Events and Programs Shift Into High Gear

By Marty Skolnick

Our community has shifted into high gear as we move through the beginning months of 2023. Gearing up all our events and programming is an important challenge for our robust teams of volunteers. From fundraising to membership, catering to communications, and all in-between, there is always work to do and goals to accomplish.

Our annual Super Bowl-A-Thon is always a fun time. Dynamic competitors such as Boulder Shoulder, Triple H, Gutterless Goodstein, and, of course, Diamond in the Rough along with The Detroit Rav, storm Maple Lanes.

Shabbat Across America has been a family favorite throughout the years. Friday night services for this event are up close and personal as Rabbi Lerner guides us into a compelling and educational program. And, sharing Shabbat dinner is always special as we break bread with our friends and families.

Another annual event, sponsored by the Sisterhood, is the Purim Baskets with themes that we have come to enjoy. Hopefully, everyone purchases and receives a basket along with enjoying the festivities that go along with the reading of the Book of Esther.

We can't forget our Jewish Learning Center and their Passover Candy Sale. Our future is our children within the JLC. And, to make sure it continues to thrive, we should support their fundraising efforts as much as we can.

Many of our events help us raise funds to keep our community moving into the future. Our House Committee has coordinated multiple projects to keep our building updated and in good repair. The sanctuary and Kneset Room had their ceilings painted and the lighting modernized using energy-efficient LED lights. The parking lot also had its lighting upgraded to LED to make a brighter and safer area for our community.

All these projects, events, and programs are possible because of those who give their time for planning and implementation of each of these ventures. Our volunteers (officers, Board of Trustees, committee chairs, along with their committees and with support from our office staff) enable our synagogue to play an important part of our everyday lives.

In closing, and most importantly, we want to thank our temple family for the ongoing commitment and generosity that makes our shul a special place.

We Roll on Superbowl Sunday

L'Dor V'Dor

From Generation to Generation

By Herb Friend, co-chair, Never Again Committee

My grandson Ari called and told me that he has a history class project - to write about people's experience during the Holocaust. He asked if he could sit with his Bubbe (my mother, a Holocaust survivor) and ask her questions.

Early last month he came to sit with Bubbe with a prepared list of questions. It was quickly pushed aside as Bubbe told him about her family's Holocaust experience: what life was like in their village before the war and what happened when the Nazis stormed into their town.

Bubbe told Ari about the ghetto and how her father and two uncles, along with the town's Jewish men, were taken on a death march and about the killing of her 6-year-old brother [Bubbe was 12, at that time, the same age as Ari is now]. She described the horror of being sent to Auschwitz, including how she saved her mother from being sent to the gas chamber by Dr. Mengele.

She showed Ari her Auschwitz tattoo number and told him what it was like to shovel snow in pajamas and how her mother each day would lick the jam off of their two slices of daily bread rations and then hide the bread for her. Ari learned how Bubbe sensed that Hashem was, somehow, watching over them - surviving five labor camps with her mother and their ultimate liberation from Terezienstadt, the night before they were scheduled to be killed.

Ari and Pearl Friend

He heard how they were rescued by a young Russian officer who told Bubbe's mother that her husband and brothers were alive in Russia five years after their death march. That young officer ended up marrying Bubbe and became Ari's Zayde.

Ari has an amazing memory and didn't think it was necessary to record the session with his Bubbe. Afterwards, he confided in me, saying "I'm sorry I didn't record it. I will always record our sessions in the future."

If you listen to a Holocaust survivor's story you become a witness. Ari is now a witness. With tears of joy in her eyes, Bubbe shared that "In Auschwitz, I never dreamed that someday I would sit with my great grandson to tell my story."

Have Your Next Affair With Us

By Samantha Berman-Melendez and Jonathan Winderman

It's a new era and the Knesset Room is open for room rentals. In November, B'nai Sholom - Beth David hosted its first post-Covid Bat Mitzvah reception. It was catered by Partini Events and was a major success. The lobby and Knesset Room were transformed into an upscale club environment adorned with lavish decor and professional lighting. Talented sushi chefs and buffet stations lined the lobby and hall adding an extra touch of glamour. The possibilities seemed endless.

Catering Chairpersons and Vice Presidents Jonathan Winderman and Samantha Berman-Melendez have been taking calls from families, caterers, and event planners to show the space for future bookings. They have received positive feedback: All who toured our facility are looking forward to booking future events.

Additionally, Jon and Sam will be coordinating with Jewish Learning Center families to plan their children's bar and bat mitzvah kiddushes. The first of these, Lila Mlawski's bat mitzvah, took place in November and was another successful event held in our Knesset room.

We are able to accommodate parties of 50-250 people. If anyone would like more information about booking their next simcha with us, please contact the main office. If your loved ones and friends are looking for a place to celebrate or host an event, you know who to recommend and where to send them.

Sisterhood Programs: From Musicals to Museums

By Tracey Simon

Did you know that there was no song called “Oklahoma!” in the out-of-town tryouts of “Oklahoma!” that Rodgers and Hammerstein wrote some flops, and that Stephen Sondheim was their “go-fer?”

Participants learned all about those and more when our own Jill Kaplan offered up “some enchanted evening” full of information on Rodgers and Hammerstein, the fathers of the modern American musical, on January 18. Presented via Zoom, Ms. Kaplan peppered her discussion with rare videos and interviews with those who worked in or on their shows, including footage of early dances in “Oklahoma!” by Agnes DeMille (she choreographed the show within three weeks!) and an interview with Lesley Ann Warren (“Cinderella”, 1965). She also served up some “dish,” such as why Richard Rodgers started collaborating with Oscar Hammerstein II instead of Lorenz Hart on “Oklahoma!” (Hart was too drunk and troubled to do it) and that Frank Sinatra was supposed to star as “Billy Bigelow” in the movie version of “Carousel”, but bowed out with an excuse to cover that he left because his wife, Ava Gardner, was having an affair with Clark Gable. (Shirley Jones suggested Gordon McCrae, and the rest is remarkable history.)

Another great Sisterhood-sponsored program, “Breakfast with Brad,” will take place on Sunday, March 26 at 10 AM. The congregation is invited to enjoy a delicious spread and hear author/photographer Brad Kolodny discuss his book, “Seeking Sanctuary: 125 Years of Synagogues on Long Island” (which has a rather familiar shul on the cover). Kolodny is president of the Jewish Historical Society of Long Island and curator for the Long Island Jewish History Museum Exhibit at the Holocaust Museum and Tolerance Center in Glen Cove. Copies of the book will be available for purchase and signing.

Registration is required. Sign up at https://www.cbsb-drvc.org/form/sisterhood-breakfast-\(3/23\).html.html).

Sisterhood's Easy-to-do Mitzvah Programs

By Tracey Simon

The need for food assistance peaked during the pandemic but hasn't gone away. As this need grew, so did Sisterhood's commitment to helping fight hunger here on Long Island.

We are now supporting two local food pantries, the UJA-sponsored Rina Shkolnik Pantry and Sharon's MLK Pantry. Help us help them by dropping off canned goods and other non-perishable food items in the designated bins in the CBS-BD lobby. Sharon's MLK Pantry bin is outside the coat room. The Rina Shkolnik Pantry bin (kosher items only) is outside the sanctuary.

Another easy-to-do mitzvah is to support recovery efforts in Ukraine by purchasing sets of 10 blank notecards, usable for any occasion. Each card has one of three sunflower designs on it that represent the national flower of Ukraine. Out of 200 sets of cards, we have approximately 50 left and will continue to sell them until we run out.

So far, Sisterhood has raised $1,749, all of which is profit, and is donating the funds to HIAS, earmarked for Ukraine. HIAS is matching our donation, bringing the total to $3,498 raised.

Order forms can be found in Chadashot or in the synagogue. The notecard program is co-sponsored by the Sisterhoods of B'nai Sholom-Beth David and the Central Synagogue-Beth Emeth, as well as the National Council of Jewish Women, South Shore Section.

A Joyful Shabbat Shira

By Barbara Kaplan, Sisterhood Board and Board of Trustees member

The Torah portion and Haftorah for Shabbat Shira (Shabbat of Song) feature two important women in Jewish history. How fitting that it was chosen as Sisterhood Shabbat, February 4, 2023!

In Parsha Beshallah, Miriam and the women joyfully celebrated the parting of the sea and the successful escape from Egypt with song and dance. In the Haftorah, Deborah leads the tribes to victory over the Canaanites, then sings a song of praise.

Our Shabbat Shira was, by all measure, joyful. Approximately 80 people attended: Sisterhood members, JLC students and teachers, other congregants, and their guests. The goal was to celebrate US, our togetherness, and our sisterhood.

It was a tremendous undertaking. Rabbi Lerner and Cantor Weiser, along with Sisterhood co-presidents Linda Schwartz and Bonnie Friedman, played key roles in planning the service. Many Sisterhood members eagerly participated with an aliyah or a bimah honor.

Thank you and yasher koach go out to: Rabbi David Lerner for his support and for serving as both rabbi and cantor since Cantor Weiser could not attend due to illness.

Beverly Wachtel from Hewlett-East Rockaway Jewish Center who, at a moment's notice, stepped in as "guest cantor" for the Torah service.

Rebbetzin Dr. Alexis Lerner, who received the Kohen aliyah, and delivered timely remarks before the Haftorah reading.

Sisterhood Board members Joan Sidney, Nancy Hochhauser, Karen Skolnick, and Connie Salwen, who received aliyot.

Tracey Simon for a humorous and clever D'var that related the Torah reading to mothers' extraordinary planning skills when their families take long car rides (read 40 years in the desert).

Jill Kaplan for her skillful reading of the Maftir aliyah and her remarks in which she explained a scribe's responsibility to write and blot out the name of Amalek before writing in a Torah.

Linda Schwartz for a beautiful recitation of the poem "Sh'ma" and Malina Macillo for her chanting of the Sh'ma and V'ahaftah.

Elisa Matas Skolnick for Gelilah and Nina Pasternack for Hagbah.

Melissa Goldman for masterfully chanting the longest Haftorah of the year.

Past and present Sisterhood Presidents Bonnie Friedman, Linda Schwartz, Phyllis Entin, Nancy Hochhauser, Judy Greenberg, Connie Salwen, and Caryn Morgenbesser who participated on the bimah and marched around the sanctuary.

Nanci Moskowitz, Barbara Kaplan: our gabbaim

Judy Greenberg: for leading Aleinu

Ashley Presser, Beverly Krosky, Janet Winter, Mindy Kaiser, Jill Lander, Florence Lubitz, Fortune Kaufman: for opening and closing the ark.

Nina Pasternack and JLC teachers: for their support and participation; teacher Rena Ganz: for leading Ashrei.

Ayla Melendez and Sydni Williams: for leading Ein Keloheinu; JLC Children: for leading Adon Olam. Sharon Friend: for reciting the poem "Voice of the Women"; Samantha Melendez: for the Prayer for Our Country; and Lila Mlawski: for the Prayer for the State of Israel.

Samantha Melendez and Jonathan Winderman: our fearless catering committee, for a delicious kiddush; Caryn Morgenbesser and Elisa Matas Skolnick: for a beautiful table presentation; Lisa and Larry Mack: for the dessert table; Rabbi Lerner: for the cake (which was devoured).

Thank you to everyone who bundled up and came into a warm sanctuary on the coldest morning of the year for what was a spiritual, fulfilling and song-filled service celebrating Sisterhood and the entire CBS-BD family. Let's do it again next year!

Thank you to you, too, Barbara, on behalf of everyone involved with Sisterhood Shabbat for all you did to make it a success. – The editors.

'T'was the Night Before Chanukah' Celebration Features Auction and Raffles

By Helene Parsons

On Saturday night December 17, CBS-BD held a 'Chanukah' celebration that featured an auction and raffle prizes. Attendees at this fundraising event were treated to a buffet of latkes with all the trimmings, blintzes, and salad, plus jelly donuts for dessert.

More than 80 people enjoyed an evening where a 50" flat screen TV, a dinner for 10 at Refuge, two reserved seats in the sanctuary, and a highly coveted parking space were auctioned off. Rabbi Lerner entertained as auctioneer for the second year in a row. Raffle baskets, which contained items donated by congregants, also included gift certificates for local restaurants and shops.

It was a wonderful evening that brought together congregants who had not seen each other in a long time because of Covid concerns. A special thanks to the following people for supporting the fundraiser: Jesse & Elizabeth Dunton Levine, Herb & Sharon Friend, and Brandon & Samantha Berman Melendez, who sponsored the event. Lori Ames sponsored the Dessert & Donut Bar. Ira & Susan Casson sponsored the latkes. Lisa & Larry Mack donated the M&M guessing jar and a $25 gift certificate to Polka Dot Poundcake.

A huge thank you goes out to all who donated items to be auctioned off plus those included in raffle baskets, too. A super job well done goes out to the Committee members: Nancy Hochhauser, Elisa Matas Skolnick, Ethel Oppenheimer, Barbara Colodner, Fortune Kaufman, Karen Skolnick, Lisa Mack, Gale Greenberg, Sharon Friend, Caryn Morgenbesser, Samantha Melendez, Larry Mlawski, and Helene Parsons.

New JLC Principal an Enthusiastic Educator

By Nina Pasternak

Nina Pasternak

Hello to all of our Jewish Learning Center families and to all of the members of our dynamic congregation. I was asked to provide a little information about myself to the congregation for the next edition of “Chai Lights”, so here’s a little bit about me.

I am a lifelong learner and educator and can’t imagine being anything else. I hold a master’s degree in education and have permanent New York State and New York City certification for nursery school, kindergarten, and grades 1-6.

I have been an educator for more than 20 years and worked in numerous capacities. Currently, I am a full time preschool teacher. During the summer, I am the Culinary Arts Specialist/Supervisor at a local day camp.

I am enthusiastic about many things, including passing on to our children all the beautiful traditions and customs found in Judaism. Serving as principal of the JLC has provided me the opportunity to do this. I am also very passionate about cooking and am always reading a book. In fact, the public library is one of my favorite places.

I am the mother to a very beautiful, talented and smart 23 year-old young lady who I am so proud to call my precious daughter. I am also so fortunate to be the mother to an extremely charismatic, brilliant, and handsome young man who is my 19 year-old son.

I have a wonderful husband who is the most loving, loyal, and supportive man and makes our family a truly happy and fun one! I feel extremely blessed to have such a warm and loving immediate and extended family, as well as many other special people in my life.

I look forward to continuing to accomplish many fabulous things with the students and families at the JLC at Congregation B’nai Sholom - Beth David. Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to be a part of this amazing organization.

Thank You - Todah Rabah
