Restoring the Gift to Dream and Aspire

A famous line in the Haggadah (the book we use on Passover) instructs us to see ourselves as if we were personally liberated from Egypt. It is a wonderful idea that makes us put ourselves in our ancestors' shoes, feeling their physical and mental agony and thus learning about gratitude, compassion and empathy. The poor slaves who had just been set free from Egypt were able, in time, to heal from the wounds of slavery, yet some wounds remained open and kept bleeding as long as their hearts were beating.

One of these open psychological wounds was their inability to dream and to aspire to greatness. Time and again the Israelites pleaded with God to send them back to Egypt. They were scared of the endless opportunities embodied in freedom and independence. A life of a slave is harsh, but after a while one gets used to the meager food and strenuous work and finds comfort in the familiar structure. The daily tasks and the habitual routines become the slave's entire world, leaving no space for dreams. God tried to change the Israelites with miracles, promises and threats, until He gave up.

One of the greatest Yiddish writers, I.L. Peretz, wrote a story named Bontsha the Silent. Bontsha lived unknown, in silence, and in silence he died. "He existed like a grain of sand at the rim of a vast ocean, amid millions of other grains of sand exactly similar, and when the wind at last lifted him up and carried him across to the other shore of that ocean, no one noticed, no one at all."

But when he died, there was a great excitement in Heaven. There, in paradise, two angels came bearing a golden throne for Bontsha to sit upon, and for his head a golden crown with glittering jewels. And what was the reason for the honor bestowed upon this simple poor man? Despite unspeakable suffering and being more tormented than anyone before him, "He never complained, not against God, not against man; his eyes never grew red with hatred, he never raised a protest against heaven."

At the end of the story, God tells him "Everything in Paradise is yours. Choose! Take! Whatever you want." Bontsha had but one humble request, that every morning for breakfast he would like to have a hot roll with fresh butter. Hearing this request, God and the angels bent their heads in shame. What was stolen from Bontsha, and all who live like him, was the ability to dream.

Today, in the U.S., our lives couldn't be more different from those of Bontsha and the Israelites. We have unparalleled abundance and easy access to knowledge, but do we know how to dream? Is the sky really the limit or is it more like the mere tips of our fingers?

In the book Fame Junkies: The Hidden Truths Behind America's Favorite Addiction, author Jake Halpern asked high school kids this question: "When you grow up, which of the following jobs would you most like to have?"

The results among girls were as follows:

- 9.5% Chief of a major company like General Motors,
- 9.8% Navy Seal,
- 13.6% United States Senator,
- 23.7% President of a great university like Harvard or Yale, and
- 43.4% Personal assistant to a very famous singer or movie star.

Halpern goes on to hypothesize why so many boys and girls are obsessed with fame. His research showed that kids, especially those with low self-esteem, would rather be famous than smart, strong or beautiful. I find these results to be troubling. I am far from promoting an aspiration of being famous, and it is very disturbing that so many kids can only dream of being an assistant to a celebrity, enjoying but a few sprinkles of someone else's stardust.

So, as you sit around the Passover Seder table with your family and friends, ask the question, why have so many people in the Western world lost their ability to dream, and how can we restore that God given gift?

Happy Passover, Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

ANNUAL PHONATHON HAS BEGUN

Debbie Baseman

How can YOU get your name on this page at the close of our Annual Phonathon?

This is the time of year when we do our annual fundraiser, The Phonathon. We ask our entire Temple family to come together and support this fundraising event. We need 100% of our congregation to give to this appeal. Your participation in our Phonathon is more important than the amount you give, whether it is $18 or $18,000.

The money the membership provides from dues does not cover the costs of running the Temple, paying the mortgage, utilities, taxes, professional services, etc. The Annual Phonathon was created to bridge the gap between expenses and income.

All donations to the Phonathon will be acknowledged once in the Scribe. Those who donate in the Benefactor Category (those giving over $1,800) will be acknowledged in the Scribe for 10 months.

There are 5 levels of Benefactor:

Super-Chai: Donate over $18,000*

Circle of Tzadik: Donate $10,000 to $17,999*

L'Dor V'Dor: Donate $5,400 to $9,999.

Tikkun Olam: Donate $3,600 to $5,399.

Circle of Chai: Donate $1,800 to $3,599.

Note: Super-Chai & Circle of Tzadik donors receive a parking space from July 1, 2013 – June 30, 2014.

Please give generously when your fellow congregant, a volunteer, calls and asks you to help make this fundraiser a success. Your support of our wonderful Temple is greatly appreciated!

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

For those of you who don't know, my brother has cancer. David was diagnosed ten years ago and immediately underwent surgery and experimental radiation treatment. For the last nine years he's done OK. Sure, he's had some symptoms, but David is a doctor who is used to dealing with other peoples' diseases and impairments, so he just made accommodations and soldiered on. In fact, over the past ten years David has accrued more professional accomplishments and life experiences than anyone else in my family. He travelled to Southeast Asia for a month. He spent several weeks living in a hut in a tiny village in Africa as a volunteer surgeon. Since the beginning of the summer, though, David's health issues have been quickly multiplying. He was excited to start a new chemotherapy in January, but he got the flu or some virus and ended up in the hospital instead. He's home now, but hasn't really recovered. My sister, my mother and I have been working together to try to coordinate his care so he can get healthy enough to restart the chemo. It's been draining and stressful for all of us, but at least we were each able to share the responsibility and lean on one another for support.

My mother (knock wood) is a strong, independent woman who will celebrate her 80th birthday in May. She's as sharp and active now as she ever was - so much so that I tend to forget she's aging. When Mom called me last week to tell me that her doctor thought she had breast cancer, it was an unwelcome reminder how much things can change in a second. One minute she was a member of the "team" taking care of my brother, and the next minute it looked like my sister and I were going to have to figure out how to care for Mom in South Carolina and my brother in New York.

With all that's been going on in my family, I admit I haven't been making the effort to get to Friday Night Services very often. Instead, I'd go home on Friday evening and try to relax before the next round of weekend phone calls and emails about tests and rehab and home health care. Truthfully, if it wasn't for Friday Night LIVE with Dan Nichols last week, I probably would have missed Services again. But I've loved Dan Nichols and his music since hearing him at Camp Coleman several years ago and seeing him interact with kids (especially little ones) makes me smile, so I made a point of staying for Camp Shabbat and then Friday Night LIVE.

So there I was, enjoying the Shabbat Service. Then we reached the Mi Shebeirach. Usually when we get to the prayer for healing during Services, I'm too upset to say David's name out loud. As Rabbi Alon was reading the names of the ill, though, I realized that David was on his list, but not Mom. I quickly rushed up to the front of the Sanctuary to add both their names to the prayer.

During the Oneg after Services, several people came up to me to ask after my brother and my mother. Even though I really didn't want to go into my whole tale of woe, their concern was very comforting because I could feel it was genuine. That feeling of support helped me get through an emotionally challenging weekend.

If you've read my past Scribe articles, you know I often refer to Temple Beth Am as a community. After this past weekend, I know it's true. We ARE a community. That includes all of us, whether you set foot in the Temple or not. It doesn't matter whether you know everyone's name, have dozens of friends in the congregation, or just recognize a familiar face or two. The fact is you have a really strong support system behind you, whether you know it or not. This is a congregation that helps one another.

So, thank you to everyone who expressed their concern to me over the past few days or just held my family in your thoughts. I hope to be able to do the same for you one day so that you can know how good that feels.

By the way, Mom called yesterday. Her biopsy came back clean. She's fine.

Help families in our area by bringing in something for the Head Start Food Pantry collection. Please bring in a canned good or anything else on the list any time you are at the Temple. A simple act of kindness will go a long way.

COMMENTS ON OUR SHABBATON

Dear David, Paula, Carol, Paul, Fredda, Risa and the many people who made the Shabbaton such a smashing success!

I wanted to write to thank all of you again for the wonderful, multi-generational Shabbat we spent as a synagogue last Saturday. I can honestly say that our Shabbaton was one of the most special and “connection-felt” events my family and I have ever attended at TBA. Dan Nichols was truly amazing, and he and the Cantor were a powerful duo, setting the perfect mood for the day with their spiritual and fun morning Service. It was a beautiful day away from the normal routine, really experiencing the joys of Shabbat with music, rest, “libations”, good conversation, activities, and enough food to make Royal Caribbean look chintzy. To experience that with our fellow congregants, really made for a special and memorable day.

I can only begin to imagine how much time and effort went into the planning and execution of that “home-run” of a day, and I wanted to be sure you all knew that it did not go by unnoticed or unappreciated!!!

Warmly, Julie Littky-Rubin

It was magical! Families came with their grandparents, children and dogs. There was music and laughter, a wonderful sense of community and it was so much FUN!
Carole Levine

What a spectacular way to spend the weekend: Good friends, spiritual music, incredible outdoors, delicious food, and even a keg or two of beer!
Brian Cohn

What an absolutely incredible day--The Feldman's cannot wait until next year!

Thank you all for making it such a fantastic experience.
Jackie Feldman

. . . the Vargas family thoroughly enjoyed Beth Am's Shabbaton at Johnathan Dickinson State Park . We will definitely attend it next year.
Ellen Vargas

The overnight experience was something to behold. People bouncing from campsite to campsite, kids enjoying Joey's fireside activities (by the by, Joey and Lauren were fantastic with the kids, and deserve a lot of credit for where they are taking the youth program) - the whole experience was wonderful. Next year, I hope that we get some sleep, but since that is the only thing missing...I would call it a big success!
Howard Freedland

Absolutely perfect event! We had a great time on the guided scavenger hunt, enjoyed all of the great songs and good company. The food prep was tremendous. Thank you so much! Robin, me and the kids really enjoyed the Shabbaton.
Mike Walder

I thought the Shabbaton was a great event. We were only there at the end of Saturday; I wish we could have participated more. It seemed to be a well coordinated effort. The friends, community spirit, perfect weather & beautiful natural surroundings created a special memory. I hope this becomes an annual event. Thank you to all who planned and worked to make this happen!
Best regards,
Debby Baker

SHABBATON

Thanks to ALL who worked on our recent Shabbaton – pictures may be seen on our Facebook page – check them out – there may be many but they are all worth viewing! What a blast we had in the peaceful surroundings of Jonathan Dickinson Park, and the weather was amazingly sunny and warm.

The planning committee was headed up by Risa Voorhees and Fredda & Paul Steidle. The staff members were Paula Deakter, Joey Abrin, Cantor Tanya, and David Sherman. The tireless folks who worked in the shadows were John Marzina (can we do any shindigs without John?) and Robert Voorhees, Carol Safran, Carol Sleeper, Debbie Baseman, Margot Hauser, Rich Remick, Brett Tancer, Yael Lawrence, Nina Gelman, Alfredo Montez, Pablo Ramos and, of course, Dan Nichols. Many members of the Sisterhood took the role of Shabbaton Greeters (Karen Feller, Carol Carswell, Lois & Rich Remick, Debbie Schmidt, Carole Levine, Lois & Sandy Edelstein, Dotty & Alec Wisch and Jackie Halderman) and the Park Rangers were so welcoming and informative. The Borensteins donated the sun-block and Howard Freedland the wine... All in all, a wonderful Shabbat in nature with friends & family – thank you to everyone who came and, again, to all who helped out!

See you next year at our 2nd annual TBA Shabbaton!

Yizkor Service: Last Day of Passover Monday, April 1, 2013 at 10:00am

Yizkor Services are done 4 times a year: the last day of Passover, Shavuot, Yom Kippur and Shemini Atzeret. This special Service is our way of remembering and praying for our departed loved ones. The Yizkor prayers are only permitted to be recited in the presence of others, in a community of other Jews. If you have loved ones who have passed away and you wish to say Yizkor for them, then please join us on April 1st for this Service.

MEN'S CLUB

Jerry Holinstat

This month I'm going to provide you with an update of our current events and then in the final part provide you with upcoming events. You will notice that the future events do not have dates attached, as they only include the frequency of each event. This is due in part to the fact that the Temple's calendar process does not allow for dates at this time. We will keep you posted on dates as they become available to us.

CURRENT EVENTS

On Friday, January 25th, Rabbi Alon graciously gave up his sermon for a guest speaker. The speaker was identified by the Men's Club's Vice-President of events, Harvey Silverman. Harvey worked diligently to research the speaker, Ms. Kyra Schuster, Curator of the Holocaust Museum, in Washington D.C.

Ms. Schuster's presentation was breathtaking. Through her research she discovered that the USA had sent a relatively newly trained company of 325 soldiers to Germany as replacements. These young soldiers were immediately captured by the Germans, and interned in a Concentration Camp (NOT A POW CAMP). The difference being that these young soldiers were treated as political and Jewish prisoners, and not as captured soldiers. This was against the Geneva Convention.

The Sanctuary was filled that Friday night, and you could hear a pin drop during the presentation. Again I'd like to thank Harvey Silverman for his tenacity in bringing this speaker to us.

On Saturday Night, January 26th the Men's Club arranged a dinner out at LeMetro, a French style bistro in Downtown at Abacoa. The dinner menu had three courses, and included your choice of four different entrees. The entire dinner was presented for $30 a person, all inclusive, except for libations. Everyone who I spoke to had a great time. The food was good and so was the company, a total of 36 people attended. The dinner start time was 6:30pm and it didn't end until almost 10:30pm. This event was also managed by Harvey Silverman. Great job Harv!!

UPCOMING CURRENT EVENTS

On Sunday Morning, March 10th the Men's Club is serving "Roasted Richard", for its Richard Remick, Man of the Year Roast. Rich has done many things to earn this award, which is provided by the Men's Club once a Year.

Richard, congratulations for all of your hard work, which has earned you this spotlight award. You have a lot to be proud of. I'm certain that your family is as proud of you as your many friends are, here at Temple.

Breakfast will be served at 9:30am and the Roast will begin shortly after Breakfast. Hal Baseman and Bob Feller have volunteered to be the 'Cooks' for this Roast. RSVP by March 7th. See flyer for details.

On Saturday Night, March 23rd at 6:00pm, we will be putting on our fourth Progressive Dinner. The Progressive Dinner is an evening of food and festivities! The dinner is facilitated by our own David and Mary Elias. Each of these dinners gets progressively better and they are a lot of fun to attend. Part of the fun of the evening is that you will not know what you're eating until dinner time and with whom you're going to be sharing your evening with (other than your spouse). What I especially liked about the evening was that I got to dine with new Temple members, who I personally found to be very interesting. The cost of the dinner is $25 per person, which includes appetizers, dinner with wine, and dessert. I look forward to seeing you there. Please see the full-page ad in this issue of the Scribe for more details, and reservations.

SISTERHOOD SCOOP

Lois Remick

Busy, Busy, Busy!!

That pretty much describes the last few months of fun, laughs and volunteering in the Sisterhood.

On Friday night, February 15th, Sisterhood captured your hearts in their Shabbat program, “The Diary of an American Jewish Woman”. Through the talents of Debbie Carr, our Sisterhood Shabbat Chairwoman, and participants, Brianna and Fredda Steidle, Carol Carswell, Judy Goldstein, Karen Feller, Debbie Schmidt, Millie Grackin, Marjorie Wolfson, Sue Freedland, Krayna Levit, Ceil Randell, Lauren Abrin, Gali Levkovitz and Lois Remick, we brought you the life cycle of a Jewish woman from her Bat Mitzvah to her granddaughter’s Bat Mitzvah. Cantor Tanya led us in song which added more beauty to the story. We thank all our participants for a most enjoyable Sisterhood Shabbat evening.

Paid-up Membership Brunch attendees are still raving about the food and playing Trivial Pursuit, the entertainment portion of the program. The winners of Trivial Pursuit, the table of women who called themselves the “YENTAS”, each won a $25 gift certificate (for any purchase over $40) to our Judiaca Gift shop.

The Krav Maga Program on Sunday, February 3rd, drew a number of children and adults who enjoyed learning and testing out the maneuvers in this self-protection technique. We thank Karen Feller and Carol Carswell in getting this organized and Ceil Randell in helping to locate a Krav Maga Instructor, Sonia Menendez of Symmetry Martial Arts in Jupiter.

Sisterhood members, along with a few husbands who helped out, were “Greeters” at the February 9th Temple Shabbaton at Jonathan Dickinson State Park. Members who participated in getting attendees signed in, and giving out the water bottles, sun screen and other needs for the day, were Karen Feller, Carol Carswell, Lois and Richard Remick, Lois and Sandy Edelstein, Jackie Halderman, Debbie Schmidt and Carole Levine. Thank you to all.

Coming up on Thursday, March 7th is our trip to the Morikami Museum and Japanese Gardens. This is both a guided tour and lunch at this fantastic Museum and Japanese Gardens. We have extended the RSVP date to February 28th (and this is a serious RSVP date). Thank you Sue Freedland for all the work you did for this event.

The next Sisterhood Monthly Meeting will be Thursday, March 14th, at 7:00pm and we hope to see our members come out to the meeting with ideas for next year.

B'Shalom

TBA SOCIAL ACTION/ MARCH 2013 "THE THIRD PILLAR"

FAMILY PROMISE: Please consider volunteering for our hosting: March 10-17th. Contact Lois at lorem47@bellsouth.net, 627-7736, or Debby at debbysbaker@gmail.com 748-3688 with your volunteer preferences (the specific shift dates and times are on the chart included in the Scribe) or sign up in the TBA lobby. There are two (2) new families in the program as of the time this article was written: a mom, dad & 5 yr. old boy (both parents found jobs & started working in their 1st week in the program); and a mom & her 15 yr. old son & 9 yr. old daughter. She is looking for a job as a medical assistant & has 10 yrs. experience. We look forward to meeting them & hosting at Oceanview Church. (Update: Nadine & Jasmine graduated to transitional housing through the Lord's Place.)

GOT WORK? NEED WORK? KNOW SOMEONE WHO DOES?

There are many people in our Temple community who are either employers looking to fill positions or future employees looking for work. Recognizing that it is sometimes difficult for these people to find each other, TBA will be starting an on-line Job Board to help bring these two groups together. Planning for this project is still in its earliest stages. Please keep your eyes open for the survey that will be posted on the website and the weekly Constant Contact. The more people who offer feedback through this survey, the better we can build a user-friendly site that will directly address the needs of both employers and job-hunters.

TEMPLE BETH AM FOOD PANTRY- COLLECTION FOR HEAD START FAMILIES: The TBA Head Start Food Pantry, in its second month of operation, has already surpassed expectations. In January, our collective donations filled enough bags of food to feed 22 families (115 people)! This month we exceeded that by having enough non-perishables to add 4 additional families to our roster, thanks to your support, the support of local businesses and the Palm Beach County Food Bank.

Based on the collections we have been receiving from our Temple members, it is evident that our community is really coming together to help make a difference for our neighbors in need of basic necessities such as food and toiletries. Volunteers are continually needed to keep this project going. Please contact Robin Schafner at 561-310-1335 to find out how you can help.

ST. GEORGE'S SOUP KITCHEN: March 18th (3rd Monday every Month): We continue to serve between 170-200 hungry adults and children every month. Thank you to the 5th graders who decorated cookies for St. George's this month. Besides providing dessert for the monthly dinners we serve, the students learn about hunger and how they can contribute to the solution to this serious local problem. Contact Marcy to reserve a volunteer spot: Marcy@campmataponi.com.

HELP NEEDED FOR OUR FOOD PANTRY

The Head Start Food Pantry is growing at a rapid pace thanks to the help of The Palm Beach County Food Bank. Last Friday the Food Bank contributed fresh fruit and produce in large crates to supplement the non-perishables we collect from our Temple families. As a result, we are in need of volunteers who would be able to pick up the food on Fridays at 1:15pm in Lantana. We need someone with an SUV or TRUCK, as well as muscles to pick up and deliver the food to Head Start. We will also need volunteers to go to Head Start on Friday afternoons to sort and package these items (no muscle required).

We are also in need of volunteers to go to the green market on Clematis Street on Saturdays at 1:30pm to pick up bread from the bakery vendor and deliver that bread on Mondays to Head Start. This is such a wonderful program and will only keep growing with your help.

BOOK CLUB

Carole Meshil

The next scheduled book club meeting will be on March 11th, at 10:30am, at Temple Beth Am. We will be discussing The Lion, The Lamb and the Hunted by Andrew Kauffman. This is a gripping psychological thriller that will involve you in Patrick Bannister's story from the beginning. He is a reporter with investigative skills that put him on a search for the true story behind the disappearance and murder of a 3 year old child after he finds evidence linking his dead mother and uncle to the crime. The dialog is real, the characters well drawn and the story engrossing.

We welcome everyone to join us, and if you can, go for lunch afterwards.

TOP OF THE HILL GANG

Edie Wolf

A new group is forming at Temple Beth Am and you can be part of it! The Top of the Hill Gang is designed to offer Temple members, couples and singles, aged 55 and older, a variety of activities and events that will appeal particularly to them. A recently formed committee met on Sunday afternoon, February 10th to discuss ideas and plan some initial events. Some suggestions include a visit to the Busch Wildlife Sanctuary, a matzo-making demonstration, a trip to the Norton Art Museum's Norton-At-Night, Havdalah dinners and speakers, a wine-tasting event and many more.

We'd like to be able to send out notices to you via e-mail so if you are interested in being on the email list, please contact Marge Wolfson (Lhmgw@juno.com or 561-575-2376) or Leona Usher (Lju561@gmail.com or 561-694-0290) to let us know of your interest. And if you do not have a computer, please let us know! Regular notices will also appear in the Temple Beth Am Scribe so watch for news of our happenings!

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

David Sherman, MJEd

You may remember that, back in November, we collected gently used Halloween costumes to send to our friends in Tzahar, our partnership region in northern Israel. They LOVED them and here is a photo of them unpacking the boxes of costumes that they received.

March is full of ways to connect with your TBA community:

Here are some of the highlights of our March calendar – as always, you may get more details on our website, www.templebetham.com:

Friday, March 8th: Friday Night LIVE with Rabbi Alon, Cantor Tanya, Brett Tancer, and special musical guest Beth Schafer, and...YOU! (All Religious School Grades and their teachers will be honored at this last FNL of the Year!)

Sunday, March 10th: 6th Grade Car Wash, 9:00am – noon: Please bring your dirty cars to help support the 6th grade's trip to the Miami Jewish Museum & Holocaust Memorial.

Sunday, March 17th @ 9:45am – 10:30am: Passover workshop for parents who need new ideas to put a little oomph & wonder into your Seder! Please come with ideas of your own, as well, to share with others. A light nosh will be served. (Ideal for parents with children of ALL ages: 3 – 83!)

Sunday - Sunday, March 24th, 26th & 31st: No classes – PBC spring break! Enjoy!

Coming in April: 2013 – 2014 Religious School Registrations!

L'hitraot,
David

Join us for Shabbat Services on the 4th Friday of the Month at 6:30pm for “Simply Shabbat”

featuring a separate Prayer Adventure for ages 5 through 10 in addition to our regular Shabbat Service.
This month's Simply Shabbat will be held on March 22nd.

It has been said before, and as a product of Jewish summer camp myself, I must agree that Jewish summer camp is the MOST transformative Jewish experience you can offer your children. As many of you know, Camp Coleman is our AWESOME local URJ (Union for Reform Judaism) camp. We are privileged to have a few kids/tweens/teens in our own Temple community that have spent their summers there. Here is the story from one of our high school youth group teens:

Hello, my name is Seth White. I go to Jupiter High School and I love the outdoors! Sometimes, just getting outside and riding my bike through the forest can really help relieve me of all the stress of “teenager-dom.” When my dad brought up the idea of going to a summer camp back in 2009, I whole-heartedly agreed. That camp was Camp Coleman.

My first time at summer camp was almost cancelled mid-session because of the swine flu epidemic. As it turned out, I stayed and found the most wholesome, down to earth, all-around Jewish place in the world. It's a haven for children/teens to develop strong Jewish connections, build morals, and gain so many great experiences. Don't get me wrong, there are still the campfires and canoes of traditional summer camp that we all love, but trust me, when it's time to go home, they won't want to leave. Picture our recent Temple Beth Am Shabbaton we had at Jonathan Dickinson State Park, and multiply that by 30!

It's hard to put my enthusiasm into words when I look back on having come together with over 300 Jewish individuals in song and prayer, laughing and crying, for one entire month in the serene foothills of Georgia. What I can say for certain is that it was without a doubt worth every penny.

Since then, I have gone back for two more awesome summers (my 8th grade and 9th grade summers). I went back because once I had entered the open arms of Cleveland, Georgia - surrounded only by clay, friends, and Judaism - I really didn't want to part from it. This summer I will also be going with Camp Coleman to Israel (I'm very excited for that). If you have a child and you want them to truly EXPERIENCE Judaism with kids their own age and make friends for a lifetime, Camp Coleman is the place to go!

Scholarships for Jewish summer camps are available and interested parents should contact David Sherman for more information.

We have so many great activities in store for March! Please check your email inboxes, the Temple foyer, or the TBA calendar for the upcoming YEP event details!

Preschool News

March, 2013

Paula Deakter
Preschool Director

Rock on, Shushan!

Thank you to all of our Preschool Parents who enjoyed a rockin' good time at our TBA Preschool Purim costume parade and celebration on February 22nd! All of our preschoolers were so excited to celebrate one of the most festive and animated of all Jewish holidays. We've all been waiting for the opportunity to get dressed up in costume! And thank you to everyone who donated a box of macaroni—they make great graggers (noisemakers), which is a necessary ingredient for the Purim play as we don't want to hear Haman's name. Then all the unopened boxes were donated to the Head Start Food Pantry, which will feed some of our community neighbors who might otherwise go without.

In preparation for the holiday, all of our classes also made hamantaschen, which are three-pointed filled cookies that remind us of Haman's hat, and filled shalach manot baskets which are meant to be given to others as a sign of friendship and good will.

One thing is for sure, TBA Preschoolers know how to have a good time!

Hear Ye, Hear Ye...Summer Camp and Fall Registration Available!

Don't miss your opportunity to secure a spot for your child in one of the most sought after preschool programs around!

Registration is now available for our wonderfully creative and interactive summer camp program, as well as for the Fall. Children of all ages will have a great time spending their days with friends and their favorite teachers. Submit your forms today so your child will not miss out!

Spring Intersession

We will have Spring Intersession at the end of Spring Break on the following days between 7:30am and 5:30pm:

Wednesday, March 27
Thursday, March 28
Friday, March 29

The fee for the three days of Intersession is $150, or a single day is $52.50.

L'Dor v'Dor

Please join us on March 8th at 5:30pm for our last Kid's Camp Shabbat of the season as we celebrate L'Dor v'Dor, from generation to generation. As always, there will be lots of fun in store as we celebrate Shabbat in a family friendly atmosphere.

Mock Seder March 20th—Parents Invited

Please join us for our Passover Mock Seder on Wednesday, March 20th at 9:15am, as we re-tell the story of Moses, Pharaoh and the Exodus from Egypt. Parents are welcome to share our Passover foods and to participate as we sing our songs of freedom. We hope to see you all there!

We hope to see you all out at the PTO's Annual Night Out and Auction on Thursday, March 7th at 7:00pm here at TBA. We are so excited that this year's honoree is our own PTO President extraordinaire, Amy Russell!

MARCH BAR MITZVAH

MARCH 23, 2013 BAR MITZVAH OF AARON STEINHART

Cubby, Lynn and Donny Steinhart are very excited and proud to announce that our son (and younger brother) AARON will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, the 23rd of March, 2013 at 10:00am.

Aaron is a 7th grader at Independence Middle School where he has continued his fine study habits and good grades. He has been a member of the IMS Baseball team since he was a 6th grader. He is involved with and loves all sports including baseball, basketball and football.

He has continued the family tradition of being an avid Buffalo Bills fan and like his brother Donny is somehow convinced that they will finally win a Super Bowl before he attends his grandson's Bar Mitzvah. He has been a great BIG brother to his 4 neighbors and to his 3 cousins. Aaron has been a great supporter and huge fan of his older brother Donny since the day he was born.

Aaron has worked his tail off to prepare for his big day. David Sherman and the Temple Beth Am Religious School staff have been a tremendous help since his first days at TBA. David's patience has not gone unappreciated by Aaron's parents. Aaron has gotten additional help in completing his studies from Cantor Tanya and Rabbi Alon. The entire Steinhart family is grateful to all of these people for their help and support.

Speaking of the Steinhart family, Aaron will have a huge cheering section of teammates and family members and friends to help support and celebrate this great occasion. If you have time, drop in on Saturday, March 23rd. We hope many of you from Temple Beth Am will join us on this great day in Aaron's life.

The Grandparents Circle
Where Judaism takes shape for children being raised in interfaith homes

Jewish grandparents in the greater Palm Beaches can now gain the skills and techniques to nurture and, in some cases, establish their interfaith grandchild's Jewish identity through The Grandparents Circle.

This FREE program, created by the Jewish Outreach Institute (JOI) and implemented locally by the Commission for Jewish Education of the Palm Beaches (CJE), includes a five-session course, a connection to family-friendly events and a national email discussion forum providing a supportive online community of peers.

Registration is required.
Please call 561-209-2607 or email e.simon@cjepb.org to register.

Spring sessions will meet at:
Wycliffe Country Club
4650 Wycliffe Country Club Blvd.
Wellington
Tuesdays, 10:00 a.m.
Feb. 12 • Feb. 19 • Feb. 26
March 5 • March 12

Mother, daughter, wife, sister...friend.

As a woman, you play many roles for the people who are most important to you and, by choice or circumstance, wealth manager may be in your repertoire. In fact, in one out of four U.S. households with a net worth of $1 million or more, a woman is calling the shots when it comes to investing and spending money.¹

Since your wealth touches many lives in many ways, it's vital to get advice from a reliable source. At Morgan Stanley, you can expect to work with a Financial Advisor who invests time in understanding your specific situation and has the experience and resources needed to help you prepare for the future.
