RABBI'S MESSAGE

RABBI MARK DAVID FINKEL

A Letter from Jerusalem

I write this from Jerusalem. From the balcony of my hotel room, I see the Givat Ram campus of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem where Roz Lippa and I were students in the same program during the same academic year although we didn't know each other until I came to Pine Brook. I've been in this hotel room before. It is a little harder now to see the campus from my balcony today, in large part because Jerusalem has grown up; and the lower floors of office and apartment buildings just beginning to be built tell me that on my next visit, that view towards the Southwest that I especially love to see at sunset may look even busier.

So, I turn a few degrees due West, looking down Herzl Boulevard towards Mount Herzl, Yad VaShem, and way beyond that (I never could see from this end of Herzl because it's at a lower elevation in the Jerusalem hills) the Hadassah Hospital at Ein Kerem. Here also, for several years, the Boulevard has looked different. The light rail moves Jerusalemites smoothly up and down the Boulevard (and across the city) more efficiently, more quietly, without either the diesel smell or the driving acrobatics of the Egged drivers and their buses. These light rail vehicles don't even have the "Clang, Clang" of the trolleys about which Judy Garland sang of or that I heard on Beacon Street or Commonwealth Avenue in Boston. These vehicles have a softer, more civilized, "Ding, Ding."

So far today, I could not have asked for a better day in Jerusalem. For Liora it was "Take your father to school day." We met in front of her school. The day started with Shaharit, morning prayers. From the Amidah, I learned that the rainy season in Israel for which Jews worldwide have been praying since Shemini Atzeret has been slow in coming, so we (along with most congregations in Israel) added a "booster" prayer for rain. Word was that the intermediate weather forecasts indicate that this morning's extra prayers, hopefully, will not have been offered in vain.

I was aware of the booster prayers, but I had never heard them recited during a service until today. My only winter in Israel was a rainy (it rained at least part of every day that year from January 1-21) and a snowy one. Services were followed by morning Bible classes, studying chapters from Genesis as seen through a variety of medieval commentators including their biases reflecting the times and countries where they lived. Yes, I learned new things along with the real students, and it brushed off some dust from those topics that have accumulated dust (or plaque) in my brain over the years.

Liora's and my roles were reversed. This time she took me out for lunch in appreciation of our (especially my) good academic work during the morning (meaning that I didn't embarrass her in front of her class). Here also a realization of Jerusalem's growth. We had lunch in a Galeria-type urban mall with a variety of restaurants and a food court. I'm positive that mall was built on the once-upon-a-site of the old cookie factory where students in my day and other Jerusalemites on a tight budget would come to the factory store to buy the imperfect and broken cookies.

Most of you know that this past week has produced days that many could have asked for better. Words of last week's terror attacks still echo in conversations on the street and in the lead paragraphs of TV, radio, and newspapers; however, my family and my PBJC family told me to stay safe, so who am I to try to contradict them. If I could, I would like to make a deal with the world: I won't forget to notice the challenges of Jerusalem and Israel and its citizens; but I don't want the world to forget the beauty and what is well with this holy place and its inhabitants.

Rabbi Mark Finkel

VICE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

MICHAEL SINGER

3rd Vice President

How did I get here? How did someone who hasn't been to high holiday services since the 90's wind up as a Vice President of a synagogue and in charge of our security committee? When I'm asked this question by friends and family that have known me for a long time, my default response is usually to make a joke out of it by saying "I opened my big mouth". It's partly true, but it's not the whole story. Some backstory...

As a child growing up in the New Jersey suburbs in the 1980s and 1990s I was aware of the concept of antisemitism. My family lived in a town that did not permit Jews to join the country club. I came to understand that such a thing was not that uncommon and there was another country club nearby that catered to the local Jewish population. Antisemitism felt like more of an inconvenience and not something I should be afraid of. Our family was not the most observant. After my younger brother's Bar Mitzvah in 1996 we no longer were members of a synagogue. As a result, I didn't attend a high holiday service for the next 23 years. I identified as Jewish culturally, highlighted by me joining a nationally Jewish fraternity in college, but that was the extent of my religious affiliation.

Fast forward to 2018 and I have a family of my own. My daughter was out of preschool and starting religious school and my son was enrolled in preschool at our local synagogue. Ever since the 2016 election the rise in antisemitism was something I was aware of, but not particularly concerned about. Then came October 27th and the mass shooting at the Tree of Life synagogue in Pittsburgh.

Suddenly the rise of antisemitism became real. If this happened in Pittsburgh, it could happen anywhere. With two children that spend a significant portion of their time in a synagogue and many friends in town living under the same circumstances I began asking questions. What kind of security does our synagogue have? Do we have a safety plan if someone tries to copycat what happened in Pittsburgh? The answers I received to these questions caused me great concern, and my wife and I contemplated whether we should continue to send our children to preschool and religious school at our synagogue. That's when a friend who served on the synagogue's Board of Trustees challenged me to take an active role in the synagogue leadership. At first, I resisted; no way was I going to join the Board of Trustees. I haven't been to a service in over 20 years! Ultimately, I relented and within a matter of weeks not only was I on the Board of Trustees, but I was now responsible for running the Security Committee, something I knew absolutely zero about. Oh, and we had just been awarded a 100K grant from the Department of Homeland Security and it was going to be my responsibility to determine how to use the money and select vendors to do the work. At that point the only thing I could do was lean in and figure it out. If I was so concerned for the safety of my children and the rest of our congregation, here was my chance to do something about it.

I'm proud to say that in the three and a half years that I have served on the Board of Trustees, Executive Committee and as Chair of Security, we have been awarded 300K in federal and state grants for security upgrades. I now know a lot more about cameras, locks, glass, doors and keycard access than everyone else that I know. As a father of two young children and with a job that frequently has me away from home, it hasn't been easy to attend all the meetings and do all the work necessary to ensure that our members and their children feel safe. Our family, including our children, count the friends we have made through our synagogue as among the closest friends we have. Some are practically family. I feel a responsibility to protect them.

Every day it seems there is another story about how antisemitism is becoming a growing threat. What once seemed like a fringe group of people to worry about has now become almost a mainstream issue with prominent figures in politics, sports and entertainment outwardly expressing, or at least tacitly condoning antisemitic dialogue and behavior. I wish it would go away, but it won't. It will probably get worse before it gets better, but at least I can confidently say that I didn't sit back and watch it happen. I acted and continue to act to make our synagogue safer. There is no such thing as a completely secure synagogue, but we must do everything we can to protect ourselves and lessen the possibility that something like what happened in Pittsburgh can happen here.

This experience hasn't made me more observant. I go to high holiday services again with my family and attend synagogue sponsored social events, but I am fundamentally on the same level of observance that I was as a kid. Some things are what they are. What has changed is the pride I feel in helping to make our community safer and that we will not be made to feel afraid in the face of rising antisemitic rhetoric and violence. We remain vigilant and the work is never done.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

MARY SHEYDWASSER

Educational Director

Our B'Yachad students had a fabulous day together in New York City. Our itinerary included a tour of the Jewish Heritage Museum and an afternoon at Chelsea Piers. Many thanks to the Harvey Jaffe Fund for subsidizing this trip! One of Hershey's many dreams was to have this group spend time together in an engaging and fun experience, thank you so much for helping make this come true. Todah Rabah to our chaperones, Robin Mangino and Frank Sheydwasser for joining us.

Creating a warm and welcoming community is a key goal of our religious school. We honored this tradition of a Kehilla, (community) when our Kitah Gimel parents and students came together to learn about Shabbat and the meaning of the Kiddush. Each student made a Kiddush cup, an heirloom that can be passed on to future generations. More importantly, they learned more about each other and shared family experiences. Please join us on Friday, February 3rd, when our students will be leading their Kabbalat Shabbat / Ma'Ariv service. Yasher Koach to one and all!

Though we are amid winter, spring is on the horizon. The holiday, Tu B'Shevat, signifies a renewal with the magic of nature. It is a festival that symbolizes love for Israel and honors our trees and plants. We will be celebrating the holiday by having a traditional Tu B'Shevat Seder on February 7th.

We do have a very busy February filled with a lot of events and programs; please make every effort for your child to attend:

Thursday, February 2	B'Yachad (8 th – 9 th graders)
Friday, February 3	Kitah Gimel Kabbalat Shabbat / Ma'Ariv service and dinner
Tuesday, February 7	Tu B'Shevat Seder (school wide)
Thursday, February 9	B'Yachad (10 th – 12 th graders)
Saturday, February 11	Junior Congregation
Sunday, February 12	Challah Days
Sunday, February 12	World Wide Wrap for Kitah Dalet Students
Tuesday, February 14	Kitah Gimel mock wedding on Valentine's Day
Tuesday, February 14	Kitah Hey Workshop – Jerusalem, The Gateway to Heaven)
Thursday, February 16	B'Yachad (8 th – 9 th graders)
Sunday, February 19	NO RELIGIOUS SCHOOL
Thursday, February 23	B'Yachad (10 th – 12 th graders)
Saturday, February 25	Junior Congregation
Sunday, February 26	Kitah Bet Hamsah Workshop for parents and students
Tuesday, February 28	Kitah Aleph Mezuzah Workshop

As always, please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns. We can only be the best we can be with your support and participation.

B'Shalom,
Mary Sheydwasser

BAT MITZVAH

Dylan Blake Kideckel
February 25, 2023

On March 2, 2010, Jamie & Michael welcomed Dylan Blake Kideckel into the world and into our hearts.

Dylan is a sweet, caring, and thoughtful person who enjoys spending time with her family and friends, especially her older sister Lauren. During the school year, she is an extremely hard-working student at Lazar Middle School who enjoys playing field hockey, basketball, and having fun with her dog Pickles. She looks forward to spending her summers “Up Where the Sky Begins” at Pine Forest Camp.

For Dylan’s Mitzvah Project, she participated in the JL Blessings Backpack Initiative. As a JL Helper, she collected and filled backpacks with bare essentials for the homeless in New York City and New Jersey. In addition, Dylan also joined fellow PBJC congregants in serving a festive Holiday Dinner to members of the MHA as part of the Community Outreach Program.

We could not be prouder of the young woman Dylan has become, including her hard work and dedication to reach this wonderful milestone. We look forward to celebrating Dylan’s Bat Mitzvah with family and friends!

HARVEY JAFFE B'YACHAD MEMORIAL FUND

Harvey Jaffe, Hershey, was the driving force behind B'yachad. He helped make our dream come alive by leading a vibrant community of learners who come together post their B'Nai Mitzvah! This is what Hershey had to say about it:

The success of our Hebrew High School, B'yachad, is dependent on the ability to not only learn about 'the ethics of our people,' but more importantly to build a community. When students trust and care about each other they feel safe to share their views and ideas in a classroom setting and a dialogue begins. The fear of being judged by one's peers dissipates, and discussions become lively and interactive. From the time of Hillel and Shammai, our tradition teaches that there was always room to examine, dissect and re-evaluate our laws. In fact, many believe that different perspectives are exactly the reason Judaism has survived for almost 6000 years. However, all our ancestors agreed on the importance of a holy community a 'kehilah kedusha,' where everyone is respected, and every opinion is valued.

A few testimonials...

The reason I come back to B'yachad cannot be put into words. I cannot describe how much fun it is; it is something that needs to be experienced to understand. Hershey is a magnificent teacher who does an incredible job engaging with all the students and I strongly recommend that everyone attend B'yachad.

The reason I keep coming back to B'yachad is because I want to keep learning deeply about Judaism and all its many different features. Also, I love Hershey's sense of humor and the way he handles things are funny. Finally, I like the things we talk about and hanging with friends. B'yachad is the best place to be on a Thursday night, Mrs. Sheydwasser, Hershey, and everyone in it are the best.

B'yachad has given me the opportunity to grow closer with my peers. I've learned beyond the basics of responsibility, right from wrong and a series of life lessons. The friendship, trust and creativity in the room allows me to connect individually with each person. I am proud to be a part of B'yachad and I am proud to speak freely there without hesitation.

I still come to B'yachad because of the environment and because I know I will learn something I may not anywhere else. Hershey is someone I know I can tell anything to and ask anything without worrying about it leaving the conversation. I love learning about my Jewish roots and about what my religion stands for in relation to the past, the present and what will happen in the future.

Funds were collected after his untimely passing four years ago, however, his legacy still lives on. Hershey's family has decided to put this money and all future donations towards scholarships for students interested in enrolling in B'Yachad, along with funding off-site excursions that have always been highlights of our program. Donations are accepted in any amount. To make a donation, go to the DONATE NOW section of the PBJC website and make sure to select Harvey Jaffe B'yachad Memorial Fund as the Payment Type.

May this serve as a living tribute to his memory.

ELIOT SAKOLSKY AARON MELZER SCHOLARSHIP

Arlene and David Sakolsky, along with their three sons, Eliot, Harvey, and Bill, were pillars of the Jewish community. Eliot was the United Synagogue Youth (USY) leader at Congregation Beth Shalom in Pompton Lakes. He passed away at the age of thirty-one.

A scholarship fund was established by Congregation Beth Shalom in Eliot's memory. The goal of the fund is to provide financial aid to youth participating in Jewish activities, such as Kadima, USY, Camp Ramah, Israel trips, and other Jewish educational activities.

Congregation Beth Shalom has transferred the fund to Pine Brook Jewish Center, where it will continue to perpetuate Eliot's memory. May his memory be a blessing to your youth.

Eliot's brothers, Harvey and Bill, are current members of Pine Brook Jewish Center. Upon learning of the sudden and tragic loss of Aaron Melzer, a Pine Brook Jewish Center Religious School student, Congregation Beth Shalom honored the Melzer family by rededicating the fund as the Eliot Sakolsky Aaron Melzer Scholarship Fund.

Aaron is the son of Margo and Jason Melzer, and the older brother of triplets, Anna, Brielle, and Brian. Aaron was a Religious School Student at Pine Brook Jewish Center, beginning at the age of two in its Nursery School. Aaron was a kind, loving, thoughtful and empathetic young man who was looking forward to his Bar Mitzvah. It was Aaron's dream to travel to Israel, but he never did, as a result of his sudden passing at the age of eleven. The Melzer family shares the Sakolsky family's mission to offer financial assistance to Religious School students so that they can further their Jewish studies at home and abroad.

In memory of Eliot Sakolsky and Aaron Melzer, this fund will continue to financially assist Jewish youth to obtain a meaningful Jewish education and to fulfill their own individual dreams. Please note that recipients of this scholarship must be members of Pine Brook Jewish Center and students in high school or college. All decisions related to this fund will be governed by the Eliot Sakolsky Aaron Melzer Scholarship Fund Committee.

Please contact the Eliot Sakolsky Aaron Melzer Scholarship Fund Committee chairperson, Beverly Berkowitz, at sakolsky-melzer-scholarship@pbjc.org with any questions.

We are pleased to announce that we were able to award four scholarships this year. We would like very much to award many more in years to come; however, we need more applicants and donations from congregants. If you would like to make a donation to PBJC, we ask you to consider the Sakolsky/Melzer Scholarship Fund.

ILENE THAILER and FRAN SIMMONS

Co-Presidents

Hi everyone! January was filled with fun and games. We started off with Zoom BINGO so everyone was able to stay in the warmth of their homes and play 5 games of BINGO. We had a lot of fun and hope to do another night of bingo in the future! We also had a very fun night at game night! There were tables of Mah Jongg and it was nice to see everyone and mingle with old and new friends! We would like to thank Monique Mendelson for putting together this fun night with great desserts and drinks!

On Monday February 27 at 7:30 we will be cooking in the kitchen! Hadas Toren and Fran Simmons will be teaching us how to make traditional and gluten free hamantaschen. Please look for a flyer soon with sign up information.

Purim is coming up soon and Sisterhood will once again be giving out Purim Bags to every member of the synagogue. We encourage everyone to donate to this fundraiser and become a sponsor which not only supports Sisterhood but also supports the PBJC Early Education Center, the Religious School and all aspects of PBJC. It is our obligation as Jews to donate to a charity for Purim and we hope you consider donating to Sisterhood. Sisterhood, in turn, will be donating to two charities this year - one here in the U.S. and one in Israel. We are also asking for volunteers to help pack bags and distribute them to our PBJC community. If you would like to volunteer or have questions about donating, please contact the Purim Committee Chairwomen Nancy Drillings (973-723-5088) or Helene Valesse (973-868-0090).

BETTY CRANE FRIENDSHIP CLUB

FRAN HOBERMAN-SCHENKEL AND BETH FUCHS

Club Coordinators

We hope you enjoyed the first part of Marc Chagall: Painting Poetry which Janet Mandel of ArtTalks presented on January 24th. It was so nice via zoom to have several of our long distance members join us for the event. Make sure to keep Wednesday February 15th at 7:30pm via Zoom available for the second half of this in depth tutorial on Chagall. Janet promised that she would be discussing Chagall's stained glass windows in February. For those who missed part 1, Marc Chagall lived a long and fruitful life, producing paintings, etchings, book illustrations, stained-glass windows, ceramics, tapestries, stage sets and costumes — all infused with poetry. His works have a lyrical, emotional resonance informed by his love of humanity. Chagall does not belong to one art movement or style but incorporates elements of cubism, fauvism, symbolism, surrealism, and futurism into his work. He was a pioneer of modernism, born in a shtetl, leaving us a rich legacy of unforgettable art. All are welcome, whether you attended Part 1 or not.

Please also save the date of Sunday, March 26th for a bus trip to the New York Historical Society to see the "I'll Have What She's Having: The Jewish Deli" exhibit followed by lunch. Details and sign up form will be out shortly.

And also save Sunday, April 16th 2:30pm for Judaism in Song with Rabbi Ron Isaacs at PBJC.

If you have suggestions for future programs or want to help us out and join the Friendship Club Committee email us at PBJCfriendshipclub@gmail.com.

PRAYER BOOK DONATIONS AND DEDICATIONS

Dedicating a Siddur Lev Shalem or Etz Hayim Bible that will be used in our congregational services is a wonderful way to celebrate family, remember loved ones, and honor our Pine Brook Jewish Center community.

Thank you in advance for your generosity and support as we transition from the Siddur Sim Shalom to the Siddur Lev Shalem. We need many donations to help us purchase enough Lev Shelem siddurim.

What makes Siddur Lev Shalem so special:

Transliteration - User-friendly and provided for those parts of the service most often sung or chanted out loud by the congregation.

Egalitarian Text - Egalitarian options for prayers are provided.

Symbols - Icons are used to help readers participate in the service. For example, one symbol indicates when to bow.

Commentary - Provides context for each prayer. What are its origins? Why it is here? What meaning might it convey?

Insights - Prose and poetry, drawn from ancient to contemporary sources, that reflect and expand on the themes of that page.

Contact the PBJC office at office@pbjc.org or (973) 244-9800 with any questions.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH AND COMMUNITY SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEES

MARK ROFFMAN
Committee Founder

The Community Outreach Committee began almost 10 years ago with a simple mission: to provide living necessities to those with a defined psychiatric illness who are clients of the Mental Health Association of Essex and Morris Counties. This committee continues to thrive under the leadership of a Board of Directors comprised of dedicated young adults who receive guidance from Abby Edelman, Jamie Kideckel, and Ali Wise. The committee now provides resources for clothing of children living in shelters as well as supporting nourish.NJ.

Last year a second committee was formed - The Community Scholarship Committee of the Pine Brook Jewish Center. The mission of this committee is to provide scholarships to academically worthy students of Dover High School who have made a difference in their community. For the first year the committee, comprised of 21 members, provided one scholarship of $2,400 and two scholarships each of $400.

Joining either or both of the Community Outreach Committees is easy. You can do so by donating $150 per year to participate in each committee. You can donate directly on the PBJC website (www.pbjc.org). Alternatively, send a check payable to PBJC with the appropriate notation (indicating the committee name) in the memo line. Again, the yearly donation to join is $150 for each committee. Neither committee has any meetings. Please consider joining one or both of our committees. Thanks for taking the time to read this message Please contact Mark Roffman at markroffmanphd@gmail.com if you would like more information about either of the committees.
