One way to avoid the prohibition of owning Chametz on Pesach is to sell it to a non-Jew. It is customary to appoint the Rabbi as one's agent to transact this sale. You may use this form to appoint Rabbi Kean as your agent. Since ideally, one should appoint one's agent directly, it is best to give this form to Rabbi Kean, who will be available at the shul for authorizing the sale of Chametz immediately following morning and evening services (except Shabbat) from Tuesday morning, March 28 to Wednesday morning, April 5, or by appointment. If it is impossible for you to see Rabbi Kean personally, you can complete the online form or submit this paper form via mail/drop-off. It must reach the synagogue by Wednesday, April 5, no later than 8:30 AM. The sale of Chametz is a legal transaction in which the buyer becomes the full owner of the Chametz. For the sale to be considered a serious transaction, the buyer must be able to have access to his goods. If you are going away for Pesach, please indicate where your keys can be found or how the buyer may enter your residence on the form.
