ADULT LEARNING WITH RABBI ALON

by Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot and Simchat Torah are behind us and I'm excited to begin my Adult Ed classes. This year I'm inviting you to join me in three classes:

Mussar:

This class is a new territory for me, since it combines learning and practice. Last Fall I flew to Chicago for a special seminar to learn how to facilitate it effectively. It was one of the most spiritual experiences way my daughter took Physical Education in high school – online. While she acquired some knowledge relating to the human body and nutrition, it had no effect on her physical fitness. In the teachings of the Mussar movement we find some of the deepest intellectual ideas, but learning them without the appropriate practice will not advance us spiritually.

So, what is Mussar? In modern Hebrew, it means Ethics, but it is much more. Mussar is a thousand years old school of thought that helps us to honestly reflect on and recognize our characteristic and traits to allow us to move from where we are to where we want and should be. The premise is that all our traits can be placed

Sunday Torah Study:

On Sundays, when our wonderful Religious School is in session, I invite the parents and other adults to learn some Torah. I will be leading an hour of a discussion-based study either on the weekly portion or another Jewish theme. Everyone is welcome to buy a bagel from our Youth Group and join us. No RSVP or long-term commitment is required.

Intro to Judaism:

Last May we celebrated an Adult B'nei Mitzvah with 17 of our friends. When I asked them how they wanted to continue their Jewish Education, many of them told me that they feel the need for a comprehensive knowledge of Judaism. That may include Jewish history, understanding the meaning and practice of festivals, Jewish philosophy and more. I loved the idea and decided to invite anyone who wants to embark on this journey. The course will run for 16 weeks. Everyone is welcome: Jews and non-Jews, those who had Bar/Bat Mitzvah and those who have not, those who have prior knowledge and those who don't.

I am looking forward to seeing you in these classes.

B'shalom,
Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

I ever had. Because of the special nature of this class the number of participants is very limited and it has a cost that goes directly to the Mussar Institute.

I was introduced to the teachings of Mussar early on in my Jewish studies. But only recently did I understand that the way my teachers taught me the material was akin to the on a spectrum. For example, let's take the spectrum pride-humility. The idea is not that we should move from pride to humility, but rather, find where we are now on the spectrum and where we should go. Too much humility is as bad as too much pride, and we therefore should find the right balance between them (see more details in the ad on page 15).

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Carol Carswell

We have now finished the month of Holidays.

The High Holy Days have passed and weren't they wonderful. The Services were held in our almost finished, beautiful new Sanctuary. The music was glorious, the sermons moving and how about the terrific speech made by the President? Oh, that was me, so let's move on. Marcy Morris has a beautiful voice and I love it when she sings with Cantor Jessica.

By now I hope you have all made your High Holy Days pledge. If you haven't, the pledge card is on the back page of this Scribe.

A separate but equally important pledge is for Chidush. As I said in my speech, we would love to have 100% congregational participation and support.

Welcome to our new Board member Kerrie Rhoades.

Thank you to the people who put up the Sukkah and helped clean the garden.

Our first Shabbat dinner of the new year was held. It was delicious but what else would we expect from Chef Eric?

One of my favorite holidays is Simchat Torah. It is so joyous and I love the unrolling and rerolling of the Torah and the Rabbi's brief version of what the whole Torah says.

It seems as though we just started our fiscal year but we have to start thinking about next year. Under the leadership of our past president, Mark Slifkin, the Nominating Committee for Board members for next fiscal year will be formed shortly. The By-Laws require 3 congregants in addition to 2 Board members to serve on this committee. If you are interested in serving on this very important committee, please let Mark know by December 15. Email him at mslifkin7@comcast.net. At the same time, start thinking about whether you would like to apply to serve on the Board. We will be asking for people to apply in the next few months and the Board could certainly use you.

As usual, the night before Thanksgiving we have our Annual Interfaith Service.

This is the 20th year that we have done the Interfaith Service with JupiterFIRST Church and St. Peter Catholic Church and it will be held in our new Sanctuary. I love this Service. It is so spiritual. It is not to be missed and by the way, if you come, get here early because no matter in which House of Worship we hold it, it is standing room only. Also, contact Gali Levkovitz at galilevkovitz@gmail.com about baking cookies for 1,200 people. You don't have to bake them all, just contribute.

Our Board members' names are always listed in the Scribe. We value your input so talk to them anytime. If you have comments or questions, you can call me at 561-236-3022 or email me at carolcarswell509@comcast.net.

B'Shalom,
Carol Carswell

CHIDUSH CAPITAL CAMPAIGN KICK-OFF 2.0

by Jackie Halderman & Hal Baseman

Dear Fellow Temple Beth Am Member:

By now, most of you have probably been to the Temple for High Holy Days or some other reason and have seen the Chidush renovations ongoing in the Sanctuary, Welcoming Center (formerly known as the ho-hum Lobby), and the Social Halls. Soon you will be able to see the completed improvements, as well as similar changes to the Youth Lounge, offices, kitchen area, the Clergy study, and the Chapel/Crying Room. We hope you like what you see.

Here are four very important points to consider:

1. The Temple really needed this face lift. Times have changed. Trust us, we have required these improvements for years. And now we have them. Yay!

2. The design incorporates everything we needed. Not everything we wanted. But what we needed. That is an important distinction. We don't have unlimited time and money. However, every light, speaker, fixture, and color combination has a purpose. It all works.

3. This is your Temple and these are your improvements. The people who helped design, plan, and run the committees, including this Capital Campaign Committee are doing this for you. Your job is to be a part of it, talk to us, participate, support it, and yes—provide constructive criticism if you want. Constructive input means you care. Caring is better than apathy any day. Caring leads to improvement. Improvement leads to sustainability and strength.

4. Last spring's Capital Campaign effort raised over 80% of the money we need. But we need more. We can only get that from you. We are a voluntary dues Temple; one of only a few in the nation. We cannot easily impose a building fee and we do not want to financially burden members to the point where they are not able to support the voluntary financial commitment for membership or the High Holy Days appeal. That would be a problem. Fortunately, we have some very generous, caring people who have given so much to Chidush already. Now we need all of those other generous, caring people that have yet to give to Chidush to step up and help.

Here is what we are planning next:

• In the next month we will contact those of you who have not yet given. Most of you will be called by a fellow Temple member during a telephone solicitation campaign. This will happen from November 10-20. When our volunteers call you, please answer and listen. Remember it is not easy asking for money, even for a very worthy, selfless cause. By the way, you do not have to wait until the call to give. You can contact the Temple office at any time and get more information on giving opportunities.

• Besides the money, it is critical that we get all of you to participate. Seriously, it is not just about the money. Many of us were around when we built the existing building, before that the trailers, and before that the Parkway facility. Each time, everyone who participated, and that was nearly everyone, played a vital part in the Temple life and in growing and sustaining the Jewish community in this part of the world. When we participated we transformed from a congregant receiving a service to being a part of something really good. The feeling is indescribable. Ask any of the people who were around then. Do not miss the opportunity. There may not be another one like this for a long time.

• If you cannot give much, then give something. Keep in mind there are many ways to give. There are dedications starting at $1,800 and going all the way up to $150,000—payable over five years. And we have commemorative bricks starting at $250 and going to $1,000. Or if you have another idea, please let us know. This is your Temple. You have a say.

• If you cannot give, then we won't pressure you. We are friends and it would not be right. But if you can give, now is the time. There is no better place to give than giving to your place, your Temple, your community.

Let us close by saying it once again. We are asking you for help. If we cannot ask you, then who can we ask? You never let the Temple down in the past and we are confident the Temple can count on you now. We are all in this together, Kulanu as we say.

And so on that note, as the High Holy Days close and we look forward to the next year, we wish you and your family a very healthy, happy, and good year. We hope to see you often and for many, many good times in our new and improved Temple.

Thanks much,

Jackie and Hal

HIGH HOLY DAYS WRAP UP

by Debbie Baseman

Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, Cantor Jessica Turnoff Ferrari and Rabbinic Intern Brett Tancer were very busy throughout the year working on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur Services. This year, there were different readings, a few updated melodies to some of the Hebrew prayers we do in song, as well as a few interesting choices of secular music. Honors were also done differently in order to keep the flow of the Service going uninterrupted. But what didn't change was the way Rabbi Alon, Cantor Jessica and Brett worked so beautifully together to make our Services wonderful. What a magnificent clergy team we have! This was Brett's 1st time doing a High Holy Days sermon, and he did a great job. He also put together the musicians and the music, and directed the musicians throughout the Services. Cantor Jessica set the mood with her beautiful voice and her ability to bring warmth into the Service. And a very special thank you to Rabbi Alon for his guidance through the Services along with his sense of humor, and for his thoughtful sermons and messages which provided us the opportunity to pause, think, and reflect on the meaning of the High Holy Days.

A huge thank you goes to Mark Slifkin. Without Mark's tireless overseeing of our Temple's renovations, we never would have been able to do our Services in our building. He was the one who pushed the contractors to get to the point where we could be in our own Sanctuary for the High Holy Days, even though we are still a work in progress with much more work to follow.

I am also in awe of our custodial team of Roy Wright, Alfredo Montes and Alex DeLeon who spent many, many, many hours working unbelievably hard getting the Sanctuary and Social Halls cleaned (a never ending job with the construction going on right up to the last minute) and set up. Boy, do they need a vacation!

Thank you to Bob Hochman who organized the ushers once again this year. I would also like to thank our team of ushers: Mary & David Elias, Carole Levine, Jody Minde, Carol Sleeper, Vivian & Alegra Treves, Karen &

Bob Feller, Mark Goltzbein, Melanie Friedman, Nanci (& Bob) Hochman, Ralph Van Baalen & Chrissy, Brad Roffer, Sharon Bennett, and CK & Jack Tenenbaum. Thank you also to our greeters: Brian Cohn, Bruce Cohen, Mark Slifkin, Hal Baseman, Carol Carswell, Ben Levkovitz and Yoni the door holder.

Thank you Sisterhood for taking care of all the details for Selichot and for supplying the gifts of apple chips, honey and a shofar to all of the children after the Children's Service on Rosh Hashanah. See the Sisterhood Scoop on page 11 thanking those who helped.

Once again, we managed to pull off a pretty wonderful break-the-fast thanks to our resident chef, Eric Weiner, and his helpers Bruce Cohen, Gideon Kroyter, Bob Hochman, John Marzina, Bruce Starr, Brad Roffer and Alfredo Montes. Thank you also to Alfredo, Roy, Alex and crews for being able to transform the back of the Social Hall within minutes from a place of worship to a hall feeding 200 people. Amazing!!

My deepest thanks goes to Sharon Holinstat for doing the Yizkor Book once again for us. I am grateful to be able to always count on you to take on this project.

Thank you Debby Baker for once again handling our very successful Food Drive benefitting The Alpert Jewish Family & Children's Service. Their food pantry was low on food so our donations were very much appreciated. Thank you Lois Remick & Hal Baseman for handing out the Publix bags (thank you, Publix) during Rosh Hashanah. Thank you Jen Boss for your help with getting the food to the food pantry. Thank you Jupiter Auto Exchange for their continued generosity with the u-haul truck. Thank you also to our younger volunteers who helped load the food into the truck: Crew leader Ben Levkovitz, Jonah Cohn, Naomi Cohn, Asher Blatt, Jordan Kroyter, Aviva Senzon, Maddie Cohen, Meryn Rubenstein, and Benji Gans.

Thank you to all our wonderful "contractors" who put up the Sukkah:

Thank you to the entire staff at Temple Beth Am who worked above and beyond, every day, to help make TBA the best it can be. With the Temple being under construction, the working conditions are not quite, well, optimal. But, as the sweatshirts we wear when our office gets freezing cold (after being oppressively hot) say: "We make magic happen!" Thank you to Margot Hauser who loves the craziness that we go through leading up to the High Holy Days and who I love working with; thank you Melanie Goldsobel for your ever present optimism with your line "no problem—we can get it done;" thank you Elizabeth Howell for your marketing & communication skills; and thank you Carol Sleeper for being right beside me and working with me throughout the High Holy Days.

And last but not least, thank you to my wonderful husband, Hal Baseman. Without his support, I would not be able to do what I do for the High Holy Days. I thank God every day that I have him by my side. As he has done for MANY years, he did a great job in the parking lot—even when he gets abused by people who forget that he is a volunteer working during HIS holiday—sweating to help people find spots when there aren't any available or trying to protect the reserved spots for those they belong to. I love you, Hal.

It takes the hands of many people to "run the show" and I know I must be forgetting someone! Please forgive me if I failed to mention you by name, but know that your help was greatly appreciated.

JOIN THE TBA BOOK CLUB

The Book Club will meet next on Monday, November 7 at 10:30am at the Temple. We will be discussing THE MARRIAGE OF OPPOSITES by Alice Hoffman: a forbidden love story set on the tropical island of St. Thomas about the extraordinary woman who gave birth to painter Camille Pissarro—the Father of Impressionism. Growing up on idyllic St. Thomas in the early 1800s, Rachel dreams of life in faraway Paris. Rachel's mother, a pillar of their small refugee community of Jews who escaped the Inquisition, has never forgiven her daughter for being a difficult girl who refuses to live by the rules. Growing up, Rachel's salvation is their maid Adelle's belief in her strengths, and her deep, life-long friendship with Jestine, Adelle's daughter. But Rachel's life is not her own. She is married off to a widower with three children to save her father's business. When her husband dies suddenly and his handsome, much younger nephew, Frédéric, arrives from France to settle the estate, Rachel seizes her own life story, beginning a defiant, passionate love affair that sparks a scandal that affects all of her family, including her favorite son, who will become one of the greatest artists of France.

As is our usual routine, we will be meeting for lunch following our book discussion. This time we will meet at Carmine's: 4575 Military Road, on the east side of Military, North of Donald Ross Road.

BAR MITZVAH OF JOHN ABRAMS

With tremendous love, joy and pride we announce that our son John Henry Abrams will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, November 12, 2016 at Temple Beth Am.

John is in the seventh grade at Franklin Academy where he is in the advanced program and plays the saxophone in band. John enjoys anything Star Wars, gaming and playing with his dog. John volunteered to walk dogs after school at Furry Friends as his Bar Mitzvah project. John was so dedicated to his project that he adopted our newest family member Scrappy, who was rescued from being chained to live under a truck.

Sharing this Bar Mitzvah day will be his grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Abrams, Aunt Liz and Uncle Bob, sisters Julie and Ruthanne, several cousins, nieces and nephews as well as family friends. He will cherish the memory of his Aunt Roberta and Uncle Larry who would have loved to share this day with him.

A heartfelt thank you to the wonderful staff at Temple Beth Am for opening their hearts and making this day possible.

John, we are very proud of you, the wonderful young man you are becoming and look forward to watching you grow.

Good Luck,

Rochelle and Daniel Abrams

BAT MITZVAH OF TALIA BOCK

With immense happiness and love we are delighted to announce that our daughter, Talia Bock, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, November 19, 2016 at Temple Beth Am.

Talia takes tremendous pride in all that she does. She is fierce and competitive in all aspects of her life. A 7th grader at Lincoln Park Academy, she has remained on the principal's honor roll. She has served on the student council as treasurer and is a member of the Duke University Talent Identification Program. Talia is also a competitive dancer and dances six days a week and has received many awards and recognitions at both the regional and national level. She truly encompasses working on the mind, body and soul.

Talia is devoted to her community and has volunteered 45 minutes a week of her time for the last year and continues to do so to help assist in teaching younger children to dance. In addition, she has participated in Relay for Life for the past two years supporting cancer research and survivors. She has participated in two beach clean ups, and has brought cookies and spent time playing games with residents at a local assisted living facility.

We would like to extend a genuine thanks to all of her religious school teachers, Temple staff, Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, Cantor Jessica Turnoff Ferrari and Rabbinic Intern Brett Tancer for preparing Talia for this special day and instilling in her the knowledge and love that she has for her Jewish heritage. Along with her brother Nathan, we cannot begin to express how proud we are of Talia and all of her endeavors. We are excited and overwhelmed with joy as we get to experience this amazing tradition as she is called to the Torah and cannot wait to celebrate this very special day.

"Education is not the filling of a bucket but the lighting of a fire."

W.B. Yeats

There is much talk about the need to ignite a passion for learning in young children. In truth, the passion is there from the beginning. Anyone who observes a newborn's fascination with a ceiling fan or mobile sees the excitement of the child to make sense of her world. Too often as educators, we smother that passion with rote learning and standardized expectation. Our responsibility as educators and parents is to find a way to keep children's passion for learning. Perhaps if there were fewer requirements for sitting still, standing quietly in lines, less emphasis on learning by rote and more realistic and age appropriate expectations for children, we would inherently see children's passion for learning.

Dr. Lillian Katz, well known and respected researcher and author, contends that some early childhood classrooms are academic boot camps. Lillian Katz says that we cannot continue to stuff our children with academics, but that we must become more committed to understanding the whole child as a social and emotional being. Although math and science are important and necessary, knowing how to work together, think creatively and engage in investigation, observation and problem solving, are also important.

A child's passion for learning is visible in a playful classroom. It engages children and builds on their interests. The playful classroom has time and space for dance, music, gross-motor play, child-led storytelling and open-ended process oriented art. Children develop autonomy and have choices that determine their own level of participation. They are encouraged to express their opinions and ideas, and their voices are heard.

A joyful classroom also encourages a passionate way of feeling. Children and teachers sing together, dance together, cheer for one another and learn together. The teacher facilitates, rather than dictates, the process of learning which in turn enhances skills such as building social relationships and problem solving. The classroom has many opportunities for celebration, whether to honor accomplishment or commemorate an important event. Teacher and children engage in child-like wonder, recognize all that is good and give thanks.

To keep children's passion for learning alive, we say "no" to rote learning. Rote learning is learning by memorization. We find out what excites children by observing their play and listening to their conversations. Our teachers give them chances to share their knowledge and to look for answers with experts. Children can create displays of their new ideas. They use authentic tools and materials that they may physically touch and manipulate to inspire their creativity and passion. The passion is there and will stay as we create a love of learning that will last a lifetime!

HAMAKOM NEWS

by Alissa Frankel, Director of Education

Bringing Judaism Into Your Thanksgiving Festivities

Thanksgiving is a wonderful holiday because it focuses us on the things in life we have to be thankful for and we get to share a meal with those we love. It's also a good time to take a pause to think about the things you are thankful for.

It isn't a stretch to find the connections between Judaism and Thanksgiving. Here are some ways to incorporate Jewish ideas, traditions, and rituals into your thanksgiving celebrations.

- You can begin the meal with Hamotzi, the blessing over bread or other traditional Jewish blessings, like the blessing over the wine or the Shehecheyanu.
- Spend time during the meal going around the dinner table and talking about the things we are grateful for in our lives.
- Take this time to help out those less fortunate by volunteering at a food bank or soup kitchen or donating to an organization that fights hunger.

Reflecting on what you are grateful for and saying thanks are core values in Judaism. The time we spend during the holiday with our family and friends are the Jewish values of family and community. Lastly, volunteering and donating is doing a Mitzvah!

Just like with anything else, when we add our own traditions and make the holiday celebration our own we make the holiday even more meaningful and memorable to our family and friends.

Happy Thanksgiving!

The High Holy Days liturgy states that prayer, repentance and tzedakah help shape our destiny. It has thus become a Jewish Custom to contribute to the synagogue during the High Holy Days. In keeping with that tradition, at this time of year, we encourage you to respond to our High Holy Days Appeal this year with this Pledge Card. Please circle your choice.
