Issue No. 179

“Without its Jews France would not be France. This is the message we have to communicate loud and clear. We haven't done so. We haven't shown enough outrage. How can we accept that in certain schools and colleges the Holocaust can't be taught? How can we accept that when a child is asked, ‘Who is your enemy?’ the response is ‘The Jew’? When the Jews of France are attacked, France is attacked; the conscience of humanity is attacked. Let us never forget it.”

These words were taken from a profoundly poignant and honest speech given by the prime minister of France, Manuel Valls, before the National Assembly several days ago. Similarly powerful and uncompromising messages were delivered by the leaders of Germany, England and Denmark. But at the same time, anti-Semitism in Europe is skyrocketing. In January, four Jewish men were killed in a kosher supermarket in Paris, two days after the ruthless attack on the Charlie Hebdo magazine that left 12 people dead. Last Shabbat felt like a nightmarish déjà vu, when during a Bat Mitzvah celebration a man attacked a synagogue in Copenhagen, killing Dan Uzan, the Jewish volunteer security guard. Hours earlier, the same man killed a Danish filmmaker for committing the sin of blasphemy. On the same weekend, hundreds of Jewish graves were desecrated in a cemetery near Strasbourg, France. Last May, a man shot four people dead in a Jewish museum in Brussels. In 2012, a man and three children were shot dead at a Jewish school in Toulouse. The latest report from Britain shows that 2014 had the highest number of anti-Semitic incidents ever recorded. In London, for example, the Metropolitan police recorded a 120% rise in anti-Semitic crime.

European leaders say the right things, and we should be grateful for that, yet the reality is that 70 years after the liberation of Auschwitz, people are being murdered simply because they are Jewish.

In light of the latest events, Benjamin Netanyahu, Israel's Prime Minister, called the Jews of Europe to leave their countries and move to Israel. If that option existed in the 1930s the destiny of millions of Jews would have been different. But the Jews of Europe, as much as they love Israel, still see France, England and Denmark as their home. In the words of the Journalist Claire Berlinski: “I am Jewish. I am in France. And I am not leaving—not because of a handful of terrorist swine, and not even if there's an army of them. This family of Jews will not be driven out of Europe twice. And as far as I'm concerned, the response a Jew should have to this outrage is the one we should have had before—when up against a far more fearsome enemy. We may die, but we'll die fighting, and you'll be amazed how many of you we take down with us.”

Here is the good news. In the U.S., anti-Semitism has been consistently declining since the early 90s. The latest ADL report from 2014 shows a 19% drop in anti-Semitic incidents in 2013 when compared to the previous year. I read that because of a new mutation in the dominant flu virus, this year's flu vaccine is only 23% effective. Anti-Semitism, like the virus, has not been eradicated because of its ability to change and mutate. But we must remember that though we cannot destroy all strains of anti-Semitism, we can still defeat many.

B'Shalom,

Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Mark Slifkin

CONGRATULATIONS AND THANK YOU: Congratulations to Ron & Edie Wolf on Ron's election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame – Definitely earned and well deserved. Thank you to Ellen Vargas and Carol Sleeper and all the volunteers for a fantastic 3rd annual Shabbaton – what a great event with over 200 attending including 19 families who camped overnight under the coordination of Paul & Fredda Steidle. Thank you to Nate & Amy Dalton for donating an ambulance to Israel through AFMDA (American Friends of Magen David Adom) in memory of his mother, Cecile Kaplan Dalton. Congratulations to All!

OFFICE AUTOMATION: I mentioned in the last Scribe to stay tuned for some important upgrades in our office procedures. In the May Scribe, Melanie Goldsobel will be announcing TBA members upcoming 'on-line' access and ability to: register for Religious School; sign up for TBA events; Volunteer; update your family record; etc. and yes, pay TBA invoices. All behind a very secure on-line site hosted by our financial database vendor.

SAVE THE DATE: For those who attended “Fiddler on the Roof” at the Maltz Theater (with over 200 Temple Beth Am members), this was only the beginning of a working relationship/partnership between the Maltz Theater and TBA. Our next program with the Maltz Theater will be on JANUARY 2, 2016 at 8:00pm. I know that seems like a long way off but watch in the next Scribe for ticket information. The show will star our own Cantor Jessica and the Joe Scott Trio performing “Jewish Life In Music”. Let's show Cantor Jessica and the Maltz Theater our support and exceed the number of members who supported our venture to see “Fiddler on the Roof”.

TOWN HALL MEETING: If you were not there on February 22, 2015 you missed the opportunity to ask Rabbi & me questions as well as receive updates about your Temple. You also missed the Men's Club bagels, etc. (Thank you Men's Club for the delicious breakfast. We can always count on you when it comes to food!) Since we all know food is a key to our Jewish culture you will get another chance at the Annual Congregational Meeting, May 3, 2015 at 9:30am (this is also the last day of Religious School) or you can call me and I will gladly provide an update.

VOLUNTEERING: Volunteering is a basic tenant of Jewish life and the foundation of TBA's Core Values of Kulanu: Chesed, Tikkun Olam, Acceptance and Giving Voice – All of Us Together. We have established a Volunteer Recognition Program to recognize and thank all TBA members who have volunteered. If you volunteered this fiscal year you should receive your invitation via mail to our upcoming Volunteer Recognition Breakfast on April 11, 2015.

SPRING DRIVE: By the time you read this Scribe, you should have received this year's Spring Drive pledge card. Your pledge is critical to enabling TBA to bring programming and services to our community. Please do not confuse the Spring Drive with your Voluntary Financial Commitment for your July 1, 2015 – June 30, 2016 membership renewal. The Spring Drive Pledge is NOT your Fiscal Year 2015/2016 membership renewal. Your membership renewal will be mailed out to you in late May.

Our Board member names are always listed in the Scribe – talk to them anytime about your thoughts, suggestions and ideas – our tag line ALL OF US TOGETHER only works if we have YOUR input!

Scribe articles are great and contain interesting tidbits about TBA – enjoy them. Call me at 561-222-8350 if you have ANY questions or just wish to chat. Email works also: mslifkin7@comcast.net.

VOLUNTEER!

Carol Sleeper, Director of Engagement, Programming & Membership

If you have been members for a long time or a short time please know we'd love to see you or hear from you. Temple Beth Am provides lots of different programming and events from all different sources for all different age groups. Sometimes even our most active congregants don't realize how much is going on!

What's one of the best ways to enjoy these programs and events? Volunteer! It helps make the programs more meaningful to you. Volunteering comes in all shapes and sizes. Give a little chunk of time and see how good it can feel. It can be something that you think of as a small thing, like calling your friends and asking them to go with you to an event, or volunteering to greet people before an adult education class, or you can volunteer to participate for an hour at the Purim Carnival. You don't realize what an impact it makes. Even if you can't make it to a program you can still help out from the comfort of your own home by making a few phone calls to let others know about a special event, or sharing your expertise and planning skills. Your input and your participation is invaluable. Think of it as your own personal mitzvah projects. Opportunities are limitless and always appreciated.

Please call me, email me (csleeper@templebetham.com) or come by the office to visit if you'd like to find out more about volunteering or if you have any suggestions for Temple Beth Am. I'd love to help you help make TBA even better.

SISTERHOOD SCOOP

Lois Remick

In 1978, a Sonoma County School District (California) decided to celebrate the historical and social contributions of America's women. By 1980, and with President Carter's slip of the pen, the week of March 8th became National Women's History Week. But why settle for a week when you can have the whole month and that is what Congress passed by resolution in 1986.

Thus, in anticipation and celebration of Women's History Month, the Sisterhood is excitedly planning the Sisterhood Shabbat for February 27th (a little earlier than March). With the help of Rabbi Alon, Brett Tancer, Cantor Jessica and our many singing sisters, a wonderful Shabbat Service can be enjoyed by all of TBA. Sangria and munchies will precede the evening Service and homemade desserts will complete it. The Pre-Shabbat Reception begins at 6:00pm and the Service begins at 7:00pm. Thanks to all who participate to make it happen!

Sisterhood is sponsoring the Pony Rides at the Annual Purim Carnival on March 8th, so buy your children tickets at the Carnival for this fun event. We are also asking Sisterhood members to sign-up to volunteer at the Carnival. Sisterhood members will be working the indoor games in hour-long shifts. Please call Lois Remick at 627-7736 to volunteer.

A MUST to put on your calendar is Sunday, March 15th at noon for our Ladies' Event: Movie and Lunch at the Temple. We are sponsoring a dairy lunch and a great movie, "Arranged". Cost of this terrific afternoon is $10 per person.

Please see the flyer in this Scribe about this afternoon special event and send your check to the Temple made out to Temple Beth Am Sisterhood. All Temple women and their friends are invited to attend this event.

Also, plan on joining Sisterhood for a fabulous trip to the Wick Theatre and Museum on Thursday, April 16th. Carpools will be formed at the Temple promptly at 9:30am to ride down to the Wick Museum in Boca Raton for a tour of the theatre and costumes, with lunch at the museum's Tavern included. The cost is $45 per person. This adventure is open to all Temple members and their friends.

Please see the Wick Theatre and Museum flyer in this Scribe. Fill in the details on the bottom of the flyer's cut off and send it with your check to Temple Beth Am. Please make checks payable to Temple Beth Am Sisterhood.

We want to remind all Temple members that they may purchase
Flowers for the Bimah by calling Judy Goldstein at 747-3888.

All your simchas, not just B'nei Mitzvot, can be celebrated (baby naming, anniversary, retirement, big-birthday, etc.) by decorating our Bimah with beautiful flowers.

This is one more way you are able to support the programs of our Temple.

THE THIRD ANNUAL SHABBATON: A HUGE SUCCESS

Ellen Vargas

On Saturday, February 7th, Temple Beth Am had its 3rd Annual Shabbaton at Jonathan Dickinson State Park in Hobe Sound. This event could not have been such a huge success without the help of dozens of hard working volunteers. We appreciate your efforts and unique contributions.

I would like to recognize and thank the following groups and their members for their assistance throughout the day of the Shabbaton. Maril Levy, Lois Remick, Mary Elias, Judy Goldstein, Sharon Holinstat, Leona Holland, Nina Nemerofsky, C.K. Tenenbaum, Debbie Baseman, Carole Levine, Debbie Schmidt, and Linda Wolfe of the Sisterhood and many of their spouses for working the greeting table and helping out with the set-up and serving of food and other miscellaneous tasks. David Elias, Richard Remick, Alberto Vargas, Hal Baseman, Jack Tenenbaum, Paul Steidle, Bruce Cohen, Eric Weiner, Gideon Kroyter and Jerry Holinstat of the Men's Club and many of their spouses for loading and driving the truck, cooking and setting up the happy hour, and grilling and serving the BBQ dinner.

Thank you to our photographers Ron Holland, Brianna Steidle, Carol Sleeper and Jon Gilbert for their great pictures that you can find on our Facebook page.

Thank you to Rabbi Alon, Cantor Jessica & Brett Tancer and the 6th grade class for leading a beautiful and spiritual Shabbat Service. Brett also provided the wonderful music throughout the day. Paula Deakter of The One School for providing arts and crafts for the kids and making coffee for breakfast. Nina and Amanda Gelman for providing arts and crafts for all ages. Raleigh Hahn and Rachel Ruiz of the Religious School for setting up the family games. Cantor Jessica Turnoff Ferrari for introducing us to her mindful meditation.

Thanks to Paul and Fredda Steidle for organizing the camping aspect of the Shabbaton, thanks to Mike Deakter for everything he does while we are camping, and thanks to Paul Steidle and David Sherman for going to Costco to buy the innumerable supplies. Also to Fredda Steidle and Risa Voorhees for helping to set up the cookie trays. Forrest Sleeper and Gideon Kroyter for supervising the fishing. Nurse Rochelle Abrams for being our on site first aid provider.

Thank you also to the individual volunteers who helped with miscellaneous tasks: Jeremy Ben-Israel, John Propper, Dana Foster and Melanie Goldsobel. Many thanks to John Marzina and Eric Weiner for all their prep-work in the kitchen on Friday. Also, thanks to our youngest volunteers Ben Levkovitz and Maxx Lowy for handing out the glow sticks for Havdallah. Another special thank you to Mary Elias for her terrific road-side signage and pavilion signs that kept us from getting lost. Thank you to David Elias for having the age demographic leaders call congregants to get the word out. The guys from Image, Guillermo and Ferdinand for their help during the Shabbaton. Robin Moran from Too Jay's for donating food for over 100 people. The forest rangers for waiving the park entrance fee to all our members and leading us on guided hikes.

And finally, an extra big thank you to Carol Sleeper and David Sherman who really made this event run smoothly.

All volunteers are important and essential and if we neglected to name someone who volunteered, please contact me so that you can be properly appreciated and recognized. I hope that you can all join in again for our 4th Annual Shabbaton next year.

Lustiger was appointed Archbishop in 1981 and found a new platform to celebrate his dual identity. French with English subtitles, 100 minutes.

TEMPLE BETH AM BOOK CLUB

Edie Wolf

The TBA Book Club is an informal group that meets four times a year on Mondays at 10:30am. at the Temple. We usually go out for lunch afterwards. Edie Wolf will send out email reminders of upcoming dates and the books we will read. If you have not attended the Book Club before but would like to receive email reminders about upcoming meetings, please contact Edie to give her your contact information. Any questions or suggestions may be directed to Edie at ediewolf@gmail.com or 443-223-9729.

We had a very lively discussion about Henna House by Nomi Eve in February and then had a delicious lunch at the Gallery Grille in Tequesta.

Our next Book Club meeting is on Monday, March 2 at 10:30am at the Temple when we will discuss The Museum of Extraordinary Things by Alice Hoffman. This is a story of an electric and impassioned love between two vastly different souls in New York during the volatile first decades of the twentieth century. Coralie Sardie is the daughter of the sinister impresario behind The Museum of Extraordinary Things, a Coney Island boardwalk freak show that thrills the masses. Coralie appears as the Mermaid in her father's "museum". One night Coralie stumbles upon a striking young man taking pictures of moonlit trees in the woods off the Hudson River. The dashing photographer is Eddie Cohen, a Russian immigrant who has run away from his father's Lower East Side Orthodox community and his job as a tailor's apprentice. When Eddie photographs the devastation on the streets of New York following the infamous Triangle Shirtwaist Factory fire, he becomes embroiled in the suspicious mystery behind a young woman's disappearance and ignites the heart of Coralie. [Hardcover: 384 pages]

Please RSVP to let Edie know if you will attend the March Book Club meeting and whether you plan to join us for lunch afterwards.

The book selection for the last meeting of the regular Book Club season is:

APRIL 27: WONDER OF WONDERS: A CULTURAL HISTORY OF FIDDLER ON THE ROOF – Alisa Solomon

The Power of Play:

The Benefits of a Play Based Curriculum in Preschool

Donna Wexler, M.A., CCC-SLP (Speech/Language Pathologist)

www.letscommunicate.com

Wednesday, March 4th 9:15am

Please join Donna Wexler for an educational discussion on the importance of a Play Based Curriculum in preschool and what this really means. Learning through play is a term used in education & psychology to describe how a child can learn to make sense of the world around them. Through play, children can develop social and cognitive skills, mature emotionally & gain the self-confidence required to engage in new experiences and environments. Learning occurs through play and a play-based early childhood program can support the same skills valued in programs taking a more direct instruction approach.

Ultimately, exploration and play during preschool turns us into adults who are flexible and sophisticated thinkers.

Spring will once again be sprung in March during Spring Intersession at The One School. For those families whose Spring Break is anything but a vacation, we offer an alternative to a week of "Mom, I'm bored!"

Intersession is a week-long, camp-like atmosphere with lots of fun activities and time to be a kid.

Dates: Mon, March 16–Fri, March 20th
Time: Full-time 7:30am–5:30pm or
Part-time 9:00am–2:00pm
Cost: Full-time $275 Part-time $245

PTO Night Out

We hope to see many of you at the PTO's "Casino Royale," Night Out Gala and Auction on Saturday, March 28th at 6:30pm, at the Abacoa Golf Club. All funds raised will directly benefit The One School. Come and enjoy an adults only evening to socialize with other One School parents and supporters!

Rock on, Shushan!

We hope that all you Rock Star Parents will stay and enjoy a rockin' good time at our One School Purim costume parade and Shabbat celebration on Friday, March 6th at 9am! All of our "One Schoolers" are so excited to celebrate the most festive and animated of all Jewish holidays. We've all been waiting for the opportunity to get dressed up in costume! Don't forget to send in an unopened box of macaroni—they make great graggers (noisemakers), which are a necessary ingredient for the Purim play so that we can drown out Haman's name. Afterward, all the boxes will be donated to the Temple's Food Pantry, to help feed some of our community neighbors who might otherwise go without.

In preparation for the holiday, the One Schoolers will fill shalach manot baskets which are given to others as a sign of friendship and good will.

One thing is for sure, Shushan never had Purim like at The One School!

Gratitude is for the Very Young

For those of us who worry that today's children appear grateful for nothing and entitled to everything — despite all that we do for them — grownups would do well to take note and take heart. Researchers in the relatively new field of gratitude studies are finding that thankfulness can indeed be nurtured and taught. Further, there appears to be plenty of compelling reasons to help a child along in the count-your-blessings department.

Being appreciative and thankful for what one has and what others do for us are values most parents want their children to develop as they grow. But you may wonder how and when children develop gratitude. We need to instill an attitude of gratitude. But how can we instill gratitude in children who are naturally self-centered and growing up in an entitlement-driven society?

Model Gratitude: Gratitude isn't just a lesson to be taught to children, but also an ongoing exercise in learning for parents. Children need models for positive behavior. Children express some sense of thankfulness and desire to be appreciated all the time. It is our role as parents to model appreciation and to reflect those genuine feelings back to the child. If we thank our children for various acts of kindness, they will start understanding the true meaning of thankfulness. An example is saying, "Thank you for your hug—it made me feel so happy."

Serve Others: Service can be part of a child's life from a young age. Get young kids involved in decorating thank-you notes, baking cookies for a friend or donating belongings to less fortunate children, and point out how good it feels to make someone else's day brighter.

Teach Thankful Words: Prompt children to use thankful, polite words. Children are sometimes encouraged to say please and thank you without politeness. Politeness is being conscious of other people and using your voice and actions to convey respect for them. So please and thank you means so much more with a kind voice.

Start a Family Tradition: Make gratitude a habit; examples are going around the dinner table and each say one thing you're grateful for, or reflecting on the day at bedtime, noting the small things you enjoyed. As parents, our job is to count our blessings as it relates to our lives in the here and now, and also to feel gratitude for those who came before us. We can tell our children about our ancestors on whose shoulders we stand. We are blessed by their having lived and grateful to them for doing what they did to help us reach this day. Let's tell our family stories to our children so that all of us together can count our blessings and be thankful.

Gala Honorees: Paula & Mike Deakter

Paula & Mike Deakter are being honored for their endless dedication and service to transforming both Temple Beth Am & The One School into what it has become today. They are recognized for their incredible spirit of volunteerism, kindness & friendship that they bring to the Temple Beth Am Community.

31 years ago, when their children, Rachel and Josh were young, Paula & Mike Deakter chose to make Temple Beth Am their Jewish community & home. As founding members, the Deakter family supported Temple Beth Am both spiritually & financially from the onset. They donated the land that the current building sits on and worked and volunteered in numerous ways.

Paula Deakter has worked in the field of education for 33 years. She has a Bachelor's in Special Education & Elementary Education and a Master's in Learning Disabilities. At the beginning of her time at the Temple, Paula developed the first 'Parent and Me' program. Soon thereafter, she began teaching in Temple Beth Am's Religious School and later took over as Education Director. After 19 years with the Religious School, Paula helped it to grow into a successful school of over 200 students.

Ten years ago, Paula became the Education Director of The One School at Temple Beth Am. She has led and developed the early childhood school to strive to familiarize children with values and develop hands-on and experiential curriculum in which children learn on a level that is developmentally appropriate for them. She fully appreciates what an amazing opportunity she has had to lay the foundation on which the children at The One School may build both their educational experiences and their lives.

Mike Deakter is an engineer by trade and has been involved in several business and endeavors like Oceanography, Cryogenics, a Hydrogen powered airplane and now aircraft and power turbine equipment. He is not afraid of hard work and when you get to know him you find he goes by the motto "Lead me, Feed Me, or get out of my way". Mike can be the behind scenes guy, but also can speak just about anything with expertise. He also, throughout his entire life, has always been willing to give a helping hand and he is the man to ask if you want to get something done.

Mike has been active at Temple Beth Am since the beginning. As President for three terms, Service Leader, Handyman, Chief Cook and Bottle Washer, Mike has had the opportunity to watch a community of 15 families grow into what is now considered one of the Model Temples and Model Schools in Palm Beach County and South Florida. Mike presently sits on the advisory committee to the Temple and has been an integral influence in developing the beautiful garden at The One School. His involvement in the garden includes preparing the soil, making grow boxes and planting and fertilizing the plants to name a few.

Paula & Mike are each other's true loves along with their children, children-in-law, their 4 grandchildren and finally Temple Beth Am and The One School. They are each other's love and support. They value their time with their family and friends. The Temple Beth Am & One School Communities are a richer place thanks to Paula & Mike Deakter.

BAT MITZVAH OF ROSE ANDREASSI

With great pride and joy we announce that our daughter, Rose Andreassi, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on March 7, 2015.

Rose is dedicated to being a good person and making the world a better place. She is currently enrolled in the medical program at Independence Middle School because she wants to be a doctor and help people. She is an honor student who works diligently to achieve top grades. Though currently taking a break in her sports career, she has excelled at basketball, soccer and even flag football. She likes to swim, and enjoys boogie boarding and the beach.

Rose is a wonderful big sister who looks out for her little brother, guides him and teaches him. She is a loyal friend, maintaining many life-long friendships. And she is a loving and helpful daughter.

We want to thank Rabbi Alon, Cantor Jessica, Brett Tancer and the Religious School staff for helping Rose prepare for her big day. We look forward to sharing this special occasion with our Temple Beth Am friends and family.

Tracy and George Andreassi

MARCH 14, 2015
BAR MITZVAH OF SETH RODGERS

How wonderful and fortunate it is for us to announce that our son Seth Ian Rodgers will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on March 14, 2015.

Seth is an eighth grader at Independence Middle School where he attends the Pre-Medical Sciences Honors Academy. Seth is social, funny, and loves spending time with his friends and family. He likes to play football and basketball with friends and dreams incessantly about the cars he will someday buy. He loves the Food Network and especially Guys Grocery Games! We hope he will take over shopping and cooking for the family, but we are still waiting for that.

His love of food continues, as he will travel abroad the day after his Bar Mitzvah on a school trip to Paris, France. Each summer, Seth travels to Niantic, CT for a month of beach, kayaking, family, crabbing and fishing.

Seth loves to FISH—salt water, fresh water, any kind of water. His love of fishing led him straight to his mitzvah project, where he will arrange a fishing trip for a group of blind anglers, a group he is helping to establish at the Beyond Blind Institute. You can read about his social action project at www.gofundme.com/joquu4.

Seth has logged a lot of hours with his friends at Temple Beth Am, and we appreciate all the support and friendship we've gotten from our Temple Family and from David Sherman and his amazing Religious School staff. But in preparation for this time, we would especially like to thank Brett Tancer, Rabbi Alon, and Cantor Jessica for leading him. We are looking forward to this mitzvah!!

BAT MITZVAH OF SHAYNE BROTHERS

We are proud and honored to announce that our daughter, Shayne Genna, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on March 21, 2015.

Shayne is a 7th grade Visual Arts major at Bak Middle School of the Arts. Shayne has always loved to draw. Currently her passion is digital media, which she often uses to sculpt dragons. Shayne also enjoys music. In 4th grade, she began playing clarinet. Now she is a member of the Intermediate II Band at Bak.

She has tried out a variety of sports, but soccer with JTAA – which she has played every fall since kindergarten – is her favorite sport. Additionally, Shayne has been active in her Girl Scout troop for the past eight years. One highlight was last August at Fish Eating Creek, when a baby alligator hatched out of its shell into her hands. This love for animals goes on, as Shayne has attended an equestrian program near Nashville, TN, and looks forward to further developing her riding skills.

Shayne actively participates in community service projects. She goes above and beyond in collecting monetary donations to the Girl Scout Cookies for the Military Program. She has spent many hours at the Palm Beach County Food Bank, sorting and checking food before it is distributed to local agencies. For her mitzvah project, Shayne is volunteering for Furry Friends Adoption Center and Clinic.

Shayne spends her free time with friends, family, and her pets.

A special thanks goes out to Rabbi Alon, Brett Tancer, Cantor Jessica, David Sherman, and Shayne's Religious School teachers at Temple Beth Am for all of their help in preparing Shayne for this incredible day. Shayne's older brother David and older sister Allison are very proud to see their “baby” sister become a Bat Mitzvah.

Shayne looks forward to sharing this special day with friends and family. She has worked hard in preparation for her Bat Mitzvah and we are so very proud of her. We invite our Temple family to share our joy and join us on March 21st.

BAR MITZVAH OF LOGAN DENNIS

It is with such joy and pride that we announce that our son, Logan Cory Dennis will become a Bar Mitzvah. Logan is in seventh grade at Duncan Middle School, where he attends the Finance Academy. He loves to play and watch sports, soccer, flag football and the New York Jets.

We are so proud of him and the man he has become. His contagious smile and laugh always makes us smile. His mitzvah project is working in a first grade classroom at Timber Trace Elementary School every school day for an hour and a half before he goes to middle school. He helps the teacher prepare materials for the students, and tutors the children that need extra help.

We would like to thank Mr. Sherman and the teachers at Temple Beth Am for working with and teaching Logan. Thank you to Brett for working with Logan each week and of course, Rabbi Alon and Cantor Jessica for preparing him for this transition in his life. We are looking forward to sharing our special day with our family and friends.
