A MESSAGE FROM THE

Rabbi

On August 7 of 1987, the first shabbat service of the newly founded Temple Beth Tikvah took place. 36 years later, TBT is a thriving community, respected in the greater Atlanta area as a place of warmth, kindness and vibrant Jewish living.

To celebrate this DOUBLE Chai year, we have many exciting events and activities planned. To launch us into this exciting year ahead plan to join us on Friday, August 4, beginning at 6:00 PM for TBT's Anniversary Shabbat. Join your synagogue community in song and celebration as we toast our Double Chai anniversary together.

Many amazing activities, services and events will be taking place throughout the coming year. All will be revealed at this year's Holy Day services....until then, I invite you to block your calendars now for the weekend of December 8-10. 2023: TBT's All-Congregation Hanukkah Celebration with guest singer, Jewish recording artist, Neshama Carlebach.

Thanks to a generous gift made possible by the Marvin & Dana Jo Mermelstein Memorial Fund, the weekend will be filled with inspirational music, food, mitzvah-doing and of course, Hanukkah candle lighting. This will be a beautiful weekend you won't want to miss!

Get excited, TBT! We're gonna party all year long as we celebrate the first 36 years, and launch into our next 36!

Our preschool year ended in May, and we are still thinking fondly of all our recently graduated Pre-K children and families! Although they have ‘moved up,’ we are excited to have these kids’ painted handprints on our Pre-K Hall of Fame Wall. In the years to come, they can visit TBT, and show siblings and friends the handprints left behind. We had a lovely year-end celebration, and are looking forward to hearing from everyone, all about moving up to Kindergarten.

We had an amazing summer at TBT Preschool Camp! The children enjoyed all the outside play time, especially on our new awesome water slide! It has a bucket on top that dumps water on the kids. Our fantastic teachers and wonderful teen helpers made camp memorable. Everyone loved the daily ice pops/ice cream. It was so cute watching the littlest ones figure out how to eat an ice pop by squeezing the plastic tube, and pushing the cold treat up slowly. By the end of the summer, they were experts!

Splish Splash Shabbat is a big hit with Preschool Camp families. Cantor Kassel and Ms. Suzanne did a great job bringing in Shabbat, with songs and prayers. The kids cooled off in the water pools and on the water slide. There was plenty of food and yummy dessert. It was so nice to see our existing preschool families play together, and to meet some new, soon-to-be preschool students that will join us when school starts.

Preschool begins August 14; our teachers are busy now, getting ready to welcome all of their students. There are still a few openings in the 3-year old class. We will host an Open House for everyone on Friday, August 11, from 10:00 to 11:30 AM Children and parents can meet teachers and visit classrooms. Following the Open House, later that day, we will have another Splish Splash Shabbat in the early evening, from 5:00 PM to 6:30 PM. Hope to see you there!

Shalom!

We’ve been beating the heat this summer at TBT with indoor offerings such as trivia, bridge, shofar-sounding lessons, and more. Our summer solstice Shabbat was a huge hit and it was fabulous to see so many smiling people enjoying the music, the company, and yes... the cocktails!

We’ve been busy planning for the months ahead and I am so excited about all we have to offer. Some highlights:

- ◆ 36th Anniversary of TBT Shabbatot on August 4th
- ◆ Israel trip meet-up on August 6th
- ◆ Single’s 55+ event on August 12th
- ◆ Game Day on August 14th
- ◆ Lunch and Learn with AgeWell on August 17th
- ◆ Parent-child book club (“Are you there, God...?”) on August 17th & 31st
- ◆ Shofar-sounding program on August 26th
- ◆ “Next steps” kickoff event for ages 45-60 on August 26th
- ◆ Outing to Chutzpah exhibit at Breman Museum on August 29th
- ◆ Labor Day Hike on September 4th
- ◆ Book Club (“Letters to my Palestinian Neighbor”) on September 5th

As well as ongoing offerings such as bridge, tai chi, trivia...and that’s all coming up BEFORE we get into the High Holy Day season!

All details are on our website at www.bethtikvah.com. Have an idea for something you’d like to see at TBT? I’d love to hear it! Know anyone who is looking to find their Jewish “home?” Send them my way. I am proud of our warm, inclusive, active community and all we have to offer. Here’s to all the great things we have to look forward to – l’chaim!

Director of Engagement

PS: New chavurahs forming now! Please contact Suzanne for more information.

Shalom from Sisterhood!

We hope you have had a fantastic summer – now get ready for some fun with Sisterhood!

Please join us for our opener: “We’ll Have You at Hello!” on Wednesday August 16 at 6:00

We will meet at Carol Schemo’s home for a cooking class with Asian Caucasian Chef Leslie Schwartz. She will focus on Asian appetizers with wine pairings that you can whip up for company. We will learn how to make these yummy recipes and then we will get to enjoy them. YOU MUST RSVP BY 8/7!

With the High Holidays coming up soon we hope you will join us for Mahjonn in the Sukkah on Thursday October 5th. Just bring your set and card, we will serve refreshments. New to the game? No problem, we can teach you.

YOUTH PROGRAMS

Towards the end of last year, we got a letter from the school saying that my older son was being recommended for the higher-level math class. We had to check yes or no, sign it, and send it back in. I automatically checked yes and went to put it back in his folder, but then I paused. I've worked with teens for over 20 years, and the pressure upon them have become incredibly intense. The expectation that they take all possible honors and AP courses, they should be working a grade level ahead of what they're in, they should enter college with a year of AP credits already...it's not impossible, but I do find it detrimental to their health and happiness. I routinely hear teens (and their parents) tell me that they can't attend a Saturday night youth group program because they have too much homework, or they don't feel like they can go on the Washington D.C. lobbying trip because they can't afford to miss two days of school. What's wrong with our system if teens are turning down an opportunity to go to our nation's capital, learn about important political issues, and lobby their congresspeople about issues that are meaningful and significant to their lives?

I had a teen recently tell me that even with good time management there weren't enough hours in the day for them to get all their work completed. After that comment, I called a counselor at Roswell High School to help me understand what's going on, and what they tell their students. He said that teens who take all on-level courses have a manageable amount of work; it's the teens who take 5-6 AP courses each semester who are up all night trying to finish their work for school. Maybe it's just me, but that's too much. This counselor suggests that his students pick the subject(s) that they are passionate about, and take the AP course in that; for the other subjects, there is nothing wrong with taking on-level courses. (I wish someone had given me that advice before I took AP Calc in high school!)

So, back to this form I had to sign for my son. He struggled a bit in school this past year, and even though his final test scores showed that he "belonged" in the higher math class, we talked it over with him, and ultimately checked "no." We decided that just because the school was pushing, didn't mean that it was the right decision for him. You know your kids best, but I want to encourage all of you, as this new school year kicks off, to take a few minutes and pause before you automatically check that "yes" box.

Do you know a high school senior who is heading off to college in the fall? We at Hillel International want to celebrate and welcome them to the Class of 2027 with a FREE Welcome Gift.

Take 30 seconds to let us know where they're going to school next year, and we'll mail a Welcome Gift straight to their door! Plus, they'll be entered into a drawing to receive one of five $250 gift cards.

CLAIM YOUR GIFT

We're so excited for what's to come for our next class of first-year students, and we can't wait to welcome them with open arms to Hillel's network of nearly 150,000 Jewish college students!

Sarah Herman will be called to the Torah on August 26. She is the daughter of Rachel and Robert Herman. She has one sister, Hannah. Sarah's grandparents are Patricia and Michael Fried, and Susan and Stan Herman. She is a sophomore at Centennial High School.

She enjoys reading, music, and spending time with friends and family; she loves animals, especially her dogs, Maddie and Timbre, and her cat, Kittyface.

Sarah attended preschool here at TBT, and returned to participate in KiCKs and HOTTy youth group activities. She also volunteers on Sundays as a Madricha. Throughout the year, Sarah prepares sandwiches for the food insecure with The Sandwich Project. She participates in CHS's Jewish Student Union, is an honor student and a member of the CHS Thespian Society.

A special thanks to Rabbi Shuval-Weiner and Cantor Kassel for their help and support in preparing Sarah and her parents for her Bat Mitzvah!

Back-to-School Food Drive and New Volunteer Leadership

Back-to-school season is here, and TBT volunteers will soon be filling backpacks with weekend meals for local students. We need YOUR help to stock the shelves to start the 2023-24 school year. While you're shopping for school supplies or family meals in the coming weeks, please consider picking up something extra to donate:

- * Shelf-stable milk
- * Individually wrapped snacks
- * Individual cereals & oatmeal
- * Applesauce pouches & individual fruit bowls
- * Canned beans, vegetables, chicken, and tuna
- * Boxed pasta & rice

Donations can be sent in with students at the start of Religious School, or placed on the Backpack Buddies cart in the Religious School lobby anytime. Thank you for helping us fight hunger in our local community!

We are also thrilled to announce that Jeannine Bernstein and Renee Weiskopf will be co-chairing the Backpack Buddies program, starting this month. Both Renee and Jeannine have deep experience with similar programs at local schools, and we're looking forward to adding their creativity, leadership AND expertise to our program. If you have questions or would like to volunteer to help out, please contact Jeannine jbern530@att.net or Renee rbweiskopf@hotmail.com.

Again, thank you for your continued support for our mission to help kids facing food insecurity.

Outgoing Co-Chairs
Manda Turetsky and Leslie Zlotnick

We need volunteers!

If you would like to be involved in this wonderful program that helps to feed local kids, please call the TBT office.
