SITTING SHIVA IN ISRAEL: A LETTER FROM GALI

Dear Friends,

I want to thank all of you who have reached out to me after the deaths of my father and my grandmother last month. Your kind words, cards, donations, meals and gestures warmed my heart.

When my father died I knew where I needed to be – in Israel with my brother and my sister. With that said, I have gotten so used to the way we do things here that I didn't know what to expect when I arrived in Israel. I am truly blessed to live in our little Jewish community here in Jupiter and so it was a bit awkward for me to be sitting shiva in Israel, away from my own home, my own Temple, family and friends.

When Alon and I left Israel 20 years ago there was only one way to deal with life cycle events: the Orthodox way. On my 10 hour flight from Newark to Tel Aviv I began to wonder about many things: As a woman, would I be allowed to say Kaddish for my father? Would the ceremony be led by some Orthodox rabbi who would mumble some prayers fast and say nothing of substance about my dad? Would my dad be buried outside of the cemetery's fence as they used to do with people who have committed suicide? Would I feel alienated from the ceremony that would be my last goodbye to my beloved father? And what about the shiva? Would anyone be there for me? Would there be much judging and explaining? Isn't a whole week too much for our aching souls?

What I found upon arrival was that so much has changed in Israel. The funeral was a combination of old and new. The Chevra Kadisha, the Orthodox company that handles death on behalf of the state, went through the basic and most significant religious parts of the funeral ceremony (identifying the body, kriaah- tearing of the clothes of the mourners, burial and kaddish). Then we had a beautiful and moving memorial service that was very personal and touching, complete with the unfortunately fitting Mozart's Requiem, that was my father's (a classical music connoisseur) favorite piece. Everything was done graveside, start to finish: no chapel, no synagogue. There was no casket - those are only used in Israel for soldiers- and the body was on a stretcher covered in white linen shrouds. Finally, I was relieved to find out that the Rabbinical Courts in Israel recognizes depression as a disease and therefore people who commit suicide are no longer buried outside of the cemetery's fence.

After the funeral we went home. The custom in Israel is that only immediate relatives arrive to visit on the first day after the funeral. The rest of the days were constant visitations of people far and near from as early as 7:30am to 11:00pm. It seems that every single person who ever met my father or had a relationship with any of us mourners took some time off from work and came over for an hour or so. Almost each person who came in brought with them cookies or a tray of homemade food and stuck it in the refrigerator. Neighbors and friends came in and took over the house: one was washing dishes, another sweeping the floor in the lulls between the people coming in, someone else ran to the grocery store when we ran out of milk for the coffee. The town provided both initial guidance and plastic chairs for the mourners. This went on for seven days with a break for Shabbat. There was no minyan or service as my father and step-mother are secular Jews and do not belong to or attend a synagogue, but the sense of community, caring and support was palpable and very real.

Having been living so far from my homeland and coming in only for short and carefully orchestrated visits, most of my interaction with Israel is on the phone with family or through the headlines of the newspapers. In that week of shiva I have been reminded of the true beauty of Israel: the kindness, care, openness, warmth and lack of judgment of people was both uplifting and nourishing in our most difficult time. Even through my teary eyes I was able to see what makes Israel so special: the people.

After the week was over we went back to my father's grave, said kaddish, put on one more stone and shed many more tears. The grave will be erected and ready for an unveiling within a month or so, as it is done in Israel.

Sitting a full seven days of shiva in Israel, I could not come back and sit shiva here. This means that I did not have the opportunity to be with my friends and share my grief that by the time I was back grew to include not only my father but also my beloved grandmother who died in Portugal. But, I am simply overwhelmed with gratitude for how so many of you found ways to reach out and make sure I knew that you were there and that I was not alone. Thank you for taking care of my family when I was away and thank you for all the love and support. It sustains me and helps heal my broken heart.

With a profound sense of gratefulness and love,
Gali

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Mark Slifkin

As I write my last article as President of Temple Beth Am, I look back on our progress over the last several years. It all started in 2013 with the introduction of Kulanu and the Voluntary Financial Commitment, as we set along the path envisioned by Rabbi Alon. Those of you who were at the May 1, 2016 Annual Congregational Meeting viewed the charts showing a 35% growth in membership and how evenly apportioned our adult age demographics are. The charts also showed the expansion of our HaMakom religious school and of course our NAEYC accredited The One School preschool.

Key elements for this success and the need for Chidush, our building renewal project, has been the leadership of Rabbi Alon, along with engaged congregants, a dedicated staff, and leadership from the Board of Directors – I thank you for all your support.

Thank You: To the Men's Club, Sisterhood and all the other volunteers for making Yom HaAtzmaut, Israel Independence Day, a fantastic Service and celebration on the beach (after all, we are in Florida). Those Men's Club t-shirts were cool. Why do we look forward to seeing them at many more TBA event? Simple - that means FOOD!!

Welcome: Welcome to Amanda Feld as our Director of Youth Engagement. We look forward to all the great youth activities.

Announcement: For many years we have wrestled with the best way to efficiently handle catering of mitzvahs, Jewish holidays, religious school & preschool events. A lot of what we do revolves around FOOD – there is that word again. Since we have many different departments buying food, kitchen supplies, etc., preparing it creates a large challenge. Ideally we would prefer an exclusive caterer to be able to control quality, efficiency, coordination, etc. However, we are zoned residential and that limits the benefit an exclusive caterer can derive from using our facility. We have a solution!! – we have hired Eric Weiner as our Director of Food Services and Catering for the exclusive use of our members, staff and auxiliaries for all kitchen related activities. While this article is too short to describe all the benefits, give Eric a call and discuss how we can meet your next event needs. Please see the write up later in this Scribe.

Special Thanks: Bruce Cohen who has served 8 years on the TBA Executive Committee – we thank you.

Shalom and WOW – I can't believe the season is almost over! It's been an incredibly busy and wonderful year with all of the programs that the Synagogue has offered. Between Shabbat Services, Adult Education, Special Events, the High Holy Days and Guest Speakers, it's been a wonderful whirlwind.

It's also that time again for our Voluntary Financial Commitment season to begin. Membership information for our upcoming fiscal year (which starts July 1, 2016) will be mailed the week of June 15th. Please review the information and if you have any questions don't hesitate to contact me.

We have so much to look forward to next season with the beautiful renovations that are currently in progress, to the calendar of events that we are currently finalizing, as well as our wonderful Shabbat Services. You are in for a fun-filled, educational season and I look forward to another wonderful year.

MAZEL TOV TO OUR 2016/5776 ADULT B'NEI MITZVAH CLASS

Carol Sleeper

16 members of our congregation became B'nei Mitzvah in a beautiful ceremony at Temple Beth Am on May 21, 2016 with approximately 200 friends and family members watching. The group had been studying together for 2 years starting with the Learn to Read Hebrew class on Sunday mornings and then progressing to Biblical Hebrew before preparing for their Adult B'nei Mitzvah. Each person began their journey in different ways and for different reasons but they ended up together and performed wonderfully during their Service. Three others who studied with them had already had their B'nei Mitzvah and did not participate but the other 17 read beautifully from the Torah.

During the Service the class presented Rabbi Alon, Cantor Jessica, and Rabbinic Intern Brett Tancer with a painting done by one of the class, artist Debbie Schmidt. The painting depicted a tree of life with some key Hebrew words and listed the Hebrew name of each member of the Biblical Hebrew/Adult Education class. The group also presented to Temple Beth Am a 9 foot x 13 foot homemade tallit that was used in their ceremony and will continue to be used at the Temple for large group blessings. The sewing and embroidery on the tallit was done by Rhea Exizian with some assistance from some members of the class.

It was a very special day at Temple Beth Am and one that will be remembered for a long time. Kol Hakavod!

MEN'S CLUB SCRIBBLES

Jack Tenenbaum

This is my last Scribe article as President of the Temple Beth Am Men's Club. On May 1, I was elected to the Board of Directors of TBA by the Temple membership and was elected by my fellow board members as a Vice President. The Board of Directors of the Men's Club will appoint an interim President for my remaining term of office. In September, the Men's Club will elect the new Board of Directors and officers.

The Men's Club will carry on. This summer, from May through August, the Men's Club will once again be sponsoring dining out events, at various restaurants on a monthly basis, providing members of the Men's Club, Sisterhood, and congregation an opportunity to interact in a social setting and enjoy each other's company. The May dining out was held at the Time To Eat Diner in Tequesta on May 26th. The June dining out will be at Schooners on Thursday, June 16, the July dining out will be at the Cheesecake Factory on Tuesday, July 19. RSVP's are required. See flyer in Scribe for details. The August dining out is not yet finalized.

In addition, the Men's Club is sponsoring a baseball trip to see the Miami Marlins on September 11, which will include tickets and round-trip bus transportation at a cost of only $50 per person. We're also planning a football outing on December 11, which will also include tickets and round-trip bus transportation. Please watch the Scribe and the weekly updates for more information.

The Men's Club provides opportunities for its members to actively assist the Temple in carrying out its functions and meeting its goals. We provide not only manpower for events, but financial and other support. For example, in May, the Men's Club volunteers prepared and served a buffet breakfast (lox, bagels, cream cheese, etc.) for the Temple's Annual Membership Meeting. It also provided volunteers who barbecued and served hotdogs, chicken, salad, etc. to those participating in the Annual Yom HaAtzmaut Celebration service on the beach and barbeque. The Men's Club also assisted with food preparation and distribution at the Family Fun Day on May 22.

I take great satisfaction, and a considerable amount of pride, in having worked with the Men's Club Board and members. Together, we formed a Strategic Planning Committee to assure that the Men's Club programs and events evolve to meet the current and future needs of the Temple membership; instituted a new, coherent set of Bylaws; initiated a policy of cooperation and partnership with the Sisterhood; worked with the TBA Board and staff to carry out programs; and contributed $20,000 to the Chidush project.

As I leave office, I want to thank the members of the Men's Club Board of Directors, Harvey Silverman, Bruce Cohen, David Elias, Mel Wolfe, Herb Gildenhorn, and Bob Hochman for their invaluable assistance during my tenure as President. I also want to thank the members of the Men's Club who worked so very hard to make our events and Temple events a success. Special thanks go to Eric Weiner and John Marzina for the hours spent in the kitchen. There are too many people to thank in the space I have. We all know who you are, and you should be proud of what you've accomplished.

I also want to take this opportunity to thank Rabbi Alon, Gali Levkovitz, Brett Tancer, and Jessica Turnoff Ferrari for their support and encouragement, and mostly their friendship. I also want to thank the administrative staff of the Temple. Melanie, Carol, Margot & Debbie have helped me in more ways than I can describe. I am also grateful to the TBA Board, especially Mark Slifkin and Carol Carswell. In addition, I want to thank my departed friend Jerry Holinstat for getting me involved in the Men's Club. Finally, I want to thank the members of the TBA congregation who welcomed us, befriended us, enriched our lives, and have encouraged and supported our involvement in the Temple's activities.

While I must leave the position of President, and Board member of the Men's Club, I will remain active in the organization because I believe in what it does. The Men's Club is a vital, active participant in the Temple's and congregation's life. If you are not yet a member, I urge you to join and become an active participant in the Temple's pursuit of keeping Judaism alive.

Jack Tenenbaum, President

SISTERHOOD SCOOP

Lois Remick

What is so rare as a day in June? starts James Russell Lowell's beautiful ode to nature's perfection. Your Scribe of the Tribe, the name given me by Linda Wolfe, loves the month of June for more practical reasons. It is the only month when I don't get lots of emails with reminders about what needs to be included in my Sisterhood Scoop column for the Scribe. Thus I dedicate June to everything creative that does not require a deadline of 11:59pm on the 14th of the month! My husband gets to taste the results of creative cooking (stop snickering!), and I get to read all the biographies I put aside during the year. By the way, if you haven't yet read the biography Eleanor and Franklin by Joseph Lash, treat yourself. I highly recommend it!

Speaking of treating yourself.... I hope you enjoyed TBA's Yom HaAtzmaut Shabbat celebration at the beach on May 13th. That delicious Israeli Salad was prepared by some of your Sisters: Estelle Gordon, Marsha Levinson, Maril Levy, and Linda & Mel (our wonderful Men's Club sister!) Wolfe. Thanks folks, for peeling, chopping and slicing all those pounds of tomatoes, cukes, and onions.

Another treat is coming your way in August. Back by popular demand, will be our Sunday afternoon Lunch and a Movie. We plan to show The Band's Visit, an Israeli film, and serve a delicious Israeli-style lunch. We are still waiting to confirm the date, based on Chidush-construction demands. Watch for the flyer in the August issue of the Scribe.

Calling all Sisterhood women who are 60+ years young: The Arise Foundation is offering a special program on Constructive Aging led by its co-founder. These guided-discussions will be held on three successive Thursdays in July, from 1:00pm – 2:30pm at TBA: July 14th, 21st, and 28th. Join us for one, two, or all three sessions. Please note there is a limit of 15 women per session, so RSVP without delay, by sending in the form (elsewhere in this issue of the Scribe) along with your check, to Linda Wolfe.

Please watch for the 2016-2017 Sisterhood Membership mailing coming to you soon, and send in your membership form and dues as soon as you receive it. Benefits of membership include: reduced fees to attend Sisterhood events, priority seating/attendance at events with limited spaces, our Paid-Up Membership Luncheon, and a copy of Sisterhood's Membership Directory. Join us, to be with friends old and new and to help us support TBA. "Let's Laugh, Play, Learn and Work Together!"

Saturday, May 21, was an inspirational, happy day for TBA's Adult Hebrew Class members who became B'nei Mitzvah. A special shout-out to our Sisters on their Bat Mitzvah: Carol Carswell, Karen Feller, Melanie Friedman, Maril Levy, Carole Meshil, Debbie Schmidt, Carol Sleeper, Arline Slifkin, CK Tenenbaum, and Linda Wolfe. Mazel Tov ladies!

TBA, as a Tikkun Olam effort, has adopted The Store House Food Pantry on 430 Center Street in Jupiter. The SHFP provides perishable and nonperishable food for the homeless and less fortunate in our community. Sisterhood members are invited to assist by donating food and volunteering there. On Saturday, June 11, at 9:30am, volunteers are needed to help stock the shelves with all the donated items. For more information, or to volunteer, contact Lois Remick (561-627-7736) or email me (lorem47@bellsouth.net).

Last, but certainly not least, Sisterhood wishes all TBA fathers a very Happy Father's Day. We hope you are treated great on your special day!

ONE OF TBA'S VALUES IS TIKKUN OLAM

Mark Slifkin

TBA definition: Social Responsibility. Accepting our need to repair the world around us through social action and acts of tzedakah.

Temple Beth Am members continue to go above and beyond to engage in social outreach within the community, partnering with organizations like St. George's Soup Kitchen. One of many Google found definitions: "A Jewish concept defined by acts of kindness performed to perfect or repair the world."

OK, so how do TBA congregants participate? We have many congregants who participate behind the scenes to fulfill their Tikkun Olam commitment. These congregants represent TBA in the endeavors in our community. Such as:

- A bin in our lobby for an ongoing food drive which is delivered to the local Food Pantry on Center Street;
- Every third Monday we prepare meals for hundreds at St. George's Soup Kitchen;
- TBA annual High Holy Days Food Drive benefiting Jewish Family and Children's Service;
- Thanksgiving meals donated and delivered by TBA and The One School preschool families for families in need identified by MyClinic of Jupiter;
- TBA has joined forces with the Store House Food Pantry of Jupiter, an interfaith community food pantry as well as a neighborhood collection center for the Palm Beach County Food Project;
- NIK (Nutrition In A Knapsack) operated by Cros Ministries and supported by local churches and TBA serve 125 children at Jupiter Elementary School;
- Support for Pinnacle Kids which supplies nutritional food to lower income children of local elementary schools.

Can you help fulfill your Tikkun Olam Social Responsibility? Give Carol Sleeper a call and she will direct you to the proper contact.

THE TEMPLE BETH AM FOOD PANTRY

TBA has joined efforts with other local clergy in Jupiter and Tequesta to secure a location for a much needed Food Pantry. The current pantry, Store House Food Pantry, is located at 430 Center Street in Jupiter. It has been solely operated by the Christian Family Church one day a week (Sundays from 11:45am- 1:00pm) but will soon be expanding its days and hours to serve even more of our most needy neighbors right here in our community. The Food Pantry has refrigeration, freezers and plenty of storage.

BRIDGES

PINNACLE KIDS

Another project we are involved with is Pinnacle Kids; a non-profit to help fill the hunger gap at schools with a "poor" population. Through this program we will be supplying health bars to teachers so they can supplement the nutritional needs of children who appear hungry and lethargic due to a lack of food. We are asking for boxes of health bars to distribute to teachers in underprivileged neighborhoods for these undernourished children.

IT TAKES A VILLAGE TO HELP AND WE ARE REACHING OUT TO OUR TEMPLE COMMUNITY TO MAKE OUR SOCIAL ACTION ENDEAVORS A SUCCESS. PLEASE BE INVOLVED AND HELP WITH ANY AND ALL CAUSES WE ARE UNDERTAKING TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF LESS FORTUNATE PEOPLE.

SUMMER BOOK CLUB

CK Tenenbaum

Our Book Club is meeting during the summer months:

NEXT MEETING: MONDAY, JUNE 6th at 10:30am at Temple Beth Am
BOOK SELECTION & DISCUSSION: The Remains of the Day, by Kazuo Ishiguro
LUNCH: Berry Fresh Café, 3755 Military Trail (at Frederick Small Road)
RSVP: For discussion &/or lunch afterwards cktenenbaum@gmail.com or 561-744-3010

Kazuo Ishiguro's classic "is a profoundly compelling portrait of the perfect English butler and of his fading, insular world postwar England." The butler who "sacrificed body and soul" embarks on a country drive, during which he looks back over his career to reassure himself that he has served humanity by serving 'a great gentleman'. But lurking in his memory are doubts about the true nature of his Lord's greatness and graver doubts and misgivings about his own faith in the man he served."

JULY MEETING DATE: MONDAY, JULY 11TH (2nd Monday)
BOOK SELECTION & DISCUSSION: The All Girls Filling Station, by Fannie Flagg
LUNCH: Duffy's Sports Grill of Jupiter West, Jupiter West Plaza, West Indiantown Rd.
RSVP: For discussion &/or lunch afterwards cktenenbaum@gmail.com or 561-744-3010

"Mrs. Sookie Poole of Point Clear, Alabama, has just married off the last of her daughters and is looking forward to relaxing and perhaps traveling with her husband, Earle. The only thing left to contend with is her mother, the formidable Lenore Simmons Krackenberry. Lenore may be a lot of fun for other people, but is, for the most part, an overbearing presence for her daughter. Then one day, quite by accident, Sookie discovers a secret about her mother's past that knocks her for a loop and suddenly calls into question everything she ever thought she knew about herself, her family, and her future. Sookie begins a search for answers that takes her to California, the Midwest, and back in time, to the 1940s, when an irrepressible woman named Fritzzi takes on the job of running her family's filling station. Soon truck drivers are changing their routes to fill up at the All-Girl Filling Station. Then, Fritzzi sees an opportunity for an even more smashing adventure. As Sookie learns about the adventures of the girls at the All-Girl Filling Station, she finds herself with new inspiration for her own life."

Please join us. We will confirm dates for other summer meetings on June 6th. Please let me know if you plan to attend our next meeting or need information about our Book Club or book selections during the summer. We look forward to seeing you.

OPEN LETTER FROM OUR NEW DIRECTOR OF YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

Amanda Feld, Director of Youth Engagement

Shalom! My name is Amanda Feld and I am pleased to announce that I am the new Director of Youth Engagement! This position holds a lot of exciting opportunities pertaining to the children of our congregation in hopes of creating a warm and welcoming space for all ages.

I spent my childhood living in Massachusetts and participated in youth activities as a member of Temple Isaiah in Lexington, Massachusetts. Not only was I an active board member of my youth group, I also attended NFTY- Northeast events as often as I could to build memorable friendships and valuable life skills. After graduating high school, I attended Hofstra University and obtained my degree in Bachelors of Business Management. With that, I drove down to Florida to find my niche in the world and to enjoy life without snow!

Working at the new JCC preschool in Palm Beach Gardens and different customer service positions, I struggled to find the career that allowed me to make a meaningful impact in the community. Until I found Temple Beth Am.

I started working at Temple Beth Am in September as a Shalom Chai teacher and substitute at the Religious School. In January, I was given the opportunity to become more involved at Temple Beth Am and began to work with our youngest students of the Religious School on a regular basis and with the teens as a youth advisor. Over time, my relationship with the children here at Temple Beth Am grew to a point where I decided I wanted to start my career to increase my relationship with them as well as strengthen their relationship with the Temple. I grew up having my Temple as a second home and I have always appreciated the memories I made with the friends and staff who helped shape my Jewish identity.

In this position I plan to use my experience and memories from my Temple growing up as well as my business education to increase the participation of our children as they build leadership, social and personal skills that they can implement in their everyday lives. This includes our high schoolers (JAMTY), middle schoolers (JAMTY Jr.), elementary school (Cochavim), and, hopefully in the future, an active community for our younger kids, as well. I will work closely with the board of JAMTY and our families to find a safe, smooth and organized way that our children, just like me, find their second home here at Temple Beth Am.

I look forward to meeting everyone as I begin this new chapter and work with a great group of staff, children, and parents to design memorable years ahead. Please feel free to contact me at afeld@templebetham.com if you have any questions or would like to meet.

SOCIAL ACTION: ST. GEORGE'S SOUP KITCHEN

Lauren Weinstein & Eric Weiner

Temple Beth Am volunteers prepare and serve hot, healthy dinners to the needy at St. George's Center in Riviera Beach. On the 3rd Monday of each month we need 10 to 12 volunteers to assist in cooking and/or serving the meals. We meet at St. George's, 21 West 22nd St, from 4:45pm to 6:30pm.

If you have not volunteered at this worthy cause...give it a try. It is very rewarding. Several of our "regular" volunteers are away for the summer, so even if you have one free evening this summer, we can use your help.

Please help the soup kitchen by dropping off boxes of penne pasta or elbow macaroni (no substitutions) one week before the soup kitchen. Your donation of pasta will help feed the hungry.

A special thank you to our May 16th volunteers: Bob Feller, Lois Prokocimer, Ralph Van Baalen, The Blatt Family, Michael Kenna and Myrna & Murry Abramowitz.

St. George's is also looking for volunteers to help serve the luncheon meal. This is served from Monday through Saturday, 11:30am - 12:30pm. Please contact Cindy Ryan at cryan@stgeorges.org to volunteer for LUNCHES.

To volunteer with Temple Beth Am for DINNERS contact Lauren Weinstein, luvbanjo@gmail.com or Eric Weiner, ericmweiner@gmail.com. Our next dates will be Monday, June 20 and July 18. Please email us with any questions.

BAT MITZVAH OF MAYA VOORHEES

We are proud and excited that our daughter, Maya Lynne, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on June 4, 2016. Maya is a 7th grade communications student at Bak Middle School of the Arts. She has always loved being creative and expresses herself through writing and photography.

Maya belongs to the Palm Beach Photographic Center where she goes to camp during the summer and workshops during the year to hone her love of photography.

For her mitzvah project, Maya will use her creative talents to write, direct and film a video to inform educators on what it is like to be dyslexic, how they can identify students that may have reading and comprehension problems and suggest strategies that they can use in the classroom to assist these students. She will distribute to teachers and ESE coordinators in the Palm Beach County schools as well as upload it to YouTube to reach a greater audience.

Maya has been at Temple Beth Am her whole life and is a graduate of the wonderful preschool and religious school. We would like to thank all of her teachers for helping Maya learn about our culture and prepare her for her Bat Mitzvah. We are looking forward to celebrating with all our family and friends on this joyous occasion.

Maya, we are so proud of the young woman you are becoming and look forward to watching you grow.

We love you,
Mom, Dad & Connor

JUNE 2, 2016
BAT MITZVAH OF JANE BOYLAND

With pride and love, we celebrate the Bat Mitzvah of our daughter, Jane Allison that will be held in Israel on June 2nd, 2016. Having arrived new to the Palm Beach area from East Hampton, New York, Jane wasted no time embracing a new school, her new home, and new friends. Jane is on the Headmasters List at the Benjamin School and enjoys a position on the Girls varsity golf team and plays First Singles on the girls middle school tennis team.

Off the court and the course, Jane has enjoyed her Hebrew studies. (Thank you Brett and Ronit) and looks forward to continuing with Shalom Chai in the fall. Family oriented to the core, Jane loves spending time with her brother Jack (17) giving him a run for his money on the golf course, the ski slopes and especially at Lighthouse mini golf here in Jupiter. She also has a special place in her heart for her true love, Indy, (the family dog) and spends lots of time challenging him to games of tug of war with his favorite toys.

While oftentimes quiet and introspective, Janie is truly blossoming as a young adult. Her boundless energy and competitive spirit have served her well in school and on the "field" and undoubtedly will drive her to great accomplishments as she becomes a young woman.

Patsy & Andrew Boyland

B'NEI MITZVAH OF
BRANDON, ETHAN, AND HANNAH
SNYDER

It is with joy that we announce the B'nei Mitzvah of our children, Brandon, Ethan, and Hannah. They will be called to the Torah and will celebrate Havdalah on June 11, 2016 in the rolling hills beneath the mountains, and overlooking the lake, near their home in the Finger Lakes region of Western New York. Each are honor roll students entering 8th grade at the Weiss School. They are caring and involved. They play instruments, love sports and participate in groups to match their achievements, interests, as well as evolving societal mindfulness.

Alpine skiers since age 2, they commute, train and race competitively with their ski team every weekend as well as school breaks all winter. They will attend their Florida school remotely next race season to increase training time. Involved with team soccer since age 6, each are on New York summer travel teams, and also volunteer in Florida as "buddies" in a soccer program for children with special needs. They enjoy group time riding their motocross motorcycles, but each have alone time favorites: Ethan-Golf; Hannah-horses and riding; Brandon-Tennis.

Their drive in school and sports mirrors the energy they have for heritage and community. With the flexibility and efficiency of year round "facetime instruction", Hannah, Brandon, and Ethan fit 7:00am weekday only religious and Hebrew studies into their hectic, mobile and engaged lives. Desiring a memory to match their journey, and with the help of their art teacher, they have designed and hand built the Ark of the Covenant for their B'nei Mitzvah Torah (and put to good use their 8 years' supply of broken Tae Kwon Do boards).

Always extending themselves to others, and with a love of sport, a plan, and some business trips, Brandon, Ethan and Hannah have started a niche "community outreach" based on their shared experiences giving to children through soccer, and Hannah's identical experience in the stable with horses. They have successfully organized a collaboration of the New York State Youth Soccer Association, local government, ARC, and high school and college program directors and coaches, to bring a "soccer buddy" program to a population without the outlet. In addition to their "regular" schedule, summer 2016 will be the inaugural season of an organized soccer program in NY's Finger Lakes region where, with their parents temporarily filling their future shoes as directors of their charity, they will be "lead buddies" bringing soccer and new teenage friends to area youth who have not to date been readily accommodated by "traditional" leagues.

We could not be more proud of our triumvirate and the adults they are becoming.

Love,
Valerie and Craig Snyder
