manning, Board Member, presented a plan for individuals to invest in a 5 year note to be used to refinance the mortgage on the Temple Sinai Property through an LLC referred to as Semble. By April 2016, enough funds were invested to refinance the mortgage.

Temple Sinai 3.0 begins Friday, August 30, 2019. The sale of the 4.25 acre property and preschool building closed escrow. Funds have been wired to Semble to pay all Semble investors, or in the case of IRA investments, the IRA's will be moved back to the originating IRA's. When Semble receives the funds and paperwork, they anticipate completing the distribution to investors by September 15, 2019.

To the 68 individuals or couples who supported Temple Sinai 2.0, our gratitude will never cease. Special thanks goes to Burt Kaplan, may his memory be a blessing. His bequests to Temple Sinai were instrumental in having the funds to pay Semble. Long time member, Rick Stein, financial manager and trustee of the Kaplan estate was very helpful in getting the funds released to Temple Sinai.

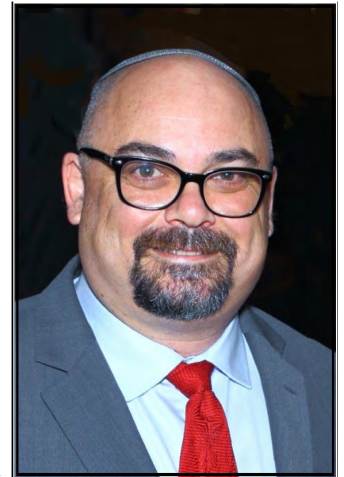

Now that we are getting our financial house in order, lets all move on to the reasons Temple Sinai exists:

A temple that embraces members and guests alike, providing a safe haven and a vibrant venue for Jewish religious, educational, cultural and social programs.

Thanks for your support.

High Holidays 5780

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are just around the corner. It is customary the month before the New Year, the Hebrew month of Elul, to evaluate the previous year from both a personal and communal perspective. It has been a trying year for Jewish communities throughout the world, especially in the US, and Israel. Jew-hatred has reached levels never seen before. Unprecedented attacks have occurred in Pittsburgh and Poway. With the violence in Israel escalating at an alarming pace, anti-Israel, Jew-hatred rhetoric is also on the rise. Members of the US congress who seek to divide US Jewry use Israel as the wedge. We must not let this stand. We are too small a people to allow rhetoric to destroy us from white-supremacists, and those who use Israel and BDS as an expression of their hatred for our people.

Rabbi Andrew Bentley

The Coachella Valley has a small, yet vibrant Jewish community that represents a microcosm of worldwide Jewry with similar challenges. We are not immune to the issues facing our people as a whole. We have had to take steps in our community to secure our facilities and educate our staff and congregation to keep us safe and secure. Education and having respectful dialogue is also essential in keeping us united.

During this period, as we look inward for solutions to our problems, we need to engage with those we disagree with outwardly. This is a form of Teshuvah, repentance. The Jewish people, as founders of monotheism, brought a moral code into the world with the Ten Commandments. Much of modern civil law finds its roots in the pages of the Talmud. We are people who see God's hand in history, a people who stand at the forefront in the fight for social justice and the cause of freedom and equality. These are the tools we have in hand to change today's narrative of division and hate.

We are no better than our fellow human beings; each individual is unique. We are an ancient people who continue to see the miracles of creation in science and human creativity. As we look toward the Jewish New Year, we must follow the examples of the previous generations who built this community. Temple Sinai is an oasis with the only religious school and adult education program in the valley. It is here we have the opportunity to strengthen ourselves and our young people for whatever the future may bring. We are a family who truly cares for one another. I encourage all of us to look inward this year and think about what more can be done for our people, our family, and our community. Let us be inspired to work to leave our legacy for the next generation.

May you all be inscribed in the Book of Life

Shana Tova,

Rabbi Andrew Bentley

Temple Manager Toni Robinson

L'Shana Tova! My second High Holy Days at Temple Sinai, I am very grateful to have been given the opportunity to work here and share the Holidays and festivals with this wonderful congregation. As is the case with all congregations, the preparations required to make sure that the Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services meet the expectations of the congregation takes a great deal of planning and plan execution from all the staff and a full cadre of dedicated volunteers. This year the office volunteers have been extraordinary in their assistance. A tremendous thank you to: Terrie Turner, Micki Greenspan, Nancy Singer, Judy Weissman and Fred Fabricant. Additionally, Lynn Zaifert has been a force for change in our Judaica shop and has been in the shop regularly throughout the summer. She has many new items lined up for the holidays and looks forward to being of service to you. We have added a small display case in the lobby to familiarize all who visit with the diversity of items we carry. To the best of my knowledge we are the largest Judaica shop in the Coachella Valley. If you can't stop by during the "normal" hours, Lynn will plan to meet you at your convenience to assist with your needs.

We just completed putting together the adult education schedule for the coming year and there are going to be some very exciting classes in the offing. Desert Cities Bridge meets here Tuesday through Saturday during the season, and Scott Magged is offering a special package of 12 games for $100.00, which has really helped to grow his program. The Yiddish club will reconvene beginning in December. The Book Club begins in September. Mah Jongg will reconvene after the High Holy days. Dinner and Movie starts up on September 12th. Things are approaching the fevered pitch of our winter "season" and this promises to be an especially fabulous and fun year.

Our religious school has had a new coat of paint, and Arava Talve has been working with the teachers to bring the very best in Jewish education to our youngsters.

On the last Sunday in October, our confirmation class will participate in the Palm Desert Golf Cart parade, so save the date and plan on attending this long-standing valley tradition.

Ben Zoma says: Who is wise? He who learns from every person.

—Pirkei Avot 4:1

Beginning a new year of school always reminds me that the more we know, the more there is to learn. Life-long Jewish learning is an important part of our community and is an inspiration to all that enter our Shul. Our Rabbi Avi Levine Religious school begins on September 10th for 4th through 7th graders, and on September 15th for K through Confirmation. We have a wonderful team of teachers and support staff, and we have been busy this summer creating a supportive learning environment for our students. On our first Sunday, when the students arrive, parents will be asked to stay for our opening program in the sanctuary, and to then escort their children to their classrooms. We're proud of the children's classrooms and we want the parents to see the work that has been done to update them. Later in the school year, each class will have a mishpachah (family) program where students and parents will learn together in their child's classroom. Be sure to check the "Beit Sefer News" published every Sunday during the schoolyear for upcoming events!

Arava Talve, Principal

The philosophy of our school is to create community among the students and to give them the tools they need to feel comfortable and knowledgeable in any Shul they travel to. This means making lifelong friends and becoming literate in Jewish worship and prayer. Every Sunday at 11:30 AM, there will be a prayer service led by our madrichim (student helpers) and Kitah Zayin class. This is a "learner's minyan" and is open to the entire congregation. Please feel free to join our youth in prayer and song. It's a wonderful intergenerational opportunity and also a time to practice our liturgy. Hope to see you there!

Arava

A BIG THANK YOU TO THE FOOD BANK CREW

From Marvin Paul

Kudos to the Temple Sinai food bank crew. I am proud to have a dedicated group who are at Find Food Bank every Tuesday morning at 7 A.M. Not only do we pack and distribute 150 bags of much-needed food, these very dependable friends have just made a significant donation of their own funds for the purchase of two carts for Temple Sinai. These carts are very important for our maintenance people who contribute to setting up for events like Friday night onegs, and all of our social functions. This will help to save them time, and to be better able to serve our congregation. It should serve as a reminder to all that giving your time and donations is not only appreciated, but that being a volunteer will bring you a good feeling that someone who needs assistance will be thankful that YOU CARE.

Please “step up and tell us to count you in”. There are so many opportunities to participate.

Every day of every week, and 52 weeks of the year, someone, somewhere needs YOUR HELP! Please call the temple office if you are able to give of your time—760-568-9699.

To my generous crew: Neil, Janet, Marc, Ken, Norm, Linda, Jim, Michael, Allisha, Ruben, Fran, Dennis, and Gail & Saul. I could not do this without your support.

High Holy Days Food Drive

Were you here for our first High Holiday Food Drive in 1993? There are still some of us around! Well, we're doing it again! And this year Elaine Eldred has agreed to be in charge again!! Todah rabah Elaine!

As we approach Rosh Hashanah and the year 5780, we need your help as we plan our TWENTY-SEVENTH High Holiday Food Drive. Take home an empty bag on Rosh Hashanah and bring a full bag or two back by Yom Kippur. Take your kids to the market and give them an opportunity to fulfill the Mitzvah of "tikkun olam" - repairing the world. Your contribution will help us continue to feed our needy neighbors. We also welcome checks! We need teenagers' help on the truck. Let Arava know if you can help us this year.

Your continued help allows us to reach out to hundreds of people. Each month we deliver to almost 500 families and more than 800 individuals! Be sure to make those bags heavy!

WE NEED YOUR HELP! We are planning to put together a Recipe Book and need your recipes. Many of us no longer cook, but we likely have old family recipes, new recipes you've found, etc. These are urgently needed. Please send them to nancyshorr@gmail.com as soon as possible.
