100 Hempstead Avenue, Rockville Centre, New York

Dear Friends,

To write a Torah is the last of the 613 Mitzvot that are incumbent upon every Jew to perform.

We now have the opportunity for everyone to symbolically fulfill this commandment. Every sentence, every word, every letter of the Torah is holy, and all of us can experience the joy of sharing in this mitzvah — in honor of a simcha, in memory of a loved one, or in the celebration of life.

If you wish to participate in this exciting endeavor, please visit our website: cbsbdrvc.com to fill out the form online and pay by credit card or use the form below, adding the necessary information, and return it to the Temple office with your check. If you would like further clarification, please do not hesitate to call. All special requests will be honored, and Rabbi Diamond will be happy to assist you in the selection of your dedication choice.

If you'd like to see how a Torah is repaired, please join us on Wednesday, May 16 at 6pm in the main sanctuary for a fascinating program with Rabbi Moshe Klein, the Sofer (Scribe). He will explain and demonstrate the procedure for repairing, or writing a Torah. You are welcome to bring your Tallit, Tefillin and Mezuzot for his inspection.
