NEW INITIATIVE HELPS INDIGENT HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS

by Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

At the time of Germany's unconditional surrender on May 7, 1945 there were 3 million Jews in Europe (most of them were not recognized as holocaust survivors), a third of the number before the war. My paternal grandparents were among the survivors. They didn't know each other before the war. They had lost their spouses, children, parents and siblings and were introduced to each other by someone who heard that they came from the same area in Poland. For them, as for most survivors, returning to life as it had been before the Holocaust was not an option. Jewish communities no longer existed in much of Europe, and those who tried to return to their homes from camps or hiding places found that their homes had been taken over by others. It is hard to believe, but in parts of Eastern Europe, the expected basic human reaction to the suffering, empathy and compassion towards the survivors was replaced with renewed hatred and new waves of antisemitism and pogroms.

My grandparents ended up in a displaced persons' (DP) camp in Germany, where they had my father, but didn't have anywhere to go until the establishment of the State of Israel on May 14, 1948. Officially, they are counted among the lucky ones who were able to build a new life for themselves. But recently I started to understand that even though they lived for over 30 years after the Holocaust, a large part of their souls had stopped living.

Unfortunately, many of the survivors ended up in a far worse situation, where even their basic needs of food and shelter were not met. Several months ago, when Ed Frankel told me about the staggering number of indigent survivors who live in Eastern Europe today I asked him to repeat himself, since I couldn't believe how high it was. Leah and Ed launched a new initiative when Tikva (the home for Jewish children in Odessa) began helping some 3,000 Holocaust survivors living in Odessa. Their scope goes beyond providing the aging survivors with some basic needs. They want them to feel less isolated, socialize with peers and interact with the younger generation; enjoy musical and cultural programs and become part of the Jewish community. We need to help them, too.

There is a beautiful old tradition called Maot Chitim, when Jews gather wheat to provide the poor with matzot and other items for the observance of Passover. As you start planning for your Seder I would like to encourage you to include some fellow Jews who live 6,000 miles away but are still our sisters and brothers. Let us come together as a community to enrich the lives of survivors in Odessa, by sponsoring their Passover Seder. Your donation of $18 makes Passover possible for one person. To participate please send your check to the main office with Maot Chitim in the subject line by April 3.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Carol Carswell

Can you believe it—March is here. The fiscal year (June 30) will be ending before we know it. The months fly by because there are so many exciting things going on here at Temple Beth Am.

I loved the trees up on the Bima for the Preschool Tu B'shevat program. When I first saw them from a distance, I couldn't figure out what I was seeing. They were so cute that the Rabbi left them up for Services.

Each month our Shabbat dinners get better and better. Chef Eric is amazing. Make sure you make your reservations early.

If you haven't already made reservations for Men's Club Man of the Year Breakfast, don't hesitate – make them now. You may not know Mark Slifkin (which I doubt) but you see our beautifully renovated Temple and that is all about Mark Slifkin.

On March 12, we will have our annual Purim Carnival. It is so much fun and not to be missed. Come by and say hello. I'm the lady selling tickets for rides. Prior to the Purim Carnival at 10:00am we will have a Service & Purim Shpiel and then the groundbreaking of the Brick Reflection Pathway. If you haven't purchased a brick, see page 17 to fill out the form. It is a terrific way of commemorating any life cycle event.

This year the TBA Family Passover Seder will be on the first night of Passover. That's Monday, April 10 at 6:00pm.

I'm stating this early so you can make your plans.

Enjoy March and I'll be talking to you next month.

B'Shalom,
Carol Carswell

SPRING MOVIE FESTIVAL

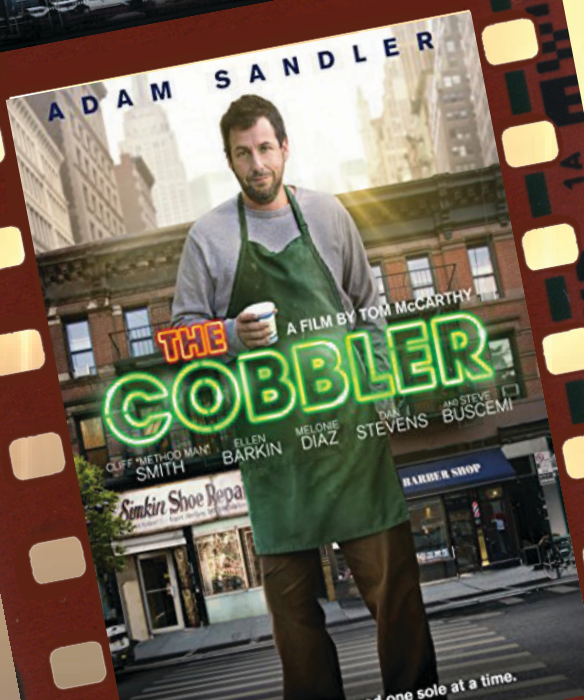

Thursday, March 2 at 7pm
Pay It Forward

Young Trevor McKinney, troubled by his mother's alcoholism and fears of his abusive but absent father, is caught up by an intriguing assignment. The assignment: think of something to change the world and put it into action. Trevor conjures the notion of paying a favor not back, but forward--repaying good deeds not with payback, but with new good deeds done to three new people. Trevor's efforts to make good on his idea bring a revolution not only in the lives of himself, his mother and his physically and emotionally scarred teacher, but in those of an ever-widening circle of people completely unknown to him.

The Angriest Man in Brooklyn

Some people have bad days. Henry Altmann has one every day. Always unhappy and angry at the world including everyone in it, Henry sits impatiently at the doctor's office when he is finally seen by Dr. Sharon Gill. Sharon, who is enduring her own bad day, reveals that Henry has a brain aneurysm. This news makes Henry even angrier, yelling at Sharon he demands to know how much time he has left. Faced with Henry's anger and insults, Sharon abruptly tells him he has only 90 minutes. Shocked and reeling by this news, Henry storms out of the office leaving Sharon stunned by what she has just done in a lapse of judgment. As Sharon goes on a city-wide search, Henry struggles with his diagnosis, determined to make amends with everyone he has hurt in his life.

JOIN THE TBA BOOK CLUB

Thanks to all of you who participated in our most recent Book Club meeting on Monday, February 6th. We had a very interesting and often moving discussion about THE CENTER CANNOT HOLD: MY JOURNEY THROUGH MADNESS by Elyn Saks.

Our next meeting will be on Monday, March 6th at 10:30am at the synagogue when we will be discussing: DOUGH by Mort Zachter - The author's childhood revolved around a small, struggling shop on Manhattan's

Lower East Side that sold bread and pastries. His was a classic story—a close-knit, hard-working family struggling to make it in America. Only they were very rich. At age thirty-six, after struggling to work his way through night school, Zachter discovered that his bachelor uncles, who ran the shop, had amassed millions of dollars in stocks and bonds. As he starts to clean out their apartment, Zachter discovers clues to their hidden lives that raise more questions than they answer. And in the end, he comes to realize that although he may not understand his family—and maybe never will—forgiveness and acceptance are what matter most.

After our discussion, please join us for lunch at the Garden City Café, Plaza La Mer, 805 Donald Ross Road, Juno Beach.

I would appreciate it if you would let me know (ediewolf@gmail.com or 443-223-9729) whether you are coming to the Book Club and whether you will join us for lunch.

The upcoming schedule is:
March 6, 2017:

MAN OF THE YEAR

BY BRUCE COHEN, MENS CLUB PRESIDENT AND HAL BASEMAN, MASTER OF CEREMONIES

Curious about this picture? Where did it come from? What does it mean? Is there something we don't know?

Are all of those Men's Club breakfast legends true? Who will finally prevail in the epic old Jewish man vs. bagel and lox battle?

Save the Date... Tuesday, March 7. Sisterhood members are invited to attend our Annual Program Planning meeting at 1:00pm at TBA. Not only are you invited, but you are needed to give ideas on what programs and events you would like to attend on the 2017/2018 Sisterhood Calendar. See you on March 7.

For all who have attended our series on Constructive Aging, we hope you will join us on March 13 at 1:30pm as we conclude this series of discussions. Please call Linda Wolfe at 561-406-2048 to reserve your seat at the March session. The cost is $5 for refreshments.

For those who would enjoy painting a picture or a wine glass, sipping wine and munching goodies, we are planning an Uptown Gallery Art Party in either May or July. The cost will be from $20-$25 depending on the date and type of Painting. An ad will be in the April Scribe with the event date and time.

Sisterhood thanks all those members who volunteered to make our Membership Luncheon, Sisterhood Shabbat, and the upcoming Purim Carnival successful.

Volunteers are the backbone of Sisterhood and your time, talent and participation is appreciated.

The Knitting Club, under the direction of Leona Usher, has resumed. Please call Leona at 561-694-0290 to get further information and see page 11. Thanks for your leadership, Leona.

Due to the second semester required reading of a student that I tutor, I have been treated to reading some of the best short stories written. From the dark, dank catacombs of the "Cask of Amontillado," by Poe, to the twisting wilderness of the Natchez Trace in Eudora Welty's, "A Worn Path," I alternately felt surprise and relief as these stories' plots twisted and turned.

While you may suffer insomnia after reading Shirley Jackson's "The Lottery," or you may be repulsed after a read of "A Visit of Charity," by Welty, these stories are a treasure of writing that have been read by generations. While, due to its length, "La Grande Breteche," is not a short story, Balzac's ability to transport his readers to an unfamiliar time and place gives this a must in your readings by this author.

All of these stories mentioned can be read online and some, as in the case of Eudora Welty's "The Worn Path," are on audio and are read to you by the author.

Summer months are a great time to discover these short stories and, in each author's case, there are so many more short stories they've written that await you.

Bonne lecture a vous.

MAZEL TOU!

BAR MITZVAH OF LIAM RODGERS

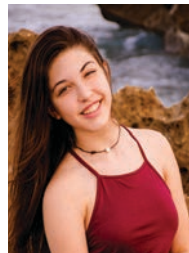

How delighted and lucky we feel to announce that our son Liam Isaiah Rodgers will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on March 4, 2017 at Temple Beth Am.

Liam is a seventh grader at Jupiter Middle School. Liam is quiet and thoughtful, and has a very tight-knit group of friends that he enjoys spending time with. They go to the beach, the mall, to each other's houses; wherever and whenever they can! He likes to play football, catch fish, and spend time playing intricate video games that his parents don't understand. Liam is very artistic, has a great eye, and enjoys things that work his mind, especially Rubik's cubes, card tricks, and painting.

Liam's mitzvah project grew out of his love for art. He is bringing the Butterfly Project to Temple Beth Am. This project is a call to action through the arts. It is a simple, powerful way to educate people about the dangers of hatred and bigotry through the painting of ceramic butterflies, permanently displayed around the world. Each butterfly memorializes one of the 1.5 million children who perished in the Holocaust. Liam read the biography of Renate Engers to his class. Renate was a Jew born in Germany in 1933, the year Hitler came to power. Her whole family was sent to a camp where they were worked to death. With this story in mind, Liam and his class painted ceramic butterflies, which will eventually be displayed in the new youth lounge. Liam's butterfly installation will be part of a worldwide effort. The goal is to reach 1.5 million butterflies displayed around the world, a global memorial symbolizing renewed life.

We would especially like to thank Rabbinic Intern Brett Tancer (The Kid Whisperer), Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, and Cantor Jessica Turnoff Ferrari for each bringing something unique to Liam's Bar Mitzvah training, and for leading him through this remarkable process. We are so looking forward to this mitzvah!!

Shari and LeRoy Rodgers

BAT MITZVAH OF BAILEY NATHAN

It is with great happiness and excitement that we announce that our daughter, Bailey Caroline Nathan, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday March 11, 2017 at Temple Beth Am.

Bailey is a 7th grade honor roll student at Independence Middle School in the Business academy. Bailey is a travel soccer player, a talented writer, and has always been incredibly creative. Most of all, Bailey has a wonderful caring spirit and her smile and enthusiasm for life lights up a room.

Bailey's big heart and compassion has led her to volunteer and raise money for Furry Friends for her Bat Mitzvah project. Bailey has been working to get abandoned dogs adopted by bringing the dogs to pet stores and festivals to get more exposure in the hopes that someone will adopt them. She has also raised money for Furry Friends through bake sales and yard sales.

We want to thank all the people who have helped Bailey to prepare for her special day, Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, Rabbinic Intern Brett Tancer, and Cantor Jessica Turnoff Ferrari. They are an amazing team and have helped make this a wonderful experience.

Bailey, our hearts are filled with love and pride... and along with your brother Jack, we congratulate you on all your amazing accomplishments. We can't wait to celebrate with you!

BAR MITZVAH OF JASON DOBULER

We are so happy to announce the Bar Mitzvah of our son, Jason Shawn Dobuler, on March 18, 2017 at Temple Beth Am.

Jason is a 7th grader at Independence Middle School, where he attends the SciQuest Academy, anchors on the news (WIMS), and is fortunate to go to school with many of his friends that he met in preschool. Jason enjoys his time with family, friends, and his dog Wookie that he got from A Second Chance Pet Rescue. Jason also has a talent for video and photo editing, and has attended Benjamin TV & film camp every summer.

We want to thank Rabbinic Intern Brett Tancer, Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, Sherrie Kesselman, Cantor Jessica Turnoff Ferrari and all of Jason's Temple Beth Am teachers for helping him prepare for the big day. We would also like to thank Jason's grandma Linda Wolfe for passing on the Jewish traditions and food in our family.

Along with Jason's sister Allison, we want to congratulate Jason on this wonderful accomplishment and milestone.

Shari & Hedley Dobuler

BAT MITZVAH OF NIKKI LEIBOVICH

We are filled with great pride, love, and happiness to announce that our daughter, Nikki Leibovich, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, March 25, 2017 at Temple Beth Am.

Nikki is an eighth grade student at Franklin Academy in Palm Beach Gardens. She is excited to graduate middle school in June and attend Jupiter High School in September. Nikki's main interests include skateboarding, soccer, hanging out with friends and sushi. The highlight of her year is attending Camp Weequahic, a summer camp located in Lakewood, Pennsylvania. She was excited to be awarded her 5-year jacket and she will attend her seventh consecutive summer in 2017. Her plans are to continue her summers at Camp Weequahic and eventually become a camp counselor.

Nikki loves animals, and she has two pet rabbits, named Papa and Batman. For her Bat Mitzvah project, she chose the Busch Wildlife Sanctuary in Jupiter. The Busch Wildlife Sanctuary is dedicated to the protection and conservation of Florida's wildlife and natural resources. The rescue and rehabilitation program provides comprehensive medical care to over 5,000 sick, injured, and orphaned wild animals each year. Their main goal is to return recovered animals to their natural habitats. Nikki will help raise awareness, money, and coordinate wish list items for the animals at the sanctuary.

Nikki is thrilled to share her special Bat Mitzvah day with her brother Brandon and all of her family and friends. A very special thanks to Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, Rabbinic Intern Brett Tancer, the Temple teachers, and staff for all of their help as Nikki learned Hebrew, Jewish heritage and values, and prepared her for this important milestone in her life.

Nikki has grown to become a magnificent young lady. We are ever so proud of her marvelous accomplishments and beautiful character!

Steve Leibovich

BAT MITZVAH OF SOPHIE TOWERS

We are filled with tremendous pride and joy that our daughter, Sophia Renee Towers, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, March 25th, 2017 at Temple Beth Am.

While attending 7th grade at Independence Middle School, Sophia is developing into an impressive, multi-faceted young woman. She is gregarious and prolific; wise beyond her years and unfailing in times of need. She balances her excellent grades and passion for sand and indoor volleyball which she has been playing for several years. Expressing herself through photography and art is a cherished hobby, but you may also find her watching or playing football with her brother and dad. Sophia is also a caring big sister to her brother, Harrison. Her nurturing and empathetic disposition are a few of the reasons little ones are drawn to her; a natural segue to her love of babysitting.

She is wonderful with all animals but has a special place in her heart for dogs. She has been great teaching our dog, Lucy, some new tricks! Sophia is adventurous and always willing to try something new. She is ready at a moment's notice for a fun day of shopping, going to the movies, hitting the beach, making music videos or spending time with her friends.

Sophia is beyond excited to celebrate her Bat Mitzvah day with her family and friends. We are so proud of the hard work she has put forth preparing for this special day. It warms our hearts thinking about all of the wonderful possibilities that life has to offer her.

We would like to thank Rabbinic Intern Brett Tancer for his committed time in helping to prepare Sophia for her Bat Mitzvah. A special thank you to Rabbi Alon Levkovitz and the entire Temple Beth Am family for your love and support toward our family throughout the years.

Identity - When Does It Start?

When does cultural awareness begin in children, and how can we help them develop positive awareness and acceptance of others? The foundation of self-awareness begins when children are infants and toddlers. Children learn "what is me," and "what is not me." Toddlers are sensitive to the feelings of the adults around them, and they begin to mimic adult behavior. By age two, children already recognize and explore physical differences. They are also learning the names of colors, and they begin to apply this to skin color. Natural curiosity will lead to questions about differences. As every parent eventually discovers, first-hand experiences are the best method for teaching little ones. Nurturing children's awareness, understanding, and appreciation for racial and cultural diversity is no exception.

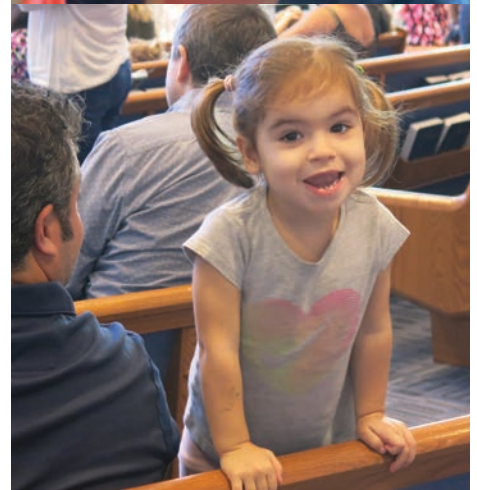

In reality, the most influential factor to the formation of children's diversity attitudes is - parents. What parents say and do are a child's first model for acceptable ways of treating and interacting with others. It is the parent's responsibility to ensure children have meaningful multicultural experiences with family, friends, childcare, school, places of worship and other aspects of community life. If you want to nip prejudice in the bud, don't let your child ever insult or tease anyone because of race, gender, or ethnicity. Make it a family rule that you cannot reject other people for who they are.

You can begin to battle the influence of bias in our culture by teaching your toddler to value differences. One way to start is by encouraging your child to appreciate and be proud of his or her own uniqueness. Giving children opportunities to encounter the realities and value of uniqueness is the first step to teaching children about diversity. Talk to your children about their names, family history or culture. Share stories of people—family members, historical figures, or contemporary role models—from your ethnic group of whom you feel proud. This can build an appreciation of your child's cultural heritage.

Children will naturally and joyfully play together. Reach beyond your cultural borders to create a positive, welcoming and inclusive community. There is absolutely no doubt that today's children will live a long life in a diverse world. Our job as parents is to foster the appreciation of human diversity.

Memorial Plaques

How can you honor your deceased love one?

By placing your loved one's name on the Memorial Board in the Sanctuary.

When you do this, a light on their plaque will be lit on their Yahrzeit (anniversary of their death) and their name will be read from the Bimah.

Their light will also be lit on Yom Kippur and their name will always be included in the Yizkor Book during the High Holy Days.

Even when you are gone, your loved one will not be forgotten. Plaques are $500.

Call the Temple at 747-1109 to place your order.

Cemetery Plots

Did you know that as a benefit of Temple membership, you can purchase cemetery plots for yourself and your family at a significantly discounted price? Temple Beth Am has reserved a limited number of cemetery plots in the Garden of Abraham section at IJ Morris at Star of David Cemetery of the Palm Beaches off Northlake Blvd.

Today, if you were to purchase a plot directly from Star of David, the price will be $3,995. As a benefit of your Temple membership, you can purchase cemetery plots for you and your family at a discounted price of $3,195. Please note that this price is for a plot only.

Remember, the number of plots is limited so if you wish to take advantage of this benefit of membership and purchase a plot, please contact Margot in the Temple office at 561-747-1109 and she will gladly help you. Or, you can call Paula Butger directly at Star of David Cemetery of the Palm Beaches (she works with us) to see what plots are still available and to do pre-need planning, if desired. You can reach her on her cell at 561-252-7071 to set up an appointment.

TEMPLE BETH AM'S CONCERT SERIES

Our 3rd annual concert featured the outstanding music of "Missy Raines" and her band

"The New Hip" on Jan. 21, 2017 in our beautiful new sanctuary.

The band performed to a welcoming audience and was enjoyed by all. Her music was a collection of acoustic, vocals, jazz and contemporary original works.

A donation from the proceeds will be made to the TBA Music Fund.

We hope to invite them back again next year.
