In This Issue...

Shanah Tovah everyone, and a happy 5784! Looking out my window it is hard to believe it is fall with the wet weather and hot temperatures, but luckily it is because it means all sorts of fun things happening at Temple Beth Am.

October kicks off with Sukkot and a chance to see the whole Torah on Simchat Torah! Fall also sees our season kick-off with a brand new adult ed class, as Rabbi Alon helps us grapple with today's hot button issues over breakfast using Jewish teachings as our guide. Musical Shabbat season also kicks off with Jazz Shabbat preceded by our new member welcome Shabbat dinner cooked by Gali. It's an evening of delicious tastes and sounds! Speaking of delicious, the 4th Annual Brisket-Off is taking place on October 29. Get your tickets early as this event sells out every year!

What else is going on? What isn't! Mens Club's always meaningful Veterans Day Breakfast is coming up as well as Sisterhood's important Lunch & Learn on crimes targeting seniors. TBA is taking a trip down I-95 (and down Jewish memory lane) with an outing to see Funny Girl at the Broward Center, and it's once again our turn to host the annual Interfaith Thanksgiving Eve Service!

Lastly, a personal appeal. We are looking to rebuild our Chesed (Caring Community) group. Please see page 11 for details and join us to hear how you can help. The commitment is small, but the impact on your fellow congregants and community is immeasurably big.

A MESSAGE FROM RABBI ALON

KVELLING

During my Rosh Hashanah morning sermon, I referred to the concept of Collective Effervescence as one of the major causes of awe. The term was coined in the early 20th century by the French Jewish sociologist Émile Durkheim to describe the sense of energy and harmony people feel when they come together in a group around a shared purpose. Collective Effervescence is the synchrony we feel when we slide into rhythm with strangers on a dance floor, colleagues in a brainstorming session, singing at a religious Service, or doing the wave at a baseball game.

Having the idea of Collective Effervescence in my mind during the Service, I couldn't help but notice the moments of Collective Effervescence, as we all joined in on the chorus of Hallelujah and when we said the Sh'ma as one voice. These moments were indeed powerful, especially after three years of a scarce in-person attendance. But then I noticed an even stronger emotion which I thought of as Collective Kvell and was wondering if it is a sociological term. After the Holy Day I did quick research and discovered that when translating the term to English, Collective Pride is indeed a recognized phenomenon.

The academic definition of Collective Pride is “the widespread positive emotion of a crowd celebrating a sporting or political triumph (i.e., occasions that people recall when something special or important occurred or was achieved which is taken by group members to ‘say some-thing positive about us’ and sensed by a person like a successful sports representative when he or she is the object of group pride and admiration”.

On Rosh Hashanah we had neither a political leader nor a famous athlete on the bima, but when our Junior Song Leader Jordan Weinbaum led the prayer of Sim Shalom and when our baal tokea (master of the blast—yes, this is the real term), Nate Goldin, blew the t'kia gdola (the long blast) for 50 seconds, the entire congregation experienced a Collective Kvell.

I remember many years ago reading in a church magazine an article that asked why the people in small churches care about their pastor's sermon when they can tune in to the televised celebrity preachers of the mega churches. The answer was that as good as the famous preachers on TV are, the congregants feel a sort of ownership in their church and their pastor that they can never feel for a mega church on TV.

Standing on the bima, looking at all of you, and then looking at Cantor Marcy, our musicians, the media team, and the ushers filled my heart with an enormous feeling of collective and personal kvell.

May we all have a year filled with many opportunities for kvelling.

HIGH HOLY DAYS

— NOTE OF APPRECIATION —

As I sit down to write this, we are between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, and so this is uniquely a thank you and a thank you in advance. It takes a tremendous amount of work to execute the High Holy Days and we are so grateful to everyone who makes it possible.

Thank you to all of our ushers, including Carol Carswell, Stan Bassin, Robert Feller, Karen Feller, Brenda Himelstein, Susan Marzina, Carole Levine, Iva Morris, Barbara Levine, Rick Levine, Scott Perry, Rose Morris, Barbara Rosman, Jerry Rosman, Jody Minde, Jeremy Gelfand, Liz Levine, Bruce Cohen, Tammy Webber, and David Kahn. Thank you to Hal Baseman, Peter Sanquist, Michael Walder, and Patrick Nicholas for assisting out by the portico. Led by Head Usher and Temple Beth Am President Mark Golzbein, our ushers perform safety scans, greet guests, direct attendees to their seats, and generally make everyone feel welcome. With hundreds of people entering at the same time, this is no small feat, and they step up to the plate every time!

Thank you to our volunteers, Mark Slifkin and Jeremy Gelfand for security, Gali Levkovitz for holiday dinner and brunch for the staff and volunteers, and Debbie Baseman for preparing mailings, going over supply inventories, and setting up to ensure everything for the holidays is at hand and ready to go!

Thank you to our musicians and the media team. This year we welcomed some new faces to both and if Rosh Hashanah was any indication, their presence only elevated the Services even higher, and we are all in for a treat on Yom Kippur. Thank you to musicians Gonzalo Gonzalez, Barbara Corcillo, Douglas Ferreira, Stoj Misericorski, Sarah Stout, Sha Zhang, Chris Ramsey, and Neel Shukla (as well as Nate Goldin, the best shofar blower around)! Thank you to our Media Team Jackie Goldwurm, Kerstin Ward, Claire Schnitzer, Anna Miller, Olivia Kahn, Julian Bois, Seth Slonin, and Yoni Levkovitz and to Access Sound Inc.

Thank you to Sisterhood for providing the shofars for all the children attending our Children's Service, and to all the teens and Sisterhood members who helped pass out tzedakah cans and bags for the food drive. And, of course, thank you to all of you for filling both and returning them to TBA!

Thank you to Temple Beth Am's maintenance team including Alex DeLeon, Maria DeLeon, Vicente DeLeon, Maria Perez, and Victor Lopez who really do the hard work behind the scenes, ensuring that everything is set up perfectly, cleaning up in a flash, and transitioning between Services almost as if by magic. Thank you also to Richard Remick and Alec Wisch who are on call during every Service ensuring temperature control throughout the building.

To our office professionals who handle all the logistics and programs: Margot Hauser, Yessenia Manon, Carolyn Tierney, Meredith Goodman, Alissa Frankel, and Brandon Gabay—thank you for seeing to all the holiday details that make the big picture come together. To our teachers who forego their holidays to babysit, the PBC Sheriffs Office for sending extra support, our security guards, and Jupiter Police for taking such great care of us as well as all our vendors, we are so appreciative of your service.

And finally thank you to our clergy, Rabbi Alon and Cantor Marcy, who start preparing months in advance to bring us Services that usher us into the new year with joy, meaning, and spirituality.

I am sure I have forgotten someone. Please know it is not intentional, as so many of you contributed to this wonderful Holy Day season. We are blessed and lucky to have you!

SISTERHOOD SCOOP

To all our Temple family who have returned to Florida for the cooler months...welcome back! We've enjoyed a wonderful summer and have prepared for many future events and lunches. We are grateful to all Temple members who participated in our Open House and expressed an interest in joining our Sisterhood. Much appreciation to Carole Levine and Marcy Brody for manning the Sisterhood table and answering inquiries for new and prospective members.

Helping others is a good effort to instill human dignity

In 2023, Sisterhood established a Mitzvah Project Program and our mitzvah projects are in motion for the 2023-2024 year. Our mission is to provide items for residents of nonprofit organizations. If you would like to join our program by sharing your time packing personal household items and other necessities that may improve the lives of these residents, or if you have any questions or ideas that will benefit our mitzvah programs, please contact Marcy Brody at marcybrody@gmail.com or 610.529.3050.

- Mitzvah project benefitting the residents of Vita Nova, Thursday, October 12 at 10:00am at Temple: Vita Nova provides independence for former foster care and other homeless youth through supportive housing, education, employment, and life skills training. We will assemble laundry baskets with household items for the young adults living there. To volunteer, please contact Shari Blitman at hairypooh@aol.com.
- Mitzvah project supporting the McKinney-Vento Education for Homeless Children & Youth Program, Tuesday, November 14 at 10:00am at Temple: The McKinney-Vento Education for Homeless Children & Youth Program ensures that homeless children and youth have equivalent educational programs provided for other children and youth. We will prepare personal care items for these children. If interested in volunteering, please contact Marcy Brody at marcybrody@gmail.com or 610.529.3050.
- Mitzvah project supporting Edna W. Runner Tutorial Center in Jupiter: Sisterhood will collect costume jewelry, either gently used or new, at the November 14 mitzvah project. Items can also be brought to the Temple's front desk during the month of November. The items will be delivered to the Center where children can "shop" for gifts for upcoming holidays and birthdays for family members and friends. For details, please contact Phoebe Shochat at phoebeswords@aol.com or 561.291.1817.

Please save the following dates on your calendars:

- Brown Bag Lunch & Learn—Seniors vs Crime Program with Marty Jacobson, Tuesday, October 10 at 11:30am: Open to all. This program serves to educate seniors about consumer fraud, con-games, scams, and other criminal acts. This is a program sponsored through the State Attorney's office of Florida. Please bring your own lunch. We'll collect non-perishable food and paper goods for the PBC Green Bag Food Project at this event. RSVP to Marcy Brody at marcybrody@gmail.com or 610.529.3050.
- Trip to Historical Society of Palm Beach County, Thursday, November 30 at 1:30pm: Their exhibit is Endless Summer: Resort Fashion Over 129 Years. Admission is $10 payable at the door. Located at 300 N Dixie Highway, West Palm Beach. RSVP to Carole Levine at jptrcaro@comcast.net or 561.339.3909.
- Tuesday, October 17 at 12:00pm: Lunch Out at Moon Thai and Japanese (5330 Donald Ross Rd, PBG)
- Tuesday, November 21 at 12:00pm: Lunch Out at Bonefish Grill (4635 PGA Blvd, PBG)
- Tuesday, December 19 at 12:00pm: Lunch Out at Creek Pub & Grill Restaurant at the Golf Club of Jupiter (1800 S. Central Blvd, Jupiter)

Birthday lunches are always provided by us. RSVP to Carole Levine at jptrcaro@comcast.net or 561.339.3909.

MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

Men's Club has had a busy summer. We had 43 guests at our August 26 dinner at Grande's Restaurant hosted by Rick and Barbie Levine. We participated in TBA's August Open House, providing and serving ice cream desserts to the children and adults. Thanks to Steve Nichols, Bruce Cohen, and Rick Levine.

In September, our indoor picnic at the Temple was well attended by 50 guests who enjoyed dogs and burgers with all the trimmings. Our thanks to Rick Levine, Bruce Cohen, Jim Banic, Jim Bloom, Ben Graybow, Steve Nichols, Emre Ergas, Mark Goltzbein, Rich Remick, Scott Ackerman, and Joe Meshil for making the September indoor picnic a sumptuous success, and a special thanks to Rabbi Alon for providing the beer.

Bruce Cohen was welcomed to our Men's Club Board, replacing Barry Ogrin as he and Eileen re-located to Boca. Barry will still be assisting with our Men's Club events, and we welcome that. Our recently elected Men's Club Board Members are Rick Levine (President), Bruce Cohen (VP), Harvey Silverman (Treasurer), and Scott Ackerman (Secretary), along with Steve Nichols, Jerry Rosman, and Mel Wolfe.

The Men's Club plans to hold monthly lunches at TBA, offering a popular way for all Temple members to gather in the chapel every month on a Monday for lunch and conversation. The cost will range between $10 and $20 per person, and advance reservations are required. October's lunch will be October 2 at 12:30pm with sandwiches from 3G's Deli. There will be another lunch at TBA on Monday, October 30 at 12:00pm.

On Sunday, November 12, at 9:30am, we are planning a Veteran's Day Breakfast. Check your inbox for updates.

Please mark your calendars for our new year kick-off dinner at Portobello Restaurant at 5:30pm on Saturday, October 21 (see below for details). We also have plans for a Hanukkah (Holiday) Dinner on Wednesday, December 6 at Juno Beach Fish House.

MEN'S CLUB SEASON KICK-OFF DINNER

Date and Time: Saturday, October 21 at 5:30pm

Location: Portobello Cucina Italiana
(351 South US Highway 1 in Jupiter)

Individual checks provided. We will be enjoying the restaurant's specially priced "Summer Sunset" menu and must be seated by 5:45pm.

RSVP to tbamensclub2@gmail.com by Oct. 18

Hosted by Scott & Cindy Ackerman.

GET INVOLVED

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Help elect future leaders to serve on TBA's Board of Directors by serving on the nominating committee. The bylaws require the committee be made up of three congregants and two board members, and that means we need you! This committee will meet beginning in January and conclude in March. If you are interested, please email the Temple office at tba@templebetham.com and a board member will contact you.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Are you ready to step up and lead? Members in good standing are invited to apply to join the TBA Board of Directors for a two-year term. Board members work on issues related to governance of the Temple, help make strategic decisions for the future, serve as Temple ambassadors, and work to ensure the success of Temple Beth Am. Applicants will be interviewed by the Nominating Committee this winter, and balloted by the congregation at the Annual Meeting.

CARING COMMUNITY INFO SESSION: THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12 AT 6:30PM

Help us rebuild our Chesed group at TBA. Join us to hear why it's important, what you can do, and ways we can all strengthen our congregation by taking care of each other. Whether it's cooking meals, visiting the sick, welcoming new members, or making phone calls—we can all help. Refreshments provided. Adults only, please.

In Jewish law, attending a funeral and burial is considered a mitzvah—a religious obligation. Judaism teaches that honoring, respecting, and caring for a person who has passed away, as well as the family that loved them, is considered one of the greatest mitzvot one can do.

When COVID started and we were not able to get out to visit our friends, neighbors, or our Temple community, the tradition of attending a shiva was greatly affected also. Now, as we find ourselves getting somewhat back to normal and able to go out and gather in person, we must ensure that the act of sitting shiva resumes as well. It is important for our Temple Beth Am community to join in when the need arises to be there for the families of ones that have passed.

With your help, we are starting a Temple-wide initiative called TBA Shiva Corp that will do this mitzvah when the need arises, to be with families for the ritual of attending, and to ensure a minyan for the reading of prayers. I can think of few things more important or meaningful than being there for someone as they go through this difficult time. The Men's Club has committed to help get Shiva Corp up and running, with the hope of partnering with other Temple organizations, as well as you, our congregants, to help continue and strengthen the tradition of helping families as they sit shiva. Sharing in this mitzvah is considered an act of kindness, and a means to provide time for spiritual and emotional healing for the loved ones. Sometimes just to be present can make all the difference in someone's time of mourning.

To get involved or find out more, please contact Bruce Cohen at bcohen561@gmail.com or 561.262.5598.

October/November Mitzvah Opportunities

Bedding and Blanket Collection for Peggy Adams

Give a shelter animal the gift of comfort! Donate your gently used and clean blankets, sheets, towels, and washcloths to be used as bedding at the shelter. You can also bring old t-shirts for our youth to turn into dog tug toys. Please drop off your donations to Temple Beth Am by October 27.

Cookie Baking for Interfaith Service

Temple Beth Am is hosting this year's Thanksgiving Eve Interfaith Service on Wednesday, November 22. As is our custom, we would like to offer our friends and neighbors home-baked cookies after we pray together. We're expecting a crowd of over 1,000 people and are hoping to be able to serve traditional Jewish treats like rugelach, macaroons, and hamantaschen, plus a variety of other cookies. If you enjoy baking and would like to participate, please sign up at bit.ly/tbacookies. Full details and instructions are in the sign-up sheet.

BACK TO BASICS

Collection for Back to Basics

The Back to Basics Angel Program provides nearly 10,000 needy elementary school students with the basic necessities of NEW sneakers, socks, underwear, and a wrapped toy each year during the holiday season. Temple Beth Am will be collecting items for 100 children this year.

HOW YOU CAN PARTICIPATE:

- 1) Select a Wish Card(s) with a child's name, age, and sizes on it from the display in the Temple Beth Am and The One School lobbies.
- 2) Wrap your gifts, place them all together in one gift bag, and tape the child's name to the outside of your bag to show the child's information. (If you prefer to donate an Amazon or Walmart gift card, we will do the purchasing for you!)
- 3) Drop your wrapped gifts off at the Temple by Tuesday, December 5.

Ongoing: St. George's Center

Temple Beth Am provides a hot meal monthly to 150 hungry guests at St. George. You can help by making a financial donation to the TBA Caring Community fund, or by volunteering to help cook on the third Monday of every month. To sign up to help cook in the Temple Beth Am kitchen, please contact Audrey Ades at audade@yahoo.com or Rich Remick at remtamb554@gmail.com.

A Message from THE ONE SCHOOL PTO

Dear One School Families,

The One School PTO had a wonderful start to the school year reuniting with friends, staff, and teachers at our opening events.

We loved seeing the students' excitement meeting with their teachers, classmates, and exploring their new classrooms at the Meet & Greet Ice Cream Social.

Our first Bake Sale of the year was a sweet success! We appreciate our volunteers and all the delicious treats from our talented bakers that brought out a long line of smiling faces.

TOS families had a blast at the Family Night Out Fundraiser at Das Beer Garden, making new friends and visiting with classmates.

We are looking forward to our first Wacky Wednesday of the school year on Wednesday, October 4, from 5:30pm-7:00pm. See flyer below for details. You won't want to miss this fun, social event on The One School playground. It is a great opportunity for our students and families to spend time together with food, drinks, and play time!

Sincerely, The One School PTO Board

How You Can Give to Temple Beth Am

HIGH HOLY DAYS APPEAL

Temple Beth Am asks congregants to give three times per year (VFC, High Holy Days, and Spring Drive) in order to fund our ongoing operations. This money is what allows us to bring you Services, classes, programs, events, holiday celebrations, community service, education, and much more. We strive for 100% participation in our High Holy Days Appeal. If you have not given yet to this year's appeal, please consider doing so.

Your donation ensures that we can continue to thrive as a strong vibrant congregation while removing barriers to participation in Jewish life!

You can donate online at bit.ly/tba5784 or call the Temple office at 561.747.1109 to donate via check (preferred) or credit card.

INTERFAITH SERVICE SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

We have several options available if you'd like to sponsor the Interfaith Service (hosted by Temple Beth Am this year).

Service Underwriter ($10,000)

Music Sponsorship ($5,000)

Cookie Oneg Sponsorship ($2,500)

Livestream Sponsorship ($180)

Flower Sponsorship ($72)

Call the Temple office at 561.747.1109 to sponsor via check (preferred) or credit card.

LET TEMPLE BETH AM BE PART OF YOUR RETIREMENT STRATEGY AND TAX SAVINGS

Once you reach age 72 (73 if you reached 72 after December 31, 2022), you are required to take annual Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs) from your retirement accounts. The IRA Charitable Rollover Law allows individuals 70½ or older to give up to $100,000 directly from their IRA to qualified charities each year without paying federal income tax on the distribution.

If you wish to make a gift to benefit Temple Beth Am, talk to your financial advisor about making a qualified charitable distribution (QCD) before December 31.
