Issue No. 173

The Gerer Rebbe began class by asking his students about a classmate who wasn't there that day. "How's Moshe Chaim doing?" The students didn't know. "What?" asked the Rebbe. "You don't know? You pray under the same roof. You study together. How can you tell me you don't know how Moshe Chaim is, whether he needs help or advice or comforting? How can that be?"

If the Gerer Rebbe (the first) were a contemporary rabbi the story would have no meaning. Today, unless we are friendly with someone in our congregation, the odds of us knowing if she or he is ill, or in need of help, are very slim. Of course, we would willingly help if asked, as evident by how quickly TBA volunteers sign up to help through our Lotsa Helping Hands group. However, the reality is that we are meaningfully involved in the life of only a relatively small group of people. But when we think about the Golden Age of the Jewish communities at the time of the Gerer Rebbe, almost 200 years ago, we tend to assume that they were all involved in each other's lives.

And here is the big problem. If even at the time when all Jews belonged to the synagogue and attended Services every Shabbat (most men daily), it was still easy for members of the community to be overlooked, what should we expect today when our congregants rarely pray together or learn together?

A synagogue that describes itself as "one big family" is either a true miracle, or simply overstretches the euphemism. Hundreds of families cannot form one big family. But ten families can live in a way that genuinely feels and acts like an extended one. This is the idea behind a havurah. Rabbi Harold Schulweis, a pillar of the Conservative Jewish Movement, successfully established havurot in his synagogue many years ago. He did it when he realized that the primary task on the agenda of the synagogue is not rituals and theology, but what he called "the humanization and personalization of the temple". To experience true belonging is an imperative prerequisite for the cultivation of religious and moral sensibilities.

At TBA we talk a lot about the importance of tearing down the boundaries between Jews and synagogues. We work hard to make it easy for people to join our Temple; now we are going to work even harder to help them to belong. The formation of havurot is an important step to achieve this goal. A havurah is a small group of Temple members who come together to socialize, to learn and enjoy Jewish living with their families. They celebrate Jewish Holidays together, eat together, study together, and worship together. For many, the havurah really turns into an extended family. The beauty of the havurah is that it offers the synagogue member a community small enough to enable personal relationships to develop, and to express their Jewishness their own way.

I believe that when the havurah endeavor with initiative works, our synagogue itself will gradually be transformed into a "Havurah of Havurot", a Jewish assembly in which havurot meet for worship, study and celebration, not as isolated men and women.

When the Gerer Rebbe asked about Moshe Chaim, not everyone at the temple knew how he was doing. But rest assured that members of his havurah were taking care of all his needs, like extended families do.

Shanah Tovah,

Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Mark Slifkin

Summer is over and the kids are back in school and it is that time of the year on the Jewish calendar. At least this year the High Holy Days do not occur over Labor Day weekend! Clergy and staff are busy preparing for this year, and I for one am looking forward to Rabbi Alon's intriguing and interesting sermons. Normally the High Holy Days are a time of deep reflection, BUT this year even more so given the situation in Israel as we all pray for peace and safety for Israelis and our congregants who have children, relatives and friends in Israel. Special thanks to Cubby Steinhart for his recent IDF support in Israel and IDF Lone Soldier Hannah Rosenberg, daughter of congregants David & Mary Rosenberg – we have had many other congregants provide similar support to the IDF.

As you will note from the recent mailing, we are again offering an early Service so that ALL in our large Jewish community who wish to attend, pray and reflect during the High Holy Days can do so. As a note of information, last year our Children's Services (the Children's Service for the little ones and our "Time and Place Just for Kids" program for kids K-5) were attended by almost 350 children – let's increase that! I am sure this year's will be even more exciting – thanks to Rabbi Alon, Cantor Jessica, Brett Tancer, David Sherman and Alissa Frankel.

There is still time to get in your information and reservations for the Yizkor Book, Selichot Dinner, Complimentary Baby Sitting and Sisterhood Flower fund - but you need to do so ASAP.

High Holy Days Fact

Another TBA factoid from our TBA volunteers Marcy Isdaner, Robin Schafner, Debby Baker and Audrey Ades - last year we donated 1,500 pounds of non-perishable food to Alpert Jewish Family Services from our High Holy Days Food Drive on Yom Kippur. How about if each of us brings one additional package so we can get closer to 1,750 pounds this year!

TBA Recent Events

Special thanks to Zac Kushner and the Men's Club volunteers (too many to list) for a fantastic pool party at the Burn's Road Complex. A very special congratulations to Ben Levkovitz, winner of the blueberry pie-eating contest. You really need to look at the picture on the TBA Facebook page. If you are not a TBA Facebook member – please join our Facebook page for information and activities for TBA and The One School.

We are continuing the new communications look thanks to Carol Sleeper, Debbie Baseman, Zac Kushner and our PR Consultant, Greg Dubois, of Bella Group. I have just seen the draft of the new TBA 'Who Are We' (a communication to TBA members and the Jewish Community) and it is amazing. Our revised member recognition program will also be released during the High Holy Days.

Well what do you think of the new sod, shrubs and parking pavers? Let us hear from you. Contact Jerry Holinstat with other ideas to improve our facilities.

Many classrooms have been painted and the building spruced up to improve our appearance – our wonderful building is over 7 years old and needs some TLC.

REMINDERS – Your High Holy Days tickets will be mailed shortly. If you do not receive them or wish to buy additional tickets please call the office. Along with your tickets will be your High Holy Days Pledge Card. This is one of the 3 times/year we ask for voluntary financial support (the other two are Membership and Spring Drive). Please generously provide your support so we can continue to provide all the activities and programming for TBA and the Jewish Community.

Our Board member names are always listed on the first page of the Scribe – talk to them anytime about your thoughts, suggestions and ideas – our tag line ALL OF US TOGETHER only works if we have YOUR input!

Scribe articles are great and contain interesting tidbits about TBA – enjoy them. Call me at 561-222-8350 if you have ANY questions or just wish to chat. Email works also: mslifkin7@comcast.net.

L'Shanah Tovah. לשנה טובה

Happy and Healthy 5775, from our family to each of you and your families. Looking forward to greeting all of you during the High Holy Days.

Mark Slifkin

Temple Beth Am Book Club Selections 2014-2015

November 3: JOY COMES IN THE MORNING – Jonathan Rosen - Deborah Green is a woman of passionate contradictions--a rabbi who craves goodness and surety while wrestling with her own desires and with the sorrow and pain she sees around her. Her life changes when she visits the hospital room of Henry Friedman, an older man who has attempted suicide. His parents were murdered in the Holocaust when he was a child, and all his life he's struggled with difficult questions. Deborah's encounter with Henry and his family draws her into a world of tragedy, frailty, love, and, finally, hope. [Paperback: 400 pages]

January 5: MY 15 GRANDMOTHERS – Genie Milgrom – The author takes the reader through an exciting maze of intrigue, where literally every stone that is turned yields a new twist in the author's personal journey. Having been brought up in a Roman Catholic family in Cuba and descending from Spanish ancestry did not ensure that her life would be lived within that realm. In response to strong feelings and an affinity towards Judaism, her search for her family's past took on a deeper significance as she researched her maternal lineage and discovered and documented her Pre-Inquisition Spanish roots to Fifteenth Century Spain and Portugal where they lived first as Jews, then as Crypto Jews and finally as Roman Catholics. She was able to unravel the web of lies and deceit that her family had spun in order to survive the Spanish Inquisition. They lived with one foot in each world as they converted to Catholicism openly while secretly practicing their own religion underground. [Paperback: 164 pages]

March 2: THE MUSEUM OF EXTRAORDINARY THINGS – Alice Hoffman - the story of an electric and impassioned love between two vastly different souls in New York during the volatile first decades of the twentieth century. Coralie Sardie is the daughter of the sinister impresario behind The Museum of Extraordinary Things, a Coney Island boardwalk freak show that thrills the masses. Coralie appears as the Mermaid in her father's "museum". One night Coralie stumbles upon a striking young man taking pictures of moonlit trees in the woods off the Hudson River. The dashing photographer is Eddie Cohen, a Russian immigrant who has run away from his father's Lower East Side Orthodox community and his job as a tailor's apprentice. When Eddie photographs the devastation on the streets of New York following the infamous Triangle Shirtwaist Factory fire, he becomes embroiled in the suspicious mystery behind a young woman's disappearance and ignites the heart of Coralie. [Hardcover: 384 pages]

April 27: WONDER OF WONDERS: A CULTURAL HISTORY OF FIDDLER ON THE ROOF – Alisa Solomon - An eye-opening history of the Broadway musical that changed the world. In the half-century since its premiere, Fiddler on the Roof has had an astonishing global impact. Award-winning drama critic, Alisa Solomon, traces how and why the story of Tevye the milkman, the creation of the great Yiddish writer Sholem-Aleichem, was reborn as blockbuster entertainment and a cultural touchstone. It is a story of the theater, following Tevye from his humble appearance on the New York Yiddish stage, through his adoption by leftist dramatists as a symbol of oppression, to his Broadway debut in one of the last big book musicals, and his ultimate destination—a major Hollywood picture. Solomon reveals how the show spoke to the deepest conflicts and desires of its time: the fraying of tradition, generational tension, the loss of roots. Audiences everywhere found in Fiddler immediate resonance and a usable past, whether in Warsaw, where it unlocked the taboo subject of Jewish history, or in Tokyo, where the producer asked how Americans could understand a story that is “so Japanese.” [Hard cover: 448 pages]

As a benefit of your membership, you can purchase tickets for your immediate family at a discounted price of $110 which includes Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur ($60 if attending a single Service). Non-member tickets for both High Holy Days are $225 ($110 if attending a single Service). Children 25 years and younger, as well as college students with student ID, do not need a ticket.

See the back page of this Scribe for a complete listing of the dates and times of the High Holy Days Services.

Early Evening Services on Erev Rosh Hashanah & Kol Nidre:

Once again, we are offering an early Service on Erev Rosh Hashanah and Kol Nidre. These Services will begin at 5:00pm.

The early 5:00pm Service will be similar to the main 8:00pm Service. Rabbi Alon will be leading the liturgy and giving his sermon and Cantor Jessica will be leading the beautiful High Holy Days music.

If you are a Temple member or you have purchased a ticket, you are invited to attend either the early or main Service, just bring your ticket. If you are not a Temple member, there is no charge to attend these early evening Services at 5:00pm (as well as the Afternoon Service on Yom Kippur) but you still need a ticket to attend. Contact the Temple office for a ticket.

Member tickets or purchased tickets are needed for all other Services (except the Children's Services). To purchase tickets or for more information, contact the office at 747-1109, or visit our website at www.templebetham.com.

Please remember, regardless of what Service you choose to attend, for security purposes, you must have a ticket.

Yizkor Book Deadline: September 2, 2014 FIRM

During the High Holy Days, and especially at the Yizkor Service on Yom Kippur, we remember family and friends who have passed away. It is customary to make a contribution to tzedakah in honor of those for whom we say Yizkor. One opportunity for honoring the memory of loved ones is to include their names in our annual Yizkor Book, which also includes prayers, poems and readings. We must receive your Yizkor form by September 2nd to include your listing. This is a FIRM deadline. The Yizkor Book is sent out for printing the next day. See flyer in Scribe.

Babysitting During High Holy Days Services

In the spirit of KULANU there is no cost for babysitting. However, in order to properly staff for our children's safety, please register in advance by Sept. 15th. See flyer in Scribe for details and to register.

Yizkor Book for High Holy Days 2014

Deadline: September 2, 2014

During the High Holy Days, and especially at the Yizkor service on Yom Kippur, we remember family and friends who have passed away. It is customary to make a contribution to tzedakah in honor of those for whom we say Yizkor. One opportunity for honoring the memory of loved ones is to include their names in our annual Yizkor Book, which also includes prayers, poems and readings.

Please offer the relevant information on this Yizkor form below. We must receive your Yizkor form by September 2nd to include your listing. This is a FIRM deadline. Forms received after that will not be processed in time for the name(s) to appear in the book. A donation of $18 per line is suggested. For Yizkor Book questions, please contact Sharon Holinstat at 630-0297.

Selichot

Dinner, Program, Havdallah & Selichot Service
Saturday, September 20th at 6:15pm

Dinner 6:15pm: Please join us as we say goodbye to Shabbat, with dinner provided by the Sisterhood. RSVPs required for dinner. $18 per person.

7:00pm: Film & Discussion with Rabbi Alon. Unetaneh Tokef: The Story of Yom Kippur on Kibbutz Beth Hashita

What happens to a small close-knit community when 11 of its members are buried in one day? What forms of mourning and meaning are available to this community, when religion is foresworn? And when 11 young men all died fighting for Israel in the Yom Kippur War, how should their secular kibbutz now relate to Yom Kippur?

This moving documentary follows the trauma of Kibbutz Beth Hashita, and how composer Yair Rosenblum contributes through his music a way for the kibbutz to find an authentic Jewish Israeli voice for their pain.

8:00pm: Havdallah &

Selichot Service. Selichot is our way of getting ready for the High Holy Days. With these prayers, we begin the season of soul searching and asking for forgiveness for our sins. Be with us as we end the evening with lights down low and candles being lit.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

David Sherman, MJEd
Director of Education

Shalom!

Please remember our children's safety – do NOT stop by the Temple entrance to drop off your child, but rather drive to a parking spot, park, and walk your child into the Temple. Besides the safety issue – this is a really nice way to start your days! Every Sunday morning starts off with JAMTY Café providing bagel breakfasts for a nominal fee, which tastes great and also benefits our youth programming at TBA. The Café opens @ 9:00am and serves students until 9:25am, and parents throughout the morning. Classes run from 9:30am – 11:40am, when we all gather for prayer, song, and community at our rousing Kehillah, which concludes at noon. Parents are welcome to join us- we only ask that no students are taken out of Kehillah early as this disrupts the mood that we all work so hard to create- thanks! Sunday students are dismissed directly from the Sanctuary following Kehillah – first the younger ones are picked up at their seats, and then we dismiss the older students, ensuring that the safety of all is primary.

Tuesday Religious School classes start on September 9th. For those new student families, please note that we serve pizza and healthy snacks from 4:30pm – 4:50pm to give our students that extra bit of fuel they need to keep active and alert. Tuesday classes run from 5:00pm – 6:30pm, with students being picked up from the classrooms. Again, as on Sundays, we ask that you do not pick your children up early unless absolutely necessary (in which case please inform the Director or teacher ahead of time). Sunday classes start on September 7th, for K – 2nd grade only, to give them a calmer first day.

Shalom Chai, our (no longer) new community Jewish High School will welcome students on September 9th, at 6:30pm. We welcome all Jewish teens attending 8th - 12th grades for both formal and informal education. Our program blends classroom learning, service learning (doing Social Action), and plenty of teen interaction. We are excited about this program and hope that you are, too. Please give me a call, drop me an email, or visit the Temple website if you would like more info on Shalom Chai. Classes run from 6:30pm – 8:30pm and the evening even includes a light dinner break! 7th graders also attend Shalom Chai on Tuesday evenings, which, for them, includes a special prayer readiness elective with Cantor Jessica, so they can keep their Hebrew skills sharp for their 'big' day!

We will not hold classes on Sunday, October 5th, giving everyone an extra day of rest to reflect (after Yom Kippur). Those who wish to help erect this year's Sukkah are invited to join the fun- the Men's Club will once again lead us in our Sukkah building, starting at 8:00am.

Here are some 'save the dates' for September and October:

- * Sunday, Sept. 7: 1st Day K-2; All school assembly 9:30am – 9:45am; Parent Orientation 9:45am – 10:30am; stay & schmooze 10:30am – 10:45am; High Holy Day Shofar workshop 10:45am-Noon
- * Tuesday, Sept. 9: 1st Day Grades 3 – 6; Parent Stay 'n Schmooze 5:00pm – 5:15pm; HHD Shofar workshop 5:15pm – 6:30pm
- * Tuesday, Sept. 9: 1st Day of Shalom Chai: dinner & elective presentations; HHD Shofar workshop; Core course introductions
- * Tuesday, Sept. 16: Parent Q & A / Orientation for 3rd - 6th: 5:00pm – 5:30pm
- * Sunday, Sept. 28: (during RS) Kindergarten, 1st & 2nd grade JFE program at Busch Wildlife Sanctuary
- * Sunday, Oct. 5: No Religious School – Men's Club puts up Sukkah!
- * Friday Night, Oct. 17: Simchat Torah celebration (during Shabbat Services)
- * Saturday, Oct. 25: 6th Grade Families at Rabbi's house (3:00pm – 5:00pm)

Please note that we have updated our TBA website (www.templebetham.com) to include lots of action photos of our students, up to date calendar / programming information, curricular information, Hebrew prayers that can be listened to and downloaded to your favorite PDA's, and much, much more! For those of you who are into social networking, and you know who you are, please visit our Temple Facebook page- Temple Beth Am, Jupiter (please remember the comma after 'Beth Am').

Lastly, please feel comfortable to contact me any time to discuss our Religious School – together (kulanu), we can make this the best experience for our children.

A Season for Life-Learning Skills...

How lucky we are that Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur fall at the beginning of our school year! As our children start fresh in their new grade or class, they relish in their new beginnings and feel the chance to start all over again. It is their opportunity to reflect on a New Year and a new beginning.

Rosh Hashanah combines both solemn and joyful elements. Another name for Rosh Hashanah is Yom Hadin, the Day of Judgment. This is a time when each of us is judged for both good and bad deeds done during the past year. We also celebrate the arrival of a new year and the blessings it will hopefully contain.

Yom Kippur, the day of Atonement, is the holiday that concludes the Days of Awe; a period of ten days that begins at Rosh Hashanah. This is a time for personal introspection and reflection of our behavior.

The book of Jonah is read on the afternoon of Yom Kippur. The story of Jonah includes themes of personal responsibility and repentance. The prophet Jonah after much reluctance goes to the city of Nineveh to tell the people of their impending destruction because of their sins and transgressions. After hearing Jonah's prophecy, the people repent and God forgives them.

The message of this story is empowering. Even small children learn that mistakes can be repaired; that there is always an opportunity to change and that they have this power to heal through forgiving others. How can we share this deep philosophical idea with our children? First we can ask our children, "What have you done wrong in the past?" "Say you're sorry to those you have hurt," and ask God to forgive you."

PTO Ice Cream Social a Hit!

Many thanks once again to our PTO for sponsoring our yummy Ice Cream Social, and to all of our families who came out to celebrate the end of summer and the beginning of a new school year with us! We also must mention our friend, Ms. Tanya from My Gym, who came out to join us and brought her wonderful obstacle course for all of the kids to climb and test their skills on! It was a wonderful evening and so good to see everyone that we missed all summer! Once we have the Ice Cream Social, it's a sure sign that the school year has begun!

@ TBA Preschool Blog

Our Preschool blog is back and better than ever before! Our teachers are updating the information frequently with lots of pictures and information about everything that is going on at school! Modeling: The Best Way to Teach

Don't be afraid to share your own feelings with your children, too. By modeling t'shuvah, you're not only teaching them a lesson, you are deepening your own relationships. Let your children know when you feel sad or hurt and why. Say, "Mommy's feeling sad today because a friend at work said a mean thing about my project and that hurt my feelings." Knowing how you feel will help them understand how our actions affect others. Try to talk about feelings, happy or sad, angry or mad!

The beginning of the school year is a perfect time to talk about Rosh Hashanah and new beginnings. Things you can do as a family!

1. Write down each of your family's wishes for a sweet year. Read these at the table on Rosh Hashanah.
2. Commit, as a family, to follow the steps of t'shuvah by recognizing and saying sorry for wrong behavior, as well as making a vow to not do that again!
3. Follow the customs for the New Year! Eat sweet foods as a symbol of our desire for a sweet year! Dip apple in honey for a sweet year!
4. Attend children's High Holy Days Services so children have the opportunity to hear the shofar and prayers!
5. Attend Tashlich Service at the beach on the afternoon of Rosh Hashanah, as we go to a body of water, say a prayer, and empty our pockets into the ocean to symbolically cast away our sins.

YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

Alissa Frankel, Youth Director

September is a busy month for everyone. School has started back up, traffic is heavier, youth group programs are here, and football is back on TV... Truthfully, it is just that time of year to get back into the swing of things!

While your swinging, don't forget about the High Holy Days too! Thankfully the High Holy Days fall a little later this year than last, allowing us a little more time to take in the meaning of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. This is a time of new beginnings, forgiveness, and reflection.

Revisit, reenergize, or change completely one or all of the New Year's resolutions you may have set in January. Around your Rosh Hashanah dinner table, share one of those resolutions – one thing you want to do differently, better, more or less of. Use this opportunity to positively motivate, inspire, and encourage one another throughout the year to help everyone reach their personal resolution.

Some of the things I am looking forward to most this new year is working with our JAMTY board and our other youth group's leaders and participants, getting to know everyone, and creating a year of lasting memories.

I will send out bi-weekly e-mails with the upcoming events for all three youth groups; in addition, join our Facebook group JAMTY/JAMTY Jr. for the most up-to-date information and pictures from our events!

L'Shanah Tovah!

BAT MITZVAH OF
ALLISON KLEINFELD

It is with much pride and joy that we announce the Bat Mitzvah of our daughter Allison Paige Kleinfeld on September 6, 2014.

Allie is in the eighth grade at the Benjamin School which she has attended since she was in Pre-K. Allie loves to dance. She was on the Benjamin Middle School Dance Team last year and was thrilled to be chosen for the Coaches Award at the end of the season. She will be trying out for the team again this year and hopes to continue to excel in dance. Allie also loves to sing and is taking voice and piano lessons. Allie does enjoy playing sports too. She has played on both the Benjamin lacrosse and basketball teams in past seasons. During the summer, Allie's home away from home is Camp Romaca in The Berkshires in Massachusetts. She has been a camper there for the past five summers. During the school year, she counts down the days until she can be back at Camp Romaca and be a camper again and reunited with her friends. During Allie's free time, she enjoys spending time with her family and friends, going to the movies, beach and shopping at the mall.

For her Mitzvah Project, Allie will be assisting with Temple Beth Am's Food Pantry. The food pantry works diligently throughout the year making sure that no one in our community goes hungry. She will be finding sources of food, sorting and distributing the food, picking up bread and pastries at the greenmarket and getting donations of non perishable items.

We are very proud of Allie and the young woman that she is becoming. We would like to thank Rabbi Alon, Cantor Jessica, Brett Tancer, David Sherman and the Religious School staff for helping Allie prepare for this special day.

Allie's brother Jake and sister Nicole, along with the rest of her family, can't wait to share this special day with her.

Lisa and Robert Kleinfeld

BAT MITZVAH OF ALEXANDRA BERMAN

We are proud to announce that our daughter, Alexandra Lily Berman, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on September 13, 2014.

Alex is an honor student at Jupiter Middle School and was recently inducted into the National Junior Honor Society.

Alex's passion is dance. She has studied ballet, pointe, contemporary, jazz and modern since she was three years old. She has been a member of the FSDE Performance Company for several years. Alex enjoys summer camp at Camp Eisner in Great Barrington, MA.

For her Mitzvah Project, Alex raised money for The Mazon Organization (a program to relieve hunger) by collecting and selling clothing to Plato's closet.

In her free time, Alex enjoys spending time with friends and family.

We would like to thank Rabbi Alon, Cantor Jessica, Brett, David and all of Alex's teachers at Temple Beth Am for helping to prepare her for this day.

We invite the congregation to join us as we celebrate Alex's accomplishment.

SEPTEMBER 20, 2014 BAR MITZVAH OF A.J. LEVINE

With great love and joy, we are proud to announce the Bar Mitzvah of our son, Alexander James (AJ), on September 20, 2014.

AJ is a 7th grader at The Weiss School, where he has accomplished High Honor Roll/Honor Roll every quarter and has been accepted into the National Junior Honor Society. In addition to his academic achievements at The Weiss School, he is a member of the Duke Tip Program and The Johns Hopkins Center for Talented Youth. Furthermore, AJ had the honor of being nominated to attend the Junior National Young Leaders Conference this past summer in Washington, DC. Outside of school, AJ's main interests are Taekwondo and playing soccer. AJ is a black belt in Taekwondo and has competed in many tournaments including the 2014 Florida State Taekwondo Tournament. Most recently, he received a silver medal for Taekwondo at the Sunshine Games in Lakeland, Florida. AJ loves soccer and has been playing in travel soccer programs for the past 5 years.

AJ's Mitzvah project is one that he started 4 years ago. Since he was 9 years old, AJ has handed out flyers annually to residents in our community requesting candy donations for children who were unable to celebrate Halloween in a traditional way due to varying circumstances. Each year, through the generosity of his neighbors, he has been able to make over 150 individual bags of candy and bring them to St. Mary's Children's Hospital, Quantum House, POST, St. George's Soup Kitchen, and the Lord's Place.

We are very proud of our son AJ for always working hard to accomplish all of his goals.

We would like to thank Rabbi Alon, Cantor Jessica, Brett Tancer, David Sherman, Debbie Baseman, and AJ's teachers for their help and support in preparation for this special day.

PLEASE WEAR YOUR NAME TAGS

Did you know that all Temple members have name tags? Name tags are a WONDEFUL invention! They help us get to know each other.

So, in the spirit of KULANU, ALL OF US TOGETHER, let's remember to wear our name tags whenever we come to Temple, be it to Friday Night Services or any other program.

Your name tags are found in the armoire in the lobby.

If you can't find your name tag, please call Margot or Debbie in the office (561-747-1109) and ask us to make you a new one.

We will be happy to oblige.
