

ON BEHALF OF

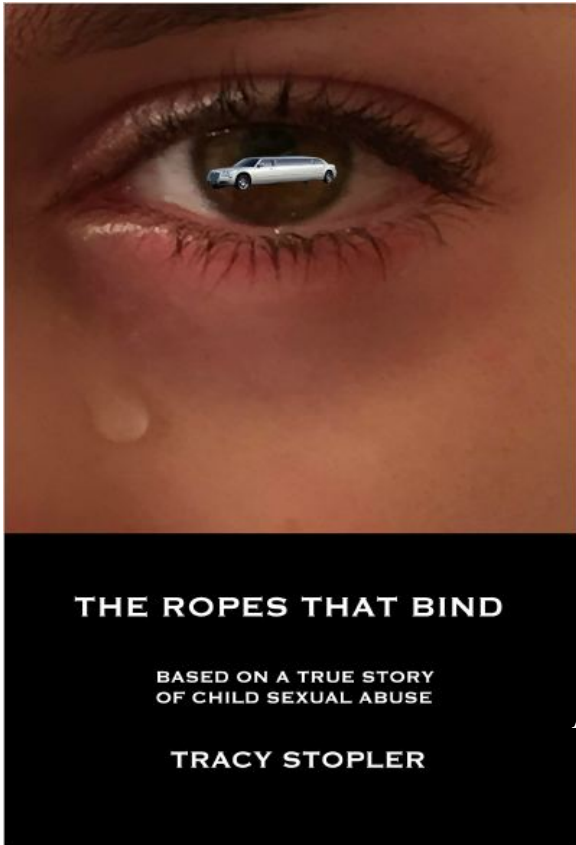

National Council of Jewish Women – South Shore Section
Central Synagogue Sisterhood
Congregation B'nai Sholom-Beth David Sisterhood

We welcome local Plainview author

TRACY STOPLER

Enough Abuse Campaign Coordinator, The Safe Center, Adjunct Professor, Adelphi University and Award-Winning Author of

THE ROPES THAT BIND

*Child sexual abuse is a silent epidemic
The longer the trauma remains a secret the greater the aftermath. This novel is an inspirational story of one survivor's aftermath.*

Recipient of the 2017
Independent Press Award and
NYC Big Book Award, “Distinguished Favorite”
in the category of Women's Fiction

Please join us for an interesting discussion:

DATE: Thursday, November 15, 2018

PLACE: Rockville Centre Public Library
221 N Village Avenue, Rockville Centre, NY 11570

TIME: 7:00 PM Refreshments 7:30 PM Speaker

(contact bfhammerman@gmail.com with any questions)

Paperback • 334 pages • $18 Available at Amazon.com, various public libraries and at the speaking engagement