BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

"Remember us unto Life"

2021/ 5782

YIZKOR

The earth has covered only that which was mortal
Of those to whom we have said our farewell.
We shall not see again here on earth
The familiar glowing face, the warm illuminated eyes,
Nor hear again the well-known beloved voice,
Or the sound of their welcome footsteps as they come home.
We shall not sit again face to face,
Across the family table, or side by side
In the home of a friend or in worship or raptly
Listening to great melody from singer or symphony.
We shall not feel once more the kiss
That evoked from us our deepest response.
Yet death has failed and must surrender
To memory, which gives a reprieve to those doomed by it.
For the beloved who is gone
Lives and will always live through the years
Not in some distant corner of our being
To be uncovered only in a rare moment
Or by a sudden surge or recall.

The beloved has become a presence not merely
Accompanying us as of yore,
But indwelling and inseparable,
Rooted so deep that life cannot
Carry us far from the cherished
and now hallowed center of memory and love.
Thy hand, O Death, has been stayed.
Thou canst no longer inflict oblivion,
Or doom to full disappearance
Those who were life of our life.
They live and move within us,
In spheres beyond Thy dominion.
We thank Thee, O God of life and love,
For the resurrecting gift of memory
Which endows Thy children fashioned in Thy image,
With the God-like sovereign power
To give immortality through love.
Blessed be Thou, O God,
Who enablest Thy children to remember.

(Morris Adler)

MEDITATIONS

What though the radiance which was so bright
Be now forever taken from my sight,
Though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendor in the grass, of glory in the flower;
We will grieve not, rather find
Strength in what remains behind;
In the primal sympathy
Which having been must ever be;
In the soothing thoughts that spring
Out of human suffering;
In the faith that looks through death,
In years that bring the philosophic mind.

(From "Ode: Intimations of Immortality" by William Wordsworth)

Here is a wise procedure that we can follow in life. We should like the pattern of our lives to be woven exclusively of bright-colored threads. But every now and then a dark thread steals into the fabric. If we are true artists of life we can weave even this thread into the pattern and make it contribute its share to the beauty of the whole.

(Sidney Greenberg)

They are not dead who live
In hearts they leave behind.
In those whom they have blessed
They live a life again,
And shall live through the years
Eternal life, and grow
Each day more beautiful
As time declares their good,
Forgets the rest, and proves
Their immortality.

*(From "They Softly Walk"
by Hugh Robert Orr)*

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

At the beginning of the year and at its end,
we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share;
we remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

(Sylvan Kames and Jack Reimer)

SILENT DEVOTION

IN MEMORY OF A FATHER

May God remember the soul of my father who has gone to his eternal rest. I recall the love and friendship he bestowed upon me. Part of him is now a part of me, and will never die. In loving testimony to his life I seek to perpetuate those ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is his soul bound up in the bond of eternal life. May I prove myself worthy of the gift of life and the many other gifts with which he blessed me. May these moments of meditation link me more strongly with his memory and with our entire family.

May he rest eternally in dignity and in peace. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF A MOTHER

May God remember the soul of my mother who has gone to her eternal rest. I recall the love and friendship she bestowed upon me. Part of her is now a part of me, and will never die. In loving testimony to her life I seek to perpetuate those ideals important to her. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is her soul bound up in the bond of eternal life. May I prove myself worthy of the gift of life and the many other gifts with which she blessed me. May these moments of meditation link me more strongly with her memory and with our entire family.

May she rest eternally in dignity and in peace. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF A HUSBAND

May God remember the soul of my husband who has gone to his eternal rest. I recall the many happy days we shared; I recall the tender affection and counsel and love which were his to give. In loving testimony to his life I seek to perpetuate those ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is his soul bound up in the bond of eternal life. Love is stronger than death; our deep bonds of love are indissoluble. The memory of our companionship and love leads me out of loneliness into all that we shared which still endures. His memory will always be an inspiration to me. May he rest eternally in dignity and in peace. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF A WIFE

May God remember the soul of my wife who has gone to her eternal rest. I recall the many happy days we shared; I recall the tender affection and counsel and love which were hers to give. In loving testimony to her life I seek to perpetuate those ideals important to her. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is her soul bound up in the bond of eternal life. Love is stronger than death; our deep bonds of love are indissoluble. The memory of our companionship and love leads me out of loneliness into all that we shared which still endures. Her memory will always be an inspiration to me. May she rest eternally in dignity and in peace. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF A SON

May God remember the soul of my beloved son who has gone to his eternal rest. I remember the days when I watched him unfold and develop, fostering beautiful hopes for the future. In loving testimony to his life I seek to perpetuate those ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is his soul bound up in the bond of eternal life. In my heart, his fond remembrance can never die. I am grateful for the sweetness of his life and for what he did accomplish; I am grateful for the love he was able to share. May he rest eternally in dignity and in peace. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF A DAUGHTER

May God remember the soul of my daughter who has gone to her eternal rest. I remember the days when I watched her unfold and develop, fostering beautiful hopes for the future. In loving testimony to her life I seek to perpetuate those ideals important to her. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory is her soul bound up in the bond of eternal life. In my heart, her fond re- membrance can never die. I am grateful for the sweetness of her life and for what she did accomplish; I am grateful for the love she was able to share. May she rest eternally in dignity and in peace. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF OTHER RELATIVES AND FRIENDS

May God remember the soul of and of all my relatives and friends who have gone to their eternal rest. I remember the companionship and friendship which we shared upon life's road. Their image abides with me forever. In loving testimony to their lives I seek to perpetuate those ideals important to them. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, are their souls bound up in the bond of eternal life. May these moments of meditation link me more strongly with their memory. May they rest eternally in dignity and in peace. Amen.

O God, be near us in the sorrow of our hearts. Send comfort and consolation to all who are bowed down with sadness and grief. May their troubled spirits find solace in the beauty of holiness which fills this memorial hour. May your guiding protection sustain them and uplift them, and may Your peace abide with them, now and always.

We remember with sorrowing hearts those whom death has taken from our midst during the past year. We name in our hearts all our beloved and in recalling them, we sanctify Your name.

We remember with sorrowing hearts the members of our congregational family whom death has taken from our midst during the past year.

MEMORIAL PRAYER

O God, full of compassion who dwells on high. Beneath the sheltering wings of Your presence, among the holy and pure who shine as the brightness of the firmament, grant perfect rest unto the souls of our dear ones who have gone unto eternity. God of mercy, bring them under the cover of Your wings, and let their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life. O God, be their portion, and may they rest in peace. Amen.
