

MICHAEL GUTENPLAN

master magician, mentalist, & psychic entertainer

Michael Gutenplan is an award-winning magician and mentalist who energizes, enthralls, and entertains with amazing magic and unforgettable psychic entertainment. He is a third generation psychic who astonishes audiences with demonstrations of telepathy, telekinesis, ESP, mind control, and divination. Michael has successfully predicted the winner of the last eight Super Bowls, the top three places in the past six Kentucky Derbies, and baffled everyone with his amazing prediction of 15 spins of the roulette wheel at the Cosmopolitan Casino in Las Vegas... which is why he is banned for life from that property.

With nearly 20 years of professional experience, Michael knows how to engage and entertain the most demanding and toughest audiences. He has performed on 5 continents and in 48 states, Off-Broadway in his critically acclaimed one-man show "Extraordinary Deceptions," at the world famous Magic Castle in Hollywood, and in "The Spy Magic Show" in Washington, D.C. As a magic and psychic consultant, Michael has advised film, TV, theater, and theme park productions. Michael is considered an expert in palm and crystal readings and has lectured on the history of psychic phenomena and magic history. He is currently performing in "The Members Only Show®," an incredible evening of magic and psychic entertainment presented to members of exclusive private clubs and organizations. Michael has received rave reviews for his performances from The New York Times, Variety, L.A. Times, Washington Post, and scores of online publications.

More information can be found at www.themagicmentalist.com.

